The Indians were far from being on the war-path last Saturday at Concord and unless their all-around play, and particularly their spirit, looks a long way up this week end the probable result isn't too pleasant to think of.

Watertown is being touted as one of the best in the Greater Boston schoolboy ranks this year, with a veteran team that is big and fast and spirited. The Scarlet is, and should be, favored over Winchester on the basis of what the two schools have, and have shown up to now.

Winchester should, however, play much better than they did in their opening game last week, and just might give Watertown, possibly away up for Brockton last Saturday, a real ball game. The local boys are big enough to cope with any team, once they start driving, and if injuries do not deprive them of key players tomorrow, they can make a contest of it.

Defensively the Indians looked pretty good last week end, even without their two biggest linemen, Hennessey, injured on the kickoff, and Cullen, out with a bad stomach, and Dattilo did some effective tackling and the guard play of Cusack and Hennessey, which was in there, was very good. Bellino kicked very well, particularly for a sophomore.

No one in his sober senses can pick Winchester over Watertown tomorrow. It is a toss-up, but too shy of experience to use their potential effectively. The Star expects a better showing than that made at Concord, however.

The kickoff is at 2 o'clock. Watertown didn't go for the 1:30 opening.

GOSS — NELSON

Of interest in Winchester is the marriage which took place at the First Presbyterian Church in Escanaba, Michigan, on Saturday afternoon, September 12, when Miss Helen Joy Nelson, daughter of Mrs. Ludwig Nelson of Escanaba, became the bride of Donald E. Identical gowns of graduating shades of blue nylon were worn by the bride's attendants. Sprays of flowers matching their bouquets formed their headresses and they wore short nylon gloves.

WINCHESTER GRADE CROSSING ELIMINATION

SELECTMEN RECEIVE PROPOSAL FROM STATE DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WORKS

The Board of Selectmen has just received a letter from State Department of Public Works Commissioner John A. Volpe agreeing that Winchester's contribution to the project for the elimination of the Winchester grade crossing and construction of a diversionary bypass across the Skillings estate will be limited to $100,000.

Therefore the Selectmen are calling a special Town Meeting on Thursday, October 22, 1953 at 7:45 p. m. for the purpose of appropriating these funds. This meeting will be preceded by a public hearing on Thursday, October 15 at 7:45 p. m. at which time full information on the project will be available to anyone attending.

The total cost of the project, including the by-pass, now proposed by the State Department of Public Works is estimated at $800,000.

The plan as presented is the result of years of study by the Engineering Department of the State Department of Public Works. Countless studies have been made by the state engineers, and many others by engineers of the Boston & Maine Railroad and consulting engineers employed by the town, and incorporate suggestions from many townspeople.

The proposed bypass for through traffic around Winchester Center will start at Main street and Washington street near the Junior High School, include an enlarged traffic circle near the Town Hall, from where the new road will go through the Skillings property, across the Black Pond, under both pairs of railroad tracks, out on to Main street in the neighborhood of Blind Bridge street. The elevation of the railroad tracks will include new platforms and the raising of the station at Wedgemere.

Under the plan, the railroad will become an underpass; a new underpass will be constructed so that traffic can proceed under the railroad along Common street and Waterford road; the underpass in Winchester Center will include a large traffic circle, and the Swanton street bridge over the main line will be changed to an underpass.

The Swanton street bridge over the Woburn road will remain as it. The Board of Selectmen are working actively with Thomas Worcester, Inc., engineers employed by the State Department of Public Works for the project, to provide the fullest possible information to the town at the special Town Meeting and the hearing to be held the week previous.

The Selectmen expect to have present at the special Town Meeting engineers representing the State Department of Public Works and Thomas Worcester, Inc. Every effort is being made to show those interested exactly what is contemplated.

This special Town Meeting which the Selectmen are calling for October 22 will be held at the Town Hall, 25 Main street, at 7:45 p. m. The purpose of discussing and voting on the project. The matter is of sufficient importance so that it is felt that a full and uninterrupted evening should be devoted to its discussion. At a later date another special Town Meeting is to be called to vote principally on the High School project. Other matters such as Rent Control and the report of the Personnel Board will be considered at the second meeting.

JOHN W. ELLISON INSTITUTED

The Church of the Epiphany was the scene of an impressive ceremony last Sunday afternoon when the Reverend John W. Ellison was instituted as sixth rector of the Parish by the Episcopal Bishop of Massachusetts, the Right Reverend Norman B. Nash.

Using the ancient order for the Institution of a Minister into a Parish from the Book of Common Prayer, Bishop Nash conducted the service before a large gathering of parishioners, town representatives, and friends. Also taking part in the service was a large group of invited clergy as follows:

The Very Reverend Henry B. Washburn of Cambridge, Reverend William S. Packer of Winchester, the Reverend Henry E. Edgerly of Winchester, the Reverend Malcolm Taylor of Boston, the Reverend James L. Tryon of Medford, the Reverend Philip Krug, Assistant Minister, Christ Church, Cambridge, the Reverend Professor Joseph F. Fletcher of Cambridge, the Reverend Z. A. Jeffery of All Saints' Church, Stoneham, the Reverend Harold T. Handley of the Church of Our Redeemer, Lexington, the Reverend Warren N. Bishop of the Church of Our Saviour, Arlington, the Reverend Halsey I. Andrews, of St. John's Church, Arlington, the Reverend Raymond Calkins of Cambridge; and, representing the Winchester Churches were the Reverend Dr. Dwight L. Cart of the First Congregational Church, the Reverend Robert A. Storer of the First Unitarian Church, the Reverend Virgess Hill, of the New Hope Baptist Church, the Reverend Walter L. Bailey of the First Baptist Church, the Reverend John Snook, Jr., of the Crawford Memorial Methodist Church, the Reverend A. J. Skeirik, of the Second Congregational Church, and the Reverend Lawrence F. Baile of the First Congregational Church.

Because they had previously scheduled services in their own Parishes, the following clergymen regretted that they were unable to attend: the Reverend Herbert Driscoll, Pastor of the Immaculate Conception Church, Winchester, the Reverend John Manion, Pastor of St. Mary's Church, Winchester, the Reverend Howard R. Lewis, Trinity Church, Woburn, and the Reverend August Dun, Jr., Grace Church, Medford.

High points of the Service were full of symbolic acts. The Senior Warden of the Parish of the Epiphany, Mr. Albert S. Crockett, handed the large wrought iron key to the front door of the church to the new rector, saying, "In the name and behalf of the Parish of the Epiphany, I do receive and acknowledge you, the Reverend John W. Ellison, as Priest and Rector of this church." Bishop Nash also gave into your hands the keys of this Church." Bishop Nash also presented to Mr. Ellison copies of the Bible, the Book of Common Prayer, the Constitution and Canons of the Protestant Episcopal Church with these words, "Receive these Books; and let them be the rule of thy conduct in dispensing the divine Word, in leading the Devotions of the People, and in executing the Discipline of the Church; and be thou in all things a pattern to the flock committed to thy care."

The special music included singing by the congregation of the Gloria in Excelsis and of Psalm 26. The choir sang as an anthem "Hear My Prayer" by James.

Following the service some five hundred people gathered at the Parish House to greet and welcome Mr. and Mrs. Ellison. In the receiving line with the new rector and his wife, were Bishop and Mrs. Nash, Mr. and Mrs. Albert S. Crockett, and Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell McCreery. A large committee, headed by Mrs. Hollis Dyer, the Vice-President of the Church Service League, was responsible for the arrangements for the reception.

Mr. Jardine was a member of the Winchester Fells, particularly in the vicinity of the town Water Shed, ordinarily closed to the public, will be held this year on Saturday, Sunday and Monday, October 10, 11, and 12, under the auspices of the Water and Sewer Board.

96th BIRTHDAY

MRS. TILLEY HAD ANNIVERSARY MONDAY

Mrs. George W. Tilley of 5 Lloyd street observed her 96th birthday Monday, September 28, by holding open house at her home to celebrate her family, neighbors and friends, old and new. Guests dropped in to extend congratulations and best wishes throughout the day and well into the evening. Among out-of-town guests were Mrs. Tilley's niece, Mrs. Margaret Brown of Newburyport, Mrs. Brown's son, Clement, and his wife and small son, "Clem, Jr."

Many flowers received during the day with other birthday gifts decorated the house for the late afternoon and evening festivities, and Mrs. Tilley received many cards and other messages of congratulations. Among the guests who called was Mrs. H. N. Bernard, who years ago was Mrs. Tilley's next door neighbor on Cutting street. Mrs. Albert Crockett, who as the young Margery Tower lived near Mrs. Tilley, brought flowers from the altar of the Church of the Epiphany.

Mrs. Tilley was also pleased to receive a birthday call from the Epiphany's new rector, the Rev. John Ellison.

Every one who called to express birthday felicitations was invited to Mrs. Tilley's one hundredth birthday by the sprightly little lady whose keen wit and sense of humor have not been dimmed a bit by the years.

She has lived in Winchester for half a century and has been alone since the death of her husband, keeping her home and caring for herself in a way to win the admiration of every one. Her health and grasp of things are remarkable and she recalls many an interesting incident of the old days when she and Mr. Tilley came to Winchester from Newport.

A friend to all, young and old; always ready to help or inspire, Mrs. Tilley is beloved by all who know her. The Star joins her particular admiration society in extending its personal congratulations and is looking forward to greeting "Emily" on that hundredth birthday she jokes about!

LOCAL MEN IN HOLY NAME RALLY

Over 45,000 men of the Holy Name Societies of the Archdiocese of Boston, numbering 350 parishes, gathered at Fenway Park last Sunday, September 27, for the Fifth Religious Rally for Men since 1947. Sponsored by His Excellency Archbishop Richard J. Cushing, D.D., the keynote of the Rally was "Personal Holiness". Pledge cards signifying extra devotions to be performed by the men between now and Christmas were placed in special containers in front of the beautiful outdoor altar. Preceding the religious portion of the festivities there was a tremendous exhibition wherein 1,000 American flags from over 300 parishes were carried in parade by Holy Name men and who formed a huge cordon around the entire field as a climax of their endeavors. Over 800 Holy Name men acted as ushers for the day while under the Transportation Committee facilities for over 400 buses were maintained.

The three hour long assemblage included an address by the Archbishop, a religious pageant and massed field demonstration and solemn pontifical benediction. The Adjutant General's office said the display of flags was the biggest gathering of flags in one spot in New England. Flag bearers stood three deep in a perimeter enclosing the seated participants on the field. Four crack C. Y. O. Bands took part while more than 1,700 Priests marched, many from 24 Religious Orders. Approximately 3,500 marchers took part in the hour long religious procession with the Red, White, and Blue caped Holy Name "letter men" who are Presidents of their own Parish Units, contrasting sharply with the black, white and brown habits of the clergy. The Presidents were flanked on either side by other Holy Name men to form the huge H. N. S. letters.

In his address the Archbishop asked, "What does it profit a man to gain the whole world and suffer the loss of his own soul?" He called upon the Holy Name men to strive for personal sanctity, without which all else is vain, empty and pointless.

Taking part in the festivities were James F. Murphy, St. Mary's President in the Letter Section on the field with William McCormack assisting in forming the letters.

Flag Bearers were Anthony Doyle, Laurence Erhard and Thomas Morrissey. Vincent Erhard served as Vice-President of Field Demonstration and Spiritual Director Rev. Joseph McCall marched with the Clergy.

The immaculate Conception parish was represented by Rev. Herbert K. A. Driscoll marching with the Clergy with President Sam Kinton and Joseph Zaffina in the letter formation. Flag bearers were Timothy Connors, Albert Thorne and Clement Landry. Winchester members of the Executive Board of the Woburn District were William J. Croughwell and Vincent Erhard. The Woburn District is made up of parishes in 12 nearby communities.

ON TUFTS DEAN'S LIST

TO PRESENT JOHN ALLAN MAY

On this coming Thursday at the Music Hall the Winchester Mornings will present Mr. John Allan May, distinguished foreign affairs expert of the Christian Science Monitor. He will lecture on the Current International Scene.

Mr. May, a native of England, was educated at London University. Before he was twenty-one he was established as a free lance writer in Fleet street and a story teller on the British radio. At the outbreak of World War II he joined the Navy as an ordinary seaman and rose to command of torpedo boats. Twice sunk in action, he returned each time to sea.

After the war, as the Monitor's roving expert on the Marshall Plan, he followed the progress of American Aid. He also saw the beginnings of N. A. T. O., covered the rise of the British Labor Party and the return to power of Winston Churchill. During this period he began the delightful humorous column "Come What May".

Mr. May has just returned from a summer in Europe.

HEART MEMORIAL CONTRIBUTIONS

During the past three months, gifts in memory of 4 former residents of Winchester have been received by the Massachusetts Heart Association. Such gifts, honoring the memory of friends and business associates give new hope to the living by their investment in cardiac research.

Tributes to the memory of the following late residents of Winchester have been made:

Mrs. E. S. Mansfield, Lucy A. Danforth, Kenneth Hiscoc, and Laura Silvano.

All gifts have been suitably acknowledged to the families of the deceased, and a receipt is sent to the donor for the purpose of income tax deduction.

PHIL IN SCENE DESIGN AT CARNEGIE TECH

Marshall R. Phil, Jr., having completed his second year at Harvard College, has now transferred to Carnegie Institute of Technology in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, where he is enrolled in the College of Fine Arts majoring in Scene Design.

During the past summer Marshall worked as Assistant Art Director for Richard Aldrich's Music Circus where he was in charge of Scene Design. Also, during the summer, he found time to design the scenery for two of the three plays put on by the Harwich Junior Theatre, designing sets for both Pinocchio and Treasure Island. It was during this interim that Marshall definitely decided to make the change from Harvard to Carnegie Tech., realizing finally that that was the field of the theatre where he wanted to work. He was fortunate to be able to take this course since it is very limited, having professional standing, and rated as one of the foremost courses in this field in the country. Since Marshall's ultimate goal is to take a Master's degree at the Yale Graduate School of the Theatre, the training at Carnegie Tech will be indispensable.

SEELYE WINS IN SENIOR GOLF TOURNAMENT

In the annual fall tournament of the New England Senior Golfers' Association held at the Weston Golf Club last Thursday, Nelson H. Seelye of the Winchester Country Club turned in the low net in the Gold Star Class (over 80 years). Mr. Seelye's score was 114-74. Fred P. Hayward of Brae Burn, also in the Gold Star Class, carded 112-84.

The tournament program prescribed nine holes for the Gold Star Class, but both Messrs. Seelye and Hayward played the full eighteen holes.

Our well-known townsman, Nelson Seelye, who has passed his eighty-eighth birthday, is remarkably active for his years, and is the last remaining active golfer of the group who were members of the Winchester Golf Club and participated in the organization of the Winchester Country Club in 1902.

Other Winchester seniors who played in this tournament were: Alfred M. Bond, W. D. Eaton, G. S. Paetli, Theodore W. Smith, J. W. Blackman.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

Andy Saraco entertained a large group of his friends at his home on Farrow street, Sunday afternoon, September 27.

He received many nice gifts and after the packages were opened games were enjoyed, indoors and on the lawn before the serving of delicious refreshments featuring a big birthday cake.

TEACHERS' SUMMER ACTIVITIES

Work, study and travel were again the favorite vacation pursuits of Winchester teachers, according to a recent survey conducted by the school department. Though many a non-teacher has pictured the school marm's summer as a life of ease, only a handful of teachers enjoyed that enviable status.

For most of the men and not a few of the women on the staff a summer job helped to keep the family exchequer in balance. The wide range of these teachers' interests and abilities is seen when their varied positions are listed. They included those of road engineer, camp director and counselor, recreation director, boys' club worker, summer-school teacher, silversmith, carpenter, painter, printer, contractor's helper, guest-house operator, waitress, and excursion-boat captain.

Summer school lured a sizable number of teachers for the traditional busman's holiday. Boston University, Harvard University of New Hampshire, University of Innsbruck (Austria), Boston State Teachers College, Fitchburg Teachers College, and the Hyannis Summer School were among the schools enrolling Winchester teachers. Attending the conference of the New England Association for Supervision and Curriculum Development, held at the University of Connecticut, were Miss Leonard Rich, principal of the Washington and Noonan Schools, and Miss Sybil Daniels, science teacher at the high school.

The majority of those who traveled during the summer, confined their trips to the United States and Canada. A fortunate few, however, were able to spend their vacations learning about the people and countries of Western Europe at first hand. Visiting France, Switzerland, Italy and England with other Winchester people, Mrs. Ella M. Stacy found time to study German at the University of Innsbruck in Mayhofen, Austria. Miss Eleanor Arlantis attended the International Conference on the Role of Music in the Education of Youth and Adults, held in Brussels, Belgium, under the auspices of U.N.E.S.C.O. in collaboration with the International Music Council. Also traveling in the British Isles and on the Continent were Mrs. Sylvia Backer and Miss Mary McAuley. An extensive auto tour of Spain, Switzerland, and Norway was taken by Mrs. Everett Bolster, who reported favorable impressions of the comparative prosperity and stability of that country.

For those teachers who neither worked nor traveled, summer days provided opportunities to catch up on a myriad of household chores, to read the books for which there is never time enough during the school year, to enjoy a few quiet hours free from the pressures of the classroom.

WYMAN BOARD MEETING

The third meeting of the Wyman Mothers' Association Board for 1953-54 was held Tuesday evening, September 29th, at the home of the President, Mrs. Charles P. Reeves.

The hope of making a gift of a television set to the school has had to be abandoned, as a proper one for school use is too expensive. It is expected that eventually TV will come to all the schools through the School Department. Mrs. Reeves has obtained from Miss Lowry, however, a "Christmas List" of a number of other items which are badly needed by the school.

Plans for the fall meeting at 7:45 p. m. on October 15th, feature a talk by and informal reception for Dr. Harry V. Gilson, the new Superintendent of Schools.

Mrs. Thomas Hill and her Ways and Means Committee are progressing rapidly with plans for an informal dance on November 7th, which gives promise of being as successful in every way as the one held last spring.

Since Dr. Volta Hall's talk to the mothers at the last annual meeting was so thoroughly enjoyed, it was decided to ask him to address an evening meeting in March.

Delicious refreshments were enjoyed by the Board after the close of the business meeting.

CITIZENSHIP DAY AT NOONAN-WASHINGTON SCHOOLS

Citizenship Day was appropriately observed at the Noonan and Washington schools recently, when the pupils of Grades II through VI gathered in their respective assembly halls to present special programs. Citizenship Day in our schools is sponsored by the State Department of Education to encourage an understanding and appreciation of the privileges and responsibilities of citizenship in a democracy.

The program at the Noonan School, with Joseph Butare as the announcer, was as follows:
Salute to the Flag
Singing of "America"
Grade VI — Explanation of why we celebrate Citizenship Day, our Rights and Duties under the Constitution
Grade II — Foreigners Can Be Citizens, Too
Grade III — An Original Song
Grade IV — A Good Citizen's Code
Grade V — Original Stories, followed by a Group of Patriotic Songs Singing of "America the Beautiful"

A similar program was presented at the Washington School.

WYMAN TEACHERS' LUNCHEON

Miss Lowry, Mrs. Poirier and the Wyman teaching staff were entertained at luncheon on Wednesday, September 23rd by the members of the Board of the Mothers' Association at the charming home of Mrs. Henry Howes. The weather was perfect, the food delicious, and a delightful time was had by all.

Charles "Chick" Johnson of 19 Fairmount street is among the leading candidates for line positions on the Springfield College varsity soccer team this season. Springfield was run-up to Dartmouth in the New England Intercollegiate Soccer League last year and opens its 1953 schedule October 3 at Cortland.

FUMBLES PAVED WAY TO WINNER'S SCORES

An alert, spirited Concord team cashed in on its two scoring opportunities last Saturday afternoon, converting two deep field Winchester fumbles into touchdowns that gave the Patriots a 13-0 victory over the Indians in the first football game between the two schools since 1939.

Concord deserved to win. Considerably outweighed by Winchester, it played with a lot of spirit and seemed much further along than the Indians, whose big linemen were continually outcharged by the lighter Maroon and Gold.

For all its edge Concord showed nothing like a sustained offense, and had it not been for a couple of local errors the game might well have ended in a scoreless stalemate. Neither team really threatened on its own throughout the game, though Winchester early in the game did reach the Concord 12.

Concord made five first downs to three for Winchester and had a rushing edge, 100 to 57. The Patriots completed one of seven passes for nine yards, lost 35 yards in penalties and fumbled twice, recovering once.

Winchester completed two of 10 passes for 18 yards, lost 45 yards to the officials and fumbled five times, recovering twice. The second half of the game was very even statistically with Winchester making two first downs to Concord's one and rushing for 39 yards to 27 for the Patriots. Winchester completed one short pass out of four tries the second half while Concord threw only one aerial which fell incomplete. Concord lost 35 yards from scrimmage with Winchester losing 23.

The Indians lost a great chance to force the breaks by driving Concord back deep in its own territory right at the start of the game when Dave Pratt fumbled a towering punt in the midst of a circle of maroon jockeys. Concord recovering on Winchester's 47.

The big Winchester line was stopping Concord dead at this phase of the going, and Magoon had to kick, Bellino making a nice 20 yard runback which was nullified by a fifteen yard clipping penalty.

Bellino had to kick and a good runback by the Concord safety was also spoiled by a clipping penalty, the Patriots being forced back to their 46. Pratt pulled down Dougherty on an attempted sweep for a two yard gain. Dattilo murdered a sweep the other way for an eight yard loss and O'Brien hauled down Magoon away back on the Concord 21. Magoon kicked short and outside at the Concord 30.

Here Winchester made its only serious threat, Murphy bucking for short yardage and Pratt hitting O'Brien with a pass for a first down at the 15.

Bellino was dumped for a two yard loss on a pitchout, Murphy got back three on a buck and a pass was grounded. On fourth down Bellino was stopped at the 12 on a sweep and Concord took over.

The Patriots proceeded to rack up their first downs, advancing from their 15 to the Winchester 34 before an offside penalty and some great line play by Jim Cusack forced them to kick.

Magoon's kick was run back nicely by Bellino to the 35, but an other clipping penalty, forced the Indians away back to the one yard line.

Lindsey replaced Pratt at quarterback and Haggerty picked up four yards. With every one looking for a kick, a pitchout to Haggerty was called and over-eager Bobby bobbled the ball which rolled behind him into the end zone where it was eagerly pounced upon by Concord's Bob Downey. Bob Amundsen squarely blocked the try for point-after by placement.

Winchester had a chance shortly afterward when Mantini recovered Concord fumble at the Patriots 35, but Pratt stumbled and fell behind three man interference on what looked like a promising sweep after picking up only three, and Murphy bucked for the same yardage before Concord intercepted a pass at its 20.

A fifteen yard holding penalty stopped Concord and on the last play of the half, Capt. Rordan intercepted a Bouchard forward to bull and drive his way to the Concord 27, nearly getting away.

Winchester started well the second half, Pratt running the kick-off from the goal line to the 15 and Haggerty and Bellino making first down at the 25. Haggerty added three, but a pass over center was blocked and on the next play Haggerty again fumbled. Concord recovering on the Indians' 20.

Cullinane broke through for a first down at the 10, being tackled by Bellino. Bouchard squirmed through to the two and in two bucks Bob Davidson went over. DeTuzzo added the extra point.

From then until the final whistle it was even Stephen with Winchester having slightly the better of what going on there was. Several times the Indians looked like they might get going, but each time, a fumble, or penalty slowed their war-path paid down to a walk.

Cusack and Hennessey played well in the center of the line and it didn't help too much when the

At a recent all day conference of top officials of the American Motorists Insurance Company at the Hotel Statler in Boston Rep. Henry E. Keenan of Arlington stated that the "biggest increase in fatal traffic accidents during the past four years has occurred on the open highway where more and more motorists are losing control of their vehicles and plunging off the road." Figures were cited to show that out-of-control accidents increased more than 40 percent since 1948, in that year there being approximately 7,700 fatalities of this type while the total last year rose to 10,800 fatalities, an increase of 3,100. Rep. Keenan claims what the Star has long contended that excessive speed is the major cause of these accidents, though drowsiness and over-fatigue from long driving are also important factors. The answer would seem to be don't drive 80 or 100 just because your car will do it, and don't drive when you are sleepy or over-tired. The real answer, of course, is not to make cars that will reach the terrific speeds attained by modern cars, because with traffic constantly on the increase such speeds can be used in very few places. They aren't safe to use anywhere! However, as long as cars are built capable of doing 75 or 80 or 100 miles an hour there will always be adventurous spirits who will try to attain these speeds. That is human nature. The only solution is cars that will not go so fast!

However you may feel about raising the railroad tracks through town to eliminate the grade crossing for the benefit of the motorists, and the Star takes a dim view of the plan (with the exception of the diversionary highway through the Skillings estate), the Selectmen have done well to limit the coming special town meeting to discussing the elimination plans and costs. These items should furnish sufficient material for the consideration of any one town meeting. Those who have furthered the overhead, including the town fathers and state officials, undoubtedly feel they have worked for the permanent betterment of Winchester. You cannot quarrel with the "permanence" of their plan, once we get the great wall through town, but the "betterment" may still be open to debate! The Star, for one, would like to see the diversionary highway given a try before raising an eyerose through our Center at a cost of many millions.

LETTER OF COMMENDATION

Editor of the Star:
It is always a pleasure to bring to the attention of the Town instances wherein our young men are meeting the test and making good. The following will be of interest to "Laurie's" friends as well as those of his parents:
"Through Commanding Officer, Keesler Air Force Base, Miss. To A/3C Laurie M. Fessenden
I wish to take this opportunity to express to you my sincere appreciation for the fine manner in which you performed your duties while detailed to HQS Squadron Section, 3380th Air Base Group, Keesler Air Force Base, Miss.
It was a pleasure, even if only temporary, to have you under my command for duty. If at any other time I have you under my command in a similar situation, I will be more than pleased to take advantage of that opportunity. I extend to you my best wishes for your continued success and happiness in future assignments.
A copy of this communication will be made a part of your military records.
(Signed) Noel A. Leary

Airman Fessenden is now at Eglin Field, Fla., and so was in the Hurricane over the past week-end.

VOLUNTEER

FRIENDS OF THE WINCHESTER HOSPITAL

That "Volunteer" in the box on this page — this time it means for even as little as three hours a month and in a place that's critically important to the whole community — the Winchester Hospital. All private hospitals must depend to some extent on the willingness of the town folk to contribute time or money. This appeal is for your time; it's worth money to your hospital — much more than you may have guessed. Now don't turn the page! Maybe you've read this before, but maybe too you just didn't realize we were talking to you. Why, you're the one we've been waiting for all along if you can just manage one free morning or afternoon a month to give to your hospital.

Now here's a phone number. It's Winchester 6-1912 and rings Mrs. James B. Harlow who can tell you how to get in touch with the chairman of the various volunteer services. (If there's no answer, call Mrs. Richard Carens at Winchester 6-1357.) Right now help is needed particularly in these three ways — working in the hospital coffee shop, taking care of the patients' flowers, and mending hospital linen. The shop is so new and clean you can't help but enjoy being there. You'll even be taught how to make sodas and sandwiches along with waiting on customers and can become quite professional in no time. As to caring for patients' flowers, the upkeep here is time-consuming for the nurses but real fun and easy enough if you feel your artistic talent is limited to changing water and cutting off stems. And the mending — it's a fine art with some of you ladies and oh, what the hospital would give to have a few more hands at this work. Sewing is done in neighborhood groups for the sake of convenience and in good company over a cup of coffee just for fun.

Now don't delay! Call that number, Winchester 6-1912, or Winchester 6-1357, and start out the year helping your hospital. There's satisfaction in doing a job that's really needed. Here's your chance! Volunteer!

"JOHNNY GOES TO THE HOSPITAL"

The Star received this week, with the complete text of the author, a pamphlet, entitled "Johnny Goes to the Hospital", written for the staff of the Children's Medical Center in Boston by Josephine Abbott Sever of Lewis road, whom older residents of Winchester perhaps know better as the former Mrs. T. Grafton Abbott.

The pamphlet prepares young children for their first hospitalization by informing both child and parents what is to be expected of the youngster through the visit to a hospital of a little boy named Johnny.

Johnny goes to a hospital with a stomach ache, and experiences the preparation necessary to an operation, learning that at the worst being hospitalized is not terrifying, but much of the time can be fun. The pamphlet is cleverly illustrated by Mary Stevens and prepared under the editorial direction of Sydney S. Gellis, M. D.

Mrs. Sever, through her personal and professional experience is well qualified to write this pamphlet. Herself a mother of six children and grandmother of eleven, she was chosen Massachusetts State Mother of 1947.

"SLOW DOWN AND LIVE"

Success of the "Slow Down and Live" campaign waged in the eleven states of the Northeastern region was reported today by Registrar of Motor Vehicles, Rudolph F. King, Massachusetts member of the Co-ordinating Committee.

Instead of the expected seasonal bulge in traffic fatalities during the three-month summer period, there was a 3% drop in the number of deaths as compared to the 1952 toll. This means that 41 fewer persons were killed during June, July and August, despite the 4% increase in travel volume which set an all-time summer record for the Northeast region.

This safety performance was achieved because of the splendid cooperation of motorists and pedestrians with the enforcement and control officers who concentrated their activities on the reduction of speed as a deterrent to accidents.

"During the June, July and August campaign, several million 'Slow Down and Live' pamphlets were distributed in the participating states — 390,000 of which were passed out in Massachusetts," said Registrar King, "and the saving of 41 lives from traffic mishaps in the eleven-state area is proof that the slogan was well chosen."

WINCHESTER HOSPITAL NOTES

A forty-hour week was put into operation for hospital employees on September 28th, 1953. Because the hospital operates seven days a week, twenty-four hours a day, it was not an easy matter to rearrange schedules. However, many new employees, including nurses, have been engaged in the last few weeks, and because of them the transition has been effected very smoothly. The hospital is glad to bring its weekly hours in line with general practice.

GRANTS PETITION FOR GRAVEL REMOVAL

Under the provisions of the Zoning By-Laws, as amended, as applied to general residence districts, the removal of earth products, including gravel, may be authorized by the Board of Appeals, except when permitted as an accessory use, if its permission is obtained in accordance with the procedure and conditions set forth in Section 8 of the By-Laws, which provides that no permission shall be granted unless the Board shall find that the proposed use will not adversely affect the health or safety of persons living in the neighborhood or detrimental to the public welfare. It is also provided that if permission is granted, the Board shall attach to it such conditions and limitations as to manner and duration of use, as in its opinion are necessary to insure conformity with the spirit and intent of the by-laws.

The Board of Appeals held 22 hearing on the Fitzgerald petition on August 11, at which all members of the Board were present. Nicholas H. and James J. Fitzgerald represented the Fitzgerald Fuel Company and Nicholas Fitzgerald spoke in favor of the petition.

Present and either speaking or being recorded in opposition were Patrick Gallagher, 87 Cross street, Arthur J. Hewis, 91 Swanton street, Carlton Clogston, 26 Forest street, Fletcher Oakes, 29 Forest street, Patrick Allen, 266 Cross street, Mrs. Charles C. Carr, 31 Forest street, Hattie E. Snow, 39 Forest street, Ruth E. Enstrom, 4 Holton street, John Hall, 105 Cross street, Angelo Bruno, 121 Loring avenue, Anthony Bonsignore, 119 Loring avenue, Lawrence M. Woodside, 42 Lebanon street and Alice Winn, 22 Stone avenue. Letters opposing the application were received from Roderick and Albert MacDonnell, 21 Forest street, Charles C. Carr, 31 Forest street, and Lillian W. Snyder, 59 Highland avenue. The hearing was lively and personalities were not spared. Some of the objection to granting the petition stemmed from the Company's proposal to remove some old growth trees from the lot.

All the members of the Board of Appeals viewed the premises in question and after taking the matter under consideration for some time the Board reached the unanimous decision to grant permission to the Fitzgerald Fuel Company to remove gravel and other earth products from its lot in the general residence zone, with the following restrictions:

1. The lot in the general residence district shall be graded to the abutting sidewalk level of Forest street. No excavation shall be made below such level.
2. The banks between the petitioner's property and adjacent property shall be graded to a slope of not more than 45 degrees, or such lesser degree as may be necessary to support the adjoining property.
3. Both the petitioner's lots, including banks shall be graded to reasonably smooth surfaces and shall be covered with a layer of soil having an average depth of not less than 3 inches, and suitable for the growth of vegetation.
4. All surfaces shall be seeded for a growth of vegetation adequate to cover them.
5. All grading herein authorized and the covering of all surfaces shall be completed before October 10, 1953.

It was the unanimous opinion of the Board of Appeals that the proposed use, subject to the provided restrictions and limitations, will not adversely affect the health or safety of persons living in the neighborhood of such use or be injurious to the neighborhood or be detrimental to the public welfare.

HARRIERS WON AND LOST

On Friday the local runners traveled to Concord to meet both Concord and Wakefield. The Red and Black defeated Concord by a score of 19 to 42 but went down to defeat at the hands of a powerful Wakefield squad 23 to 34. This loss was the first for the locals after 20 straight dual meet victories.

The Winchester team started this season with only 4 lettermen from last year's state champions. At the opening meet, however, the team dated with the favorite to win, Concord, a promising junior, was out for the year with an injury sustained during the summer. This left Capt. Becker, last year's sensation Lou Farrell, and Hank Morgan as the nucleus for this year's team. A number of promising JV runners were expected to move up but they needed a bit more running experience and this season the Board shifted the divisional title, Wakefield, meant a lot of hard work. The squad pitched in with a will and last week appeared to have a long-shot chance to score the upset. However, on the day of the meet an injury to Hank Morgan and a virus attack that hit Charlie Govevets sidelined both, leaving a tough job to a comparatively green squad.

About 52 runners started and immediately Lou Farrell and Schwarz of Wakefield took early command, with John Becker in strong contention. This order continued for about a mile and one quarter when an unfortunate step on a loose stone resulted in a severe muscle pull for Lou. Schwarz sped by to take a commanding lead and won going away, missing the course record by only 5 seconds. Lou, running on courage, took the runner-up spot, with Becker less than a step behind. However, the next four positions were taken by Wakefield, which was the margin of defeat for Winchester. Much-improved Junior Dick Borggaard finished 8th and two newcomers showed promise when Bob Becker crossed the line 9th and Bob Smith 14th.

Against Concord the locals captured four of the first five positions, with only Davidson of the home team in 3rd breaking up a perfect score.

The JV team continued on the victory trail with a 23 to 34 win over Wakefield. The race was won by Dunn of Wakefield, with Wheeler in 2nd spot followed by three more of the Red and Black-clad runners.

The Winchester team journeyed to Woburn this Friday to run against the always-dangerous Orange and Black. The local runners hope to start a new winning streak against their traditional rivals.

Among the trophies to be given out are the Point Score for both juniors and seniors, Alden Sherman Series, and the Directors' Handicap Races.

The Alden Sherman Series will be decided on Sunday morning. The third and fourth of this six-race series took place last week end. Placing first in a heavy breeze on Saturday afternoon was Wm. Ledere. Jim Snow claimed second position and John Day third. Legere again claimed first place on Sunday, with Jim Newman and Rodney Long in second and third, respectively.

Peter Montminy sailed in for first place in the Junior Race last Saturday morning, with Peter Freyer just behind him. One more annual meeting and the season will be over.

The Club directors and members are planning to take the floats out of the water on October 12. All of the boats should be taken out for winter storage by that time also. The annual meeting and chowder party is scheduled for Friday night, October 16.

BURNETT HONORED

Wellington Parker Burnett, much better known to Winchester and B. C. sports followers as "Wimpy", was honored at a farewell party Monday evening at Blin-stub's in Boston on the eve of his departure for service in the Marine Corps.

"Wimpy", son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur G. Burnett of Wildwood street and a former Winchester High School football, hockey, tennis and swim star, captained last year's Boston College Hockey team and Monday night's party was arranged by the Eagles' hockey players.

More than 100 former players and friends of Burnett were present to see Bernie Burke, captain of Boston College's national championship hockey team of 1949 present "Wimpy" with a handsome traveling bag, the gift of the gathering.

"Wimpy's" father and his coach, the veteran John "Smokes" Falcely, were among those at the party.

Bob Derro, son of Police Lt. and Mrs. Joseph J. Derro of 433 Washington street, is among the members of the Freshman class at Harvard this fall. He is a 1953 graduate of Winchester High School, and played on last year's varsity football team.

METHODIST MISSION AND VISITATION

The Crawford Memorial Methodist Church is now in the midst of preparation for a Preaching Mission October 11th through the 16th. Special services will be held on Sunday morning and then Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday evenings at 8 p. m. The whole purpose of the program is in seeking to reactivate the members of the church in the Holy Habits of Christian living. Dr. Otis Maxfield of Springfield will be the guest speaker. Bishop John Wesley Lord has stated that "failure to observe spiritual disciplines in our lives weakens our Christian witness before the community and the world." In a world of speedy living, one thing should be a must in every man's life—his holy habits. Prayer, family devotions, grace at meal time, following Christian principles in all our actions, church attendance, supporting the church—these and other habits become an important antidote to the erosive forces of modern life. When we get too busy to carry out the philosophy of life which we believe in, then we are too busy.

So the Preaching Mission will be centered in these things as related to our home, business and social life. Covenants must be made by the members of the church and it is hoped that, from the renewing of our covenants, there will come a new spiritual surge which will not only affect the church, but the community as well.

Included in the program will be a special emphasis in church attendance for ten weeks following the Mission.

Dr. Maxfield, formerly with the Pastoral Counseling Center in Boston, will be on hand for private counseling, wherever needed.

TUESDAY GROUP

The new Board Members of the Tuesday Group of the Church of the Epiphany met Tuesday evening, September 22nd, at the home of the Chairman, Mrs. Warren D. Haley. Reports were heard and plans and projects for the coming year were discussed. Mrs. Richard Frazier, program chairman, announced that the Reverend Mr. John W. Ellison will be the speaker at the first meeting of the Tuesday Group which is to be held at the home of Mrs. Kenneth Colony, 6 Mystic Valley Parkway, at 8 p. m.

Among the Board Members present at Mrs. Haley's home were: Mrs. William Hopkins, Co-Chairman, Mrs. Edward Morse, Secretary, Mrs. Robert Nyere, Treasurer, Mrs. Richard Carr, Publicity, Mrs. John Bird, Hospitality, Mrs. Garrett Graves, and Mrs. Edward Little, Ways and Means, Mrs. Richard Frazier, Program, Mrs. Herman Shane, Representative to the Church Home Society, Mrs. Charles Blanchard, Nominating Committee, Mrs. Donald McLean, Cradle Roll, Mrs. Henry Fitts, Jr., and Mrs. P. Roland Hanson, Teas, and Mrs. Calvin Eldred, and Mrs. Norman Harris, Luncheons.

COOKS' KITCHEN TOUR

An invitation to the Cooks' Tour of six Winchester Kitchens, to be open from two to five on Thursday, October fifteenth, has been extended to homemakers in Winchester by the local Mount Holyoke Club.

Mrs. Richard Sawyer is Ticket Chairman for this scholarship benefit.

The six homes to be opened offer a wide variety of interest ranging from oldest to newest in Winchester. The kitchens vary from large to small, from Early American to Modern All-Purpose Kitchen.

The home of Mrs. George E. Connor, 403 Main street, which was built in 1740 and remodelled in 1942, is the former Black Horse Tavern Black Smith Shop. One of the oldest homes in Winchester, its charmingly remodelled kitchen is in keeping with its early origin.

In the home of Mrs. J. Norton Kidder at 18 Brooks street will be seen a newly remodelled All Electric kitchen, glamorized by color, truly a picture-book kitchen.

At 15 Lakeview road, where the efficient All-Purpose Kitchen has been remodelled, Mrs. Joseph Dolben will be hostess to Mrs. James Milligan of the Herb Lore Shop in Lexington. Mrs. Milligan will talk informally about herbs and their uses, and will display her many attractive herb creations.

Mrs. Robert M. Stone will show the All Electric kitchen in her 1953 Cape Cod home at 10 Wood lane, a new road off Fernway. The designer of this unusually artistic and personalized kitchen was Robert Minot, Associate Architect with Royal Barry Wills.

Another modern home kitchen will be on view at the home of Mrs. Harold Lewis at 43 Emerson road. Jerome Bailey Foster was the architect for this All Pine, All Electric kitchen designed around a functional work plan.

LIBRARY TRUSTEES ACTIVE

At an all day meeting in Greenfield last Saturday, Mrs. Langley C. Keyes, Secretary of the Winchester Library Board of Trustees was elected 2nd Vice-President of the Massachusetts Library Trustees Association. More than 300 library trustees from all over the Commonwealth of Massachusetts gathered at the Hotel Weldon for the 1st annual meeting of the Massachusetts Library Trustees Association.

There are 2,100 library trustees of 315 libraries in Massachusetts. The organization of this large group was begun a year and a half ago. The Executive Committee of which Mrs. Keyes has been a member since its formation, is very active and during the last year, problems and policies of libraries throughout the Commonwealth have been carefully studied.

Twice during the past year, President Eisenhower (in his Dartmouth Speech and in his letter to the American Library Association) has cited the challenge and opportunity which the free public library faces today. The Massachusetts Library Trustees have accepted their share in this challenge and are becoming more and more actively aware of their opportunities and responsibilities.

All members of the Winchester Library Board are members of the Massachusetts Library Trustees Association and of the Massachusetts Library Association.

METHODIST SPIRITUAL LIFE MISSION

The Crawford Memorial Methodist Church is making final plans for its Spiritual Life Mission, which begins next Tuesday evening at 8 p. m. Services will also be held Wednesday, Thursday and Friday at the same hour and the final service will take place the following Sunday, which is being designated as Family Sunday. The Mission is for the purpose of deepening the Christian life experience.

The church feels its responsibility in nurturing the Christian life and this special emphasis is designed to help the church in this work with the active, inactive, and casual members.

It has been said that we must form spiritual habits or our souls will die. The observance of Holy Habits in one's life has become a necessity, if one is to survive the corrosive forces of our times. Fathers and mothers should not fail to see the tremendous value in training the child to develop Holy Habits, especially with juvenile delinquency at a new high.

Members of the church and friends of the community interested in these special meetings are welcome to attend.

Special stress is being placed upon family devotions, grace before meals, prayer life, church life and other important habits of the Christian life.

Discussions will follow each service and Rev. Maxfield will be available for personal interviews or counseling.

She received the degree of Master of Laws from Boston University and entered into the practice of law. year, Mrs. Reynolds sends the following message to its members and to the friends of the Republican Party:

"People are prone to be lax between elections, but may we remind you what a task it was to get the elephant on his feet and moving for 1952. Don't let us all lapse into our typical apathy again."

This club is a working organization, educationally and financially. It is for your benefit. It is to have meetings that keep the Winchester women informed so that they can be an accurate source of intelligent information on the activities of the Republican Administration, on both State and National levels. By knowing the facts and aims of our Republican leaders, the meetings can better promote the interests of the party."

A luncheon at one o'clock on Tuesday, October 13th opens the season for the Winchester Unitarian Women's Alliance. New members of the church will be welcomed as guests of the group.

"Inspiration From a Star" is the theme of the program which follows. Mr. Robert Storer will introduce the subject with a resume of the history of Star Island, illustrating with colored slides. Reports from the delegates to the various Unitarian Conferences held there will be made by: Mrs. Robert Williams on Religious Education; Mrs. Walter Keyes for Alliance Week; Charlotte Nutter and Ted Mansfield for American Unitarian Youth Week.

The Selectmen's announcement of the special town meeting to consider the appropriation of the $190,000 as the town's share of the damages incurred by the construction of the overhead railroad tracks through town and the diversionary highway through the Skillings estate, has posed the question of what happens if the town, either at the meeting, or by referendum after the meeting, refuses to appropriate this money. The Star asked Chairman Greer of the Selectmen and he frankly said that he did not know. The problem then, he believes, would become the State's, and though Mr. Greer felt that in view of action taken in connection with the construction of State highways, the Commonwealth would have the authority to proceed with the project in Winchester, he refused a prediction of what its action would be if Winchester should now indicate it does not want the overhead. There is no doubt that some of those who have favored the great wall through Winchester are now not so sure they want it!

IN APPRECIATION

Editor of the Star:
Through your paper, I'd like to express my appreciation for the wonderful luncheon at my home, prepared by the Winchester Homefronters, that greeted us when my son, Lt. Myer, was returned recently from Korea. Everything was so beautifully and completely served that I could not be a great pleasure to me to recall the thoughtfulness that went into it and the generosity of the many merchants and friends who added so much to the happiness of Allan's return.

My family join me in thanking you all for the bountiful repast and lovely floral decorations. There was not a thing for us to do but relax, eat and have a wonderful family gathering, which we shall always associate with your kindness.

Affectionately,

FLOWERS APPRECIATED

Editor of the Star:
May I share, by means of your column, a letter which I have recently received from the Winchester Flower Mission this summer were distributed through the South End House and the Norfolk House Center in Boston. The director of the Children's Program at Norfolk House writes in part —

"I have delivered the flowers myself this summer with the eager help of some of our children, and have been amazed at the pleasure one bouquet can give to an old person, convalescent, or a mother in our neighborhood. I might add too that the children on our playground ask at 5 minute intervals on Tuesdays, 'Are the flowers here yet?' and go proudly off the playground, sometimes bearing only three or four petunias. So thank you, we hope you'll continue to be 'our back yard gardeners.'"

This letter is especially intended as an individual thanks to each person who has contributed so generously to the work of the Flower Mission during this past season. I have expressed my gratitude to the weekly chairmen, Miss Hattie Snow and Mr. Charles Forester, who have faithfully contributed flowers each week. The Baggage Master at the Station has been equally faithful in his handling of the hampers.

Despite the dry gardens, we have had many other people who have experienced the light that an early morning jaunt to the station with a small bouquet can give to one's spirits. Many thanks to each of you.

Sincerely yours,
Elizabeth S. Williams

PICKETING INCUBATING COMMUNISM

Editor of the Star:
Our Government has surrendered to the U. S. Stalin Labor Leaders who closed the ports of the country to the free commerce of the world. Cargoes were left to rot in the holds of ships because stevedores were forbidden to unload them or to allow anybody else to do it. The loss to the port of New York alone was estimated at a million dollars a day; thousands were inconvenienced; laborers who would like to work, who needed the money to support their families, didn't dare to cross the picket lines. Travelers returning from abroad were obliged to sneak home by way of Canada, a sorry spectacle, humiliating when our country exhibits to all the nations of the world its inability to manage its own affairs, to keep its ports open and free to all the world, while, at the same time, it is telling them what they should do with the billions we are giving them.

Picketing is another name for inciting, threatening, and occasionally resorting to the violence of hoodlums. Our forefathers made this country the "land of the free and the home of the brave." In the Constitution they promulgated liberty and freedom, guaranteed to all. The Constitution and the Bill of Rights were the priceless gifts to the people from the minds of patriots. How far have we departed from the precepts and wisdom of the effulgent beacon they raised for us, have our leaders become cowards unworthy of their heritage?

"Give me liberty or give me death," said Patrick Henry. His was the spirit of the patriots of '76. Ill-equipped, ragged, and half-starved, they never faltered, fought on to the glorious victory of Yorktown, giving us the blessings of liberty and freedom. Shall we let them down? As affairs are proceeding today, we may not long continue to sing with the old-time fervor, "My country 'tis of thee, sweet land of liberty."

Daniel C. Dennett, M. D.

PUBLIC HEARING IMPORTANT

Editor of the Star:
In the October 2nd issue of the Winchester Star, the Selectmen have given notice of a Public Hearing on October 15 to discuss the land-taking on account of the proposed Grade Crossing elimination. This Public Hearing precedes the Special Town Meeting called for October 22 to vote on this item.

This article of October 2 disclosed the estimated cost of the railroad project to the town of Winchester for its part (land-taking in the amount of $190,000).

The Selectmen also state that later a Town Meeting is to be held on the school construction project which no doubt will call for a sizeable appropriation. These two projects would boost our tax rate to a point as yet not known. Education and school buildings are more important than the inconvenience of delay at the present railroad crossing. Schools should come first.

It is hoped that careful consideration will be given by all taxpayers and it is very important that they attend this hearing to be held Thursday evening, October 15, at 7:45 o'clock at the Town Hall to learn what the over-all cost will be. While the estimated cost of the railroad project is $6,000,000 it is doubtful if a bid can be obtained within this amount. In any event, the raising of the tracks is an ill-conceived project and at a cost to the State and the Town that is not justified.

It is hoped that all those persons who are now opposed to raising the railroad tracks attend this important hearing, (along with those persons who favor it) and that all Town Meeting Members will attend this meeting to hear the expressions of opinion of the people they should represent at the Special Town Meeting on October 22.

And again, let us remember that schools and education should come first.

LINCOLN SCHOOL NEWS

The Mothers' Association of Lincoln School had its Fall meeting of the year on Wednesday, September 30, in the school auditorium. Each of the teachers was introduced to the group by their principal, Miss Cunningham, who also gave a short talk on the extreme importance of parent-teacher cooperation for children in the early grades. Our new Superintendent of Schools, Harry V. Gilson, was given a hearty welcome on his initial visit to the group.

Mrs. Kenneth Cullen, President of the Lincoln School Mothers' Association presided over the meeting that followed where preliminary plans for the annual Halloween Frolic were discussed. She introduced her Board Members as follows:

2nd Vice-President, Mrs. Sidney Tully
Treasurer, Mrs. Anthony Gillette
Cor. Sec., Mrs. Fred Palmer
Rec. Sec., Mrs. Charles Fish

WHY TRAVEL BY FREIGHTER?

On the Atlantic
30.30 West 38.40 North
(near the Azores)

Editor of the Star:

When we tell friends who don't know from their own experience why we like to travel "by Freight" or they look at us sometimes with pity — sometimes with amazement — to think that we should prefer it to the larger liners, but let me tell you about this ship.

In the first place, it is Swedish so new that it has not been in active service a year as yet. It is 420 feet long and about 6,000 tons which is not large. But it is the most complete piece of mechanism you could find on all the oceans.

The crew is mostly Swedish and numbers 33 men. Most of them understand English and several speak it well including all the officers. It's a good crew, happy, hard working and later you will understand why.

This ship is privately owned. The Captain and Chief Engineer are brothers, both very fine men and they have worked for the owner and his family for almost 30 years. So what more natural than that these two should have been asked to take part in the planning and supervise the building of this ship in Sweden for about two years. It has everything. There seems to be no refinement lacking, nor any possible aid to navigation or communication or cargo handling.

Let me see if I can describe things so you can picture this ship. About 1/3 of the distance back from the bow is the main superstructure the top deck of which is the Chart Room and Bridge. Immediately below this is the Boat Deck. In the middle of this are the Captain's quarters consisting of Office, large Lounge and Cabin and Bath. On either side of the Captain's quarters are two enclosed verandahs immediately under the open Bridge. A life boat on either side still leaves plenty of open deck space.

Below the Boat Deck forward are three fair sized rooms. A Smoker, Lounge and Dining Room, the latter seating six in all. Immediately aft of the Dining Saloon is the Owner's Suite which we occupy and the Guest Room, both with private bathrooms complete. (You see this ship was not meant to carry passengers but the owner had built into it quarters in which he and his family could travel as on their private yacht.) On the other side of this deck are cabins for the senior officers, each with bath.

On the main deck below are more cabins, rooms for the officers, another for the crew and the Officers' Lounge. Near the stern on this same deck is a deck house where lives the crew. Every man has his own individual cabin. There's a bunk in each one, of course, and in addition a chair and desk and ample lockers for the men's better clothes. (A separate locker room is provided for their working clothes.) There's two rooms here with showers, etc. There's a laundry with electric washing machine, iron, etc. which the men can use whenever they want. And there's a game and reading room for them. There they play cards and chess and enter Radio Chess Tournaments with other ships. Do you see now why the crew seems a happy lot of men?

Yesterday I went below decks with the Chief Engineer to see the Engine Room because the Captain and Chief Engineer, having seen this ship grow from the keel up, are immensely proud of it as they have every right to be.

The ship is driven by a Diesel engine of seven cylinders. Each cylinder is about 25-inch bore with a 50-inch stroke. The maximum speed of the ship is about 15 knots.

And that is enough for cargo ships because while a few can do up to 20 knots, the North Atlantic is such that it is not often wise to try to go so fast.

Well, the Engine Room is a marvel of planning. Here, too, of course, are the electric generators which have to be ample to supply power for the diesels of which there are 10, all of them sometimes working at once. There's a boiler for supplying heat for the ship and hot fresh water for the baths. There are condensers and oil filters and air compressors and a multitude of the auxiliary equipment all so placed that the ship is kept on an even keel, each one readily accessible so that if necessary repairs could be made at sea.

The Galley is on the main deck. Immediately below is the store room where the food is kept in lockers and refrigerators. Not a single bit of space in this ship is wasted. The Galley (kitchen) would delight any housekeeper. Looking aft and therefore forward, there is a large window over the counter where food is prepared. Ordinary cooking is done on a large old burner stove. The oven is electric. And here again is every needed electric facility for mixing, paring potatoes, etc.

To add to the beauty of the cabins and general rooms of the ship is the cabinet work. Instead of painted steel partitions, the walls are paneled in mahogany and cirsian walnut. The workmanship is of the highest and the furniture is upholstered in fabrics made on Swedish hand looms. It just couldn't be better on the Queen Mary.

And now about what we do aboard.

First of all, meals. The Captain, Chief Engineer and we three passengers take meals together in the Dining Room with a special steward to wait table. The Captain suggested the following routine.

Coffee at 7 to 7:30 (in your cabin if you wanted it), breakfast at 9:30, afternoon tea at 2:30 and dinner at 5:30. We could have had it different if we wanted it but that seemed a good plan. Each meal lasts an hour to an hour-and-a-half because they all begin with Smorgasbord and then a main course which is different each meal. But the time passes quickly for these officers have been over much of the globe, their English is perfect and their tales of experiences are interesting and full of new things which we are hearing for the first time.

So after leaving port the Captain said "You may go on the bridge whenever you wish". So we have the complete run of the ship from top to main deck. The weather for the most part, even though it is February, has been mild enough to spend much time on deck. We've had a couple of days when the roll was pretty bad at times but mostly it has been reasonably calm and no one has been uncomfortable.

One more reason why we take freighters is this. When we booked passage, it was from New York to Genoa direct with no stops. As can always be expected, we were a couple of days late in sailing but when we boarded the ship we learned that we are stopping at Oran in Algeria. Perhaps when we get there we'll find some additional stops before we reach Genoa.

You see it's a sort of raband voyage. It's like having your yachting almost with the responsibility of ownership. The latter, however, has its compensations also apparently. We learn that this ship cost about 1,500,000 American! It's been on the water but 10 months and it has already pretty well paid for itself! Not a bad return for some responsibility.

I want to tell you some more about this ship and the crew and the cruise. Except for the second and third days (this is the tenth day and tomorrow early we shall be going through the Straits of Gibraltar) the weather has been comfortably warm and the sea unbelievably smooth. Yesterday it was glassy and almost looked as if oil had been poured on it to keep it that way. We've seen porpoises darting alongside and twice we saw turtles swimming alongside, trying desperately to get further from the ship's side.

Saturday night the Captain and his brother put on a moving picture show of Swedish scenes with sound, followed by pictures they had taken of life aboard ship and pictures of their homes and families. Incidentally, they and the crew will probably not get home for another year. But while we were at dinner yesterday, the radio man came to the dining room to summon the Captain and his brother, the Chief Engineer, to the Radio Room. "I have your family on the telephone for you now, sir". Every other day they talk with those from whom they are separated.

Last night after dinner, just before and after the change of watch, they showed the films to the members of the crew who gathered in the lounge. One picture which interested them mightily was a football game between their own crew and that of another Swedish freighter taken both in the United States and in Sweden. There is a regular Soccer League to which all the Swedish ships belong. Each ship has its distinctive uniform and they are very proud of their teams. There are also condenser and oil filters and Ping Pong and Chess and in the latter this ship stands next to the top.

The Officers are all proud of their crew. The Captain refers to them as "Good Boys all". Yesterday the Chief Officer who speaks beautiful English asked me "Does Peter speak English to you?" (Peter is the Saloon Steward about 21 years old.) I answered that he spoke little but seemed to understand pretty well. He should speak English to you", he said. "I am teaching him English". Then I learned that the Chief is holding regular classes for the crew in English.

These boys all sign on for at least a year and if you were on deck this morning you could see what a wonderful training they got. The crew, including officers, numbers 32. Except for leaving port and entering port and in bad weather the ship is steered by an automatic pilot. That means that a normal watch in good weather consists of only four men. A mate and one man on the bridge, an engineer, and motor man. There are three watches so that leaves about 10 to 20 men who work an eight-hour day but no work on Sundays.

Well, today they are mostly on deck. Some are chipping paint, other are using electric brushes to clean the rust off while others sweep very carefully before they begin to paint. Upon the bridge just now the carpenter and his helper are putting in some cabinet work. On the boat deck the electrician is doing a welding job while two others are putting over an engine room ventilator, a sort of steel shutter to prevent the intake of rain or spray. The Saloon and Cabin steward is up on deck dry cleaning the floor rugs. Everyone seems to have his job and knows what is expected of him.

A couple of days ago we sailed through the Azores. We sighted the island of Fayal about 4 p. m. 3500 feet high, it was topped in clouds. Then the following morning we came in sight of the island San Miguel. Somewhere between the two about midnight the engines stopped. Just a little something didn't sound right to the Chief Engineer so they stopped the engines. In a couple of hours a minor part had been made and installed and everything was running smoothly again.

The Azores are interesting. They cover a much larger area than I realized. Nearly 250,000 people live on them. All of volcanic origin, they really stand up. San Miguel has a cliff on the north side at least that must rise from 400 to 600 feet out of the sea. There on a slanting plateau we could see villages all in white which seemed to be 1/2 to 1 1/2 miles apart. But in between were deep ravines so that I think it would be fairly arduous to travel from one to another. Above the cliffs and extending inland the land seemed to be terraced to where the timber began. This seemed to run clear to the top.

In the early morning sunlight, the grey of the cliffs, the deep blue of the ocean backed up by the light green of the fields and the shadows in the ravines spotted with the clusters of white houses made a beautiful sight.

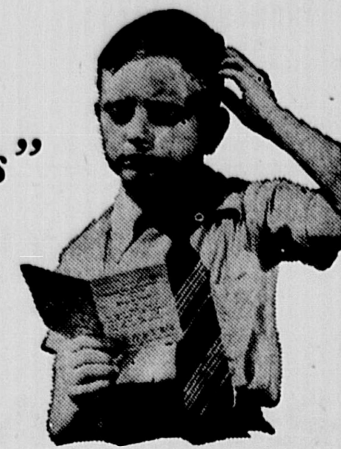

Mediterranean Sea
We are now through the Straits of Gibraltar. Early this morning we first came in sight of the Spanish coast as we passed Cape Trafalgar where Lord Nelson won everlasting fame. On the other side we could see the North African coast. Both coasts are rather high and as we got further east and in sight of Gibraltar, the highlands in southern Spain the mountains rose to about 3500 feet. Viewed from the strait which here is not much less than 7 miles wide they loomed up very impressively and right opposite on the African coast there were places where the cliffs must have been at least 750 feet high.

The weather was pretty good, the

"Are Sin, Disease, and Death Real?" is the challenging subject of the Lesson-Sermon at Christian Science services Sunday. Among selections to be read from the Bible will be verses from the 21st chapter of Revelation, including the following passage:

"And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away" (verse 4).

From "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy the following explanatory passage will be read:

"This is Scriptural authority for concluding that such a recognition of being is, and has been, possible to men in this present state of existence — that we can become conscious, here and now, of a cessation of death, sorrow, and pain" (575:25-27).

The Golden Text is from Psalms:

"Good be merciful unto us, and bless us; and cause his face to shine upon us: that thy way may be known upon earth, thy saving health among all nations" (67:1,2).

KOREA'S NATURAL RESOURCES COULD PROMOTE PROSPERITY

Although for the last eight years Korea has been a land divided, until half a century ago it was one of the world's most independent, homogeneous and stable nations.

When the industrial north was split from the agricultural south by the 38th-parallel division in 1945, Korea's economic life line — exchange of power, lumber, minerals and paper from the north for south-grown rice — was severed. Since that time, neither region has been able to benefit from its resources.

A narrow mountainous peninsula, Korea stretches 660 miles south of the Manchurian border between the Yellow Sea and the Japan Sea to within 110 miles of Kyushu, Japan's southernmost island. The country covers 85,250 square miles, about one and one-half times the size of Florida, which it roughly resembles in shape, says the National Geographic Society.

Rich in Power, Minerals Before World War II, Korean industry — concentrated mainly in the north — was larger than that of either Mexico or Turkey. Its hydroelectric potential was estimated at 15 million kilowatts, more than the 1937 electrical output of either Italy or France.

The land is known to hold highly strategic mineral reserves, largest in the Far East outside Manchuria. Fifteen years ago Korea produced about one-third of the world's graphite. Gold production ran as high as $50 million a year. Coal reserves are well over 1½ billion tons, and the iron ore reserve is estimated at more than a billion tons.

But despite its industrial potential, four-fifths of Korea's people are farmers, committed to rice agriculture on the fertile mountain slopes. In 1940 the nation was the world's fourth largest rice producer.

Korea also ranked third in the world in commercial fishing in 1939. Some 75 kinds of edible fish are found along its 11,000-mile coastline, where warm and cold currents meet. The country has 10 major all-weather ports, 29 secondary ones, and 139 other off-shore anchorages.

Ancient Heritage Korea's legendary history goes back about 4,000 years. Its independent kingdoms were well known to the Chinese 3,000 years ago. From an early base of imported Chinese culture, the Koreans developed an individual civilization with a separate language. Nicknamed the "Irish of the Orient" because of their spirited, independent nature, they have been engaged in a tragic struggle for freedom, unity and independence for half a century.

A "hermit" nation during most of the 19th century when communication with the rest of the world was discouraged, the country was claimed as a protectorate by the Japanese in 1910. Five years later it was annexed into the Japanese Empire, and its name changed to Chosen, which means, ironically, "Land of the Morning Calm."

In 1919 Korean nationalists staged a "passive revolution." A republic-in-exile was established under the presidency of Dr. Syngman Rhee. In 1948, the Rhee government was recognized by the United Nations, although the north remained under Russian domination.

In 1950, Korea's population was just under 30 million, ranking 12th in the world, with two-thirds of the populace in the area south of the 38th parallel.

During the war, an estimated 1 million in the southern zone were killed and another million permanently injured. North Korea is reported to have lost over 1½ million.

According to the Korean delegation to the United Nations, at least 1,200 of the nation's 5,000 villages have been wiped out, and 52 — all but 3 of the major cities critically damaged. The homeless and refugees in South Korea alone may number 8 million.

A city of parks and palaces where 40 years ago was only a tiny fishing village on a pestilential swamp, Casablanca is one of the fastest growing cities in North Africa, the National Geographic Society reports. Capitalizing on a man-made harbor, the Moroccan metropolis is now estimated at more than half a million inhabitants. American ex-GIs are among the flood of business men who have come to Casablanca since World War II to establish new enterprises in an ancient land.

GEOGRAPHIC ODDITIES AND BRIEFS

Until the atomic era, uranium was merely a byproduct of radium and vanadium mines, useful for coloring glass, pottery, and artificial teeth.

Seashore sand at Beppu in Japan is black, hot to the touch, and gives off sulphur fumes. Thousands of people go there to lie for hours, even days, covered by the pulverized volcanic debris, which they hope will cure their ailments, the National Geographic Society says.

Prior to June, 1950, when the war began, Korea ranked twelfth among countries of the world in population, with some 30 million inhabitants, the National Geographic Society points out.

The largest glacier in Colorado, the mile-square Arapaho ice sheet, is the water reservoir for the city of Boulder, which owns exclusive rights to the ice.

Cricket fighting is a national pastime in China, and records of celebrated fighters are kept, like those of race horses in other countries, says the National Geographic Society. Weighed in before every fight, a cricket classifies as heavy-, middle- or lightweight.

One economical way to build prestige is to pay all your obligations with checks of this bank. The people who receive your checks know that the checks are as good as cash—and safer to send through the mail.

PRESERVATION OF ANTIQUES

The Massachusetts Federation is having an Antiques Information Morning on Thursday, October 15, at 11 a. m. at the Harrison Grey Otis House at 141 Cambridge street (corner Lynde street), Boston. The subject is "Early Lighting Devices" by Miss Aimee P. Draper, first prize winner in General Federation of Women's Clubs Essay Contest for 1952-53.

These meetings are very interesting, and are illustrated with pieces from the collection. The Museum of the Otis House, where the meeting is held, has many exhibits which are well worth seeing. The group usually eats together in some convenient and well-known restaurant, and on Thursday afternoon a pilgrimage will be made to the Old North Church.

The Bowdoin bus from Charles street stops at the Harrison Grey House, or it is convenient to the North Station.

MISSION UNION GUILD

Mrs. Dwight L. Cart's subject for her talk to the Mission Union Guild of the First Congregational Church on Tuesday, October 13, will be "Highlights of Congregational Work in Europe." Anyone who has heard Mrs. Cart as a speaker or who has listened to the enthusiastic accounts of her previous talks will look forward to a most interesting meeting, the first of this new season. During her travels in Europe this past summer, Mrs. Cart was able to visit places well off the beaten track of the average tourist, places such as orphanages and camps for Displaced Persons who are aided by Congregational workers and financial help.

The day for Mission Union Guild will begin at 10 o'clock with sewing, this time on aprons for the Church Fair in charge of Mrs. Ray V. Hayward, assisted by Mrs. Alvah W. Cross. Mrs. Paul C. Dunn is chairman of the luncheon that will be served at 1 o'clock in Chidley Hall. At the meeting which starts at 2, Mrs. Richard Ashenden will lead the worship service, and Mrs. Frank M. Gunby will present the Second Mile Gift boxes. Members of the Home Church Guild will join the Mission Union Guild for this meeting.

HARVEST HOME SUPPER

Wednesday evening, October 14, is the date for the traditional Harvest Home Supper to be held in Chidley Hall of the First Congregational Church. Dr. Albert Buckner Coe, Minister and Secretary of the Massachusetts Congregational Christian Conference, will be the guest speaker on the subject, "The Church Looks Ahead."

All members of the parish are cordially invited to attend this annual fall get-together of new and old friends within the church. Mrs. Everett P. Stone and Mrs. W. Campbell Ross are in charge of arrangements and reservations.

WINCHESTER CHILDREN REPRESENTED

Four paintings by Winchester boys and girls are included in the very interesting collection on view at the Library until October 19. This group of self-portraits is part of a collection submitted by children of 57 countries at the invitation of the International Youth Library of Munich. Various sections of the results are now on tour throughout the world.

Adelaide Pittaway, Sproul of Shady Hill School, Cambridge, pointed out that the paintings showed a remarkable similarity in technique as well as a universal quality, and that except in a few cases the paintings were not apparently much conditioned by their country of origin.

The corner cases in the gallery were charmingly arranged by Mrs. Gretchen H. West who created an autumn mood and used a humorous approach to things children enjoy. At its opening meeting, members of the Winchester Art Association were reminded to bring examples of their work to the Library Gallery on October 16 for a Members' Show to be exhibited from October 19 to 28.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Richard Wyman as hostess and her committee which included Mrs. Fred Abbe, Mrs. Charles Abbott, Mrs. Blanche Barnard and Mrs. Waldo Lyon.

WINCHESTER HOMEFRONTERS

TAG DAY

Mrs. Charles E. Flynn, Chairman, Mrs. Alexander DiPietro and Mrs. Sidney A. Burr Co-Chairmen, report a total of $342.90 collected on Tag Day. However, we have boys in the service here and abroad to whom we would like to send a representative gift. All our boxes were delivered last year with the exception of one, which was returned and delivered to his home. We still have Tag Day boxes out in the stores and if you have not yet given, won't you become a "Homefronter" by dropping a donation in one of these or by sending to Mr. Ralph Hatch our treasurer at the Winchester Savings Bank?

We feel particularly grateful for the beautiful day we had for Tag Day, to the Winchester Star, the Chief of Police and police, the Board of Selectmen and their office, and Mr. Grindle, of the High School, for their co-operation. Also, the stores who have permitted us to place our boxes there.

Mrs. Augliera and Mrs. Myers, mothers of our repatriated prisoners of war, boosted our morale by collecting for two hours in the afternoon.

Mrs. Piccolo, 73 years old, worked from 8:30 a. m. until 5:30 p. m. and collected $46.00. Her enthusiasm was an inspiration to us all. Mrs. Charles E. Flynn and her committee also wish to thank the following workers who volunteered their services on Tag Day:

HERBIST IN WINCHESTER THURSDAY

Mrs. James Milligan of the Herb Lore Shop in Lexington will be present in Winchester on Thursday, October 15, from 2-5 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Joseph Dolben at 15 Lakeview road.

To those interested in herbs, this chance to chat with Mrs. Milligan will be a high spot in the Cooks' Tour.

Mrs. R. A. Sawyer, Winchester 6-528-R, and Mary Spaulding's Bookshop have the few remaining tickets for this event.

Convinced that herbs can change homemaking from a chore to an art, and dedicated to herb growing and herb usage as a way of life, Mrs. Milligan makes an appealing presentation of her tasty tricks and quaint gifts.

Mrs. Milligan learned her trade, the cultivation of herbs, their uses and symbolism, by working in the old Bedford fields with the aging Yankee farmer, Mrs. Dutton. She demonstrates the use of herbs in jelly, candy, vinegars, vegetables, pomanders, and in making many attractive gifts.

"MOONLIGHT SONATA"

Winchesterites will be able to enjoy again the great pianist, Ignace Jan Paderewski, as he plays his own immortal compositions in this, the only full-length motion picture he ever made. Starring with him are Charles Farrell and Marie Tempest.

The film will be shown in the art gallery of the public library on Wednesday, October 14. There will be two showings, one in the afternoon at 2 p. m. and again in the evening at 7:30 p. m., followed by refreshments and "Library Open House." All Winchester adults are cordially invited to attend.

John A. Volpe of Everett avenue was guest of honor at a special dinner of the Combined Jewish Appeal of Greater Boston at the Hotel Kenmore last week.

DEANERY YOUTH COUNCIL PLANS DANCE

On Sunday afternoon, October 4th, the Council of the Catholic Youth of the Woburn Deanery met in St. Joseph's Hall, Wakefield, to discuss plans for the C.Y.O. fall season. The meeting was opened with a prayer by the Deanery moderator, Rev. Stephen E. Burke of the Immaculate Conception Parish, Winchester, who then proceeded with the induction of officers. Installed as president was Robert Black of St. Joseph's, Wakefield; vice president, Noreen Johnson of St. Mary's, Winchester; secretary, Mary McDonough of St. James, Arlington; and treasurer, Albert Duff of St. Patrick's, Stoneham.

The dominant theme of the meeting was Catholic Youth Week, which is being observed this year from October 18th to October 25th. The delegates laid preliminary plans for a great combined Deanery Holy Hour and Dance to be held in Winchester on Saturday evening, October 24th. Additional information will be publicized as the committees complete arrangements. Large delegations of teenagers from the 22 parishes in the Deanery are expected to be in attendance at the dance, when a Deanery king and queen will be crowned.

A meeting of the officers and committee chairmen will be held at the Immaculate Conception Rectory, 1004 Main street, Winchester, on Sunday, October 11th, at 7 p. m. to complete details for the main social event of the C.Y.O. fall season.

Miss Adeline Hintlian, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Hintlian of Church street, has returned home from an extensive tour of Europe which included visits to Spain, Italy, France, Switzerland, England and Ireland. She returned on a TWA air liner from Shannon Airport in Ireland.

JAMES F. McGRATH, JR. TO VISIT JUGOSLAVIA

On the KLM Super Constellation flight from New York Saturday, J. F. McGrath, Jr., of the McGrath Travel Service, Woburn, left for a five-weeks tour of Europe. He is a delegate to the International Congress of the American Society of Travel Agents being held in Rome the end of October.

His first stop in Europe will be made in Amsterdam, and from Amsterdam he will plane to Berlin, where for a week he will visit the Western Sector and also cross over into the Eastern Sector behind the Iron Curtain, which sector is a part of Berlin proper.

He and several other travel agents have been invited by the Yugoslavian government to make a two-weeks tour of this interesting country so that they may encourage American travelers to visit there. Before World War 1, the country which is now Yugoslavia was six countries, Slovenia, Croatia, Montenegro, Bosnia, Herzegovina and Serbia. After World War 1, these countries were all incorporated into Yugoslavia, and until recently, when the United States resumed diplomatic relations with Yugoslavia, they were behind the Iron Curtain as satellites of Russia. It is exceptionally interesting there, with many of the customs of the old countries, and reflects the civilizations of many of the Mediterranean countries such as Egypt, Turkey, Greece and the Roman Empire.

Besides the overland tour in Yugoslavia, the delegation will take one of the Dalmatian coastline steamers which call at many of the seashore resorts in this section. The group will be entertained by the Yugoslavian Tourist Bureau, a government organization, and will meet Tito, who is at the present time ruler of Yugoslavia.

After two weeks in Yugoslavia, Mr. McGrath will proceed to Rome to the convention, and after Rome will make a week's tour of the lovely island of Sicily.

He will then fly from Rome to Amsterdam, and will return to the United States via the Royal Dutch Airlines, KLM, and expects to be back about November 10.

During his absence the office will be in charge of Miss Mavis McGrath, who returned last week after a month's tour of the Middle East.

PRESIDENTS' CLUB

MURIEL GETS A WRITE-UP

Winchester readers of last Sunday's Boston Globe were interested in Jo Anne Robbins' special article on Mrs. J. Stanley Barnes of Ginn road, Muriel to all who know her and the first woman ever to be appointed deputy insurance commissioner of Massachusetts.

Much of the information in the article is familiar to readers of the Star, who were, however, interested in what Mrs. Barnes' new job with the state is. She is one of five deputy commissioners and heads the Policy Approval Division handling life, health and accident forms approving policies written in compliance with the statute.

It was also interesting to learn she embarked in business through answering a Globe want ad 12 years ago during the serious illness of her husband. She is today well known in insurance circles, having her own business as well as acting as a special agent (again the first woman to hold the job) for one of the large insurance companies, traveling through the state contacting insurance brokers and agents.

Mrs. Barnes studied dramatic art and stage presentation at New England Conservatory and has been active in local and state Republican circles as well as in the activities of the Civil Defense. She likes sailing, fishing and flying, and it was news to us that she had taken up a plane, though she hasn't yet landed one. Her knowledge of seamanship, learned from her father, enabled her to be of real value to sister passengers on a beleaguered yacht forced back from Nantucket to Falmouth Harbor by a severe storm.

WINCHESTER UNITED CHURCH CANVASS

A very enthusiastic and well-attended meeting of the committee handling this project met at the office of the First Congregational Church last Thursday to discuss their plans for the third annual United Church Canvass campaign. A spirit of Christian comradeship in our community is especially strong among us this year, since we are joined by the Church of the Epiphany as a seventh member, and more especially since 3 of the 7 ministers of our United group are new to Winchester this year.

Sunday, November 15, is Loyalty Sunday, and on or before that date you will be asked to make your 1954 church pledge. As a United Canvass group, our objective is to combine our strength so as to do a more effective job than could be done by each church working separately.

Our needs and opportunities are greater this year than ever before, and church members are urged to support this movement.

HOOKEE RUG EXHIBIT

On October 21 and 22 the doors of the Crawford Memorial Methodist Church will open at 10 a. m. and remain open until 9 p. m. to display an exhibition of hand-hooked rugs. These rugs, made by the pupils of Mrs. Arthur C. Aldrich of Reading, are the rewards of a truly fascinating hobby.

Come and enjoy the beautiful colors and designs of these rugs. If you have hooked, you will be taking notes of especially pleasing rugs. If you haven't already started, you will be eager to buy a burlap, a frame and some swatches to start creating a masterpiece which you will be proud to hand down to your children.

This exhibition is being sponsored by the Center Group for the benefit of the church. Morning coffee and afternoon tea will be served. The public is cordially invited.

M.S.P.C.A. NOTES

The first fall meeting will be held Thursday, October 15, at 2:30, at the home of the president, Mrs. Howland Noyes, 3 Dix Terrace, corner of Dix street.

Members and friends are invited. The speaker will be Miss Dorothy Broderick, who has been a nurse at the Angell Memorial Animal Hospital and is thoroughly acquainted with all its activities and departments of work. Those wishing to contribute blankets, cottons or linen may bring them to the meeting, and Miss Broderick will take them directly to the hospital on her return.

A most interesting meeting is in store for us.

Special Favorite of the Ladies!

When a Cadillac comes into the service of a family that has never owned one before, it is—quite naturally—a source of great pride and happiness to the entire family group.

But we have noticed, through the years, that the car is a very special favorite with the ladies. For, most assuredly, a Cadillac does some very wonderful and extraordinary things for a lady.

First of all, she looks her loveliest when she is seated behind its wheel. Every time she takes to the highway, she finds herself the focal point in a perfectly gorgeous picture.

And she feels just as wonderful as she looks.

The car's deep, luxurious cushions cradle her in magnificent comfort throughout the longest journey. The great responsiveness of the quiet, powerful engine gives her a marvelous sense of command. The car steers and brakes and drives with such miraculous ease that she actually rests and relaxes as she rides.

Of course, there are a great many other satisfactions which a lady finds in a new Cadillac car.

There is, for instance, her delight at seeing her family surrounded with every comfort and safeguard known to the science of motor car design. And there is the deep and rewarding sense of fulfillment which comes with ownership of such a prized and sought-after possession. Even parked in her driveway, the car is a tribute to her good taste and judgment... and a wonderful complement to the beauty and graciousness of her home.

To any gentleman reading this advertisement—we would like to make a suggestion:

Some day soon—when the sky is bright and the time is right—ask your lady if she wouldn't like to take a ride in a 1953 Cadillac.

We think we know what the answer will be—and we'll be happy to see you, indeed.

DR. ALFORD CARLETON
THE SENIOR FORUM

The Senior Forum of the First Congregational Church will hold their first Chapel Service of the year this Sunday, October 11, at 9:30 a. m. at which time the group will have the privilege of hearing Dr. Alford Carleton, President of Aleppo College, Syria. The chairman will be Harold McKinley, Jr., assisted by William Ross. Ushers will be Stephen Marshall and Richard Thompson, and acting as deacons will be Kendall Cleaves and John Merritt.

Dr. Carleton was born in Albany, N. Y., and educated at Oberlin College and Hartford Theological Seminary. He first enlisted under the American Board for Foreign Missions in 1930, serving in Turkey before going to Syria where he has been President of Aleppo College since 1937. Dr. Carleton's contacts have reached far beyond office and classroom walls, and it is reported that there are probably very few Americans who have a firmer and more balanced grasp of the economic, political and social situations and the importance of right public relations between the Arab nations and the rest of the world than Dr. Carleton.

On Monday, October 12, is scheduled the annual fall outing of the Forum at Cherry Hill Farm, Beverly. About 100 Forumites will leave the church at 10 o'clock for a day of outdoor sports and fun, planned by the Sports Committee Chairman, Bill Johnston and Social Committee Chairman, Sandra Witet. Adult Sports Adviser, Mr. G. Hartley Curtis, will be on hand to help supervise the sports events. In case of rain the outing will be cancelled.

Miss Barbara Michelsen, daughter of Dr. Jost J. Michelsen of Fairview Terrace, and Miss Susan Morton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Morton of Arlington street, have been named to the dean's list at Smith College for having maintained an average of "B" or better during the past college year. Miss Michelsen is a senior and Miss Morton, a sophomore.

WINCHESTER BOAT CLUB

All members of the Winchester Boat Club are urged to attend the Annual Meeting to be held at the Clubhouse Friday night, October 16, at 8:00 p. m. Most important business will be discussed and voted upon including the election of new Club officers, by-law changes, and the reading of annual reports. The traditional Chowder Party will take place at 6:30 p. m. just before the meeting. The meeting will be limited to adult members only. Secure your tickets for the supper on or before October 14, from Steward Broder.

A record crowd of about 95 people had a completely good time at the Snipe Dinner Sunday night. Each year enthusiasm for snipe racing just about doubles — and this summer there were twenty-four registered boats in the snipe fleet with no less than a dozen turning out for each race. After a yummy turkey dinner with all the fixin's, skillfully cooked by the Broders, the meeting was taken over by Carl Freyer, captain of this year's fleet. He introduced the other fleet officers: Pete Redding, first mate, who is going into the Army October 21; and Jim Newman, purser. Also at the head table were Commodore Fitzpatrick from the Medford Boat Club and the other Medford fleet officers.

Good credit was also extended to Bob Huggins, chairman of the Winchester race committee, who has done all the point tallying this season.

Announced as fleet officers for next summer were Walter Redding, captain; Bob Hall, first mate; and Jim Snow, purser.

Jim Snow, long-standing snipe sailor, handed out the trophies. Top honors in the Junior Point Score Series went to Tom Legere. His close competition, in order, included Windy Freyer, Peter Montminy, John Day, and Peter Freyer.

Tom Legere again carried away top honors in the Series A of the Point Score Races. A close second was Jim Newman, with Bob Huggins third. Jim Newman was victor in Series B, with Carl Freyer second, and Bob Anderson third.

In Series C, Dawson Blamire collected the trophy for first place, with Bart Sullivan second, and John Day third.

Bob Huggins, winner of the whole point score series, was recipient of the George Jones Trophy. He claims the secret of his success is the excellent crewing of his wife. Jim Newman was the runner-up, with Tom Legere in third place.

Winners of the Directors' Handicap Trophy Series were Bob Anderson, Spike Larson, and Dawson Blamire, respectively.

A plaque made by George Jones was presented to Jim Snow, who earned first place in the Alden Sherman Trophy Series, which ended last weekend. Darla Hall, Dann Lewis, and Bob Anderson claimed second, third, and fourth places respectively.

Mementoes of the snipe fleet were received by the three faithful race judges, Ann Blamire, Stan Gardner, and Bob Hall.

Dave Reynolds of Medford Boat Club presented the Medford-Winchester Interclub Cup to Carl Freyer, captain of the fleet, and vowed that Medford would give Winchester a good fight next year.

The three female skippers of the snipe fleet, Barbara Pitts, Letty Harmon, and Darla Hall, were thoroughly teased in a skit made up of Carl Freyer, Arthur Schmidt, and Leonard Mead. All of the script was cleverly written by Carl Freyer.

Excellent colored movies of sailing, swimming, and clambakes which occurred during the summer were shown by Bob Hall, who really knows how to take pictures.

WHITE SPOT RESTAURANT DESTROYED BY FIRE

A fire broke out in the cellar of the famous dining place, The White Spot, at Four Corners, Woburn, on Sunday afternoon, October 11th, at about 4 p.m.

There were about fifty patrons seated at tables at the time. They accepted the announcement of "fire" and ventured to vacate. Suddenly the flames leaped through the inlets of the air-conditioning system and billows of smoke reared from the basement stairs.

Then there was mild panic and the patrons fled, some leaving their wraps and handbags. The employees of the White Spot who were on duty were obliged to leave the building in their working attire, leaving their belongings behind.

The spectacular blaze caused a general alarm summoning firefighters, apparatus and police from surrounding towns, Winchester being among those responding.

The White Spot has been a favorite eating place for many Winchester people for the past twenty-eight years.

The owner, Mr. Francis "Nick" Chase, who lives at 54 Salisbury street, plans to rebuild.

Miss Marie Helen Bishop, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Joseph Bishop of 49 Dodge avenue, Pittsfield, and Mr. Edmund Montague Wright, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund M. Wright of 79 Wildwood street, were married in Notre Dame Church in Pittsfield on Saturday morning, October 10, in a setting of white pompoms.

The 9 o'clock ceremony was performed by the Reverend Albert Beaudry, with bridal music by Paul R. Nixon.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Her gown was of white nylon tulle over satin, with fitted bodice of tulle fashioned with a portrait neckline trimmed in lace embroidered with ovals and pearls, with long tapered sleeves coming to a point at the wrists. The bouffant skirt of tulle had lace insertions in a horseshoe pattern, with a court train of tulle. Her fingertip illusion veil was attached to a starched lace half hat embroidered with ovals and pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of white pompoms, stephanotis and ivy leaves.

Mrs. Aldo R. Manfredi of Pittsfield was her honor attendant. She wore a dress of romantic violet, trimmed in deep purple and a hat of deep purple, with matching flowers sprinkled with rhinestones. Her tapered bouquet was of purple and white asters.

The bridesmaids, Mrs. Jack V. Berry of Pittsfield and Mrs. Robert A. Snyder of Dalton, wore dresses of deep purple with romantic violet trim, and hats of violet, trimmed with matching flowers sprinkled with rhinestones. They carried tapered bouquets of purple and white asters.

Mr. Alfred B. Bishop of Pittsfield, brother of the bride, was best man, and ushering were Mr. Bernard Shapiro of Chelsea and Mr. Joseph Terra of South Boston.

A reception was held after the ceremony in the Sheraton Hotel in Pittsfield. Mrs. Bishop, mother of the bride, was groomed in a gray wool suit, pink beaver hat, with black accessories and wore a corsage of pink sweetheart roses. Mrs. Wright, the groom's mother, wore an apricot silk organza dress, matching accessories and a corsage of pompoms.

After a wedding trip to the White Mountains, N. H., the couple will make their home in Nahant. Mr. Wright is employed by the General Electric in West Lynn as an electrical engineer.

Mr. Wright is a graduate of Tufts College and a member of the Thompson Club.

HIGH SCHOOL OPEN HOUSE
THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 5

Principal Wade L. Grindle has announced that Winchester High School will welcome Open House guests on Thursday evening, November 5.

Beginning at seven-thirty, the adult session will involve meeting home-room teachers, room mothers, and other parents for a brief introduction to school routine. Then the regular schedule of classes, much abbreviated as to time, will continue until parents have had an opportunity to meet each other, follow Johnny's and Mary's program, meet the teachers, have refreshments in the cafeteria, visit the principal's office and the guidance office, and perhaps the library, art studio, and other rooms according to schedule or special interest.

President Maxwell McCreery of the Parent-Faculty Association has pledged the support of the officers and committees of that organization who will give publicity to this annual high school visit and will be present to assist the regular staff in many ways, one of the most popular being that of serving refreshments in the cafeteria during the entire evening.

Membership in the W.H.S. Parent-Faculty Association begins when a son or daughter registers as a member of the school. Members who wish to assist the Association financially may pay small family dues at this meeting.

BELLINO FLASHES ON TOUCHDOWN RUNS OF 63 AND 57 YARDS

In a football game marked by spectacular end-sweeps and fine blocking on the part of Winchester, by sensational passing by Winthrop's quarter-back, Tardiff, and bull-line drives through the center of the line by Donovan of Winthrop, Winchester decisively overpowered a rugged Winthrop team by the one-sided score of 31 to 6 at Miller Field, in Winthrop, before a crowd of two thousand thrill-seekers, who, in spite of the score, got their money's worth of thrills from long touchdown runs, last-ditch tackles which saved touchdowns, goal-line stands, and a second half started by twenty forward passes, eleven of which were completed by Winthrop's Tardiff and one of which resulted in a touchdown for Winchester.

In spite of the score, from the spectator's point of view the game was a real thriller. Actually Winthrop out-ranked Winchester in first downs, 15 to 13, although many of the 13 were made at the expense of the Winchester Seconds and Thirds, who played a good part of the game and who were better offensively than defensively. Tardiff, of Winthrop, thrilled the crowd in the second half by uncoiling a highly effective passing game, completing eleven passes out of eighteen tries, only one of which was intercepted. Perhaps if Winthrop had taken to the air earlier in the game, the result might have been different. However, Winchester has two good passers in Pratt and Lindsey, neither of whom was forced to resort to passing, with the ground game clicking consistently throughout the contest. Taken the opening kickoff on the 23 yard line, Mick Murphy lugged the ball to the 33, and then drove through center for four yards more on first down. On the second play of the game, Joe Bellino, taking a pitchout from Dave Pratt and behind some perfect blocking by Murphy swept 63 yards for a touchdown. From that point on Winchester controlled the game, although Donovan of Winthrop found holes through both guards for drive after drive of ten or twelve yards until he was removed from the game finally, a tired and shaken player. Winchester won't meet any better ball carrier of the line-bucking type than Mr. Donovan of Winthrop.

For Winchester, Joe Bellino played the type of game which has been prophesied for him from the start of the season, reeling off two long touchdown runs of 63 and 57 yards respectively behind fine blocking, and other runs of 29, 23, and 16 yards, two of which were stopped by last-minute tackles to prevent his going all the way. Mike Murphy played his best game so far and in addition to throwing decisive blocks for Bellino and Haggerty revealed surprising ability on two or three end sweeps which could have scored touchdowns if Mike had been able to put on speed after shaking off a couple of tacklers. Dave Rotundi, playing at fullback for half the game, was outstanding on backing up the line and reeled off one run of 53 yards. His kick-offs, however, were perhaps his most spectacular contribution, consistently reaching the Winthrop safety man near the goal line. It would be impossible to identify all the boys who played good football against Winthrop. Both Lindsey and Ross, replacing Pratt as quarter-back, handled their jobs with efficiency and Ross twice ran back punts for long yardage, while Lindsey scored on a fine dash around end and passed for another score to O'Brien with a well executed jump pass over the line.

The quarter-backing of both teams was outstanding in clever handling of the ball and in deception. Captain John Riordan, backing up the line for Winchester, was in the Winthrop backfield all afternoon and on one occasion saved a scoring threat by throwing the dangerous Mr. Donovan for a three yard loss on the Winchester three yard line.

Those who watched Winchester at Concord in the first game of the season wouldn't recognize the smoothly working, hard-hitting aggression which represents the Red and Black today. Without any question they have found themselves and beginning with the stopping of the highly touted Water-town steam-roller, they served notice that they are again on the war-path and playing for keeps. Right now, their most dangerous future opponents appear to be Melrose and Wakefield. Melrose looks as if they had once again risen from defeat to become an outstanding football team, trouncing Malden last week 26 to 6! And Wakefield has yet to taste defeat. This doesn't mean that Winchester is overlooking the game next week at Stoneham. Not by any means, because for the past several years it has been Stoneham, regardless of their previous record, that has given Winchester one of the toughest games of the season. So it's on to Stoneham next Saturday.

Winchester won the toss and elected to receive. Winthrop choosing to kick with the wind. The kickoff went to Mike Murphy on Winchester's 23 yard line and Murphy carried back to the 33. Murphy made four yards through left guard on the first play from scrimmage and on the next play, Bellino took a pass out from Pratt and behind some fine blocking by Murphy skirted right end and went 63 yards for the touchdown. On the try for point after, the pass was high and Lindsey ran for the far corner and scored the extra point easily.

Winchester kicked off to Gaynor on the Winthrop 32, who ran it back to the 45. Tardiff made 4 through tackle. Donovan drove for 3 through center. An incomplete pass was nearly intercepted by Murphy. On 4th down, Donovan on a delayed pass drove through center to the Winchester 48 for a 1st down. Bellino stopped a wide end run for no gain and on second down Streeter was thrown for an 8 yard loss. Donovan made 1 yard through center and on the punt Winchester was off-side. On the second attempt Donovan punted to the Winchester 10, where the ball hit the ground in the midst of three Winthrop forwards, but Bellino snatched the ball and carried to the 39, with one man between him and another score.

Haggerty made 4 through tackle, but a 15 yard penalty put the ball back to the 34. Murphy made 9 through right tackle to the 43. On third down Bellino duplicated the run he made on the second play of this game, with the same good blocking, going 57 yards around right end for the touchdown. The try for point after was wide.

Rotundi kicked off to Donovan on his 30 and the big fullback drove back to the Winchester 40 yard line. Tardiff passed to Streeter for 7 yards. Streeter made five more through left tackle for a first down on Winchester's 28. Donovan bucked through center for 9 yards and Streeter made a first down on Winchester's 14 yard line. From a spread formation Tardiff passed to Donovan for 4 yards to the 10. Donovan lost four through center to the six. In two bucks at the center of the line Donovan made a first down on the four yard line.

On the next play Riordan threw a 37 yard line. Murphy swept right end for 29 yards shaking off several tacklers and all but getting into the clear. With the ball on Winchester's 35, Haggerty swept left end for 18 yards to the 17. Bellino whirled through inside tackle for 9 yards to the 8 and Murphy skirted left end for a first down on the 3. A back in motion on the next play placed the ball on the 8, but Murphy on the next play scored easily. A lateral to Deroy picked up a for point after went wide and Winchester led by the score of 19 to 6.

With the second team replacing the varsity, Rotundi kicked to Donovan on the 10 and made the tackle on the 19 yard line. Winthrop fumbled on a spread formation play and Winchester recovered on the 20. McLaughlin made 13 on an end run for first down on the 7. Bellino whirled through inside tackle for 37 yards to the 44 and a first down. Tardiff passed again to McDonald for another first down on Winchester's 45. A pass to Donovan netted 3 yards and another to McDonald put the ball on the 37. Donovan drove for a first down on the 34. An incomplete pass was followed by two successful short passes totaling 9 yards and Donovan failed to make the one yard needed for a first down.

Bellino made 8 yards to the 33 and Winthrop was penalized five yards for off-side. Pratt made 3 on a quarter-back end run. Bellino made 5 through tackle. Pratt tried a long pass but the ball was over the head of the receiver and on 4th down Murphy drove to the ter's 20 and with good blocking ahead of him Ross lugged it to the Winthrop 29. On the play a 15 yard penalty on Winthrop placed the ball on the 14. On the next play Winthrop recovered a fumble on the 13.

In 4 plays Winthrop rolled up three first downs against the scrubs of the Winchester 42. An incomplete pass combined with a 15 yard penalty on Winchester for roughness put the ball on the 27. Donovan ploughed through the center of the line to the 15 and the half ended with Winthrop threatening. Score: Winchester 25, Winthrop 6.

Rotundi kicked off to Connolly at the 12 and he ran the kick back to the 33. Donovan made 9 through left guard. Tardiff made 3 for first down on the 45. Tardiff was held for no gain but on second down Donovan drove 19 yards to Winchester's 40. On the same play Donovan was held to 1 yard. Tardiff made 1 to the 38. Tardiff passed to Streeter for a first down on the 39. Again Tardiff passed to Donovan on the 25. An incomplete pass was followed by two attempts by Donovan to make a first down through the center of the line and Winchester took over on the 20.

On first down Rotundi on a quick opening got into the clear and ran 53 yards to the Winthrop 27. Haggerty made 4 and Winchester Seconds came back into the game. McLaughlin was thrown for a 7 yard loss. An incomplete pass was followed by a bad pass on 4th down which drove McLaughlin back to the 41, where he managed to fall on the loose ball. With Winthrop taking over Coach Knowlton sent in the varsity to relieve the Seconds and Streeter was held for no gain, but a 15 yard penalty on Winchester put the ball on the 49. After an incomplete pass, Winchester intercepted the next attempt through the air and took the ball on their 30 yard line. Rotundi drove for a first down on the 42, Haggerty made 1. Bellino carried to the 4 for a first down. On the next play Winthrop recovered a fumble on the 5. In three plays, with Donovan out of the lineup Winthrop lost 3 yards and the quarter ended with Winthrop in possession of the ball, 4th down on their yard line. Winthrop punted to Ross on the 45 and Ross ran it back to the 25.

Rotundi drove for 7 on the 18. J. Murphy made a first down on the 15. Rimbach picked up 2 yards. A lateral to Deroy picked up a scant 2 yards. On 3rd down a pass was intercepted by Connolly, who got back to Winthrop's 32 before being downed. Donovan made 3 to the 35. Tardiff passed to Streeter on the 44 and a first down. Tardiff passed again to McDonald for another first down on Winchester's 45. A pass to Donovan netted 3 yards and another to McDonald put the ball on the 37. Donovan drove for a first down on the 34. An incomplete pass was followed by two successful short passes totaling 9 yards and Donovan failed to make the one yard needed for a first down.

Bellino made 8 yards to the 33 and Winthrop was penalized five yards for off-side. Pratt made 3 on a quarter-back end run. Bellino made 5 through tackle. Pratt tried a long pass but the ball was over the head of the receiver and on 4th down Murphy drove to the 50 yard line for a first down. Pratt hit Bellino with a beautiful pass on Winthrop's 32. Bellino was hurt on the play and had to leave the game. On second down, Lindsey, who had replaced Pratt's O'Brien with a jump pass over the line and O'Brien raced the rest of the distance without a hand being laid on him. The try for point after failed again and Winchester led 31 to 6. With the Seconds back in the game Rotundi kicked to the five yard line and the game ended with Winthrop in possession of the ball deep in their own territory.

CENTENNIAL OF THE BOSTON PUBLIC LIBRARY

Editor of the Star:

Recent publicity concerning the centennial of the Boston Public Library and the plans for its development and expansion have brought forth many interesting comments. Among the most heartening are those from men and women who have a particular feeling of warmth and friendship toward the library because of the part it has played in the development of their own lives and their business or professional careers.

Many of these people are well known to us, and we are proud that this library has been a source of intellectual well-being and to their success. However, throughout this city, the commonwealth, and the nation there must be many others who have found the Boston Public Library a source of inspiration and help.

It occurs to us that as part of the observance of the 100th anniversary of this country's first great circulating library, an "alumni association" might be formed. For this purpose we have particularly in mind the men and women who, during student years or later, gained from the library the knowledge and abilities which have enabled them to live more satisfying and rewarding lives.

We shall consider it a great favor if such people, wherever they may be, will write to the library in order that we may endeavor to arrange a get-together of some sort that will offer additional and significant evidence that the library is indeed fulfilling its mission.

Milton E. Lord
Director, Boston Public Library

RECEIVES PATENT

Lloyd R. McIntosh of Winchester, Mass., was the recipient on September 22, 1953, of U. S. Patent No. 2,653,267, entitled "Filament Emission Electrode and Method of Minimizing Filament Stresses Therein".

In many applications of X-ray and cathode-ray tubes, in which streams of electrons are emitted from a cathode, it is desirable to have such electrons come from a point source. This may be accomplished by bending the filament, which constitutes the cathode, into a hairpin shape so that when an electric current flows through it, thereby, originate from or at the very small area of the apex of the filament.

These filaments are preferably of tungsten and in the order of one-hundredth of an inch thick; and they expand and contract each time they are heated to emission temperature and then cooled. Consequently, they are subjected to stresses which may cause them to break at any point along their length.

To cope with this situation and provide an improvement over the prior practice, Mr. McIntosh has discovered that this tendency to breakage may be reduced very substantially by forming a loop preferably in each arm of the filament and desirably very close to the apex thereof. Best results may be obtained by locating each loop at a distance of not more than one-eighth of an inch from the apex and constructing it with an inside diameter of forty to sixty thousandths of an inch.

It should be noted also that, as another advantageous feature of his invention, Mr. McIntosh provides a means to prevent jarring of the filament and to prevent molten glass from appearing on it when glass is used in the parts or connections between the lead-in wires and the filament itself.

This patent has been assigned to High Voltage Engineering Corporation, Cambridge, Mass.

GEORGE WASHINGTON SCHOOL SECOND GRADE TEA

The tea for the second-grade mothers was held at the home of Mrs. Richard R. Keppeler, 12 Fells road, on Tuesday, October 13th. Miss Rich, the principal, spoke to the mothers on the planned program of the second grade and the differences in the type of program in the first and second grades. The minimum requirements expected in arithmetic and writing were stated, and the formal report cards were explained. The mothers had an opportunity to talk with the teachers, Mrs. Eisenstadt and Miss Cogswell.

Mrs. John F. Coakley, president of the Mothers' Association, and Mrs. Andrew Sinclair poured at the attractively decorated tea table. Arrangements for the tea were made by Mrs. John Wile and Mrs. Frank W. Dreyer, the room mothers, assisted by their committee, Mrs. Louis Errico, Mrs. Edwin Marshall, Mrs. James J. Russo, Mrs. John C. Bertolucci and Mrs. Philip J. Porter.

HOCKEY SEASON OFF TO GOOD START

Sue Donnell tallied the only goal last Friday at Lexington as the W.H.S. varsity tied the opposition 1-1. She was assisted by Sally Cunningham, an able halfback.

Captain Alison Hersey chugged down the field with the ball, but Lexington steamed away with it. Right Winger Sheila Lanigan and Left Winger Doris Barboro scored two goals to lead the Jays to a 2-1 victory.

Captain Hersey tallied the only goal last Tuesday as the varsity field hockey team shut out a hard-fighting Stoneham team, 1-0. The ball was passed by Fullback Peggy McNally, who, with a few seconds left to play, helped Alison obtain the lone goal.

The Jayvees tallied with a 3-0 victory over Stoneham. Captain Nancy Donaghey scored two goals with the assistance of Nancy Samaroo, right wing. Center Forward Sandy Chapman tallied in the second half to bring the score up to 3. With the aid of the able defensemen Winchester kept the opposition scoreless.

FARRELL BREAKS CROSS COUNTRY MARK

Last Friday the local runners entertained Revere in the only home meet of the year. The Red and Black won by a score of 20 to 44 with Lou Farrell racing to a new course record in the fast time of 16:36 which smashed the old record, also held by Farrell, by 12 seconds.

The visitors, strengthened by the addition of two runners not with the squad in their early races, offered only fair opposition to the home club. The race got off to a fast start and at the halfway point Lou had only about a 35 yard lead on Zani of Revere with John Becker in third about 10 yards back. In the second half of the race the Winchester runners really poured on the speed as Farrell crossed the line in record time while Captain Becker moved into second to finish 20 seconds behind Lou and record his best time for the course. Zani of the visitors pulled into third and Dick Borggaard, running his best race to date, finished a strong fourth. Veteran Hank Morgan took 6th despite a tough chest cramp and Larry Tulberg, steadily improving Sophomore, was the last Winchester scorer in 7th.

Other local runners showed real improvement in their time for the evening. The boys' one half mile course. These were Bob Becker in 8th, Bob Smith in 10th, John McCarthy, 14th and Bert Kneeland, 15th. It should be noted that these runners were all Sophomores.

The first ten finishers:
1. Farrell (W) Time 16:36
2. J. Becker (W) New Course Record
3. Zani (R) 17:18
4. Borggaard (W) 17:52
5. Zaino (R) 17:56

The Men Who Know How

S. O. I. BOWLING LEAGUE

Off we go again with plenty of new faces in the line up. The tranquil boys of Soft Ball fame and the usual old timers got off on schedule, on a swing shift system of 7 to 9 p.m. and 9 to 11 p.m. at the Swanton Street Alleys.

We have some very good bowlers this year and it should be very interesting to see who will finish on top for high average. I wish to mention some of the "dignitaries" and "Men of World Fame" who are bowling this year.

We have Saraco M. D., "Mingy" Frongillo, "Ben" Gillotti, "Chick" Vespucci, "Moose" Bellino, "Hokie" John "C" Bertolucci, Joe Tofuri, and Richie Riga just to mention a few.

Opening night, Wednesday, October 7, many of the boys got off to a good jump, with many dark horses setting the pace for the champs.

Below are the five top bowlers of the evening:

M. J. Saraco	P. F. Average
316	1053
D. Gatterneri	313
E. Tofuri	311
C. Bertolucci	310
F. Procopio	307

High Triple went to M. J. Saraco with a 310 and High Single went to "Carlo" Bertolucci with a 124.

We were told only one complaint was issued to the Assistant Commissioner of Bowling Randy, the Head Boss being "Bull Dozer" Frongillo who takes care of the real trouble.

"The Gypsy" was there again for the quarters for chances on Bowling night as usual. The chances were gone in a flash and the winner was announced and guess who? Lucky "Chick" Vespucci again.

In closing, we were led to believe the gentlemen that were bowling could not be heard on the outside of the sound proof building!

UNITARIAN CHURCH COUPLES CLUB

The Couples Club of the Unitarian Church extends a most cordial invitation to all its members and friends to attend the first get-together of the season on Saturday, October 24th. New members are especially welcome. An orchestra will play for an informal fall dance from 8:30 to 12:00.

The Couples Club had a most successful season last year and expects this year to be equally entertaining and worthwhile.

The following people are on the committee planning this dance: Mr. and Mrs. James Kimball, Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm W. Burr, Mr. and Mrs. Emmons S. Ellis. The more the merrier is a slogan that really fits this occasion and the Couples Club hopes everyone will come.

RETURNS FROM EUROPEAN TRIP
Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo D. Nicholas have just returned from an eleven weeks tour of Europe, having sailed from New York on July 23 on the French liner "Liberte". After visiting with relatives in Cornwall and Devon, England, they called on Reverend and Mrs. Roger E. Makepeace, he being formerly pastor of the Crawford Memorial Methodist Church and now chaplain at the United States Air Base at Shaftesbury, and then proceeded to London.

Here joining a tour party of the American Express they spent several days in the delightful fjord section of Norway and then continued through the Scandinavian and the Low Countries and to Switzerland, Italy and France.

They made the return trip on the Queen Mary which, due to the longshoremen's strike in United States ports, was obliged to debarb her at Halifax, Nova Scotia, and transport them to New York by rail, six special trains being required.

To facilitate the checking through the United States Customs set up temporary quarters in Grand Central Station and the entire process was conducted with courtesy and despatch.

CLOSING SESSION OF COMMUNITY SCHOOL

The final session of Winchester's Community School of Third Grade evening, October 19, in the First Baptist Church at 7:45. All interested persons will want to attend the wind-up of this excellent series of classes.

In the Nursery and Kindergarten class, Mrs. Andon is planning to demonstrate and discuss worship and music as used with the very youngest children.

Mrs. Hunt, in the class for teachers of Primary children is planning to take up the important matter of parent-teacher relationships, and worship. Summaries of the other sessions will conclude this course.

Activities for Juniors—various types of creative activities such as writing of poems and stories, hand-work and the use of pictures—will be described in Miss Boyd's class on methods with Juniors.

Miss Stricker, teacher of the class for Junior High methods, asks that each person bring a copy of the text book he is now using in his Church School and a general discussion of teaching materials will be held.

Rev. Edmund Nutting and Dr. Barbara Kimball will be completing their excellent series in the two courses: Church School Planning; and Parents and the Teen-ager. The school has been fortunate to have these very able leaders and enthusiastic members of the board of values gained from these courses.

Dr. Forgey closes his remarkable and inspirational "portraits" of Jesus with his talk on "A Portrait in Oils", namely the Gospel according to John. The Gospel of St. Mark, to Dr. Forgey, is a "Candid Camera" view of Jesus, the gospel of the present. The Gospel according to St. Matthew is the "Family Album" picture, the gospel of the past. St. Luke gives us a "Posed Photograph", a carefully selected picture of the life of the Master, and the gospel of the future. St. John has the artistry of an oil painting, and is called the gospel of eternity. Through these "portraits" Dr. Forgey has clarified our understanding, challenged our thinking, and inspired our living, both as parents and teachers.

NOONAN SCHOOL NEWS
The first meeting of the Noonan School Mothers' Association was held Tuesday, October 6, at 1:45. Mrs. Helen Nadeau took over her duties as new president. ST. MARY'S CYO

The walls of Merritt Hall echoed with tributes of praise and applause last evening when a large number of parents and friends of St. Mary's CYO gathered to honor the championship teams of the parish.

Felicia Mezzacappa, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Antonio L. Mezzacappa of 100 Wildwood street, will play the role of Laura Wingfield in the Tufts College Theatre production of the Tennessee Williams' play, "The Glass Menagerie."

The role calls for Miss Mezzacappa to be a crippled young lady as delicate and transparent as her collection of glass animals. The play, which will be presented in mid-November, takes place in the slums of St. Louis and is largely a memory play.

Miss Mezzacappa, a junior at Jackson College, department for women in Tufts College, is a member of the undergraduate honorary dramatic society, Pen, Paint and Pretzels and last year won first prize in the Greenwood Oratorical Contest.

Martha Ross, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Ross of Lakeview road, had an emergency appendectomy Monday evening at the Winchester Hospital.

WINCHESTER MORNINGS FIRST LECTURE

Speaking at the first Winchester Morning on October 8th, Mr. John Allan May of the Christian Science Monitor said we have reached a critical, perhaps an historical moment of modern times.

Discussing the conflict between Russia and the Western World, he outlined what he considered the strength and weakness of the Russian empire. Russia's strength lies in its possession of the hydrogen bomb. Despite the tendency of the press to ridicule the ability of Russian scientists, evidence indicates that they have succeeded in producing a hydrogen bomb and have commenced to stockpile atomic weapons. Recently there have been many signs of growing weakness and insecurity within the Soviet empire. On the death of Stalin, there was no man of like stature to replace him. Added evidence of dissatisfaction within the state is suggested by such incidents as the disappearance of Beria, whom Mr. May referred to as "an international flying saucer," the escape from behind the iron curtain of Polish and North Korean flyers, disturbances throughout the satellite colonies, and the uprising in Eastern Germany.

Mr. May feels that the time is now ripe, while there are still people living in the Soviet empire who are able to remember what freedom means, for all freedom loving people to take the initiative in the struggle against Communism. He believes, as Winston Churchill has suggested, that the West should take steps to call a conference to negotiate assurances between Russia and the Western Allies. While Russia might be anxious to avoid such a showdown, Mr. May feels that it will help the allied cause, and restore the West's dwindling prestige in the Asiatic countries. On the whole he felt that the western powers were moving in the right direction.

In closing, Mr. May, an Englishman, stressed that the American alliance is of the utmost importance to the British, and urged that we do not mistake their divergence of opinion for criticism. He reiterated that our strongest weapon is love of freedom, and that we must show it all over the world.

The second of the Mornings series, sponsored by the Winchester Wellesley Club, will take place on Thursday, October 29th, when Mr. Carl Wood, Jr., will give a program of American Folk songs.

MINIMUM RATE FOR

Coin Telephone Calls

First Increase in 70 Years

Effective on Wednesday, October 14th, the minimum rate for calls from New England Telephone Company coin telephones in Massachusetts became 10¢, in accordance with authorization by the Department of Public Utilities. This is the first increase in the minimum rate in Massachusetts' coin telephone history. Only calls within the present 5¢ calling area will be affected by the change. Calls that are a dime today will continue to be a dime. Thus, the new 10¢ calling area will include both the present 5¢ and 10¢ areas.

Costs of Providing Service Up Sharply

The costs of providing telephone service have increased sharply during the past few years. Since higher schedules of telephone rates have been found necessary to meet these higher costs, it seems only fair that users of coin telephone service should bear their share of the increase.

Most Coin Telephones
Have 10¢ Rate

A 10¢ initial rate is already effective or authorized for 83% of Bell System coin telephones. Applications have been filed for an additional 6%.

At each dial coin telephone, you will find instruction cards showing exactly how to call from that telephone, and a list of the outside localities that may be reached by dialing.

Please Read The Instruction Cards

If the receiver is replaced after a single nickel has been inserted, the coin will be returned.

LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS

Winchester's prospective Senior High School was advertised for contractors' bids on October 8, Mr. William J. Speers, Jr., chairman of the school building committee told members of the League of Women Voters at their opening meeting on October 7. Emphasizing that there has been no material change in the plans as they were presented to Town Meeting last spring, Mr. Speers reported that bids will be opened on November 5 and that the special Town Meeting on the school appropriation will probably be held the week of November 9.

With the building plans as they are and have been, the committee estimates that a portion of the structure can be ready in time for the opening of school in September 1954. Mr. Speers explained further that plans for remodeling the old high school building must be delayed until completion of the new High School.

The League also heard Mr. Joseph W. Butler, Jr., chairman of the Parkhurst school building committee, who reported that his committee has not reached a decision between building a new school or adding to the present one. Mr. Butler emphasized the need of more than temporary relief, since the rate of population growth in the area served by the Parkhurst school shows that seven additional rooms would be almost full as early as 1961.

Mr. Harry V. Gilson, new superintendent of schools, paid tribute to the chairman of the school committee and of the building committee. He pointed out that it would be impossible to buy the hours of devoted service of the quality that these citizens have given.

Mrs. William W. Davies presided over the meeting which was held at the home of Mrs. Howard Chidley. Mrs. Wilbert E. Underwood presented the proposed revision of by-laws, designed to bring the Winchester League up-to-date to conform with the national League of Women Voters procedure.

Mrs. Howard Aiken, vice-president in charge of unit meeting, announced the following meeting times and places for the League's small discussion groups.

BUTTERS APPOINTED CADDY COUNSELOR

Arthur E. Butters, head of the mathematics department of the Winchester High School and long-time member of the Winchester Country Club, has been appointed the first official caddy counselor to the Francis Ouimet caddy school, sponsored by the Massachusetts Golf Association. The appointment was announced by T. Edmund Garrity of Winchester, president of the scholarship foundation, at the annual directors' meeting held at the Weston Golf Club last week.

The Massachusetts association, composed of 12,000 members, is the second largest group of its kind in the United States. It contributed more than $14,000 this year to enable caddies to attend colleges of their choice. The first recipients of these scholarships graduated from college last June; and, at present, the association is aiding 70 boys in college, 22 of them freshmen. Grants are made for one year at a time, renewals being dependent upon demonstrated success, but so far there has never been a failure. Last summer Mr. Butters assisted in interviewing candidates for this year's scholarships, all of whom had been screened by a committee headed by Dean Rollins of the Harvard Business School. As caddy counselor to the caddy school, Mr. Butters will contact every one of the first-year class to discuss marks and financial problems. He will also be available for consultation with upper classmen.

Last Thursday evening, a large number of taxpayers attended the meeting at the High School auditorium to see slides of the proposed grade crossing elimination and by-pass, and to ask questions about the plan and its cost. Don S. Greer of the Board of Selectmen presented the slides and explanation of them, and Philip Wadsworth presided. The meeting had been called by the Selectmen and Planning Board, it was not a legislative hearing nor a protest meeting — and notices had been sent to nearly 200 people affected by the project so that they might attend this meeting.

There were seven slides, diagrams, and more are planned for the town meeting this week. The state will pay the cost of this elevating the railroad tracks, estimated at $6 million (including the by-pass from Washington street, across the Skillings estate, to upper Main street) and the town's share will be about $190,000 to be taken from the Excess and Deficiency Fund.

The audience last Thursday night was about evenly divided between the men and women who favored the elimination of the crossing by means of the overhead tracks, and those who felt the project to be a serious detriment to the town. Many of the listeners were property owners near the project, and were frankly worried about its effect on their homes, on valuations, and had many questions to ask about it. Mr. Charles Richardson and Mr. Edward Barker of the Worcester Company were present to answer questions. They explained that the upheaval in Winchester Square, for this project, would last about a year and a half. The State has spent over $100,000 in preliminary studies on this plan.

Since the early discussion on the overpass, there are plans for the by-pass, on which surveys have been working these past months. A good many taxpayers in the audience wondered if the by-pass could be used if the tracks were not raised. Mr. John Lathrop asked the question, and felt that the by-pass would relieve the center of the "choking traffic" and might be tried first.

Mr. Alonzo Woodside asked what the cost of this by-pass would be apart from the over-all project, and was told that the by-pass construction was estimated at $750,000. (Continued on Page 4)

PARENTS TO SEE SAMPLE ROOM AT W.H.S. OPEN HOUSE

In observance of American Education week Winchester High School will hold Open House on Thursday evening, November 5.

Parents familiar with the routine will be on hand promptly at 7:30 p. m. for the brief home room period to meet the home room teacher and the room mother as well as to hear the latest bulletin board presentation.

Following the home room period, parents will pass from class to class as their sons and daughters have already done on Thursday's schedule. Those in the Wadleigh building will go to the High School building for some classes, gym, music, art, and so forth. Parents of sophomores, juniors, and seniors who have speech or who have elected printing, mechanical drawing, bookkeeping, or business arithmetic will go to the Wadleigh building for those subjects.

During study halls the evening school members may pay their family dues, have refreshments in the cafeteria served by the Parent-Faculty ladies, visit Mr. Grindle in the Principal's office, or Mr. Demsey and Miss Bernhoff in the Guidance office.

Interesting displays in the library and the art studio will be well worth seeing and will furnish an opportunity to visit all parts of the building. Many will take this opportunity to see the so-called sample room, number 13 on the first floor, which obviously shows the advantage of tile floor, scissor-resistant ceiling, modern lighting, new trends in school room decoration, Room 13, renovated last year, sample of the complete renovation required for fitting out the present senior high school building in the event it is to be used as a junior high school.

TO LECTURE AT UNIVERSITY OF KANSAS

On Tuesday, October 27th, Dr. Alexander P. Aitken will be in Kansas City where he will serve as guest conductor and lecturer in a post graduate course on orthopedic surgery, presented by the Medical School of the University of Kansas. Dr. Aitken is Clinical Professor of Orthopedic Surgery at the Tufts College Medical School, chairman of the committee on Industrial Relations of the American College of Surgeons, and a member of the President's Committee on National Employment and the Physically Handicapped.

PLANS FOR NEW HIGH SCHOOL

A complete set of final working drawings and specifications covering the proposed alterations and additions to the Junior High School to convert it to a four-year High School will be available at the office of the Superintendent of Schools, for examination by any interested citizens.

CURLERS TO HAVE RINK

The Winchester Curlers are about to realize their 25-year old ambition, to have their own enclosed artificial ice. Soon there will be many ball-rooms amongst the older Curlers about "when-we-used-to" shovel snow off of the pond, scrape down the ice and then back the biting cold winds. All that will soon be changed.

Work has started on a new Curling Rink at the Winchester Country Club. The building will be about 170x50 feet and will be built directly over the black-top foundation put in by the Curlers several years ago. They had hoped then that there would be enough natural ice if there were a shallow water-tight foundation for flooding. This did not work out, both because of the mild winters lately and the sun-effect on the ice.

For the past two winters, The Country Club (Brookline) Curlers have kindly loaned their ice one night a week to a limited number of Winchester Curlers and this has greatly increased the interest of other members who have tried it once, or even watched it. Now the grand game of Curling will be available to all members.

Many of the older Curlers have volunteered to act as instructors for any interested members. Curling is perhaps one of the most amateur sports there is — there are just no Curling "Pros". Curling by the Ladies will also be encouraged (there are many women Curlers at the Country Club and Nashua.) Comfortable seating will be afforded "behind the glass" for those wanting to watch.

Funds for the construction have been raised largely amongst the Curling club. The club is also investing and the sport will be a club operation. The present fine restaurant and food at the club will undoubtedly be greatly helped over the usual dull winter months, if it works out as it has at all other Country Clubs that have added Curling as a winter sport.

There are no golf clubs, tennis racquets and such things to be bought. The club is simply add a sweater to your business clothes, wear rubbers or rubber-soled shoes and you are ready "to go" at an indoor Curling Rink.

The Star will give frequent progress reports on the building, new Curling members, committees and of course the game results. The ice is expected to be ready for operation early in January and probably can be kept up until early in April, thus assuring a good Curling season this winter.

MONTHLY EVENING SERVICES PLANNED

The church committee of the Second Congregational Church decided at its last meeting that there was a need for a Sunday evening service in their community. They felt that the many who had to work on Sunday would welcome both the bridge and bridge room, church service, even though it would be only once a month. Therefore, such a program will begin this Sunday at 7:30 p. m.

The committee especially advised this service to be upon an "informal fellowship" with a 15-minute "Song Service." Thus, there will be an opportunity for the people to select their favorite songs. Mr. Skeirik, pastor, will give a brief message from the book of Deuteronomy. This part of the service will conclude at 8:00 p. m. so that the remaining time can be used for personal fellowship and entertainment. This Sunday the entertainment will be presented by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Allen of West Medford. They will present color slides which they took on their trip to the following gardens: the Cyprus Gardens in Charleston, South Carolina, and West Haven, Florida, and the Bellingrath Garden near Mobile, Alabama.

If there is obvious support of such a program the church will continue it once a month throughout the year.

IMMACS WIN CHAMPIONSHIP

The Queensmen, which is the new name for the Immaculate Conception Drum and Bugle Corps of Woburn and Winchester, captured the Massachusetts Junior Drum and Bugle Corps Championship at the Gillis Memorial Stadium, Medford, Sunday afternoon for the third time. The local corps now holds the trophy for 1952, 1953 and 1954.

In addition to bringing home the championship for the corps, the meet awarded Joseph T. Callahan, Jr., the drum major championship. Your Callahan is the drum major for the Queensmen and before taking the assignment, he played every instrument in the band. He is a junior in Tufts Engineering School and is a member of the Reserve Officers Training School at the Medford college.

The All-Girls Color Guard of the local parish also won the championship in that division. Dr. Herbert A. K. Driscoll, pastor of the church, led the corps to the victory competition.

BAPTISTS PLAN HARVEST FAIR

Last year, First Baptist's annual fair was an outstanding success, and this season's fair, to be held at the church on Saturday, November 21st, promises to be the biggest and best yet, with more interesting booths and displays and a wider variety of unusual and worthwhile items for sale.

One of the outstanding attractions of the coming Harvest Fair will be a Parcel Post Booth featuring fascinating gifts from far-away places. Mailed back to Winchester this summer by vacationing church members, the "surprise" packages, still in their unbroken parcel post wrappings, have traveled from many different parts of the country and even from foreign lands.

Other colorful booths at the Baptist Fair will feature children's toys and gifts, food, aprons, grubs, dolls, candy, plants, scout handicrafts, and jewelry. The popular "Up-The-Attic-Stairs" display of last year will be repeated again this season with an even wider selection of "white elephants" and other old or unusual articles. The "General Store", offering a just about everything but the kitchen sink, will be another drawing card.

Starting at 10 a. m. on November 21st, and running all day and through the evening, the program will include a luncheon at noon and a real New England baked bean supper at 6:30. First Baptist's members, who are now busy making and collecting the thousands of items for their booths, hope that their many Winchester friends will plan to "come to the fair" on November 21st.

FRIENDS OF THE WINCHESTER HOSPITAL ANNUAL FALL MEETING

The annual fall meeting of the Friends of the Winchester Hospital was held on Wednesday afternoon, October 14, at the Nurses Home and was very well attended. Delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. Maude Callahan, Hospital-ity Chairman, and her committee. Pouring at the tea table were Mrs. Fulton Brown and Mrs. Howard A. Morrison.

During a short business meeting, Mrs. J. Warren Shoemaker, President, called for reports from the various committee chairmen, and it was announced that a croupette has been purchased for the children's ward by the Friends. Mrs. James B. Harlow, Chairman of Volunteer Services, spoke again of the ever-present need for volunteers, and it is hoped that anyone who is interested in service to the hospital will call Mrs. R. Richard Carvens at Winchester 6-1357.

The highlight of the afternoon was a panel discussion on "Know Your Hospital" led by Miss Ruby Willis. The panel board members and their topics included:

Mrs. E. D. Richmond, "The Nursing Staff";

Mrs. George A. Marks, "House-keeping, Stores, Laundry, Power Plant and Maintenance";

Mrs. Nelson C. Fonteneau, "Medical Records and Front Office";

Mrs. R. Ashley Lewis, "Central Supply";

Mrs. Gustav G. Kaufmann "Blood Bank, Clinical Pathology Laboratory, X-Ray";

Mrs. Joy Woolley, "Administration".

The members of the panel had spent many hours in research and interviews with department heads and the result was an extremely interesting and informative picture of our hospital. At the conclusion of the discussion, Mrs. Charles Green of the Public Relations Committee, Winchester Hospital Executive Board, announced that small conducted tours of the hospital can be arranged. If you would like to know your hospital better and would like to take such a tour, please call Mrs. Gustav Kaufmann, Winchester 6-3019.

Mr. Harlan L. Paine, Jr., Hospital Administrator, spoke briefly and thanked the Friends for their latest gift to the hospital, the croupette, and once again expressed the hospital's appreciation for work our organization has done.

HARRIERS DEFEAT MALDEN CATHOLIC

On Monday the high school harriers, still smarting from a drubbing at the hands of Wellesley last Friday, ran the Blue Jackets from Malden Catholic into the ground as they raced to an 18 to 45 victory at the Tufts college course.

The Red and Black runners moved out quickly at the start of the race and at the mile mark presented a solid block of runners broken only by Dunn of Malden Catholic running well in the third position. Farrell and Becker moving easily built up a solid lead and coasted in one and two. In the last half mile Bob Becker and Dick Borggaard cut down Dunn's lead and might have taken him if the race had been a bit longer. Charlie Govostes and Larry Tullberg took 6th and 7th places to complete the scoring for Winchester.

The W. H. S. varsity squad showed ed 100% improvement over their race against Wellesley and Everett Vocational last Friday. They are now pointing toward the Pilgrim Division Championship meet to be held at Essex Agricultural School, Danvers, on October 23rd. Wakefield and Wellesley rule as favorites but the Red and Black are hoping for one of their best days and they are planning to make a last ditch fight to retain their title. The individual championship looks to be a three man fight between Schwarz of Wakefield, Chapin of Wellesley and Farrell of Winchester. Schwarz holds a victory over both this season but both Chapin and Farrell are looking for the upset.

First 10 finishers:
1. Farrell (W) 13:29
2. J. Becker (W) 13:57
3. Dunn (MC)
4. Borggaard (W)
5. R. Becker (W)
6. Govostes (W)
7. Tullberg (W)
8. Moran (W)
9. Smith (W)
10. Keene (MC)

POSTER CONTEST

Artists among the Sunday school members in Winchester's Protestant churches are busy this week competing for honors in the poster contest. The posters are to be displayed Sunday, November 15th, as "Loyalty Day" in the United Church Canvass, which will be the date when all church goers are contacted for support.

The posters will be turned in on Sunday, October 25th, and after judging will be displayed in prominent show-windows around the town. Last year this contest aroused considerable rivalry among the participants and their productions evoked favorable comment from viewers.

The winners will be announced in next week's Star. The theme for "Loyalty Day" is "Your Church—the greatest hope for the world."

S. O. I. BOWLING LEAGUE

We rolled into the second week of bowling. The enthusiasm the boys are showing this year is incomparable to any other year gone by.

There were no complaints placed before the commissioner this week or to his assistant.

There was a great shuffle of the top five bowlers this week as they fell by the wayside and five new names appear in the limelight.

The standing of the five top bowlers is as follows:

	Average
R. Riga, Jr.	105.8
B. Tofuri	104.2
F. DiMambro	104
A. Fiore	99.7
A. Tibauda	99.2

The high single, the high triple and the high average belongs to one man, R. Riga, Jr.

There was also another record broken which should receive recognition. In looking through the records of years gone by, no other bowler equalled this record, let alone broke it. The "Boss" bowled 174 for a three string total.

The Wednesday night raffle went off on schedule. The winner was, for a change, our good friend "Arka" Amico.

We are expecting a greater show of excitement and enthusiasm upon the return to his Alma Mater of Wedding Bells Bob.

See you next week.

Five Smith College alumnae from this town attended the Smith Mobile program of alumnae held in Northampton on October 14th. They were: Miss Adelaide Homer, 62 Church street; Mrs. H. F. Lyman, 16 Stowell road; Mrs. H. K. Spencer, 1 Central Green; Mrs. C. P. Whorf, 2 Central Green and Mrs. R. S. Wilkins of 25 Cabot street.

WINCHESTER COASTS TO UNIMPRESSIVE WIN OVER STONEHAM, 26-13

With their minds on Melrose and Wakefield, both looking up at immediate and dangerous threats, Winchester's football team played well enough to win last Saturday at Stoneham, although out-scored in the second half by a scrappy Stoneham team sparked by a cool-headed quarterback in Saunders and a very elusive halfback in Lawrence, wearing No. 11 on his blue jersey.

If Winchester was playing under wraps in view of the coming game with Melrose this week, there may have been some excuse for being out-scored, if not out-played, by a lighter team during the second half of the game; for fumbling the ball on key plays; for several sloppy tackles; and for permitting young Mr. Lawrence, who weighed possibly 145 pounds, to waltz through their guards and tackles for several important nine or ten-yard journeys before being stopped by the safety man; for being fooled by a delayed forward pass two or three times, on one of which only a flying interception by Bellino saved a touchdown.

We don't mean to imply that Winchester played a poor game of football from whistle to whistle. Actually there were several individual contributions worth recording and worth watching, such as excellent blocking on end runs, perhaps the best of which were furnished by Dattilo and Bellino; the recovery of four Stoneham fumbles, two by Cullen and two by Dattilo; two interceptions of Stoneham passes by Murphy and Bellino to stop dangerous drives; Mike Murphy's battering-ram drives into the Stoneham back-field (if Mike would learn to use a straight-arm against would-be tacklers, he could go all the way and also save wear and tear on his helmet).

While each team racked up 13 first downs, Winchester carried the ball by land 235 yards to Stoneham's 156. Out-weighted man for man in both line and back-field, Stoneham became air-minded, completing six out of 8 passes for short distances, although missing on three long scoring attempts.

While missing on three tries, Winchester completed three for 28 yards, 9 yards, and 25 yards respectively, against a total of only 38 yards in six Stoneham aerials.

The game was marred by nine fumbles, three by Winchester. Possibly the loose ball was the result of hard tackling or hard-hitting line play. At any rate, the frequent fumbles added a spice of excitement to an otherwise oftentimes unexciting contest.

Winchester's forward line out-charged Stoneham's lighter line all afternoon, but, as in the Winthrop game of the previous week, delayed bucks frequently found big holes between guard and tackle for dangerous drives by Stoneham's left halfback Lawrence, who was a hard man to keep bottled up.

As the teams lined up for the second half, with the score 20 to 0 in favor of Winchester, Stoneham executed an onside kick which they recovered on the Winchester 40 yard line largely because the Winchester end on that side of the field was slow to grasp the situation. From then on Stoneham drove steadily to a score.

Winchester Seconds played more daring the first half than in the second, largely due to the fact that Stoneham was inspired by its first score and was able to control the ball a large part of the time.

The Red and Black should and will be up for the game this week at Melrose and will have to show a much more consistent and wide-awake defense than they showed against Stoneham. Melrose has one back that can go for the distance when he gets into the clear, and the Winchester line will be forced to drive into the Melrose backfield on every play to stop him.

Stoneham won the toss and elected to receive. Riordan kicked to Lawrence on the 20 and the run-back reached the 27 yard line. Saunders passed to Dixon on first down for eight yards. On the next play Dixon made three yards through left guard for a first down on the 35 yard line. Saunders made one at center and then passed to Dixon for seven more. On third down Dixon hit right tackle for two yards and a first down on the 48.

Jimmy Cullen recovered a Stoneham fumble of the next play and Winchester took over on Stoneham's 44. Murphy made a yard through tackle. Haggerty made another through guard. On third down Bellino whirled on a delayed buck to the 34 and a first down.

Haggerty lost a yard at left end. Murphy made five through center. Murphy made one yard through right tackle. Pratt passed to O'Brien for a touchdown from the 28 yard line. Riordan kicked the extra point. Score: Winchester 7, Stoneham 0.

Riordan kicked to Dixon on the five and the Stoneham back ran the kickoff back to the 22. On first down Saunders passed to Lawrence for six yards. Salera recovered a Stoneham fumble on the 31 and on the next play Dixon carried to the 36 for a first down.

Dixon lost a yard at left end and Lawrence drove through to the 40 for a first down which was nullified by a clipping penalty against Stoneham putting the ball back on the 35. Saunders passed to Thompson for five and on third down Saunders pass was intercepted by Murphy on the 36.

On the first play, Bellino, behind beautiful blocking by Dattilo, skirted right end for thirty yards to the Stoneham 6. On first down Murphy made three yards through tackle and on second down Bellino scored standing up on a delayed buck. Riordan missed the point after. Score: Winchester 13, Stoneham 0.

With several replacements in the lineup, Winchester kicked-off to Dixon on the five yard line. Dixon ran the ball back well to the 37. On second down, Dixon lost a yard at left end, but on second down Saunders passed to Thompson for a first down on Winchester's 42 yard line.

Dixon made seven yards through the line. Steele lost four on a delayed buck and on third down Saunders tried a long pass which was intercepted on the fifteen yard line by Bellino, saving a Stoneham score and carrying the ball to the 35 yard line.

After recovering his own fumble Pratt sent Murphy through center and the big back bulled his way to the Stoneham 45 for a first down. On the next play Stoneham recovered a fumble on their 46.

In spite of a five yard penalty on Winchester for an off-side, Stoneham was unable to make the necessary yardage for a first down and punted to Pratt on the Winchester 47, where he was downed immediately. The punt was short and although Stoneham was off-side Winchester refused the penalty and took possession of the ball.

With the Seconds taking over here, McLaughlin carried on first down to the Stoneham 38 for a first down. Making only four yards on three plays, Winchester was forced to punt. The pass from center was over McLaughlin's head and he finally fell on the ball on the 43 yard line, where Stoneham took over, only to fumble their chances away on the second play, Dattilo recovering on the Stoneham 48.

Bellino carried for five yards and Pratt passed to O'Brien on the Stoneham 34 for a first down. On first down, Bellino, behind fine blocking swept around right end for a touchdown, neatly side-stepping two would-be tacklers. Riordan kicked the point after. Score: Winchester 20, Stoneham 0.

Dixon took Rotundi's kickoff on the 10 and carried to the 31. Saunders passed to Dixon on the 37 for six yards. On second down Winchester recovered a fumble on the 38.

Rimbach made distance, but a clipping penalty put the ball back on the Stoneham 46, first down, 16 to go. Lindsey on a quarter-back end run, reached the Stoneham 29 for a first down. Rimbach drove off left tackle to the fifteen for another first down. On a long pass Lindsey overthrew his receiver and the half ended.

Opening the second half, Stoneham successfully engineered an onside kick and recovered the ball for a first down on the Winchester 40 yard line. Lawrence carried to the 36. On an attempted forward Stoneham was penalized five yards for off-side. On the next play Lawrence went through the line for 13 yards to the 28. Steele made it first down on the 26 on a line buck. Lawrence lost a yard through tackle but picked up 9 yards through left guard to the 18. Dixon hit the center of the line for 2 yards and another first down on the 16.

Lawrence made only 2 yards at center and Cullen recovered a Stoneham fumble on the next play on the 12 yard line. On first down, Murphy hit the center of the Stoneham line like a truck and ploughed through for the score. Rotundi failed to make the point after. Score: Winchester 26, Stoneham 6.

Stoneham returned the kickoff from the 25 to the 39. Dixon carried to the 44 and the third quarter ended with the ball in Stoneham's possession.

Dixon made a first down on the 50 yard line. Symmes made only one at center, but in two rushes Lawrence made a first down on the Winchester 30. Lawrence carried again to the 24 and Steele made a first down on the 20.

Dixon made 2 through center and Lawrence drove again to the 7 for a first down. After being held for no gain on the next play, Lawrence scored through right tackle. Winchester was off-side on the try for point and on the second attempt the kick was good. Score: Winchester 26, Stoneham 13.

Stoneham kicked to Murphy on the 36 and he was stopped there. After three plays totaled only five yards, Winchester was forced to punt. Bellino getting off a beauty to the Stoneham 14 where the ball was grounded. On first down Dixon ran for 30 yards to the 44. Dattilo recovered a Stoneham fumble on the next play on the 46.

Murphy drove for 9 yards through center and made it first down on the next play on the 31. After two unsuccessful plays Murphy made another first down on the 18 round right end. An incomplete pass was followed by a well-executed reverse from Murphy to Bellino, who carried to the one yard line. A penalty put the ball back on the six and the whistle ended the game with Winchester threatening to score.

ART ASSOCIATION MEMBERS' SHOW

As varied as the personalities included in the Winchester Art Association are the abilities revealed in the exhibition now in the Library gallery. The traditional style is represented in all the usual ways except that none of the paintings is "stuffy"; in competent land and seascapes, portraits, and animal studies done in the meticulous manner usually associated with Chinese or Persian artists. Several members have contributed two canvases, in each case showing versatility as to medium and subject.

Those paintings contemporary in style are in a considerable minority as to number but they concede nothing in the matter of capability. Outstanding among these is the painting "Gloaming Nets" which Mrs. J. L. Lobinger painted this spring and entered in the Boston Art Festival in the Garden. It was also exhibited in the Rockport Art Association competitive show where it was awarded the Eric Hudson prize for the best contemporary representation in oil or water color.

The Association is especially proud that this exhibition, in addition to its local and personal interest, so well exemplifies Winchester's place in the world of art.

YOUTH CHOIR ORGANIZED

The Second Congregational Church has asked the pastor's wife, Mrs. Skerik, to direct a Youth Choir. A rehearsal was called for last Friday with fourteen presenting themselves for membership. All the youth from the church between the ages of eight and fourteen are encouraged to join. The Youth Choir will have its practice each Friday afternoon at 3:15 p.m. at the church. They will be given the opportunity of singing once a month in the morning service and on special Sundays throughout the year. The highlight of this fall season will be the sponsoring of a Christmas Eve candlelight service. The choir mothers are Mrs. John Parish, Mrs. John Reynolds and Mrs. Warren Saunders.

A party will be planned on occasions for the entertainment of the youth. The first party will be on Saturday, October 31, at 2 p.m.

Mr. Greer added that if the town voted for the plan set forth by the selectmen, and outlined in the warrant for the meeting October 22, and if no referendum was asked for, the selectmen would be empowered to continue negotiations with the State and the State would begin work immediately, starting first work clearing the Railroad area near Swanton street, and building temporary trestles. The Railroad would offer its materials needed, Western Union and signaling equipment would be moved, and by Spring, contracts for work would be awarded. The town is asked for $190,000 — a sum the Selectmen assured the audience would be a guaranteed figure. In the meantime, while the preliminary building is going on, traffic will have to be re-routed, and on this subject, help will be asked from the Traffic Department of the State.

JUNIOR RED CROSS AT NOONAN SCHOOL

The first meeting of the Noonan School chapter of the Junior Red Cross was held recently, with the entire school in attendance. To open the program everyone joined in the Pledge of Allegiance and in the singing of the Star Spangled Banner. Reports were read by Secretary James Flaherty and Treasurer Patricia Parino.

Following these reports, each of the room representatives was heard from. Among these were Harry Lindmark, Mary Dooly, Kevin Collins, Alice Quigley, Kevin Cullen, Lorraine Dewar, Marilyn Walsh, Jean Longiro, and Henry Cogan.

One of the most interesting parts of the program was the talk by Ronald Chabot on the subject, "Why We Should Give to the Red Cross." Ronald said, "We should all be proud when we wear a Red Cross button, for it means that we have given something of ours to help others less fortunate than we are."

At the conclusion of the regular meeting, a program on Courtesy was presented, with each of the grades participating. William Haggerty was the master of ceremonies. Miss McAuley's kindergarten presented 10 poems that they are trying to be good citizens, while those in Mrs. Gunderson's class told about the flag. Pupils in Mrs. Mead's Grade 1 showed how they can be helpful around the building, and Mrs. Hancock's first graders presented pictures and stories on "How We Can Make Our Room a Happy Place to Work and Play." Children from the upper grades contributed original stories, songs, and dances. An original manner usually associated with Chinese or Persian artists. Several members have contributed two canvases, in each case showing versatility as to medium and subject.

WINCHESTER HOSPITAL NEWS

Mr. Harlan L. Paine, Jr., the administrator of Winchester Hospital, has just attended a course conducted by the American College of Hospital Administrators in cooperation with the Harvard Business School. Chief subjects were personnel relations and management techniques, legal aspects of hospital administration, accounting and medical records. The final afternoon was devoted to practical round table discussions. About one hundred hospital administrators from the East attended the course from October 6th to 10th.

The second course to train hospital aides began at the hospital on October 19th, under the direction of Mrs. Mary Mullee, R. N. Thirteen students are enrolled, coming from Wakefield, Woburn, Tewksbury, Melrose and Winchester. The graduation date is November 30th, at which time the aides will receive caps and diplomas, and will then take their places as part of the nursing team at the hospital.

WINCHESTER LEGION AUXILIARY

Chairman Grace Froberg has loads of fun planned for the Halloween Dance at the Legion Home, Saturday, October 31. Costumes are optional, so get your crowd together for a safe Halloween.

Christmas gifts for the disabled veterans should be brought to the next meeting Monday, November 2. Gifts may be for men or for women. Don't forget to include ribbon. For further information contact Bea Sullivan, Winchester 6-0536-J.

Don't forget your dues.

"THE MALE ANIMAL"

With football in the air and academic freedom in the news, the Unitarian Players appropriately present "The Male Animal" by James Thurber and Elliott Nugent on November 13 and 14.

This gay and winning comedy seems even more timely in its struggle of ultra-conservative censorship against liberal education than when it was first presented by the group in 1941. This perhaps prompted its successful Broadway revival of last season. As for the lighter vein, time has hardly altered the sexes, which Thurber has here transported from his cartoons to the stage.

Referring these two struggles as rehearsals progress is Dr. John R. Woodruff, co-director of the Tufts College Theatre and a resident of Winchester. His able craftsmanship and active experience in the theatre has been a boon to the Players and their audience.

From his last role as the gum-chewing, fast-working reporter in "State of the Union," Bradford Darling now turns absent-minded professor as Tommy Turner, whose life goes placidly along until a disturbing ripple challenges his composure, jeopardizes the sanctity of his life.

A similar triangle among the college students involves another newcomer, William Symes, as the intellectual Michael Barnes; Robert McEasters, also in his first role, here as football hero Wally Chester. Mr. A. J. Hewis brought up another pertinent point, on what plan the town has for any rearrangement or disruption of town services such as gas, light, water, fire, and this question was promised an answer at a town meeting.

The question was also asked why the overhead Railroad question was being taken up by the town meeting members before the question of the school money had been raised by a bond issue. On this there was a murmur among the parents in the audience, who hope to see schools started as the town's No. 1 project.

Following the Preaching Mission of this past week, the Crawford Memorial Methodist Church is now at the beginning of an attendance drive which will cover 10 Sundays. It is an endeavor to carry out the "Holy Habits" stressed in the Mission.

Comments from the special spirit of this mission are most favorable and plans will be made for another such type Mission next year.

This Sunday morning the pastor, Rev. John Snook, Jr., will deal with the desire of the pastor to use the which most of us face in this day and age. His subject for the morning is, "How Do You Face A Problem?"

Members and friends are invited to share in this fellowship.

JUNIOR HIGH FELLOWSHIP

The second regular meeting of the Unitarian Junior High Fellowship was held at the church on Sunday, October 18th.

The members made plans to hold a dance and party on the evening of November 7th.

A number of vocations were chosen for consideration and discussion throughout the year. In order of popularity they were the military, medicine and nursing, journalism, forestry, music and the theatre.

Following the business meeting the members enjoyed games and refreshments.

GIRL SCOUT NEWS

More than 2,000,000 Girl Scouts throughout the nation will participate in the observance of Girl Scout Week, October 25-31, in memory of the founder of Girl Scouting in the United States, the late Juliette Gordon Low, who was born in Savannah, Ga., October 31, 1860.

One of the highlights of this year's national observance of Girl Scout week will be the publication of the tenth edition of the "Girl Scout Handbook" containing up-to-date information on Girl Scout activities and describing new badges, which will be featured in Filene's window during the week.

Locally the Winchester Girl Scouts will attend church services on mass on Sunday, November 1st, at the First Congregational Church. They will meet in the Ladies' Parlor at 10:20 a. m. promptly. Girls from St. Mary's Church will meet their leaders at St. Mary's School promptly at 8:40 a. m. on October 25, to attend the 9 o'clock Mass.

The 32nd National Girl Scout Convention is being held this week in Cincinnati, Ohio.

The Finance Committee of the Winchester Council will meet at the Girl Scout Office on Monday, October 26th, at 8 p. m.

The Winchester Girl Scout Leaders Club will hold its first fall meeting on October 28 at the Cabin at 10 a. m. Leaders and their assistants are urged to attend. This is an excellent opportunity for new leaders to become familiar with the purposes and aims of the local Leaders Club.

At the first fall meeting of the Board of Directors, held recently at the Girl Scout Cabin, enthusiastic reports from functional committee chairmen were received. Chairmen who were unable to be present will give their reports at the Association Meeting of the Council to be held soon.

Notice from Troop 4, Mrs. Vivian White Leader:

"If you have any clothing, hats, sportswear such as skates, ski togs, etc., children's out-grown clothing or toys, anything at all for which you have no further use, Troop 4 would gratefully accept and greatly appreciate any and all donations to our Rummage Sale to be held November 7th. Donations can be left at the Scout Office, or if you wish, just call the Scout Office, Winchester 6-2592, and your bundle will be picked up."

WINCHESTER HOME AND GARDEN CLUB

The Fall meeting of the Winchester Home and Garden Club was held at the home of Mrs. Wilfred McKenzie, 20 Ardley place on Wednesday afternoon, October 14th.

Mr. Allan H. Wood, Jr., was the speaker, his subject being "Autumn Planting and Winter Care". From his wide knowledge and experience he gave many valuable suggestions on the care of our gardens and explained that great care and wisdom is needed in preparing them for the winter months. How to prevent the rabbits from eating the garden flowers and vegetables! Place coco-cola bottles flush with the ground near the flowers and vegetables, and Lo! Mr. Rabbit and even Mr. Woodchuck, a most mysterious and terrifying noise. Another helpful suggestion is to plant ones tulip bulbs 8 to 14 inches deep, in so doing the bulbs will not have to be removed and will blossom for several years. Following his lecture a question period was held and again Mr. Wood proved

REV. ROBERT H. LITTLE

THE SENIOR FORUM

As is their custom on the last Sunday of the month, Forum will this Sunday attend Church at 10:45 to hear their pastor, Dr. Cart, speak on "The Devil's Double Talk." Forum Chaplain will be President Harold McKinley, Jr. Ushers will be Allan Cairncross, Kendall Cleaves, Robert Crockett, David Gowing, William Jesdale and Craig Muncester, and acting as deacons will be Stephen Dunn, Renner Johnston, Niles Nelson, Andrew Robertson, William Ross and Drew Sawyer. All Forum members are reminded to check their attendance on the Tag Board in the Church Vestibule before they go to Church.

At 5:30 p. m. Forum will gather for their evening's program which will get off to a good start with a chance to meet a very special person in the Congregational Youth groups, Bob Rasche who is the student head of the Pilgrim Fellowship for the State of Massachusetts, and a student at Northeastern University. Those who came to know Bob Rasche at summer conference are eagerly anticipating the chance to renew his acquaintance, and are sure that all Forum members will also thoroughly enjoy the privilege of meeting him.

At six o'clock supper will be served by Mrs. Ross Cunningham and her committee, Mrs. Robert Tonon, Mrs. Fenton Norris and Mrs. Richard Gould.

At the supper, Forum will have another special guest, their friend Rev. Robert H. Little of the Dane Street Congregational Church in Beverly. Mr. Little has been a "must" on the young people's program for several years and they again await with much interest his talk on "The Million Dollar Alibi."

Two very busy committee chairmen at this particular time are Dottie Pratt and Judy Roberts, who head up the Work Day for Christ activities scheduled for October 30 and 31. On these two days members of Forum will work on a variety of jobs and donate their earnings to the Christian World Mission to be distributed among the following five projects: East Harlem Protestant Parish, Spanish Speaking Churches in the Southwest, National Leadership Training Fund, and scholarships for youths in the Johannesburg Mission in Africa and the German Youth Training Center. They have set their goal at $300 and would welcome the cooperation of members of the Church parish in furnishing jobs for this worth-while project.

THE FORTNIGHTLY

The Fortnightly opened its 73rd Season Monday, October 19th, in the First Baptist Church with a large attendance of members and guests. From twelve-thirty to one-thirty a delicious luncheon was served under the chairmanship of Mrs. Harold E. Bergquist. Mrs. Lora Bond Rhodes and her committee are to be commended for the gay table centerpieces and Fall flowers and leaves which decorated the platform and added much to the festivity of the occasion.

The President, Mrs. Sidney A. Burr, opened the business meeting promptly at 2:00 p. m. during which Mrs. Robert H. Perkins, the Club's Federation Secretary, read an excellent report of the Federation meeting held in Swampscott last Spring. From all reports this promises to be a very busy and worthwhile year.

A delightful musical program was presented by Miss Nina Spaulding, violinist, and Mrs. Natalie Weidner, pianist, who both captivated the audience with their charm and dramatic ability as well as their excellent music. Well known numbers by Borowski, Kreisler, Liszt, and D'Ambrasio were given as well as a few popular melodies. At the close of the program Miss Spaulding and Mrs. Weidner played several songs by Victor Herbert which the audience enjoyed singing.

Next Regular Meeting
The next regular meeting of The Fortnightly will be held Monday, October 26th, in the First Baptist Church at 2:00 p. m. with the President, Mrs. Sidney A. Burr in the chair. There will be a report of the General Federation Convention at Washington, D. C., given by our President.

A collection for Co-operation with War Veterans will be taken up at this meeting.

The program for the afternoon will be presented by "Cecile," lecturer and radio commentator on "Beauty, Fashion, and Charm."

FREE BADMINTON INSTRUCTION
Do you know how to play Badminton? Would you be interested in free instruction? The Winchester Badminton Club is a non-profit organization for town residents and town employees above high school age. Members play on Tuesday and Thursday evenings, 7:30 to 11:00 p. m. from October through April in the Senior High School Gymnasium.

For four weeks, beginning next Tuesday, one court will be reserved from 7:30 to 9:00 for free instruction for beginners and novices. Anybody interested may come for one evening without membership charge.

Annual dues are very reasonable, badminton birds may be purchased at cost and rackets may be rented for the evening of play. All one needs is play clothing and flat soled sneakers. Come for an evening of play, as mild or as strenuous as you desire.

If you wish further information, call Larry Palmer, Winchester 6-3779; or Virginia Hutchings, Winchester 6-0865-W.

PLYMOUTH DISPLAYING '54 MODELS

The new Plymouth for 1954 went on display throughout the United States on Friday, October 16, with the local display at Logan and Chrusz Motors, Inc., 7 Shore road.

The new Plymouth may be seen here at Logan and Chrusz Motors Inc., 7 Shore road.

"We are confident that people will like the new beauty of our 1954 cars, says President John P. Mansfield of Plymouth. "We are absolutely certain that they are the most durable, best riding, best performing and roomiest cars that Plymouth has ever built."

Plymouth is using the link type of power steering. The hydraulic "muscle" is in the steering linkage. Plymouth officials say it is the most effective, compact and serviceable installation produced for cars in the low price field. It reduces steering effort up to 80 per cent, permits fingertip control in tight parking situations and promotes safe driving through lessening of driver fatigue and absorption of road shock.

In its 1954 line, Plymouth offers three options in power drives. Hy-drive, a no-shift unit made up of a combination of torque converter and three-speed transmission, was introduced during the 1953 model year. It will be in volume production for 1954 models. The two other options are Synchro-Silent, three-speed transmission, and Synchro-Silent with Overdrive, which provides a fourth forward speed for cruising. Mansfield said more than half the Plymouths now being produced have either Hy-Drive or Overdrive.

FALL MEETING OF WOMEN'S COUNCIL
The fall meeting of the Winchester Women's Council was held in the Public Library October 16, the president officer was Mrs. William C. Cusack. There was a representative showing of a goodly number of fifty women's organizations of Winchester. Representative speakers from the American Red Cross, Community Fund, Winchester Home Frontiers and Military Man Power Committee addressed the group briefly and in all instances the appeal was for co-operation and volunteer helpers to assist in carrying on these worth while projects.

The principal speaker was the new Superintendent of Schools, Dr. Harry Gilson, who presented some of the major problems now facing the community as connected with the school situation. Dr. Gilson urged that all organization members be more conversant with school problems and try to take a more active interest in the affairs of civic importance.

Miss Katharine Toll, representing the United Council on World Affairs, spoke of the work being done by the Council and issued a gracious invitation to hear Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt when she is in Boston November 5 at Hayden Auditorium.

Y. P. F.
The Young Peoples Fellowship of the Church of the Epiphany will present a discussion on the study of the Gospel of St. Luke on Sunday, October 25th at seven o'clock. There will be group discussions on this subject with everyone participating. Suggested preparation will be to read the Gospel of St. Luke.

Providing the discussion will be a worship service in the church. All new members are invited to come and join in on the discussion. An interesting discussion is promised for everyone.

COMMUNITY SCHOOL PAST AND FUTURE

The quality of Christian education in Winchester's Protestant Churches this year will be better because of the training received in the Community School of Christian Education which closed last Monday. Approximately one hundred and fifteen were registered during the five weeks of classes, and many favorable comments have testified to the valuable help received.

Thanks are due to all who aided the school, most particularly to Rev. Walter E. Bailey and the First Baptist Church for making available its excellent facilities for the five evenings. To Rev. Lawrence F. Small, Dean of the school, much credit is due for its direction and leadership. Mrs. Hugh J. Erskine provided the valuable stimulus of a well-stocked literature table of helpful books and pamphlets from the Public Library, and a bibliography prepared by Miss Corinne Mead and her staff.

Mrs. Warren P. Eldridge served as efficient secretary and registrar of the school, Mr. Benjamin Gowing as treasurer, and Mrs. Norman J. Padelford as publicity chairman. All expenses of the school were cared for by the Protestant Ministers' Association of Winchester and our gratitude for this generosity is very sincere.

The planning committee which is made up of the ministers and representatives of each of the Protestant Churches of Winchester will hold a meeting on Friday evening, November 6, to evaluate the results of the school just completed and begin to lay plans for next year's school. Christian education is a continuing responsibility and an annual school for Church School teachers and others interested in Christian work with children is a necessary aspect of our program. Any suggestions for constructive improvement will be received gladly by anyone on the planning committee.

TUESDAY GROUP

The first meeting of the Tuesday Group of the Church of the Epiphany was held on Tuesday, October 13th, at the home of Mrs. J. K. Colony.

Mrs. Warren D. Haley, Chairman of the Tuesday Group, presided at what proved to be a very interesting and lively business meeting. After the opening prayer, Mrs. Haley graciously welcomed all newcomers and asked them to stand so all could say "Hello" to them too. She then asked for the reports of the Secretary, Mrs. Edward Morse, and of the Treasurer, Mrs. Robert Nyere. The following then spoke briefly: Mrs. Garrett Graves for Ways and Means, Mrs. William Hopkins for Program, Mrs. John Bird for Hospitality, and Mrs. Donald McLean for the Cradle Roll. In behalf of the Church Service League, Mrs. Gerald Hills asked for good used clothing to send overseas. Mrs. Donald Heath told of the number of surgical dressings made for the hospital every week and expressed hope that even more could be made, and finally Mrs. H. C. Fairfield asked everyone interested to come to the Church on Tuesdays to sew.

After more discussion of various Church projects including the Bazaar to be held on November 13th, the meeting was adjourned and delicious tea was served by Mrs. Virginia Dickey and her committee.

METCALF UNION

An interesting program has been planned for this Sunday evening when Metcalf Union, the high school fellowship, meets at the Unitarian Church at 7 o'clock.

The group will make plans for a dance and for a social outing, in addition to completing arrangements to attend a sectional Federation meeting in Lexington November 15.

Elections of officers and of committees will be completed. There will be a period of organized recreation, reports by delegates on Star Island conferences and Fall Rally, refreshments and a worship service.

Metcalf Union numbers about 40 members. Its officers are: Edward Johnston, president; Robert Smith, treasurer and Ellen Glowacki, secretary. A new vice president will be chosen to succeed John MacLean who is attending Choate School.

WYMAN MOTHERS' ASSOCIATION FALL MEETING

The fall meeting of the Wyman Mothers' Association was held Thursday evening, October 15th, in the Wyman Auditorium, with the hall almost full, in spite of the fact that the grade crossing hearing was in progress the same evening.

After a brief talk outlining the aims of the Association for the year, the president, Mrs. Charles P. Reeves, introduced the principal, Miss Mabel Lowry, who gave a short, inspiring talk and then introduced the individual teachers.

Mrs. R. Bruce LaRose presented the room and ticket mothers for each grade.

Mrs. Thomas Hill announced that the one all-out ways and means project for the year will be a repeat of last year's very successful informal dance, to be held Saturday, November 7th.

Mrs. Bradford Bradley outlined the dancing and athletic programs for fifth and sixth-grade pupils.

Mrs. Reeves then introduced our new superintendent of schools, Dr. Harry V. Gilson, who gave a very interesting talk, emphasizing his belief in the public school as one of the foundations of democracy, and pointing out the ways in which parent-teacher groups can be most effective in promoting better schools.

A very pleasant social hour in the kindergarten room followed the meeting.

MUSIC PROGRAM AT THE LIBRARY

Come and relax every Wednesday while listening to the world's greatest compositions recorded by the finest artists. The music begins at 3 p. m. and is played again at 7:30 p. m.

WALTZ EVENING

A Waltz Evening, sponsored by the Friends of the Winchester Hospital, was held last Friday at the town hall. The sparkling decorations set a gay Venetian scene for the large group of dancers. Many beautiful orchid corsages were sold for the ladies, and the entire evening proved to be a great success.

Mrs. John K. Colony held the lucky number, her prize being presented by Dr. George A. Marks, medical staff representative to the board of directors of the Winchester Hospital.

The waltz contest, focal point of the evening, was judged by Mr. and Mrs. Francis Perroset. Winners of the first prize were Mr. and Mrs. Allen Roy Kingston of Somerville. Second prize went to Mrs. George A. Marks and Mr. Sherman Russell, third prize, Mrs. Thomas Worthen and Mr. F. Lee Foster, Jr. Following the waltz contest Mr. and Mrs. Perroset delighted the audience with an excellent exhibition number.

TOWN MEETING SUPPORTS SELECTION

$190,000 FOR GRADE CROSSING
LAND DAMAGES VOTED

One hundred and eighty-three of the limited town meeting's 229 precinct members voted overwhelmingly at a special town meeting last week Thursday evening to support the Selectmen's endorsement of the State Department of Public Works' plan to eliminate the grade crossing in Winchester Center by raising the B & M tracks through town, appropriating $190,000 to be taken from the Excess and Deficiency Fund of the town to pay for land damages incurred in connection with the project.

The vote was 143 in favor and 23 opposed, leaving 17 who did not vote or had left the hall before the vote was taken. The hall was well filled for the meeting which lasted from 7:50 until 11:40 p. m. Moderator Philip Wadsworth presided.

In addition to appropriating the $190,000 the delegates voted to authorize the Selectmen, or the chairman of the Board of Selectmen to enter into a grade crossing agreement with the Commonwealth through its Department of Public Works, or with any other parties in interest which will provide for the elimination of the grade crossing in the center and the construction in connection therewith of a traffic by-pass through traffic around the center.

Chairman Greer of the Board of Selectmen spoke first, reviewing the history of the grade crossing controversy during the last 50 years and describing briefly some of the plans, other than the overhead tracks plan which had been adopted for the crossing's elimination. Among those described were the Vinal Plan, the Redfern Plan, the Stone Arch Bridge Plan, the Braddock-Symmes Plan, the Kellaway Plan and others.

Continuing, Mr. Greer told how in 1945 a town meeting voted the Selectmen $2,500 to obtain technical assistance in their study of the elimination problem and of the retaining of Col. Moore as advisor and consultant. At a hearing held in November, 1945, Mr. Greer said, a sense of the meeting vote showed 436 in favor of eliminating the grade crossing by raising the tracks, seven for the Kellaway Plan and one for the Vinal Plan.

Interest centers this year in the speaker, the Reverend John Skeirik, who is newly come to the Second Congregational Church and has very kindly agreed to speak.

This meeting is also the famous "ingathering" of the needleworkers donated by the members, two from each, for distribution by the social agencies of Winchester.

It is earnestly hoped that many friends and members will come to the meeting to hear Rev. Skeirik; to meet the social agencies representatives; to see the exhibition of articles that have been given and to have a social hour.

Plans for this meeting were made at a directors' meeting held at the home of the president, Mrs. Wayne B. Thompson, at 3 Crescent road, on Wednesday the 21st. The directors are:

REFERENDUM PAPERS OUT

Papers have been in circulation this week petitioning the Selectmen for a referendum on the recent vote of the special town meeting appropriating $190,000 as the town's share of the six million dollar project to eliminate the grade crossing in the center by raising the railroad tracks, and authorizing the Selectmen or chairman of the Board of Selectmen to enter into definite agreements with the Commonwealth of Massachusetts through the Department of Public Works, or with any other parties in interest which will provide for elimination in this way, and for the construction therewith of a traffic by-pass through traffic around the center.

Referendum papers were taken out by Arthur J. Lewis, Jr., and Lorence M. Woodside. The signatures of 250 registered voters are necessary on the petition which must be filed with the Board of Selectmen by 4:30 Thursday, October 29.

If, after check by the registrars of voters, the signatures are found to be correct and the petition is in order, the Selectmen shall hold a meeting within ten days of the receipt of the petition and then shall set a date for the referendum which must be within 14 days of the Selectmen's meeting. A tentative date of November 24 has been set for the referendum with the word at the town hall being that it will not be held later than that.

Presuming that the requisite number of signatures are secured and the referendum is called, this will mark the second time a referendum has been held in connection with the overhead crossing proposal.

At the 1952 town meeting the delegates voted 151 to 1 to approve the plan to eliminate the grade crossing by raising the tracks and to authorize the Selectmen to operate in any way with state and county officials to bring about the elimination.

A referendum on this vote was held, and following a red hot campaign, the voters sustained the town meeting decision by a vote of 3,120 to 1,744.

This year's town meeting vote appropriating the $190,000 for land damages and authorizing the Selectmen to make definite agreements in the matter of the elimination was 143 in favor and 23 opposed, with 16 not voting.

Should the referendum vote again sustain the plan, it is little doubt that the authorities can justifiably feel that a majority of the town sufficiently interested to vote on the matter, has approved the overhead tracks plan to elimination.

What the authorities will feel should the opponents of the elimination by raising the tracks prove successful in overthrowing the vote of the town meeting by referendum is a question. When asked about such a contingency in advance of the recent hearing and town meeting the Chairman of the Board of Selectmen quite frankly replied that he did not know.

He felt that the town's refusal to approve the overhead tracks plan and to appropriate the funds for land damages would put the entire matter up to the state, which he did not doubt, under the law, would, if so desired, have the right to proceed with the project anyway.

The cost of the entire project of raising the tracks and providing the diversionary highway through the Skillings estate is set at six million dollars, but since it was stated at both the hearing and subsequent town meeting that the plans are not yet entirely complete and will be subject to change in the actual working phases of the job, it can be believed, especially by those who have doubted the wisdom of the project from the start, that the cost will exceed the figure named, perhaps by quite a sum.

Especially have the State authorities been busy with plans for the traffic bypass over the old Black Ball Pond area, and as late as the town meeting it was admitted that engineering decisions are still to be made before plans for this undertaking are in finished form.

SPECIAL TOWN MEETINGS

JUNIOR HIGH REMODELING
ON NOVEMBER 12 DOCKET.
TWELVE ARTICLES, INCLUDING PARKHURST SCHOOL
ADDITION, NOVEMBER 16

Close upon the heels of the special town meeting ended to consider the abolition of the Grade Crossing in the Center, the Selectmen have set the dates for two more special meetings, the first for Thursday, November 12, and the second for Monday, November 16.

The first of the two meetings will consider exclusively the report of the Building Committee for Additional Facilities for the Senior and Junior High Schools and will determine whether the town will authorize the committee to proceed with its plans and specifications to remodel and enlarge the present junior high school to house a four year senior high school and will also determine whether the town will authorize the committee to proceed with its plans and specifications to remodel and enlarge the present high school building to house a two-year junior high school.

In the event the meeting does so instruct the committee, it will be asked to appropriate money from the town's Excess and Deficiency Fund to authorize the appropriation and expenditure of all or any portion of the Sale of Town Property Account, and to authorize the borrowing of money and the issuance of obligations of the town therefor under any provision of law.

No mention is made in the warrant for the November 12 meeting, or in fact in either of the two special meetings, to act upon the Committee's previously announced plan to remodel and renovate the present high school building to house a two-year junior high school.

Twelve articles will be brought up for consideration by the November 12 meeting, the first being to hear the report of the Lewis Parkhurst School Addition Building Committee and to see if the town will authorize the construction of a six-room addition to the Parkhurst School, which would include the Building Committee to proceed with such construction.

If the Committee is authorized to proceed with this construction the meeting will be asked to appropriate money from the town's Excess and Deficiency Fund to authorize the borrowing of money and issuance of obligations of the town for such construction under any provision of law.

WINCHESTER COMMUNITY FUND DRIVE OPENS SUNDAY

With its 1954 slogan of "How About a Lift?" through the town, some 650 volunteer workers will open Winchester's 1954 Red Feather Campaign to raise $59,800. Doorbells will start to ring on Sunday morning, the longest running campaign in the town, and will continue throughout the week, ending Sunday, November 8.

Arthur W. Pratt, Winchester Red Feather chairman, appealed to all residents to give generously. He said, "Remember that your own community when you give to the United Red Feather Campaign. Last year, 6 agencies in Winchester gave help to 2737 residents. In addition, over 1000 residents were served by Red Feather agencies located in other communities. 300 Red Feather agencies, including those in Winchester, plus the United Defense Fund, need your help."

The six Winchester Red Feather agencies are: Winchester Home for the Aged, Winchester Society of St. Vincent de Paul, Winchester Girl Scouts, Winchester Boy Scouts, Winchester District Nursing Association, and Winchester Hospital.

Your gift is a lift for all.

FOR W.H.S. CLASS OF 1938

Last Saturday evening at the Hampshire House in Boston, the Winchester High School Class of 1938 held its first reunion since leaving school, its 15th! More than 125 gathered for this occasion, some coming from as far as Washington, D. C., for the event.

Art and Loretta (Conney) Johnson, as master and mistress of ceremonies, took charge of the program, introducing Dan Delorey, president of the class, who welcomed the members of the class and guests. After reporting on the members of the class who were deceased President Delorey returned the program to Art, who introduced the honored guests, Mrs. Robert Daly (Mary Mackeson) to whom the class yearbook was dedicated, coming all the way from Connecticut to join in the celebration; and Mr. Edward A. Bartlett, currently principal of the Wadleigh Building and popular basketball coach at the High School. High School Principals and Mrs. W. L. Grinnell were also invited to attend, but were unable to do so.

Mrs. Daly expressed pleasure at being asked to join in the festivities and told of happenings since leaving the High School.

Mr. Bartlett was then called upon and first expressed regrets from the Grindles at being unable to be present. He then gave a resume of the class activities in the field of athletics, which included the Thanksgiving football game with Woburn, which Winchester won by the largest score that has been made to date, 46-0.

He listed the changes in the school program, getting the new courses added to the curriculum since 1938, and also telling about the teachers who are still at the school, there being thirteen in all. Mr. Bartlett expressed his pleasure in being included in the reunion party, stating that this had been his first reunion with a class from Winchester High School, he too having started teaching at the school in the latter part of 1937.

Presented to all the guests from the class and a special gift was presented to Mrs. Daly, a set of matched jewelry, made and designed by Miss Grace Irwin, a member of the class. A gift is to be presented to "Tommy" Parsons, a member of the Winchester Police Department who has been confined to the hospital with polio and could not be present.

Gifts were presented to members of the class coming the greatest distance, the longest married, most recently married, (six months) the most children, (seven); and for the most recently born baby (4 weeks).

"Punching followed the singing of the class song for future classes planning reunions, is not a class song at all and no explanation can be given as to why it is even listed as such.

The class is now looking forward to the 25th reunion of the class, and even talking of having one for the 20th, indicating what a good time was had by all and saying a deserved tribute to the committee in charge of the reunion.

The members of the committee include: Dan Delorey, Gene (Manning) Roop, "Rocky" DeTeso, "Gerry" Fiocciello, "Lad" Millican, Glen Potter, Dick Hakanson, Grace Irwin, Allen Kerrigan, Margaret Rita McDougall, Margaret (McCauley) Woodard, Loretta and Art Johnson and Jean (Tarbell) Halverson.

PARENTS URGED TO ATTEND
OPEN HOUSE

The Annual Open House, sponsored by the Winchester High School Parent Faculty Association, will be held on Thursday evening, November 5, at the High School and the Wadleigh School. You as parents will play the role of students for the evening, and follow the regular program of a special day through a school day. This will give you an opportunity to meet the teachers and learn from them firsthand, the aims and objectives of the courses your sons or daughters are taking. With a better understanding of the purposes underlying each of these subjects, you will be in a stronger position to cooperate with your children now and to plan more intelligently their choice of subjects in future years.

Parents of students in commercial and practical arts courses are particularly urged to attend, for in this year of preparation for increasing facilities in the secondary schools, parents should see for themselves what is now provided, and note the many limitations.

Because of the large number of parents expected, it will be impossible for teachers to hold individual conferences about individual students. However, we remind you that each teacher reserves every Tuesday afternoon from 2:35 until 3:15 for conferences with parents.

Now, for a few details. Find out the number of your child's homeroom and try to be there promptly at 7:30 p. m. Also, get a copy of your child's schedule for Thursday so that you will know where to go each period.

Refreshments will be served in the cafeteria and you may go there when a study period shows in the schedule. The study periods will be from 7:30 to 8:00 a. m. and give you an opportunity to visit some of the special rooms of the school such as the auditorium, gymnasium, art room which is on the third floor, and library which is on the second floor. You are also invited to visit the Principal's Office and the Guidance Office.

We hope to see you here on November 5—won't you please come! If further information is desired, please call the High School, Winchester 6-0449, or Mr. McCreery, your President at WI 6-2036.

"MACK" RETIRES

LEAVES WOBURN TIMES
AFTER 34 YEARS

With today's issue of the Woburn Daily Times Edward P. "Mack" McKenzie of 24 Symmes road is retiring from the staff of the paper after an association of 34 years as Winchester reporter and representative. Many will miss his column in the Times and regret that the veteran reporter has finally yielded to the repeated urging of his family to take a well-earned rest after his years in harness.

"Mack" joined the Times staff back in 1919 when the late James Haggerty, father of the present incumbent, was editor. Previous to "Mack's" taking over Winchester, Times correspondents had covered local news in so-so fashion, but it wasn't long before the new reporter was making a full-time job of his coverage and through the years his column and special stories have come to be among the paper's most popular features.

Day in and day out, come rain or shine, "Mack" has been eternally on the job, first at the Times office in the morning and back in the Center by eight o'clock ready to start nosing about for the day's news. Seldom has it been that he hasn't unearthed a good story or two during the day.

Especially interested in sports, "Mack" is probably known to more old-line sports characters than any one hereabouts. Always outspoken and fearless in his opinions, his prognostications of sports events, especially of the yearly Winchester-Woburn football games, have been eagerly sought by politicians and laymen alike in advance of local elections and he has been right in his predictions many more times than he has been wrong.

Everybody knows and has known "Mack." Hundreds have talked with him daily, discussing or arguing town topics and finding him always ready to defend his views or condemn their stand if he thought them wrong.

Through the years he has run baseball teams and maintained order at Fourth of July children's parties, judged old carriage and costume parades, attended communion breakfasts at the town hall, political dinners at the Country Club and spaghetti feeds at the Sons of Italy clubhouse. A regular attendant at policemen's and firemen's balls, as well as at local sports events, he has found his place at the town meeting press table, his running comments on the proceedings and personalities of town meetings being both penetrating and priceless.

A lifelong resident of Winchester, "Mack" has always loved the town and worked for its best interests as he has seen them. He is something of an authority on old Winchester and his knowledge of the old families and historic spots about town is extensive. Often in his column he wrote interesting stories about old homes or places when something occurred to recall them to his mind. Long a resident of the North End and as a young man for years a gardener on some of the finest places of the West Side, "Mack" has known them all, high and low, rich and poor, saint and sinner.

Now at the age of 85 "Mack" is going to cover his typewriter after 34 years of battling out local news. Who would deny him the vacation he can now enjoy. His yearly "one-day fishing trip" has been a vacation joke the Star has long enjoyed with him. He has always been eternally on the job.

He deserves unlimited time to enjoy the sports events on TV and to pick up new Irish song and dance numbers. May he live long to enjoy the fruits of labor well done and to do the things now that he wants to do without regard for making his paper's deadline!

ST. MARY'S SODALITY

Rev. Henry Ouellette, chaplain at Matignon High School, Cambridge, will be the guest speaker at the next regular meeting of St. Mary's Sodality on Tuesday, November 3rd, at 7:45 o'clock, in the lower church.

Father Ouellette was ordained in 1949 and was selected shortly afterward to pursue further study at a branch of the University of Paris, where he received his degree in psychology. He also acts as student counselor for all the students at Matignon High School and is well acquainted with the problems of youth.

Our Sodality meetings are held regularly on the 1st and 3rd Tuesdays of each month. Communion Sunday is always the 3rd Sunday of the month at the 8 o'clock mass. Seats are reserved in the middle aisle.

Thus far there has been a great response of new members, and since the season opened this fall new members have joined.

The annual memorial mass for all deceased members will be held at 9 o'clock on Saturday morning, November 7th.

MISS HARROLD ENGAGED

Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Harrold announce the engagement of their daughter, Patricia Ann, to Mr. Donald C. O'Neill of Bayside, New York.

EDWARD H. KENERSON
WINCHESTER HOSPITAL
ANNUAL MEETING

The Annual Meeting of the Members of the Winchester Hospital was held in the Nurses' Home of the Hospital, Tuesday, October 27, at 8 o'clock p. m.

Reports were submitted by the officers, the various committees, the medical staff and the administrator.

At the beginning of his report as President, Mr. Edward H. Kenerson announced his retirement from the Presidency after serving as head of the Hospital since 1943. During his term of office the Hospital undertook its recently completed building program at a cost of $960,000 which increased the capacity of the hospital from 72 to 110 beds and added new operating, maternity, X-ray and accident suites; a central supply room; kitchens, dining rooms and store rooms as well as remodeling the old Hospital and including a gift and coffee shop.

The Winchester Hospital is now equipped and staffed to furnish the best of medical, surgical and general hospital service to the people of Winchester and neighboring communities. In commenting on his years as president, Mr. Kenerson spoke with appreciation of the loyal support he had received during the war years and during the construction program and stated he was confident that similar loyalty and support would be given to his successor in carrying on the work and meeting the problems of the years ahead.

The meeting particularly wished to thank the Building Committee and a resolution was adopted expressing deep appreciation for the services of Harold B. Richmond, chairman of the Building Committee and Alfred Denley of the Committee in carrying through to completion, at close to budget estimates, the construction program of the Hospital during a most difficult period which included national strikes, labor shortages and rising costs.

At the close of the meeting, Mr. Gilbert H. Hood, Jr., Vice-President of the Hospital, voiced the appreciation of the members of the Hospital for the accomplishments and progress which have taken place under Mr. Kenerson's leadership and offered the following resolution which was unanimously adopted:

"Whereas, on the occasion of this annual meeting of the members of the Winchester Hospital, Edward H. Kenerson retires as its president after serving in that capacity since 1943, and

"Whereas, as a member of the Building Committee of the Hospital from 1923 to 1928, Vice-President from 1939 to 1943 and President from 1943 to 1953, he has furnished outstanding guidance and support in the growth and management of the Hospital during these many years of his service; and

BEHIND THE SCENES

William E. Spaulding of 379 Main street heads the production staff of "The Male Animal," to be presented by the Unitarian Players on November 13 and 14. Having played Dean Damon in the 1941 production, he knows the show well and can help all departments with its essential flavor and quality.

For designing the set of the midwestern professor's living room, he has appointed Virginia and Stephen Morang. Steve will also carry through the construction of the set and calls for all hands on stage; volunteers—you, you, and you!—call Winchester 6-0319.

No production would be complete without Robert Storer's touch; he will "dress the stage" with the aid of Gladys West and her properties committee. Mrs. Bradford Darling will costume the faculty and students of Midwestern University in the colors of the fall football season, and make-up artists will be Mrs. William Davies and Mrs. Percy Hill.

Handling the rather complex sound effects and John Blanchard and Robert Brotherton. Marjorie Bradford holds down the exacting job of prompter.

Stage Manager Joy Woolley will co-ordinate the above departments, while activities not strictly "behind the scenes" are manned as follows: ushers, Mrs. Theodore Godwin; refreshments, Mrs. Theodore Von Rosenberg, Jr. and Mrs. Walter Badger; programs, Suzanne Reed; and publicity, Mrs. Ganson Taggart.

Your tickets may be purchased conveniently at the Bookshop from Mary and Catherine Spaulding, Winchester 6-1810.

WINCHESTER GARDEN CLUB

At the beautiful home of Mrs. Roland V. Patrick the first meeting for the season of the Winchester Garden Club was held, the charm of the grounds and the spaciousness of the rooms providing a wonderful setting for the meeting. Dessert was served before the meeting, Mrs. Edward V. French assisting the hostess, with Mrs. Norman M. Mitchell at the coffee urn. An exquisite arrangement of yellow roses, white grapes and ivy in a beautiful epergne in the center of the dining table attracted great admiration from the members of the club.

Mrs. Samuel B. Kirkwood, president, conducted the business meeting with her usual charm, after which Mrs. Norman M. Mitchell, program chairman, announced the afternoon program, "Flowering Bulbs throughout the Year," which was ably presented by the following club members:

Mrs. Waldo V. Lyon took the subject of the earliest spring bulbs, beginning with the snow drops, illustrating her talk with pictures of the flowering bulbs.

Mrs. Kirkwood, from her wide experience, supplied the names of many of the best varieties of tulips.

Mrs. Mitchell spoke on the ever-fascinating subject of lilies.

Mrs. John B. Wills brought interest to the subject of autumn flowering bulbs, such as the colchicums, which bring a late bloom to the garden.

Mrs. William C. Ross, speaking of house plants raised from bulbs, brought several examples of these satisfactory plants to illustrate her subject, including the calladium, with its fascinating green and white leaves, the gloxinia, with its gorgeous blooms, and the dainty exalts, in a new variety, with much larger leaves.

W.H.S. CROSS COUNTRY

Winchester High School's cross country team traveled to Danvers yesterday for the Divisional Meet held at Essex Agricultural School. Other members of the team were Wakefield, Woburn, Concord, Wellesley, Everett Vocational, and Revere. With the league competition at the halfway point, Wakefield leads with 4 wins and no losses. Wellesley, Woburn, and Winchester, which was last year's title holder, appear to be about equal in power, but Wakefield was the strong favorite.

Outstanding in league competition was Swartz of Wakefield, who is as yet unbeaten. Lou Farrell, who was Winchester's freshman sensation last year, lost to Swartz when he had the misfortune to come up with a severe injury in the opening meet of the year. Lou expects to even the score before the season is over.

Among the officers of the Middlesex Cross Country League for this year are President Thomas A. Morse of Winchester, Vice-President Carleton Seaborn of Belmont, and Secretary-Treasurer Robert Gleason of Watertown.

The climax of the league's competition will come on October 31, when runners from both the Pilgrim and Pioneer divisions face the starter's gun at Tufts College. The MCLL is one of the strongest leagues in the state, and close to 300 boys participate in the varsity and junior varsity each year. At the state meet last year three of the four classes were won by teams from Middlesex. Class A was won by Melrose, Class B by Wakefield, and Class D by Winchester.

BOWLING PARTY

The next meeting of the First Congregational Church Young Adults Group will be a bowling party. The group will meet at Strike Lanes, 7 Winchester place, at 8 o'clock on Friday evening, November 6, for bowling, and will then go to one of the members' homes for relaxation, music and refreshments.

All young, unmarried people are cordially invited. A variety of interesting meetings have been arranged for the fall and winter months.

HARRIERS LOSE TO WELLESLEY, DEFEAT EVERETT VOCATIONAL

The local runners traveled to Wellesley last Friday, October 16, for a meet with the home club and also Everett Vocational. The Red and Black, running one of their poorest races, took a sound beating from Wellesley and just managed to edge Everett.

The race saw 50 runners facing the starters gun. At the start the Wellesley team raced away to an early lead with Winchester runners showing poor judgment in the early pace. At the halfway point Lou Farrell and Chapin of Wellesley had taken a slight lead over Captain Becker of Winchester and Bottsford of the home club. In the meantime a solid block of Wellesley runners had formed behind these leaders. With a half mile to go Farrell had established a 40 yard lead over Chapin and had the race well in hand. He came on to finish in the top spot and tied the course record in 13:42. Chapin took second with John Becker a strong third. However, the next five positions were taken by Wellesley men before Dick Borggaard finished in 9th place. This block of runners clinched the victory for Wellesley with the score 24 to 36. This loss was tough to take for the Winchester team as they expected to give Wakefield a run for the Divisional title at Essex Aggies on October 23rd. It now appears that the local team can be conceded only an outside chance to capture the championship they have held for two years.

In the scoring of the Everett Vocational meet the Red and Black managed to win a close 29 to 23 victory with Farrell and Becker in the one and two spots. Borggaard, 5th, Smith, 8th, and Morgan, 10th, completed the scoring for Winchester.

The Junior Varsity continued their string of victories with two wins over Wellesley by a score of 26 to 33 and Everett Vocational by 18 to 45. Govostes led the pack in the Everett Vocational meet with Stratton in 2nd place. In the Wellesley meet, Becker of the home club was in the winners spot while Charlie Govostes took the runner up position.

First ten finishers:

- Farrell (Win)
- Chapin (Well)
- Becker (Win)
- Bauer (Well)
- Bottsford (Well)
- Cliff (Well)
- McCracken (Well)
- Walker (Win)
- Borggaard (Win)
- Kennison (Well)

FELLOWSHIP HOUR A SUCCESS

The Fellowship Hour held last Sunday evening at the Second Congregational Church was well attended, in spite of the rainy weather. Many comments of approval were made to the pastor, Mr. Skeirik. Therefore, such a program will be planned for once a month. Song books with the gospel hymns will be purchased for such services. In addition to the service there will be arranged some sort of entertainment to give the people an opportunity to get acquainted with one another.

As this writer was a little bit late on bowling night the excitement and cheering could be heard outside the bowling coliseum. I didn't know what to expect. For a moment I thought Julius La Rosa was visiting but no, a greater surprise was in store for me, "Wedding Bells Robert" was back.

Seen among the spectators was our good friend Jack Pantalea. What good friend of ours bowls with a pipe dangling from his mouth?

Who was it that could not stand up in alley 6? P. S. He also wears bowling shoes.

Believe it or not — Ben Gillotti bowled a 3 string total of 273.

"Papa Corrigador" and his children are setting the pace.

There were no complaints this week.

The winner of this week's raffle was our good friend Nick Molea.

See you next week.

BADMINTON FREE INSTRUCTION SESSION SUCCESSFUL

Many new faces were present at the high school gym for badminton this week taking advantage of the special free instruction announced last week.

The court set aside for this purpose was kept busy both Tuesday and Thursday evenings as the new players concentrated on learning the fundamentals of the game and entered into the spirit of things enthusiastically.

Just a reminder that all one needs to play are flat-soled sneakers and play clothing. Another honor was bestowed upon the Badminton Club last week when, at the annual meeting of the Massachusetts Badminton Association held at the University Club, President Larry Palmer accepted for the club a plaque for winning the Class C-D Mixed Doubles and Ladies Doubles for 1952-53. This is being added to the two plaques from the previous year. Also, club members celebrated Halloween with a special party of their own on Thursday evening with all members required to wear masks during the evening's play and don and elder being served later. It proved to be a gay and well-attended affair.

AMICO OUT OF N. H. FOOTBALL

Paul Amico, former Winchester High School football star, and captain of the Winchester team of 1949, has been forced out of football at the University of New Hampshire by a shoulder separation which will shelve him for the remainder of the season. Since Paul is a senior his college football days are over.

The chunky Winchester boy climaxed a great high school career by nearly beating Woburn single handed in his final Thanksgiving Day game on Manchester Field. Throughout his senior year he was the mainstay of his team offensively, and at the conclusion of the season he was chosen to play in All Star games both at Manning Bowl, Lynn, and in Florida.

He made the University of New Hampshire freshman team in 1950 and played two years of varsity ball at Durham, flying both ways back in the two platoon system. This year as a senior he was being groomed to play two ways when he hurt his shoulder even before the start of the regular season.

He still continued to play as he was able until a second injury to the shoulder resulted in the separation that ended his playing days, as a collegian.

ATTENDED REUNION IN ST. LOUIS

Mrs. Alice G. Miller of 22 Myrtle street recently spent four days in St. Louis, flying both ways. She attended a family reunion, where her daughter, Ruth, who is on her way to Texas, also was present. Mrs. Miller spent two days observing clinics in the St. Louis public schools.

Miss Ruth G. Miller has gone to San Antonio, Texas, where she will play in the violin section of the San Antonio Philharmonic Orchestra for the winter season.

MISS LAMPREY AWARDED SCHOLARSHIP

Miss Judith Lamprey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth W. Lamprey of 63 Emerson road, has been awarded the Phillips Scholarship by Simmons College for the year 1952-53.

The scholarship is awarded for outstanding scholastic ability and to be eligible, the recipient must have a scholastic "B" average. Miss Lamprey, a junior in the School of Business, is a member of the Simmons Y. W. C. A., secretary-treasurer of the Student Christian Association and Outing Club.

THE SENIOR FORUM

On this Sunday, November 1, the Senior Forum of the First Congregational Church will resume their chapel services by meeting at 9:30 to hear the minister of our neighboring Second Congregational Church, the Rev. A. John Skeirik. The chaplain will be Andy Robertson, and assistant chaplain will be Richard Emerson. Acting as deacons will be John Butler and Ray Simpson, and ushering will be Bill Mock and Dick Johnson.

Mr. Skeirik received his A.B. degree from Syracuse University, and his S.T.B. degree from Boston University School of Theology, and later had one year of graduate work in Religious Education at Union Theological Seminary. After being ordained in the Methodist Church, he served as Assistant Pastor and Director of Youth at Tabernacle Methodist Church, Binghamton, N. Y.; and was Methodist pastor in Wyoming Conference of New York State. This past year he transferred to the Woburn Association of Congregational Churches and is now serving as minister at the Second Congregational Church, Winchester.

The Forum Worship Committee, under the chairmanship of Carol Ashenden and Joan Morrison, are this month planning the worship services with the over-all theme of "Christian Action." Mr. Skeirik has chosen as his topic for this Sunday, "A Mind Must Love God."

The Forum Work Day for Christ activities are now in full swing as members are working diligently, either today or tomorrow (October 30 or 31st) to achieve their goal of $300 to be distributed among five very worthwhile projects of the Christian World Mission.

HALLOWEEN

Registrar of Motor Vehicles, Rudolph F. King, today issued a special appeal to motorists to be unusually alert while driving on Halloween, that special day in the year which is reserved as a time of great adventure for children.

Dressed in traditional costumes of witches, ghosts, and spirits of another world, our future citizens will be seeking fun as they threaten "trick or treat" to friends and neighbors alike.

It is the duty of motorists to keep children free from harm as gaily costumed youngsters, their minds intent on the fun and frolic at hand, will probably expose themselves to greater hazards than at any other time.

Parents must closely supervise children and be sure that they should allow ample vision, and they should instruct youngsters in the proper way to have fun without causing malicious damage or destruction to the property of others.

If motorists and parents will cooperate with the enforcement officials of the Commonwealth, we can prevent serious injury or death to little ones over this 1953 Halloween.

POST-COMMUNION BREAKFAST AT EPIPHANY

All teachers and workers of the Church School attended corporate communion last Sunday at the Parish of the Epiphany. Following the 8 o'clock communion service, the group enjoyed a delicious breakfast as guests of the Church School Board of Education.

Thanks are due to Mrs. Theodore Hultgren and her assistants, Mrs. Harlow Russell, Mrs. Robert Sibley, Jr., and Mrs. Warren Haley. Special guests included the rector, Mr. John Ellison, and the new director of the Church School, Mrs. Keith Lawton.

JUNIOR HIGH FELLOWSHIP

The Junior High Fellowship of the First Congregational Church will meet this Sunday at 4:30 in the junior high room. The program, in charge of Sandy Erikson and Martha Fish, will include a discussion on "What's a Dollar Worth?" and games; the worship service will be conducted by Craig Davenport and Bob Cooper; and refreshments will be taken care of by Peg Archibald, Ann Neville and Kirby Baker.

WINCHESTER OUTMATCHES MELROSE

BELLINO SPARKLES ON BOTH OFFENSE AND DEFENSE

In a cleanly fought but bruising battle between two well-matched teams, Winchester, scored on early in the first quarter by a smoothly clicking Melrose eleven, roared back to tie the score in four plays, and from that point on to the final whistle, although clawed and mauled by their hot-and-cold opponents, had enough drive to score two more touchdowns to one for Melrose and to stave off a final desperate rally by the Red Raiders when Pratt intercepted a touchdown pass on his own fifteen yard line, from which point, with less than two minutes of playing time remaining, to sweep to the Melrose 4 yard line, only to be stopped from scoring by time running out. Certainly Melrose at that point in the game couldn't have stopped Bellino, Haggerty, or Murphy from scoring on the next play.

With frequent time-outs called because of players on both sides being shaken up and temporarily in need of fresh air and rest, the game turned out to be a test of stamina and the will to win. Although quickly scored on, Winchester refused to admit defeat and never for a moment gave the impression of a team content with anything short of a clean-cut victory. And after stopping Melrose's final bid for a possible tie, Winchester had enough in reserve to drive from its own fifteen to the Melrose four yard line before time ran out.

It was a game of offensive thrills supplied by left halfback Malone of Melrose, who seemed able to find an opening between his right tackle and right end anytime he wanted to and who kept the Winchester backs on their toes all afternoon with forward pass threats and completions; by fullback Corretani, who while he was in the game scored the first Melrose touchdown and set up another by a long end run of 37 yards; by left end Shimmmin whose end-around reverses were a constant threat and sure ground-gainers whenever Melrose needed yardage for a first down; by Joe Bellino, who to quote from the Boston Herald was the best back on the field; by Mike Murphy, whose pile-driving end runs were something to watch. But there were defensive gems as well. Bellino on three occasions as safety man broke through three Melrose interferences to meet the ball carrier head-on and save a score. Pratt's interception of a touchdown pass came right after he had broken up another which threatened to put Melrose in a scoring position.

On the ground Winchester carried the ball for 284 yards to 204 for Melrose. In the air, Melrose completed three passes for a total of 20 yards and one for the point after its second touchdown. Winchester tried only three passes and completed none of them.

Oddly enough, pass interference was called once against each team in important plays. Pratt's interception with two minutes left to play in the game was the only interception during the afternoon and it definitely shut the door on Melrose's hopes for even a tie score.

Winchester ran back kick-offs for 12, 29, and 9 yards, although Bellino ran Melrose's second kickoff 85 yards from his own fifteen but stepped out of bounds in the 46 in order to side-step a tackler who should have been blocked out of the play. Melrose returned kickoffs 6, 15, 14, and 22 yards. Winchester returned Melrose's one punt 47 yards. Melrose returned one of Winchester's three punts only five yards and the other two went out of bounds.

Actually Melrose ran up 12 first downs to Winchester's 11. Likewise Melrose put the ball in play from scrimmage 54 times to 48 plays for Winchester.

After watching Winchester in its last three games against Wintthrop, Stoneham, and Melrose, one can't help but be impressed by the fact that while Winchester cannot be out-matched in courage and determination to win, considerable improvement could be made in the play of the line on defense and in the close backers-up on the line. For example, at Stoneham a light but fast left-halfback was able on a delayed back to knife through the Winchester line between the tackles consistently for gains of from five to ten yards. No one seemed to be able to do anything about it.

RED CROSS ELECTION AT WASHINGTON SCHOOL

A spirited campaign for Junior Red Cross officers and representatives was held recently. After candidates had been nominated from each classroom, the youngsters organized their campaigns, using posters, slogans, leaflets, songs and cheers.

As the climax to the campaign an assembly was held where each candidate was presented to the audience by acting chairman George Neville of Grade V. A number of interesting speeches were heard, helping the children to make up their minds about their choice of candidates. At the conclusion of the assembly the pupils went to their respective classrooms, and voted by secret ballot.

Among the officers and representatives elected were the following: president, Billy Lamarche, Grade VI; vice-president, Stephen Dee, Grade IV; treasurer, Steve Cochran, Grade VI; secretary, George Neville, Grade V. A number of interesting speeches were heard, helping the children to make up their minds about their choice of candidates. At the conclusion of the assembly the pupils went to their respective classrooms, and voted by secret ballot.

PARKHURST FIRST GRADE TEA

A tea was held on Thursday afternoon, October 22, 1953, at the home of Mrs. William Burrows, 5 Oneida circle, to welcome Mrs. Frances Shackford, the new first grade teacher at Parkhurst School. There are two first grades this year.

Mrs. Shackford explained to the mothers that she approved giving the children freedom in the classroom yet she believed in discipline too. She stated that first graders should be taught to be the best possible citizens so as to get along better at home and in school.

Following her talk delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. Bruce Young, Mrs. Bernhardt M. Anderson, Mrs. John Clair, Mrs. Paul H. Comins, Mrs. Robert H. Hincley, Mrs. William L. Wilson, Mrs. Frank Monkiewicz, Miss Martha V. Cunningham and Mrs. William Tilburg were the pourers.

LIBRARY SCHOOL STUDENTS

Thirty-three students from the School of Library Science, Simmons College, visited the Winchester Public Library last week, Thursday. They were accompanied by Professor Sigrid Edge of the library school.

Winchester is complimented by such a visit conducted by Simmons College to acquaint the future librarians with procedures carried on at our library. Members of the professional staff addressed the visitors on the various departments of the library.

Miss Corinne Mead, chief librarian of the Winchester Public Library, is associate in library administration in the School of Library Science, Simmons College.

PENNY SALE AIDS COMMUNITY FUND

On Columbus Day, October 12, the DuToit residence at 6 Perkins road was the scene of concentrated activity to help put the Winchester Red Feather Campaign over the top. For on that day Susan DuToit, 11½, Ellen DuToit, 9, Jean Grant, 8, Ellen Becker, 6, and Dianne Hulse, 6, decided to hold a penny sale with all proceeds to help less fortunate people than themselves.

Many discarded toys, comic books, and even a goldfish changed hands, and cookies were a very popular item. There were no accidents reported resulting from cart rides.

The sale brought over three dollars to the Community Fund.

A NOTE FOR THE POLICE

October 25, 1953
Editor of the Star:
I am sorry to be obliged to write this as an open letter but unfortunately I don't know the names or addresses of those I wish to contact. I am trying to reach some young men whose parents were too busy on the evening of Friday, October 23rd to know where they were or what they were doing.

I am anxious to contact these young men because I feel they were to a good deal of effort and missed most of the fun, because, after all it does take some effort to let the air out of two rear tires and un-screw the valves so they can be thrown away and that act in itself is not too enjoyable. The real fun is to stick around and see the consternation of the owners when they find the predicament they're in. In this case you boys hit the jack-pot because the owner was a lady in her 70's who had been working at the Town Hall since three in the afternoon and you'd have died laughing to see her, tired and just recovering from a sprained ankle, get into her car at 9:30 at night and try to drive off. It really was hysterical. However even though not present you were successful in having the rim cut one of the tubes.

I must apologize to you for spoiling some of the fun by having her driven home in my car, but I did feel she should get off that sore foot. However it may compensate a little for you to know that I had been up since six that morning having started fairly busy a day at 8:15 by speaking to an assembly at the Norwood High School. The Subject? Ironically its one you know all about and couldn't be less interested in — it was about social etiquette and the importance of having consideration and respect for other people and other people's property.

You will be delighted to know however, that there were no service stations open to accommodate us that night which meant that my 76 year old dad had to locate a pump and valve stems and drive to Winchester where we pumped up the undamaged tire and put on the spare. It was then after 11 p. m. and we still had to drive one car to Arlington and the other to Boston.

I'm sorry to report I didn't have an adult class waiting for me at the Arlington Studio as I often have had in the past, because then your humor could have affected that many more people, but better luck next time.

Sorry also that you weren't around to enjoy the fun, but perhaps this report will help.

Very truly yours,
Russell D. Curry
The Curry School of Dancing

AN APPEAL

Editor of the Star:
We are attaching to this letter a mimeographed letter from Edward

R. Schatz of Backnang, Germany, which is self-explanatory.
In the event you decide to publish all or part of this letter, and refer to the Selectmen, you should make it clear that the persons are unknown to us and that we are in no way endorsing this appeal.

Yours very truly,
The Board of Selectmen
Don S. Greer, Chairman
Ed. Note: We, too, know nothing of the writer of the following letter, which we print without further comment.

Looking for Friends in America!
In a few months' time my wife and I are to emigrate to the States, accompanied by our two small sons of 2 and 4 years' age.

We have over there neither relatives nor friends. Therefore we want to get acquainted with friendly people in this country, who might be willing to become kind of foster-parents for us, lending their helping hands to make us "at home" over there in the foreign country, which is to become our boys' homeland and to which they ought to pledge their loyalty one day.

My wife and I are both 40 years old and have a fairly good knowledge of school-English. We have a typical German name, but we hope to become good American citizens with time, and, what's more, assimilate well and wholly.
To facilitate this process we would be glad to find people, possibly an elderly couple without progeny, who would be willing to adopt me and mine, giving us their American names.

The adoption of a small child is always a great risk, as nobody can foretell the further development of the babe, but with grown-up things are different: one knows with whom one has to do.
I venture the somewhat bold affirmation, that nobody would be cheated, when becoming our foster-parent.

We are Christians of Protestant faith, of most honorable and humble families, and made both our way with great energy, rising steadily to always better life-conditions.

I am born in Czechoslovakia just before World War I. After having attended elementary schools and commercial schools, I started business-life. Before the war I had special training as engineer, serving with the Czechoslovakian army.
Until the country became part of Germany, and I was obliged to join the German army. After the war I settled as refugee in Wurttemberg, Germany, and became a writer of fiction and publications about practical psychology. My wife is brought up nicely and was a secretary for some years.

We can both prove to have never had trouble with law-suits or punishments, nor with the authorities, if you won't consider this the sad fact, that both our parents have been killed by the bolsheviks — hence you may deduce our feelings in regard to communists.

This letter you are free to send to news-agencies or to some lonely elderly couple that would be pleased to get grand-children as a joy for their old age.

We do not lay any claim upon material support, as we are both young enough and ready enough to work and to earn our own living.
We plainly were glad to find friendly helpers to ease our paths in the new land.

Apologizing for the bother we are giving you we send you our best greetings and thanks in advance for all you might be doing on our behalf.

URGES GOOD FAITH IN REFERENDUM CAMPAIGN

Editor of the Star:
Before the referendum campaign gets underway I should like in the most serious words of which I am capable to urge that the good faith and honesty of purpose of both sides should be recognized.

It is a sad commentary upon our times that any such urging should be necessary; and yet this seems to be the case.

I think that everyone present at the town meeting last Thursday night was deeply distressed by the fact that one of our most selfless and respected citizens felt called upon to defend himself against rumors of personal motivation in his advocacy of the present grade crossing project. It has been the constructive service of just such men as he which has brought Winchester to the position of high regard in which, until now at least, it has been held by all those who have known it. How long, however, may we expect men of integrity and ability to devote long hours to unpaid public service when their reward is to be accused of a "pay-off"?

May God forgive us, if by such irresponsible tactics as these we contribute to the downfall of local self government in Winchester.

Harrison F. Lyman, Jr.

REQUESTS A REPRESENTATIVE VOTE

Editor of the Star:

It is hoped that every citizen will turn out and vote at the referendum to be held soon, relative to the grade crossing question, and especially those who oppose the raising of the railroad.
Let the citizens show by their ballots that this ill-conceived plan that has been forced down our throats at a cost of some millions of money is not justified when only by building the by-pass will the traffic problem be solved at a reasonable cost.

With all the money we soon will be called upon to appropriate for schools, fire houses, parks and playgrounds and to help pay for the many state roads being built, we soon will have a tax rate that will call for another "Tea Party." Show more interest than the present members who did not attend the recent town meeting and have their noses counted on so important a matter. I would say a very limited town meeting.

MOTORIST MUST BE ALERT

"The great beauty and splendor to be observed along every Massachusetts highway during this time of year will lure thousands of motorists into the country seeking the ever-changing scenery of early fall.
It is a traditional migration and a true heritage of all New Englanders," state Registrar of Motor Vehicles Rudolph F. King and Chief of Police Charles J. Harrold of Winchester in a joint release issued today.

"But, the period also presents problems of serious concern to the commonwealth and every one of its communities. It is a time of special hazards created by Mother Nature herself in the form of changing weather conditions, fallen leaves, and early darkness," say these officials.

"The danger of wet, fallen leaves creates a hazard from skidding and hours of early darkness add to the perils which threaten the safety of children who play areas in or adjacent to highways.

"Accidents to children can be prevented. Motorists must be alert for the pile of leaves along the side of the road. In the past, several children have been killed while playing in this manner; and the danger of large paper cartons, which years ago proved to be death traps for two tiny tots who were at play inside them must not be overlooked by motorists.

"Parents must assume their full share of responsibility in protection of their children, never relaxing for a moment the vigilance so necessary for the preservation of our future citizens. With parents, motorists, and accident prevention authorities co-ordinating their efforts, Massachusetts highways can be kept a source of pleasure and convenience for all who have the undeniable right to enjoy their use in safety," stated both Registrar King and Chief Harrold in conclusion.

SPECIAL TOWN MEETING

BLOOD TYPING PROGRAM

On November 3, 4, 5, and 6, between the hours of 2 to 5 p. m. and 7 to 9 p. m. you are urged to come and have your blood typed. A few minutes of your time is all that is required. A team of trained workers from the Department of Public Health, Diagnostic Laboratory will carry on with the help of several volunteer typists.
Will you help the Civil Defense and yourself by coming to the Town Hall on any one of these days during the designated time.

Article 2 asks that the town instruct the Selectmen not to purchase the site in the West Side Hill District on Ridge street selected at the March Town Meeting as the location for a future west side school.

Under Article 3 the meeting will be asked to appropriate money from the Excess and Deficiency Account, in addition to the amount already appropriated for land tak-ings for the enlargement of the Junior High School lot, authorized at the special town meeting of November 30, 1950.

Article 4 will decide whether the town will reimburse L. P. Yale for medical expenses incurred as the result of an injury to his daughter in an accident at the Wadleigh School May 9, 1952.

The meeting will hear and act on the interim report of the Personnel Board under Article 5, and will take any necessary action in connection with temporary salary adjustments retroactive to April 1, 1953.

The Park Commissioners under Article 6 will ask the meeting to consider the appropriation of money from the Excess and Deficiency Account to install a new water system at the Palmer Street Playground to improve the condition of the tennis courts there.

The Water and Sewer Board is asking under Article 7 the authorization of a transfer of funds from personal services in the water construction and sewer construction accounts to the personal services in the water maintenance and sewer maintenance accounts.

Articles 8 and 9 seek the pleasure of the meeting in the proposals to take from Excess and Deficiency funds to provide for an additional police officer, and for a clerk in the office of the town accountant.

Under Article 10 the meeting will be asked to decide whether the town shall accept the provisions of General Laws, Chapter 44, Section 65, entitled "Advances of Vacation Pay to Officers and Employees."

The meeting will decide under Article 11 whether the town will amend the General By-Laws of the Town by inserting an Article prohibiting the removal for sale or use elsewhere than on the parcel of land involved of soil, including turf or top soil, loam, sand or gravel from any parcel of land not in public use in the town, unless in accordance with the terms of a permit issued thereby by the Board of Appeals.

Under the amendment a penalty for violation is fixed, a fine of $50 being levied for first offense, $100 for second offense, and $200 for each subsequent offense.

The final Article in the warrant, Article 12, is inserted to see if the town will vote to continue rent control during the year 1953.

FALSE ALARMS

The fire department had three false alarms early Wednesday morning, the first being rung at 1:37 o'clock from Box 64 at the corner of Highland Avenue and Wilson street.

The second alarm at 1:45 was sounded from Box 34 at Cross and Holton streets, and the third, at 1:50, from Box 51 at the corner of Cambridge and Pond streets.

Since all apparatus goes out on box alarms the pulling of the boxes was expensive as well as dangerous. The epidemic of false alarms very good progress following an others being rung the same morning both in Woburn and Reading.

Authorities of the three communities are investigating and it goes without saying that they would like to get their hands on the guilty parties.

After the war he became associated with the Lutz Lumber Company in Brooklyn, N. On May 2, 1932, Mr. Breen married Mary Callahan of Norwood and three years ago they came from New York to make their home in Winchester. Mr. Breen was a member of Winchester Post, 1445, the American Legion; and of Norwood Council, Knights of Columbus.

RALPH EDGAR HALL

Ralph Edgar Hall of 16 Elm street, a retired chauffeur long in the employ of the Mosley and Cutler Downer families, died early Monday morning, October 26, at his home. He had not been in good health for a year, but his passing had not been expected, he having been out about his place on the Saturday preceding his death.

Mr. Hall was the son of David B. and Celia (Healey) Hall. He was born September 4, 1876, in Candia, N. H., and spent his early life there, coming to Belmont in his late teens and working there for four years as a coachman.

Fifty-one years ago Mr. Hall entered the employ of the late Frank Mosley as a chauffeur. Mr. Mosley then made his home in Brookline, but later lived for many years on Everett avenue, Mr. Hall accompanying the family when they came to make their home in Winchester. In 1909 he accompanied Mr. Mosley on a European trip, driving the Mosley Pierce Arrow which was taken abroad on the boat.

Following the death of Mr. and Mrs. Mosley, Mr. Hall became chauffeur for their daughter, Mrs. Cutler B. Downer of Everett avenue, where he remained until he retired about a year ago. Widely known through his years in Winchester and the nature of his employment, Mr. Hall was held in esteem by all who knew him. He was a member of Arlington Lodge of Odd Fellows and of the First Congregational Church.

On September 20, 1910, Mr. Hall married Flora C. MacLennan of Richmond County, Cape Breton, N. S., and they spent practically all of their married life in Winchester, living since 1928 in the house built for them on Elm street.

Besides Mrs. Hall, there are surviving two brothers, Ernest Hall of Milton and Clinton Hall of Candia, N. H.

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at the Bennett Chapel with Dr. Howard J. Chidley, minister emeritus of the First Congregational Church, officiating. Burial was in Wildwood Cemetery.

MISS EDYTHE L. PLUMMER

Since moving from Winchester she had been employed as a secretary in R. C. A. Pictures Corporation in New York until her illness. She was a patient sufferer of rheumatoid arthritis for the last five years, the last two of which were spent in a hospital.

Funeral services for Miss Plummer were held in New York City Saturday, October 17th, conducted by Rev. Eugene McKinley Pierce, assistant pastor of Marble Collegiate Church, New York City, of which she was a member. She was formerly a member of the First Baptist Church here.

Surviving are two brothers and a sister, Mr. John K. Plummer of Flushing, N. Y., Mr. Frederick W. Plummer of Washington, D. C., and Mrs. Willard S. Robinson of Arlington, Mass.

Wesley Padilla Gray, known to many in Winchester as the afternoon man in the Boston & Maine crossing tower in the center, died suddenly in his sleep early Sunday morning at his home, 28 Wright street, Stoneham. He was 69 years old.

Mr. Gray, a native and life-long resident of Stoneham, was the son of Eusebio Renfrew and Emma (Beard) Gray. He was born in the house in which he died, also his mother's home from birth until death. His mother was a descendant of the earliest settlers of the Town of Stoneham.

Mr. Gray was graduated from Stoneham High School in 1903 and from Burdette Business College. At an early age he became associated with his father in the Gray Roofing Company, one of Stoneham's oldest business establishments and still in operation. WOBURN CHURCH TO CELEBRATE SIXTIETH ANNIVERSARY

From Friday, October 30 to November 1, the Lutheran Church of the Redeemer of Woburn will mark its Sixtieth Anniversary. The parish whose membership includes many families residing in Winchester, Reading and Stoneham will note its anniversary with a Congregational Banquet to be held on Friday, October 30 and the Anniversary Service to be held on Sunday, November 1.

It was in July of 1893 that a group banded together to organize a Church to be incorporated in the State of Massachusetts and to be affiliated with the Augustana Lutheran Church of North and South America. A church building was constructed in 1897, located on Montvale avenue at Prospect street. Since the time of its founding, eleven pastors have served the parish. The present pastor is the Reverend Ralph Hjelm who came to Woburn following his ordination in 1949.

During recent years in the past-torates of the Rev. J. Herman Olsson, Dr. C. Charles Bachmann and the present pastor, material improvements have been made upon the church facilities, notably an addition of a parish house completed last year.

The congregation will mark the anniversary with a Congregational Banquet to be held on Friday, October 30 at the vestry of the First Congregational Church of Woburn. At this time, the two remaining charter members will be honored. The speaker will be the Rev. N. Eugene Larson of Our Saviour's Lutheran Church of Dorchester, Mass. Sunday morning at 11:00, November 1, the Anniversary Service will be held. At that time, the President of the New England Conference of the Augustana Lutheran Church will be the preacher, the Rev. Dr. Eskil G. Englund. In the evening of that day, open house will be held at the parsonage for members and friends of the congregation.

For the first number Judy Morrison gave an explanation of the origin of Fire Prevention Week, while the words Fire Safety were spelled out by Keith Puffer, Ronald Milton, Philip Bailey, Paul Wickwee, Billy Partridge, Susan Gardner, Susan Dalziel, Douglas Cann, Robert Watson, and Richard Clark.

One of the most valuable and interesting collections of ceramics in the United States is at the White House, where finest examples of china and glassware, used through the years by Presidents, have been gathered and preserved. This collection reflects not only the tastes and personalities of each President and his lady, but also the contemporary ideas and modes of life of the American people.

In her lecture on "China of the White House" before the Historical Society on Saturday, Mrs. Waterhouse describes the collection and shows rare pictures of these examples, coupled with a fine lecture on the social life in the White House through various administrations.

UNITED WORLD FEDERALIST MEETING

The United World Federalists met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert D. Lowry on October 26th, for a "Pot Luck" supper and discussion of policies and platform of the U. W. F.

Mr. H. Donald Wilson, Secretary of the New England Council of the U. W. F., led the discussion which centered about the Revision of the United Nations Charter due to be brought up in 1955.

The meeting studied Resolution SR-126 passed by the Senate to establish a special committee to explore the question of revision and make recommendations concerning it.

John Foster Dulles in his Boston speech to the American Bar Association said "This is a subject which ought to be studied well in advance and the study should not be merely governmental. All should be studying this problem."

The World Federalists took up ways and means of bringing this about.

CHRISTMAS MAILING

Postmaster Thomas J. Gilgun today compared October in the post office to what spring training is to a baseball team.

"We're already flexing our muscles, swearing in extra employees and getting ready for the Christmas rush hours. People planning to send gifts and Christmas cards should be bringing their address books up to date," he said.

"Especially those of us with loved ones in the armed forces overseas. Too many people dilly-dally until the eleventh hour," the postmaster warned.

Faced post for armed service personnel in Korea, Japan and the Pacific Islands should be mailed by Nov. 1. Articles addressed to Europe or American possessions will be delivered by Christmas if posted before November 15.

Christmas cards are the bright spot in overseas mailing. They may be sent by air mail as late as December 1. However, all overseas Christmas cards bearing three-cent stamps should be mailed by November 15.

The postmaster also pointed out: 1. Air parcels for overseas are limited to two pounds. At regular parcel post rates, the weight limit is 70 pounds. Packages may not exceed 100 inches in combined length and girth.

2. Foodstuffs such as fruitcakes, cookies and candy seem to be the most popular gifts for servicemen. Don't mail perishable items. Matches and lighter fluid are forbidden. Expensive gifts should be sent by registered mail.

3. Select a durable mailing carton of wood, metal or fiberboard. Line it with newspaper to cushion any shock. Use a heavy wrapping paper and strong cord to prevent parcels breaking open.

"It's particularly important," the postmaster continued, "that an overseas address be correct and easy to read. Servicemen are on the move so much that any additional delay may mean delivery after Christmas."

To avoid any such disappointments, Postmaster Gilgun recommends that you hand-print the full name, rank, service number, branch of service, organization and the army or navy post office through which the mail is to be routed.

Labels frequently fall off when exposed to moisture, so print directly on the wrapping paper. Include your return address. Repeat them both inside on the mailing carton. It's also a good idea to enclose a list of contents. "Do not open until Christmas" stickers may be attached. Place them where they won't obscure the address.

In spelling out the do's and don'ts of his overseas program, Postmaster Gilgun feels that the best advice is, "Big or small, mail them all—now!"

PROGRAM OF INSTRUCTION FOR LAW ENFORCEMENT

James J. Kelly, Special Agent in Charge of the Boston Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, and Chief Thomas J. Maguire of Woburn, Massachusetts, today announced the completion of plans for a program of instruction for law enforcement officers to be held at Woburn, Massachusetts, commencing Tuesday, October 27, 1953, and continuing each Tuesday and Thursday thereafter until its completion on December 8, 1953.

Officers attending the school will come from the Woburn, Winchester, Lexington, Reading, Stoneham, Wilmington, Burlington, Westford, and North Reading Police Departments, and the instruction will be given in two sessions. There will be an afternoon lecture from 2:00 to 4:30 p. m. and an evening lecture, a duplicate of the afternoon, will be given from 7:00 to 9:30 p. m.

The Federal Bureau of Investigation will provide instruction in connection with general investigative topics such as general principles of evidence; note taking and report writing; public relations in law enforcement; collection, identification, and preservation of evidence; techniques and methods of arrests; care and handling of firearms and related matters. Additional instruction will be given by the Middlesex County District Attorney's Office as well as the Presiding Justice of the Woburn District Court. A special lecture on accident investigations will be given by Sergeant Edward Bowler of the Winchester Police Department.

In addition to providing Special Agent instructors for such schools, Mr. Kelly asserted the FBI assists police departments and other law enforcement agencies in planning the curriculum of training schools. This is part of a program established under the direction of J. Edgar Hoover to further the professionalization of law enforcement. During the 1952 fiscal year the FBI participated in 2,350 such schools and thus has carried its cost-free training service to all parts of the United States. The Training School to be held at Woburn, Massachusetts, is part of that program which has assisted greatly in the development, expansion and improvement of law enforcement services.

BUTTERS - BIRD

Miss Marilyn Lucille Bird, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Mervyn Weeks Bird of Belfast, Maine, and Mr. Arthur E. Butters, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Butters of Park avenue were married on Sunday afternoon, October 25, in the First Church in Belfast. The four o'clock ceremony was performed by Rev. Frank Pittman. Baskets of white chrysanthemums and candles formed the decorations at the chancel. The wedding music was played by Donald Lewis and Conrad Bird, brother of the bride, was the soloist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attired in a gown of imported Chantilly lace and white Duchess satin. The fitted lace bodice was styled with the illusion neckline with a ruffle edge of tulle. The satin skirt with Cathedral train featured wide panels of Chantilly lace. Her fingertip-length veil of illusion fell from a lace crown outlined in seed pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses and white orchids.

Mrs. Eugene Watt of Madison, Maine was matron of honor. Her gown of nymph green was fashioned with a satin bodice and nylon net skirt. She carried a bouquet of apricot pompon chrysanthemums with matching headpiece.

The bridesmaids were Miss Marguerita Costanza of Rev. Mrs. Robert Wetherell of Springvale, Me., and Mrs. Herman Carlson of Wakefield. Their gowns were honey color satin and nylon net.

The bridesmaids carried pompon chrysanthemums and ivy. They carried matching colonial bouquets. Herman Carlson of Wakefield was best man and ushering were Robert Wetherell of Springvale, and Dr. Robert Dickson of this town.

A reception was held in the church parish house immediately after the ceremony.

The bride is a graduate of Crosby High School, Oak Grove School, Vassalboro in 1948 and Nason College in 1952. She is employed as a dietitian at the Maine Eye and Ear Infirmary, Portland, Maine.

Mr. Butters is a graduate of Winchester High School, Colby College and Boston University. He is employed with the Dakin Sporting Goods Company of Bangor, Me. The couple will make their home in Oakland, Maine.

FOLK MUSIC EVENING

The Children's Own School will present an evening of Folk Music on Friday, November 20, at eight o'clock at the Masonic Hall. The affair is for the benefit of the School's Building Fund. Mrs. Leonard Wolsky, of Woburn, who accompanies herself on the zither, will sing English, Irish and American folk songs, as well as a few representative selections in French, Italian and German. Many of the songs are interesting, not only for their charming music, but because they have a historical or sociological background, and the frequent humor and wit which is present in most folk music lends the program a pleasant feeling of informality. Mrs. Wolsky has appeared on television and radio, as well as before various clubs and women's organizations.

Refreshments will be served at the close of the evening.

With 43 boys registered in all, there are now many new scouts in the troop.

One Saturday over 20 of the boys, mostly tenderfeet, took a 10 mile hike through the woods to the Sheepfold and there cooked their noon-day meal, plenty of hot hamburgers, franks, fried potatoes, beans, etc., were the order of the day. This was taken on a beautiful sunny day the mounted trooper was encountered along the trail and gave the boys some helpful directions. Mr. Bill Macdonald of 42 Canterbury road, father of one of the newest members went along and reported that he was perhaps a little more tickered-out than some of the youngsters. A map reading session and games were enjoyed at intervals.

Another week-end Bob Flaherty took some of the Patrol Leaders, Vassalboro in 1948 and Nason College in 1952. She is employed as a dietitian at the Maine Eye and Ear Infirmary, Portland, Maine.

Mr. Butters is a graduate of Winchester High School, Colby College and Boston University. He is employed with the Dakin Sporting Goods Company of Bangor, Me. The couple will make their home in Oakland, Maine.

Just recently about 20 of the scouts went to Camp Ted, Walham, with Scout Master Ellis, taking along full regalia for an overnight Camp Out, cooking utensils, food, bedding, tents, etc., were all packed to the site and the boys settled down for a real experience.

There were no mishaps. The general conduct was reported as good. The Troop has been organized into Patrols, with such names as, Flying Eagle, Snake, Hawk, Ranger, Pioneer.

On next week, a meeting of the Scout Parents was called and a new slate of officers was elected for the coming year.

Mr. William McLeod (Bill) Macdonald as Chairman.

Mr. Leslie W. Doten of 52 Loring road as Treasurer.

Mr. Ralph H. Pingree of 50 Alben road as Secretary.

At the meeting of the Committee Mr. Bill Hopkins, retiring Chairman; Allan Adams, retiring Treasurer assisted nobly in the installation of the new men and offered their good advice for and during the ensuing year.

The only known species of freshwater sharks are found in Lake Nicaragua. Ichthyologists call them Eulamia nicaraguensis, according to the National Geographic Society.

According to police the truck owned by C. E. Hall & Sons of Somerville and being driven south on Main street by Nicholas Barras, so of 477 Meridian street, East Boston, was in collision to the north of Lake street with a Plymouth sedan owned and being driven north on Main street by Charles O'Neil of 23rd street, Woburn.

The impact of the collision drove the Plymouth into an Oldsmobile sedan owned by Paul Carroll of 120 Appleton street, Cambridge, which was parked at the easterly curb of Main street facing north.

After colliding with the Plymouth the truck swerved sharply to the left, striking the rear left side and trunk of another Plymouth sedan, owned by Thaddeus Maxwell, Jr., of 101 Grove street, Reading, which was parked behind the Olds.

Continuing across the easterly sidewalk of Main street, the truck crashed into and broke down a wooden fence on the property of Florence DeCelles, 723 Main street, and finally came to a stop with its body across the sidewalk and its front end suspended on a stone wall on the DeCelles property.

Only O'Neil was injured in the collision and he was not badly hurt. He was taken to the Choate Memorial Hospital in Woburn and treated by Dr. Vincent DiRago, later being discharged. All the vehicles involved in the accident were damaged.

IRVING C. BLODGETT

Irving C. Blodgett of 4 Harrington road, retired executive of the Boston & Maine Railroad, died Tuesday morning, November 3, at the Winchester Hospital after a short illness. He would have been 70 on Monday.

Mr. Blodgett was born November 10, 1883, in Saratoga, N. Y. He spent his early life in Greenfield and later lived in Melrose before coming to Winchester in 1934. He had a varied career in railroad engineering during the more than fifty years he spent in the employ of the Boston & Maine, an employment that commenced when he was 17 years old.

He rose through the ranks from fireman to engineer, helper mechanic and trainmaster. For 35 years he held various executive positions of responsibility, being at the time of his retirement two years ago supervisor of labor schedules in the personnel department of the railroad.

Among many other railroad organizations, Mr. Blodgett was a member of the New England Railroad Club. He was also a member of the Knights of Columbus and a charter member of Greenfield Lodge of Elks.

TO REMEMBER FOREVER

On Armistice Day this year there is great cause for thankfulness. The shooting is over in Korea, prisoners of war, American boys held captive in enemy hands, have come home at last. Our gratitude for their safe return mingles with our tears for those who will never hear the "cease fire" order.

Our hearts are full of sympathy for mothers, wives and children of thousands who have expended their lives for us here at home. We must never forget Americans who have sacrificed to keep America strong and free. It is little enough for us, safe and alive, living in the greatest country on earth, breathing free air, enjoying the privileges of freedom, it is little enough for us to keep reminding ourselves of the meaning of America to our men and women overseas. Our memorial is in our hearts forever.

PLAINS RESIDENTS INVITED TO HEARING

At the invitation of the Board of Selectmen some 35 residents of the Plains District, in the vicinity of Swanton and Spruce streets, met with the Board last Friday evening in the General Committee Room of the Town Hall to discuss the proposed changes of Swanton street as it will be depressed to extend under the overhead tracks of the Boston & Maine Railroad.

Chairman Don Greer of the Selectmen presided at the hearing and explained that the Board had felt it would be courteous to invite the residents of the district affected to a meeting with the Board so that the proposed plans could be explained to them in detail and that any questions they might care to ask the Board could be answered.

A number of those property owners who attended the meeting arrived with no great liking for the proposed plans for their neighborhood and it would be an extravagance to state that many of those dissatisfied left the meeting entirely pleased with prospects as they were explained.

Mr. Greer stated that no project for public betterment can be carried out without hurting some one, and his Board realizes that the proposed depression of Swanton street is going to create a greatly changed neighborhood in the Spruce street location.

The Board is, however, concerned to change the neighborhood as little as possible and to do as little actual harm as possible to the least number of persons.

He explained that residents of the district had been invited to the meeting to express any dissatisfaction they had with the plans and to make any suggestions that will make the project less objectionable to them.

Mr. Barker of the Worcester Company was at the hearing and answered many questions as well as listening to a number of suggestions from unhappy residents. Several of the suggestions he felt might well be incorporated into the plans which are as yet unfinished.

Mr. Greer assured the residents that any further suggestions they may care to make to improve the layout of Swanton street in their opinion may be presented to the Board and will receive careful consideration.

The meeting lasted for about three hours, during which plans were studied and general discussions held. One of those who expressed considerable dissatisfaction with the present plan was Mr. Amico, the baker, whose bakery would be made far less accessible to residents.

The entire Board of Selectmen attended the hearing as did Harrison Lynde, former Selectman and present secretary of the Planning Board. Former Selectmen Nicholas Fitzgerald and Harry Cheloff also attended with Arthur Hewis, Jr. Mr. Hewis felt that the meeting should have been held before the special town meeting on the grade crossing abolition.

TO SET REFERENDUM DATE
SATURDAY

The Board of Selectmen will meet Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock to set the date for the referendum to be held on the vote of the recent special town meeting, appropriating $190,000 to the town's share of the $6,000,000 project to eliminate the grade crossing by raising the railroad tracks over the street.

Authorizing the Selectmen, or chairman of the Board, to enter into definite agreements with the State or other interested parties to bring about elimination by this method of the grade crossing.

Referendum petitions were circulated immediately following the meeting, and the petitions were filed with the Board of Selectmen last week Thursday. Two hundred and fifty names were necessary, and the Registrars of Voters checked 323 with many more appended to the petitions. It is estimated that over 500 voters signed the papers.

Under the law the Selectmen must set a date for the referendum within 14 days of the meeting at which the petition is considered. That would mean that the referendum vote must be held not later than Saturday, November 21. There has been some feeling that the Saturday date would be a good time since many do not work on Saturday.

Complicating the date setting is the fact that there are two special town meetings to be held on November 12 and 16, to consider the report of the Committee on additional facilities for the high and junior high schools, and the Parkhurst School addition committee.

If all the money proposed under the grade crossing and school articles, as well as others in the warrant for November 16, is taken from the Excess and Deficiency Account, the good old "E and D", so often vehemently defended in the past as sacrosanct, will take quite a beating.

MINNEHAN — HOLMES

White gladiolus, combined with roses and chrysanthemums, decorated the altar of St. Mary's Church on Saturday morning, October 31, for the marriage of Miss Joyce Arlene Holmes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Holmes of 14 Manchester road, to James T. Minnehan, son of Mr. and Mrs. James J. Minnehan of 35 Westland avenue. The Rev. Fr. Martin Dolphin officiated at the 10 o'clock ceremony and was also celebrant of the nuptial mass which followed.

Miss Holmes was given in marriage by her father and had her sister, Mrs. Rosalie Holmes Fiske of Winchester, as her honor attendant. Bridesmaids were Carole Lynch of Rosindale, cousin of the bride; Junitta Antiga Holmes of San Francisco, sister-in-law of the bride; Susan Halloran of Winchester and Dorothy Mullen Clarke of Cambridge.

The bride wore a gown of candlelight imported French silk Chantilly lace over satin, the hoop skirt extending to form a cotton train. Her three-tiered fingertip-length veil of silk illusion was caught to a coronation crown of pearls and rhinestones, and she carried a bouquet of phalaenopsis orchids and stephanotis.

The honor attendant and bridesmaids wore waltz-length dresses of changeable blue-green taffeta with shoes matching the blue ribbons that tied their nosegays. The bride's attendants carried bouquets with white mums and sweet peas. The bridesmaids carried white mums with garnet roses. All the attendants wore coronets of flowers to match their nosegays.

Arthur R. Donaghey, Jr., of West Medford, was Mr. Minnehan's best man, and ushering were Barry A. Holmes of San Francisco, Cal., brother of the bride; George Elliott Fiske of Winchester, brother-in-law of the bride; John F. Nelson of Nantucket, Conn., and Joseph D. Wheeler of Philadelphia, Pa.

A reception was held after the marriage at Longwood Towers in Brookline. Mrs. Holmes, mother of the bride, who assisted in receiving, wore a changeable blue taffeta gown with rose sash and shoes. With her gown she wore a silver-blue mink cape on which were pinned rose camellias.

Mr. and Mrs. Minnehan are spending their honeymoon driving to California where they will make their home in San Francisco. The bride is a graduate of the Mt. Auburn Hospital and Boston University Schools of Nursing. Mr. Minnehan graduated from Winchester High School and Northeastern University.

Miss Carlene Malloy of Somerville was maid of honor and the bridesmaids were Mrs. Larry Matthews of Winchester, Mrs. Rita Tambeau of Saugus, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Mary Reagan of North Woburn.

The honor maid was gowned in salmon, her dress having a satin bodice and a nylon tulle skirt. Her headpiece matched her dress and she carried a cascade bouquet of tea roses.

The bridesmaids wore dresses of peacock blue satin and nylon tulle, fashioned like that of the honor maid. Their headpieces also matched their gowns and they carried tea roses.

James Tambeau of Saugus was best man by his brother, and ushering were William Carroll of Somerville, uncle of the bride, Richard Wilkinson, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, and Allen Diamond, both of Saugus; and John Mulronan of Winchester, cousin of the bride.

Few College Club members need be reminded that next Monday evening, November 9th, is Fall Guest Night. This first general meeting of the Winchester College Club will take place at 8:15 p. m. in the Church of the Epiphany. The guest speaker, a gentleman of personal charm and sparkle, an anthropologist of note, a traveler for many years in Africa and the far East, is Dr. Frederick Wulsin of Tufts College. Mrs. Howard L. Leary, Clerk of the Association of Tufts Alumnae, will open her home at 48 Westland avenue to the board and committee to plan for Alumnae Hall ground-breaking to be held on November 20, adjoining Jackson Gymnasium.

Following the ceremonies, pre-college daughters and friends, together with their mothers, will be taken on a tour of the campus and invited to a tea.

In addition to Mrs. Leary, Winchester alumnae on the committee include Mrs. Clarence A. Roberts, President, Mrs. Warren E. Jackson, 2nd Vice-President, Mrs. Ralph H. Bonnell, Mrs. James Lane, Mrs. Lester Armstrong, Mrs. Fred Cardin, Mrs. James Gustin, Mrs. Victor Lawson, Mrs. Dwight E. M. I. A. C. FOOTBALL RATINGS
STARTLE COACHES AND FANS

Last week, without preliminary warning or notice, the Massachusetts Interscholastic Athletic Council (advisory group of the headmasters' association) published in the Boston papers a radical plan for the reclassification of the high school football teams of eastern Massachusetts. While a great many interested fans will agree that the system of ratings inaugurated by the Sports Writers and in use for several years now, is far from perfect, the immediate reaction to the new system proposed by the M. I. A. C. has been widespread and all but violent. From coaches in many schools affected have come expressions of consternation, of scorn, of ridicule, of disbelief, of bewilderment, of amusement, of disgust, of anguish.

Coaches of schools suddenly elevated from lowly Class C ratings to Class A prominence shuddered at the unwelcome honor and longed for the comfortable obscurity of a much humbler rating. Of course, most of the howls of anguish came from the coaches whose teams were elevated to higher classifications. For example, when Stoneham High School was promoted from Class C to Class A, Tony DeTeso's shrieks could have been heard in South Boston.

After reading all the pros and cons on the subject, one is tempted to wonder whether any classification is necessary or even useful, and whether both of the proposed classifications do not present a false picture of the relative ability of the teams rated. Unless a Class B team, for example, plays all other teams in its class (which is obviously impossible) how can it possibly be rated as Class B champion? Perhaps the result of this whole controversy may be the revival of more football leagues among groups of natural rivals.

As we stumbled into the fourth week we find not too many changes in the different departments.

Team standings:
Bates 14-2

Not being one of the contestants this week it gave me an opportunity to classify in my way the different styles of bowling.

Some of the outstanding ones are as follows:
No. 1 The Ballerina
One who skips, hops and dances and lets the ball go and ends up on one foot.

No. 2 The Jackknife
One who bends at the waist in a forty-five degree angle and looks at the pins through his eyebrows before the ball rolls.

No. 3 The Stargazer
One who looks to the heavens after the ball is gone looking for an answer as to where the ball went.

No. 4 The Prayer
One who falls on his knees praying for a good hit as the ball goes.

No. 5 The Rattler
One who ends up shaking his head wondering what happened.

No. 6 The Halfback
One who stands back at the soda fountain and runs as fast as his legs can go and darn near kills himself at the rubber stop.

No. 7 The Creeper
One who creeps up the runway and at the last possible moment whips the ball down the alley.

No. 8 The Stamper
One who lets the ball go and hopes to get an assist on the infall by stamping his feet.

When it's your turn to sit out just enjoy the circus.

Well it had to come some day, the battle between "Ballerina" Cusack's "Chick's" team and "Prayer" Corrigan and his children. It was a good battle and excitement was high for the lead changed sides many times. But the old men did themselves justice for they held the kids in a nip and tuck battle down to the wire to a 2 and 2 split. Thanks also is to be given to two other men on "Ballerina Chick's" team. One man of God-freedom, "Stargazer" Mingy.

I also noticed in my travels "Creeper" Gene Rotundi still trying to keep up with the youngsters.

In my opinion this year equals in enthusiasm and excitement the year of the band concert and free cigars.

Dodo DiTeso was the lucky winner of the usual Wednesday night raffle. Be sure you buy a ticket as yours may be the lucky one next week.

See you next week.

"Stu" Thomson, football and basketball star at Winchester High last year, is first-string quarterback on the Williston Academy football team, which has enjoyed an unbeaten season thus far this fall. Williston plays its final game Saturday at home with Deerfield and it wouldn't be at all surprising if the "Rod" Thomsons of Fells road, father, mother, sister and kid brother, "Dodger" Doug, were in the Williston stands watching big, blond "Stu" in action!

Good quarter-backing by young Bill Ross, who showed good judgment in calling plays, passed with precision, and pointed well.

Fine individual plays by J. Murphy, Quill, and Gould.

Above all, real teamwork by the whole squad.

We are not attempting to imply that mistakes were not made or that Winchester has suddenly come up with a miracle team or a world-beater. But there is no question that Coach Knowlton and his assistants have fashioned a rugged and steadily improving machine.

TEAM WORK

In a one-sided contest, marked however by an unusual number of spectacular individual performances on both sides, Winchester's steadily improving football machine trampled over Reading last Saturday afternoon at Manchester Field by the score of 39 to 6. Reading's lone touchdown came as the result of a dazzling drive as the kickoff caught on Reading's 10 yard line by Tom Murray, whose speed and footwork enabled him to race through the entire Winchester team (second and third-string players) for ninety yards to pay-dirt.

Winchester gave the well-filled stands an exhibition of striking power, alertness, and improved line play, combined with a revelation of depth at every position. Against a weaker-than-average Reading eleven, Coach Knowlton was able to throw fifty-one boys into the game and a few of those boys who have been warming the bench in previous games wasted no time in showing that they appreciated the chance to show their wares.

In spite of the one-sided score, the game was far from colorless. For Reading, Tom Murray and Eddie Stanton gave their supporters more than one or two thrills with their ability to penetrate the Winchester line on several occasions and their excellent open-field running. Only last-minute tackles by the safety men prevented these two good ball-carriers from scoring. And speaking of safety men, perhaps in Joe Bellino, Winchester has one of the best. Incidentally, young Mr. J. Murphy of the scrubs came up with two hard tackles to prevent Reading ball carriers from scoring against the Seconds.

An incomplete list of the game-highlights from the Winchester point of view would have to include the following:

Jimmy Haggerty's brilliant bursts through the Reading line on delayed cross-backs for two touchdowns runs of 35 and 40 yards respectively, while only the slippery turf and a colorful exhibition prevented him from a third, as he penetrated the Reading forward wall to find himself free with no one in front of him.

Mike Murphy's 65-yard end run to the Reading 2 yard line. Like a Mike truck in high gear, Mike ploughed through the opposition, using a beautiful straight-arm to eliminate one would-be tackler and dragging another five or ten yards before being dragged down. If Mike can keep that straight-arm working, he'll continue cluttering up opponents' backfields with frustrated tacklers from now on.

Joe Bellino's adroitness in recovering a fumbled kick-off in the midst of three Reading tacklers and eluding their grasp to race 52 yards for a touchdown.

McLaughlin's 33-yard burst through tackle for a score after being stopped on the same play on the previous down. Also his smooth handling of a fifteen yard pass from Ross and run of 24 yards to the end zone.

The line's play in opening up wide holes for the backs by Haggerty and McLaughlin. On at three touchdowns runs not a Reading player laid a hand on the ball carrier.

The recovery of six Reading fumbles by alert Winchester players. And the forcing of ten Reading fumbles by aggressive line play throughout the game.

Outstanding individual work in the line by Jim Cusack. This veteran has played a stellar game all season, but in the thick of the scrimmage his work is often unnoticed.

Good quarter-backing by young Bill Ross, who showed good judgment in calling plays, passed with precision, and pointed well.

Fine individual plays by J. Murphy, Quill, and Gould.

Above all, real teamwork by the whole squad.

We are not attempting to imply that mistakes were not made or that Winchester has suddenly come up with a miracle team or a world-beater. But there is no question that Coach Knowlton and his assistants have fashioned a rugged and steadily improving machine.

From the first stringers down to the last substitute. Remembering that Winchester started the season with only two regulars from last year's great team, one is impressed with the way in which this year's team has developed from week to week. And it will get better. Right now the question in the minds of the coaches, the players, and the fans is whether it will be good enough to rate an even chance against Wakefield on November 14th and against Woburn on Thanksgiving Day. We believe it will.

Between the halves of the game Reading's band and Drum Majorettes put on a colorful exhibition. And Winchester's band, the best we have seen this year or are likely to see, entertained with some tricky new steps. Ted Bartlett's contribution over the loud speaker from the tower behind the Winchester stands was appreciated by all who were able to hear him above the noise of the cheering crowd. Steps will be taken to improve the speaking system so that in the final two home games Mr. Bartlett's melodious voice may reach the ears of all.

PLAY BY PLAY ACCOUNT OF THE GAME

Reading won the toss and elected to receive at the south goal. Riordan kicked off to Tom Murray, who carried the 5 yard line to the 11. Talbot made a yard at left tackle. Murray hit right guard for 7, and Stanton made a first down on the 27.

Held for three downs for no gain, Stanton punted on 4th down from his 17 yard line to the Winchester 35, where the ball was declared dead.

Murphy slipped on the wet turf for no gain, and Bellino lost a yard on a cross buck. On third down Murphy tried left end and would have been in the clear if Mantini had not missed a block on the only Reading man in a position to stop him. Bellino punted short to the Reading 47.

Murray was held for no gain in a line buck. A backfield fumble was recovered by Reading on the 39 for an eight yard loss. Talbot threw a long pass over his receiver's head on third down, and then punted to Bellino on the Winchester 30. Joe brought the ball back to the 40.

Bellino made 3 yards at right tackle. Haggerty on a cross buck made 13 yards, and if he had not stumbled could have gone all the way. Bellino on a pitchout was held for no gain. Murphy on the same play lost 4 yards. Pratt's pass over the line was intercepted by Talbot of Reading on the Reading 32 yard line.

Stanton made 8 yards through the line, was held for no gain on the next play, and Reading fumbled on third down, the ball being recovered by O'Brien on the Reading 35 yard line.

On first down, Haggerty on a cross-buck scored with a 35 yard run through a wide opening at left guard. Riordan missed the point after. Score: Winchester 6, Reading 0.

Riordan kicked off to Murray, who took the ball on his 10 yard line and carried to his 45, only to have the play nullified by an off-side penalty against Reading. On the next kick-off by Riordan Murray fumbled the ball on his 10 and it rolled out-of-bounds at that point.

On first down, Murray picked up 9 yards to the 28. On a pitch-out Murray lost three and the first quarter ended. On third down Stanton made 2 and on 4th down on his own 27, with 2 yards to go for a first down, Reading punted to Bellino, who fumbled momentarily and then picked up the loose ball and ran 52 yards for a score. Riordan kicked the extra point. Score: Winchester 13, Reading 0.

Riordan kicked off to Stanton, who took the ball on his 15 yard line and ran it back to the 43, but a clipping penalty against Reading brought the ball back to the 19 yard line.

On first down, Murray skirted right end for 31 yards and a first down on the 50. Stanton made 6 at left guard and Murray made another first down on the Winchester 37. Stanton found a hole at left guard and carried for a first down on the 25. On the next play, Dattilo recovered a Reading fumble on the 26.

Murray made only one yard on a line buck. Bellino lost 6 on a pitchout. Pratt got back only 3 yards on an off-tackle play, and Bellino punted to the Reading 20 yard line, where the ball was declared dead.

Gaining only 8 yards on three line plays, Reading was forced to punt on 4th down to Bellino who took the ball on his 38 and ran back to the Reading 41. On the next play a clipping penalty against Winchester put the ball on the 43. Pratt's short pass over the line was intercepted by Reading on the 42.

Murray found no hole at left guard. Dattilo smothered Talbot's attempt to pass. Winchester was penalized five yards for delaying the game. Talbot passed to Murray on the Winchester 33. With two yards to go for a first down, Stanton was held for no gain on a line buck and Winchester took possession of the ball on its own 33.

Haggerty carried to the 39, but an off-side penalty put the ball back on the 28. Bellino made only 4 yards at right guard on two successive plays and Murphy picked up 6 more. With five yards to go for a first down, Bellino from punt formation kept the ball and carried round left end to the Reading 47 for a first down. Haggerty made five on a cross buck and the half ended with the score: Winchester 13, Reading 0.

Runge kicked off to Bellino, who ran the ball back from the 20 to the 42. Haggerty made 3 at right guard. Bellino lost on a pitchout to the 33. On 3rd down, Murphy on a pitchout went round right end for 65 yards to the Reading 2 yard line. On two line-bucks Murphy scored from the 2. Riordan's kick was blocked. Score: Winchester 19, Reading 0.

Riordan kicked off to Stanton on the 20 and he was driven back to the 17. On second down Cusack recovered a Reading fumble on the 16. A five yard penalty for delaying the game put the ball back on the 21. McLaughlin lost 2 yards on a cross-buck, but on the next play hit the same spot for a touchdown run of 33 yards without being touched. Rotundi kicked the point after with Lindsey holding. Score 26-0.

Rotundi kicked-off to Murray at the 10 yard line and Murray ran the ball back for a touchdown, 90 yards was batted down by a Winchester lineman. Score: Winchester 26, Reading 6.

Reading kicked off to Jacobellis on the 30 and Jake carried to the 34. Rotundi was held for no gain on two line bucks and Lindsey passed over Nelson's head on a long pass attempt. Bellino made 8 on a cross buck. Bellino punted to Murray whose fumble was recovered by Murphy on the Reading 37.

On first down, Haggerty broke through left tackle again into the open and scored standing up. On the try he pointed after. Pratt passed to Bellino in the end zone for the point. Score: Winchester 33, Reading 6.

Riordan kicked off to Murray, who ran the ball back from the 15 to the 34. On the next play Winchester recovered a fumble in the backfield, on the 34.

Rotundi and Jacobellis combined to pick up only 5 yards. On 4th down Ross passed to McLaughlin, who caught the pass on the 24 and went the rest of the distance to score. Rotundi's kick was blocked in the try for point after and the score was Winchester 39, Reading 6, as the third quarter ended.

Rotundi kicked-off to Kink who was downed on the Reading 35. Murray made 6 at right guard. J. Murphy tackled Stanton hard at the line of scrimmage on the next play, but Stanton made a first down on the 48. Again J. Murphy stopped Murray on an end-run on the Winchester 44. Murray made a first down on the Winchester 40.

On two plays Murray lost one yard, but Barron made 9 at right guard. On 4th down Talbot on a quarter-back sneak carried to the Winchester 26 for a first down. On the next two plays, holding penalties against each team left the ball on the 25. Talbot and Surette failed to gain a yard on three tries and an incomplete pass on 4th down gave the ball to Winchester on the 32.

J. Murphy carried to the 46 but a clipping penalty put the ball back on the 31. Rimbach carried and a clipping penalty brought the ball to the 45. After an incomplete pass, Ross punted from the 35 to the Reading 30.

From this point Reading made three quick first downs to the Winchester 33. On first down John Reardon recovered a Reading fumble on the 33. Winchester fumbled on the next play and Reading recovered on the 30. In three plays Reading carried to the Winchester 16 and the game ended.

Fifth Grade Tea

A tea was held on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. William Morton, 38 Arlington street, for Mrs. Ann White, the fifth-grade teacher, and Miss Martha V. Cunningham.

Mrs. White spoke of the seriousness of problems which face a growing child in the world about him. She stated that an interest in current events is encouraged by having the children report on news events in the manner of a radio reporter. Various arithmetic games and the counting of bank and milk money give the children a greater facility in addition and subtraction. The fifth and sixth grades must help prepare the pupil for the more mature program of junior high school.

Delicious refreshments were served by the following committee: Mrs. Robert Reynolds, Mrs. Harry Wood, Mrs. Arthur Watkins, Mrs. Charles Siders, Mrs. James Sarno, Mrs. Robert Gray and Mrs. Joseph Dunn. The pourers were Mrs. Ronald Davis and Mrs. Arthur Schmidt.

Fourth Grade Tea
The fourth grade tea was held on Thursday afternoon, October 29, at the home of Mrs. Malcolm Dodge, 5 Seneca road, for Mrs. Margaret Donovan and Miss Martha V. Cunningham.

Mrs. Donovan gave the mothers a word picture of a typical day's activities of the fourth grade.

Assorted sandwiches and cakes were served by the following committee: Mrs. George Farrar, Mrs. Bruce Young, Mrs. Joseph Masi, Mrs. Cosmo DiSilva, Mrs. Morton Towle, Mrs. Paul Lamson, Mrs. John Stevens and Mrs. Clifford Hammel. Mrs. Herman Meissner and Mrs. Benjamin Wild were the pourers.

WASHINGTON SCHOOL ASSEMBLY
The pupils in Mr. Roland Nault's fifth grade class prepared their assembly to the school on October 28. Two short plays, based on the activities of the class in reading, language, safety, and science, were written and acted by the youngsters themselves.

In the first sketch, "The Story of Ali Cogia," the setting was a desert land in the Near East. Pupils participating in this playlet were: Jim Bogue, Linda Parsons, George Neville, Jim Cann, John Swift, Steven Morrison, Guild Nichols, Jerry Ducharme, Richard Keene, Richard deRevere, Janet Cussen, Janet Keppeler, and Benny Low.

Hallowe'en was the appropriate theme of the second play, written by Janet Keppeler, George Neville, and Jim Bogue. Actors included the following: Janet Cussen, Jim Bogue, Benny Low, Gloria Rotundi, Jerry Ducharme, Janet Keppeler, Eric Wittet, Buckie Nichols, Steven Morrison, John Swift, Jim Cann, George Neville, Richard Keene, Guild Nichols, and Richard deRevere.

Adding much to the enjoyment of the assembly program were the songs and jingles written by members of the class. The unexpected appearance of a horse made up by Guild Nichols and Jerry Ducharme aroused much humor, as did the witches costume worn by Steven Morrison.

At the conclusion of the program, Principal Leonor Rich talked to the children about the proper observance of Hallowe'en.

WON STEWARDESS WINGS
Barbara Ann Sipp, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Sipp of 11 Sheffield West, has won her wings as an American Airlines stewardess, after graduation from the airline's stewardess training center in Chicago. She has been assigned to flight duty, based at Ancon Carter Field, Fort Worth, Texas.

A graduate of Winchester High School, Centenary Junior College, and Lesley College in Cambridge, Miss Sipp was a teacher in Waltham and Winchester schools before joining the airline.

Commenting on juvenile delinquency in a recent issue of the Boston Herald Mail Bag, M. G. Mac-Leod of Everett believes that one-eighth of the young men are killing birds and sixteen year old boys are fighting to the death with knives is because we have forgotten that law is not concerned with kindness, charity or even justice. Law, he says is intended to protect all society, not to protect the criminal.
We recall former Town Counsel Addison Pike winning for the town the case against the ice cream vender who argued that his State License gave him the right to sell ice cream regardless of town laws.
Mr. Pike argued that his license was for the protection of the public, not to enable him to carry on his business as he pleased in contravention to local state, and the Court upheld Mr. Pike.
When the law, designed to protect the community, commences to do just that, a lot of those new to crime will stop their activities before they begin. They won't like the prospect of what is in store for them from a law that wasn't made with their protection in mind.

REFERENDUM ONLY WAY

Editor of the Star:
With our present form of Limited Town Meeting, many of us never have a chance to vote Yes or No on own expenditures. Town Meeting members do not represent us. They vote as they wish not as we wish.
The most glaring example of this was in 1952. A straw vote was taken in Precinct 3. A Ninety Percent coverage of residents was obtained. To the question, "Are you content to see the tracks raised?"
The Vote was 3 to 1—No. The No cards included the name of our present Commissioner!

A short time after the results of this straw vote were made known, the Town Meeting members from Precinct 3 were required officially to vote on the same subject. Their official vote was Yes. Not one exception that I can remember. This made it look as though Precinct 3 was One Hundred Percent back of the plan to raise the tracks!

Those of us who cannot vote in our own right or even by proxy have only one way to show displeasure with a course of action adopted by our Town officials; namely, we must use the Referendum.

At the time this is written, it seems likely that Friday, November 20, 1953, will be the date for a Referendum on the Grade Crossing appropriation of $190,000 from Town funds. At the same time as the above sum was voted, the Selectmen were officially instructed to go ahead with a plan to raise the tracks and also build a By-Pass through the Skillings Estate. Cost to State is to be approximately 6 million. Cost to Winchester is limited to $190,000 for property damages in Center. Actual cost is known to be nearly twice that, but we hope the State will absorb the difference. The wording of the Article is open to doubt.

No estimate was mentioned as to incidental costs to Winchester for getting disrupted streets and services back into order after contractors have finished.

Grades at several streets are to be changed from an elevation of four feet or more to a depressed area of equal amount (Bacon street and Swanton street?) You can picture the upset to abutters at such points.
The State is not concerned with many of these purely local problems; but the costs must be paid by individuals or Town. Nothing will pay for inconvenience over many months.

Also, the State is not concerned at possible tragic results to certain business men and women who may be forced out of business because the Center is to be torn up over a two-year period. Did you know that there are over 80 commercial ventures close to the Center? It has been estimated that in some of these cases, volume of trade will fall off 30-40 percent. The Center will be dusty, noisy and filled with temporary ways for pedestrians and vehicles. Parking will be restricted, even unavailable for nearly two years. Remember, four heavy cement piers must be "cast" at the center where the heavy girders swung into place to form the three-arch bridge for the double tracks of the B. & M.

At another point, pile drivers will shake that area lying over the old post loop. Tons of material must be removed and other tons brought in. The steady rumble of the contractors' huge trucks, bulldozers, cranes, compressors, etc., will keep the Center in an uproar—
a true no-man's land!

Shoppers will go elsewhere. Why not? A dozen small businesses will go bankrupt in a two-year period. These men and women will have no redress, with their limited means. The "Big Fellows" possibly can hire legal help.

After the job is finished, here are some of the points that may affect you and me:

- (1) The noise and dust of fast express trains will be more in evidence than now.
- (2) We will find two walls with the space between filled with gravel upon which the double tracks of the B. & M. will rest, high in air.
- (3) From a point half-way down to Wedge on the left, and the Woburn Branch, the wall will be as high as the eaves of the present Traffic Tower.
- (4) At the center, a large traffic circle will shimmer in the summer heat when the dark shadow of the three-span bridge passes over head from North to South.
- (5) Are these girders to be made more conspicuous by a veneer of seam-faced stone? The doubtful improvement does not justify the expense.
- (6) Ramps are provided for young people wishing to reach the new train platforms. These ramps are long and steep and exposed to all winter conditions. They are long enough to leave you breathless if you hurry from the warm station at ground level to catch your train some 20 feet or more higher.
- (7) Upon your return from Boston on a night of freezing drizzle, these long ramps will give you a "thrill." There is no doubt of that.
- (8) During the construction period, the temporary tracks will probably eliminate the parking areas near the station and along Common street to its Northern end.
- (9) The other part of Common street, serving the stores in the Waterfield Block, will be dead-end, while the underpass is being built.
- (10) It is hard to see how the two rows of trees along the east side of the Common can be saved?
Another gaunt parking lot may be planned for this area when temporary tracks are removed in 1956?
- (11) Over by the Town Hall the new By-Pass starts at a traffic circle (3 times larger than the existing one) at the intersection of Washington street and Mt. Vernon street.
Beautiful Skillings Estate will be flattened and century old trees sent to the dump. Land not actually used by the highway (4 lanes) may be black-topped and offer parking area to two nearby churches.
- (12) The dream of a former Planning Board that the Skillings Estate was cheap at $30,000 is now thrown into it down at the Referendum. This exceptional site for a public building was handed over to the contractors for the value of its gravel content!

If we think the official plan is stupid and extravagant, it is our duty to vote it down at the Referendum. Do not let it go through by default. Take the time to vote.
There is a real issue at stake. Yes—and use your phone and urge your friends to join us.

"WHEN WILL IT STOP?"

Editor of the Star:
The property owners of Swanton and Spruce streets, attended a meeting Friday evening at the request of the Board of Selectmen.
The meeting was held in your column to give our views as to the proceedings.

All members of the Board of Selectmen were present with their secretary, and Harrison Lyman of the engineering staff of the Winchester Co., Mr. Barker.

Mr. Greer opened the meeting, stating that the Board was calling this conference to explain the plans that had already been voted on at the Special Town Meeting; he stated that the Board and the engineer would like to hear any plans that might be more acceptable to relieve the affected abutters.

He continually referred to the project as though it were about to start, giving scant attention to objections that the matter was still to be decided by a referendum.
To confuse the situation still further and confirm the statements already made that the town meeting voted a "final plan" that was not even understood by the proponents, it was said that it is thought now that Spruce street (proposed to be closed at the intersection of Swanton street) would be twelve feet above Swanton and under any condition could not be left open. On this one point we now have had three different figures as to the height of the wall in as many meetings: eight feet at the Public Hearing, ten feet at the Town Meeting, and now twelve feet. When will it stop?

It was pointed out (again assuming that the project was going through), that the Board and the Department of Public Works would spare no expense if by adding a few thousand dollars to the cost of the project it would satisfy these abutters. Several of the property owners stated their position to leave the tracks where they are, that additional damages was not the project it would satisfy these were opposed to the plan as it stands because it affects them, their neighbors and the whole town.

After considerable prompting by the Chairman requesting suggestions as to how the abutters would relieve the situation IF the project was accepted, the people grasped the spirit of the affair. In the language of the last war—Snafu.
(Situation Normal, All Fouled Up), and the suggestions came thick and fast, always prefaced by a desire to leave the tracks where they are.
Some of the suggestions included:

1. Taking all the houses in that area of Swanton street,
2. Closing Swanton street at the Bridge (no thought of the affect of this on the two largest industries in the town, Beggs & Cobb and the International Cooperae, 3. Moving the houses thirty or forty feet back,
4. Re-routing traffic through the side streets to the Shore road and the Centre area and back up the opposite side of the tracks to Swanton street,
5. Building stairs from the lower end of Swanton street to the houses level—in this instance it was stated, in some places there would be as many as thirty eight steps.
To chance for baby carriages,
6. Entering the property from the rear which would mean turning all the houses around—and on and on until the most serious question of all brought gasps to everyone:
What will happen to these houses and occupants in case of fire or serious accident? What provision has been made for safety protection on a 15 foot wide service road?
It was apparent that neither the Selectmen nor the engineer had figured on getting fire apparatus into these dead-end service driveways or to dead end Spruce street near Wedge on the left, and the residents back from engineering dreams to the practical fact that they did not want the tracks raised, no matter what scheme was involved. The meeting ended without being able to agree on any easy to sense that the owner-residents and their representatives would have carried the day unanimously.

Sincerely yours,
For the residents and owners of the Swanton and Spruce street area,

ROUTINE OF THE U. S. MARINE CORPS RECRUIT

Editor of the Star:
Having received so many calls asking "What becomes of my boy after he has enlisted in the Marines?" I turned to P10 Sgt. Jack Childs, Room 734, Post Office Square, Boston, for verification of my understanding of a man's entrance into the Marine Corps. Here goes:

After being sworn into the Marines the man leaves for Parris Island, S. C. (He may have enlisted for 3, 4 or 6 years). The first afternoon, about 60 of you will be gathered together and told that from now on your group will be known as a platoon. You'll train together, eat, sleep and work together for the next few weeks.

During this period you will be called "Boot" training for specific jobs with the Corps. After that you'll be Marines and on your separate ways. But going back to the beginning, after arrival at Parris Island you will be fitted with uniform, clothing, draw a rifle, and ride belt, bayonet and various articles known as 782 equipment. The second day is filled with physical examinations, etc. The platoon to which you are assigned will be commanded by a non-commissioned officer, who is your instructor. Pay strict attention to what he tells you. He will teach you bayonet training, chemical warfare, combat principles and exercises, drill, field fortifications, field sanitation, first aid, interior guard duty, military courtesy, parades and ceremonies, personal hygiene, physical training, scouting and patrolling, rifle training, pistol training, and grenade and B. A. R. training.

Catholic, Protestant and Hebrew services are held weekly on the Island. There are chaplains on the post who will give you such religious advice as you may desire. I you should have any complaints to make or desire any information, do not hesitate to go to your first sergeant, who is the representative of the commanding officer.

This seems to be a mistaken idea abroad that the Marine Corps will take anybody. Let me hasten to correct this and give you the moral qualifications:

"Applicants whose record or interview indicate conviction by a civil court, or an adverse record of adjudication by a juvenile court for any offense within the jurisdiction of the respective court, or where other evidence indicates commission of an act that would render the applicant liable to prosecution under such a court, will be rejected.
Waivers may be requested for the following cases:

Applicants with juvenile records, having been on probation (or delinquency) to training schools) but who have been off such probation for a period of six months before making application for enlistment. Any applicant who has served on probation will require waiver clearance from HQ Marine Corps, before being accepted for enlistment. All such cases will be interviewed by the recruiting officer or his assistant before the first time a Marine recruiting representative is being signed to Winchester. He is S/Sgt John O'Connell. If you see me around with the Marines I am not about to leave for Parris Island. I am just introducing him around. I hope you will stop him and say
"hello." We would like him to feel as much at home here as our Air Force and Army sergeants.

A hearty welcome to the U. S.
Marine Corps.
Cordially yours,
Mrs. K. B. Toye
Chairman, Military Manpower Committee

VOTE YOUR OWN OPINION

Editor of the Star:
I am absolutely opposed to the basic plan of 17 miles of tracks trains roaring through the town on a high embankment which would start from below Wedgemere and reach to Cross street. Before this plan is considered any further I present plan. We have considered this matter so long now, that a little more time to reach a satisfactory solution will be well spent and I believe that the State has another project ahead of the Winchester problem. Some overhead traffic plan may be found that will not disfigure the town and create such a terrible mess for two years or more. Every voter in town who wishes to see presented the best of the previous plans which do not raise the tracks, properly and fairly presented, so that it can be compared and studied against the present plan, should make it his or her special duty to register a vote against the present plan at the Referendum. I think Mrs. W.
Woodside suggested something like this in her speech at the last town meeting.

And many people in town, do not know that Mr. Elmer Fletcher, who has been in town for many years,
once town engineer of Winchester and his opinion should be given great weight.

In addition to the mess, caused by the temporary tracks and the mess in Black Ball Pond, the proposed plan causes serious complications at the Wedgemere station and at Swanton street. Further, the proposed by-pass, ruins the beautiful Skillings lot which might in time be used for a new public building for Winchester, and also concentrates the ever increasing traffic on Washington street to route 128, and the heavy Woburn traffic, all at the Town Hall, Baptist Church and Wadleigh School and in addition much of the traffic from Border road and Highland avenue which comes up and down Mt. Vernon street. Then the bypass crosses the Mystic Valley Parkway at the Library and High School, causing another mess, and I believe some of the land has to be taken from the Library and High School to widen Washington street.

For the above reasons I hope every voter in town will study this situation carefully, and then vote, so that what is done will be the expression of the will of the people of Winchester as a whole. It has been suggested that the last referendum was not representative because the turnout was small. The plan was not well organized and the proponents made every effort possible to get the voters to vote their way, and this time I hope everyone will think for themselves and vote freely. I am sure you voted for it before you can always change your mind after due consideration.

THEY LIKE WINCHESTER!

Editor of the Star:
"How do you like your new home
—and how do you like living in Winchester?" I asked a friend who moved to Winchester 3 or 4 years ago.

"I love it," was the quick reply,
"and my husband loves it more than I. You see, he has heart trouble and you can't imagine what a blessing it is to him to drive to the station and get into the car without climbing a single step."

"It will be quite a change when we get the elevated railroad 19 or 20 ft. high in the air—with long canyons, and not even a step to the platform. In town, with a platform of the same height, it is 32 steps up to the platform, where there are 2 or 3 boards on each side of a horizontal stick which they call a canopy, and not even a post to hide behind or to hold on to in wind or rain or sleet or snow."

"What do you mean about an elevated railroad? All I have ever heard about is what they call an "overpass" for the cars to go under without waiting."

"This much-advertised 'overpass' pictured so beautifully with trains looking as if they were 2 or 3 feet above ground is an optical illusion, for in reality the trains will be 19 or 20 feet high and under this beautiful 'overpass' there will be a traffic circle that may rival the one at Haymarket, or Sullivan Square.
You may have to diet to squeeze by it from Mt. Vernon to Church street, for they say even a corner of McCormack's Drug Store will have to be chopped off. And the 'overpass' will be only a connecting link in the middle of a two or three-mile elevated railroad that will cut through the town in two, from Cross street to somewhere between Wedgemere and Medford. And Wedgemere with its interesting setting? All I could think of during the very clever description of it at the recent hearing (with so many unanswered questions) was 'Waltz Me Around Again, Willie.' It will certainly take a guide and plenty of time for your first trip if you want to catch a train."

"Oh, dear, what will my poor husband say when he finds out, especially when his doctor always says, 'don't climb stairs,' and he finds out that the general of his friends have been told the same thing by their doctors."

"How many steps did you say that they have for the overhead in Lynn?"
"When I went down there last spring to investigate I counted 32 steps up and 32 steps down and was told that the height of the platform was the same as it would be in Winchester. But I must be wrong, for I am out getting names for the referendum which will give a chance to vote to everyone of the approximately ninety-five hundred voters who had no chance to vote in Town Meeting and will have no chance except through the referendum!"
"Get the facts as well as you can about the confused, misleading questions on the ballot and decide whether or not you want to turn over $190,000 (One hundred and ninety thousand dollars) of our clear, free cash (which we have been saving for schools) for one man and 'other interests' to handle without a written, signed statement of what we are to get for our money. Think it over!"

ALL VOTERS SHOULD BE RECORDED

November 4, 1953

Editor of the Star:
In Winchester, this is the time for every citizen to stand up and be counted. When the referendum on the question of the abolition of the grade crossing is held, all voters who have any interest in the future of their town should go to the polls and be recorded.

It is almost universally agreed that the present situation in the center is untenable. It is not only inconvenient, but it is unsafe. For many years there has been an extreme hazard. Only diligent precautions by town and railroad officials have held down fatalities.
The entrapment of police, fire and ambulance equipment in the center congestion courts disaster. The condition is so well known that no additional elaboration is needed.

As the representative of the people in the General Court, I have always stood ready to cooperate with any plan which was adopted by the town. In order that there may be no misunderstanding, however, I should, at this time, like to declare myself as unequivocally favoring the present proposed plan but forward by the selectmen and adopted in the recent special town meeting.

No plan will provide a perfect solution. We must accept that as a hypothesis. What plan, then, will be most desirable? Every citizen engaged in engineering study has the answer that the only practical way to abolish the grade crossing is to raise the tracks. In fact, if time is given to a conscientious study of costs, limitations and features of alternate plans, one need not be an engineer to realize that these other proposals have far greater objections than the one currently offered by the selectmen. For my own part, I am thoroughly convinced that the town now has before it the only practical and logical solution for abolishing the grade crossing.
Moreover, while I do not believe the town should adopt a poor plan under any circumstances, I feel that the possibility of securing this imperative improvement at a guaranteed total cost of $190,000 to the Town of Winchester is an almost incredible bargain. The Commissioner of the Public Safety, Mr. J.
F. Fisher, has recognized the urgent necessity for the abolition of this crossing and for that reason is willing to place its funds behind the project.

For many years of careful study and collaboration by the town, state and railroad officials, the citizens should be highly gratified that a solution to our vexatious center problem has been placed in their hands. In my opinion, the voters of the town will do well to support this plan, and to support it in record numbers on referendum day!

Yours sincerely,
Harrison Chadwick

"THEY VOTED IT!"

Editor of the Star:
This appears to be the latest of many slogans circulated about Town by the promoters of the Elevated Railroad referring to a recent Town Meeting vote.

And who are "They?"
"They" in this case are 143 Precinct members out of a Total of 229 (probably half of them Town officials or employees) who Voted for the Elevated Railroad. This no doubt, they will promptly announce as an "Overwhelming Vote." 143 votes out of a possible 229 Town Meeting Members is a very small number. 143 Votes Representing

Voters At Large Is A Still Smaller Number And An Unpardonable

payers To Vote On A Question Of Such Tragical Importance Involving

Are Promoting By Our Persistent

A COINCIDENCE

To reverse a shopworn remark,
"No one planned it that way," yet the subject of the special town meeting of November 12, gains special significance when it is noted that the theme of American Education Week, during which the meeting is held, is "Good schools are your responsibility." When Winchester folk meet together on Thursday night to consider and act on the report of the Building Committee for Additional Facilities for the Senior and Junior High Schools, they will be accepting a share of that responsibility.

In the words of the late Lee M.
Thurston, former United States Commissioner of Education, "The American people are doing more for the education of their nation's children. In 1952, they built 50, 000 new classrooms to help house the swelling enrollments which rose to 28,000,000 pupils. Nevertheless, shortages remain, and it is estimated that another 400,000 classrooms will be needed by 1960."

The figures of present enrollment in the Winchester schools, published earlier this fall, leave no doubt that the need for action to increase school facilities in the junior and senior high schools must be met now. It is to be hoped that the town meeting will recognize that need and take appropriate action.

THE FORTNIGHTLY ART COMMITTEE

The Fortnightly through its Art Committee is sponsoring Art Exhibits in three local store windows this week to observe American Art week.

Being shown in Peck and Peck's window on Main street is a beautiful hooked rug "Inspiration" done by Mrs. Lester Leathers along with several lovely old re-decorated boxes by Anna L. Burgoyne and Pauline Hudson; also a delightful hand-painted tray by Anna L. Burgoyne.
In Filene's window on Thompson street may be seen oil paintings by three Winchester artists. "Whiskey Bayou" by G. Russell Mann,
"Chrysanthemums" by Marion Ladd Symmes and a Rockport scene by Elizabeth M. Lobinger.
The last an award received by Mrs.
Lester Leathers when Art Chairman two years ago.

At the Winchester News on Thompson street, a watercolor
"Winchester Victorian" by another local artist, Ardye Cairncross and one by A. Bruno are displayed. The Bruno watercolor was won by Mrs.
Frederick Cole, last year's chairman.

Mrs. Marshall Symmes, this year's Chairman was assisted by Mrs. Lester Leathers in making these arrangements.

Literature Committee
Members of the Literature Committee and guests met at 2:30 p.m.
November 2, in the Edgar C. Rich room of the Public Library and enjoyed hearing two speakers.

Miss Caroline V. Everett presented an excellent paper on the life of Dorothy Canfield Fisher from the time of her birth in Kansas in 1879 to the present day.
After Mrs. Fisher's marriage, she and her husband made their home on a Vermont farm where they have lived ever since, except for four years spent in France when they volunteered their services during the first World War. It was during this period that Mrs. Fisher developed her deep understanding of the French people, especially the children.

Mrs. Fisher's books and articles always contrast the true with the artificial, accent character and not characters. Always interested in young people, her industrious and constant efforts striven to them the value of New England tradition. The University of Vermont has become the final resting place of her manuscripts which are called "The Dorothy Canfield Collection".

Miss Gertrude M. Hall gave a delightful review of two books,
"Family Album" by Antonia Rice and "Lovely is the Lea," by Robert Gibbing. Both are written in the first person, the former is of a search for members of a family by means of an album, and the second of a trip by boat down the Seine river.

Regular Meeting

The regular meeting of the Fortnightly will be held Monday, November 9th, in the First Baptist

A. Burr, the President, in the will be Miss Mary P. Kirkpatrick, who will relate some of her experiences as a special officer at the Framingham State Barracks.

Tea will be served.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK
Tuesday, November 10.
10:00 a. m. Holy Communion, followed by Sewing Meeting. Lunch, 12:00 p. m. Following lunch, Mrs. Earle D. Wood, Diocesan Missions Chairman, Home Missions, Massachusetts Branch, Women's Auxiliary will speak. All the women of the parish are urged to be present.

Today's collection is a tightly controlled, highly organized industry, involving nomadic tribes of grass merchants and fleets of plodding camels. Picked by hand and brought to remote weighing stations on camelback, esparto bales travel from hinterland to coast in huge 20-ton trailer trucks that follow dusty, barely marked tracks. Eventually thousands of tons of the dried grass pile high on wharves for shipment to paper mills as far away as Scandinavia.

Meyer zoysia is an even more recent Cinderella of the grass family. It was discovered in Korea 40 years ago by a United States Department of Agriculture plant explorer, Frank N. Meyer, who died in the Orient after sending home many valuable new plants. No one then realized its potentiality.

Much more recently one particular strain of the grasses Meyer collected was found to be an amazingly tough and adaptable grass for American lawns and golf courses. Tested and developed further by plant scientists at the government's experimental farms at Beltsville, Maryland, the grass which bears Meyer's name now is being planted by homeowners in all parts of the country.

Meyer zoysia's assets include an ability to outgrow crabgrass. It thrives in poor soil, resisting diseases and insects that ruin ordinary lawns. Golf greenskeepers call it virtually divot-proof, for it quickly spreads and fills in any chunks taken from its thick, springy turf.

Not that white House gardeners expect many divots in their acres of manicured lawn — but Meyer zoysia now forms a carpet of green beauty around the home of the nation's golf-playing President.

AFRICAN ESPARTO, ASIAN ZOYSIA — CINDERELLAS OF THE GRASS FAMILY

Two wild grasses from opposite sides of the world each offer a story of man's ingenuity in finding bounty in improbable places.

One plant, ragged and dry, supports a thriving business on the fringe of the North African desert, the National Geographic Society says. The other, whose wiry green sprigs were first found in the wilds of northeastern Asia, today carpets the White House lawn in Washington.

The first is named "esparto," or Stipa tenacissima, a botanical term. The second is called "Meyer zoysia."

Paper, Rope And Power

Esparto — also known as Spanish grass, alfa, and halfa — flourishes bravely in rocky, sun-baked soil where almost nothing else will grow. Ragged stalks of reddish-brown, three to four feet high, cling to stony foothills and arid plateaus from southern Spain across Morocco, Algeria, and Tunisia.

Its leaves, tender when young, soon grow too tough for cattle to chew. Yet this harsh grass ranks as one of the world's most valuable uncultivated crops.

Fine printing papers made from esparto in England and France — glossy coated sheets for illustrated magazines, crackling parchments for college diplomas. The Spanish navy makes rope of esparto, hawsers so light they will float. Baskets, hats, carpets and tough desert sandals have been woven from esparto fiber for

SECOND WINCHESTER MORNING

Mr. Theodore Wood, Jr., of Massachusetts Institute of Technology presented a program of American Folksongs at the Music Hall on October 29th for the second Winchester Morning sponsored by the Winchester Wellesley Club.

Accompanying himself on the guitar, Mr. Wood, whose pleasant baritone voice could resound effectively in a rollicking sea chanty or modulate tenderly for a plaintive lovesong, treated an appreciative audience to a musical saga of the American pioneers. Relating his songs to their travels, he traced their progress from the Eastern seaboard to the Pacific coast. Commencing with the Boston "Come All Ye" and some typical sea chanties, he sang the ballads of the early settlers as they moved slowly westward, fanning out to the mountains of Kentucky, the farmlands of the South, and the western prairies. Still sung by the mountaineers is the old English ballad "Edward", while southern planters recorded their problems in the "Boll Weevil Song". Sturdy frontiersmen in covered wagons left the Oregon Trail as their musical legacy, and the cowboys wakened lazy comrades with the "Gittin' Up Holler", or lulled their cattle with the soothing strains of the "Colorado Trail". As an example of one of the many railroad songs, Mr. Wood sang "John Henry", which lauds the exploits of America's greatest folk song hero.

For the second half of his program Mr. Wood sang a "Garland of Love Songs", which included the familiar "Foggy Foggy Dew" and "Frankie and Johnnie", as well as others less well known, such as the "Riddle Song", "Lament for a Lost Child" and "Wish I Was Single Again". He concluded with the haunting ballad from south of the border, "Mi Amor Corazon". Mr. Wood's program, which was the first of its kind to be presented at the Mornings was most enthusiastically received.

The final program of the Winchester Mornings will be on Thursday, November 12th, when Mr. John Ely Burchard, Dean of Humanities and Social Studies at Massachusetts Institute of Technology will speak on Liberal Education. Mr. Burchard received a Master's Degree in civil engineering and architecture from M. I. T. and has a wide background of experience in scientific research. During World War II he led missions to the Caribbean, the Pacific Ocean area and Germany for the Office of Scientific Research and Development. Author of numerous books and papers, he is widely known as a brilliant speaker.

FIRST BAPTIST YOUTH

The Junior High and Senior High Youth Fellowship will meet together at 6:30 on Sunday evening. They will have as a guest speaker Mr. Larry French, president of the Massachusetts Baptist Youth Fellowship. He will speak of the Fourth Baptist Youth World Conference which was held in Rio de Janeiro in June.

Miss Cynthia Cummings will lead in the worship service. There will be special music by a girls' chorus consisting of Irene Mullen, Norma Jean Hart, Frances Bossmann, Jean Dawson, and Carolyn Parks. Refreshments and fellowship following the meeting.

Richard Fernandez of Winchester, has been selected for the University of New Hampshire Men's Glee Club, which is under the direction of Robert L. Garretson of the Department of Music.

CIVIL DEFENSE

The Civil Defense radio-equipped cars and their operators gave very valuable assistance this past Halloween. The equipment worked to perfection, due to the assistance of Mr. Robert B. Richmond, the Civil Defense communications director. The operators deserve a great deal of praise for their part in operating the cars and cooperating with the police department. Mr. W. F. Bevers, Mr. W. J. Bartell, Mr. W. Burton, all of Winchester, and Mr. J. Washburn of North Reading, were in these cars covering the town. Mr. Kendall Spencer operated the intercom helping to coordinate the police desk with the radio control room, remaining on duty until all was quiet.

The radio-operated cars were responsible for apprehending several out-of-town invaders and providing them with escort service to the town's border. At some time during the evening, Lieutenant Dorro requested additional help from the auxiliary police, who responded in full force. They were instrumental in breaking up groups of young people and their help proved invaluable as it has in the past. The police department is deeply grateful, as the residents should be, for a job well done. A great deal of credit goes to Captain Robert A. Johnston and his men. Because of their efforts, vandalism in Winchester was at a minimum. It once more proves that we cannot afford to be without them.

GUESTS AT MAINE FARM

On Tuesday eight members of the "Christmas Greens Day Committee" of the Winchester Home and Garden Club spent a most delightful day as guests of Mrs. Norman Mitchell at her lovely old East Waterboro, Maine, farm, the buildings of which date back to the early seventeenth century and are very appropriately and tastefully furnished with antiques and family heirlooms.

After a delicious luncheon Mrs. Mitchell helped committee members gather material in the surrounding woods, which will be used at the annual Christmas Greens Day held at the Baptist Church on Wednesday, December 9th.

All Garden Club members are invited to work on this Christmas sale at the home of Mrs. Marshall Pihl, 30 Mystic Valley Parkway, every Tuesday during November. Co-chairmen for this annual sale are Mrs. J. Stewart Chaffee, Mrs. Wilfred McKenzie, and Mrs. Marshall Pihl.

WINCHESTER BRANCH AUXILIARY

The November meeting will be held at the home of Miss Mary A. Fitch, 14 Sheffield West, on Thursday, November 12th, at 2:30 p. m.

The very interesting speaker will be Mr. John C. MacFarlane, who speaks on T. V. Fridays at 6:15 p. m. on channel four on the program "Animal Fair", which delights many people. He will bring his little dog to our meeting.

Mr. MacFarlane is the director of New England Livestock Conservation, Inc., and he can tell us much that is being done to relieve the suffering of the food animals that are killed continuously for the benefit of people. Few of us know what they go through before they are slaughtered; thirst, crowding, and extremely rough treatment, that could be relieved, with thought and care put into the methods used.

Mr. MacFarlane has many interesting stories of his experiences also.

A most enjoyable afternoon is in store for us. Members and friends are cordially invited to attend. Do not miss this opportunity to hear Mr. MacFarlane.

METCALF UNION TO HEAR TALK ON COLOMBIA

A feature of the meeting Sunday evening of Metcalf Union, the high school fellowship of the Unitarian Church, will be a talk by the group's own adult adviser, Herbert Black, on his recent trip to South America as correspondent for the Boston Globe.

Mr. Black, along with 49 other American newspapermen, flew to Colombia in August as the guests of the president of that country, to study conditions in a land that neighbors us but is little known to people in the United States.

During the talk, the speaker will tell Metcalf Union members about living conditions in Colombia and how the life of young people differs from their own. He will also show pictures taken in Colombia and articles brought back from South America.

The regular meeting will be preceded by a meeting of the dance committee, which is set for 6:30. Important business for the regular meeting includes setting dates for a dance and outing, making program plans and preparing to attend a Federation meeting in Lexington November 15.

Members of the dance committee are:

Richard Clark
Mary Alice Coddling
Charlene MacFarlane
Robert Smith
Elizabeth Hottel

MEMORIAL SERVICE NOV. 11

Winchester Council No. 210, Knights of Columbus, will attend a memorial mass at the Immaculate Conception Church on the holiday morning at 8:00 a. m. This annual service is a tribute to the Council's deceased members and a pledge that these latter have not been forgotten by the Council. Led by Grand Knight John Nowell and his officers, the members of Winchester Council will gather outside the church at 7:45 a. m. and proceed inside in a body. All brothers of the council are urged to make every effort to attend. Rev. Stephen Burke, Council chaplain, has high hopes that the church will be filled to overflowing and points out that some day we, too, will be overjoyed to have the members gathered together to pray in remembrance of us. The date again: Wednesday, November 11th, at 8:00 a. m.

The Council has appointed through Grand Knight Nowell a committee to sponsor a Christmas party for the children of members and their friends as has been the Council's annual custom. It is hoped to make this another memorable party as last year's was. Membership in the Knights of Columbus is soaring, according to latest reports, with an all-time high reported for Massachusetts totaling 49,400. This figure was given at the recent fall conference of K of C officials held recently.

Judge John E. Swift, former Supreme Knight of the K of C, at the annual meeting of the Supreme Council held not too long ago at St. Paul, Minnesota, called upon the members at this 71st annual meeting to fight the "Red Underground" by joining a program that "must tell the world that communistic doctrines, spread by a vicious underground in the name of freedom, are to be tagged as the spawn of God-hating individuals." Pope Pius XII and President Dwight D. Eisenhower sent messages to the convention.

TWO GIRLS JOIN NATIONAL BANK

Miss Diane Nason of Oneida road and Miss Lila DeTeso of Olive street have joined the staff of the Winchester National Bank. Both girls graduated from Winchester High School with the class of 1953. Miss Nason has been assigned to stenographic duties and Miss DeTeso has joined the bookkeeping department.

MISSION UNION GUILD

The Mission Union Guild of the First Congregational Church began its season last month with a splendid attendance. It is hoped that as large a number of members and their friends will come out on Tuesday, November 10, to hear Miss Patricia Thomas speak on "My Social Service." Miss Thomas is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. Ross Thomas, our Congregational missionaries in Bombay, India. She was graduated last June from Oberlin College and is now studying at the Yale School of Nursing. When her courses there are completed, she plans to work in the World Health Organization. During this last summer she worked in a camp near Colmar, Alsace, a town between Basle, Switzerland and Strassbourg. This organization is sponsored by the Youth Department of the World Council of Churches.

Mrs. Raymond Hayward is in charge of the sewing that begins at 10 o'clock, and the luncheon to be served in Chidley Hall at 1 o'clock is under the chairmanship of Mrs. James W. Robertson and Mrs. Paul Nason. The worship service for the meeting to follow at 2 will be led by Mrs. Robinson S. Whitten.

TAKING RAILROADS COURSE AT B. U.

Charles P. O'Rourke, Jr., of 26 Symmes road is one of 23 railroad employees currently enrolled in the six-weeks "Eastern Railroads Presidents Conference", a course at Boston University meeting Tuesday and Thursday nights and designed to broaden the railroads' understanding of good community relations.

Mr. O'Rourke is a member of the freight traffic department of the Boston & Maine Railroad. Included in the course are railroad superintendents, clerks, assistant paymasters, a traveling passenger agent and a captain of the railroad police.

Prof. John Waters, director of Boston University's Evening Division, said in referring to the railroad program, it is particularly encouraging when any segment of industry takes cognizance of the vast potential of "progress quotient" which even a little additional education for an individual can yield.

RAINBOW CLUB

The monthly meeting of the Rainbow Mothers Club was held at the home of Mrs. Paul Ward, 28 Stone avenue.

After the regular business meeting, a lovely collation was served by the co-hostesses: Mrs. Herbert Snell and Mrs. Edwin Allen.

GIRL SCOUT NEWS

The Greater Boston, Section 1, fall meeting will be held on Wednesday, November 18, at the Everett Recreation Center at Glendale Square. This will be an all-day meeting and all adult volunteers working with the Winchester Girl Scout program are urged to attend. There will be program ideas for Brownie, Intermediate and Senior troop leaders and their committees, and discussion groups for board and board committee members. A panel discussion of "Convention Highlights" will bring everyone up to date on the results of the National Convention held recently in Cincinnati, Ohio. Miss Nancy Daley, national staff member and community advisor for this section will speak on "What to Expect from Your Section and Your Regional Staff". Mrs. William Glovacki, training chairman for Winchester will meet at luncheon with other sectional training chairmen to discuss plans for a Volunteer Trainers Course to be given in Section 1. This important meeting is only two weeks away, so mark the date on your calendar and plan to attend.

COUNCIL FOUND U. N. APPROVAL

How many Winchester residents go along with the principle of the United Nations? 25%? 60%? 10%?

According to a survey conducted during U. N. week by the Winchester United Nations Council through the cooperation of the High School and Junior High School, over 80% of the replies approved the principle and purpose of the United Nations. These responses were from parents of students in both schools and from the High School students themselves.

Approval of the U. N. was the largest area of agreement disclosed by the poll and the second largest was approximately 20% who were disheartened by the conduct of the Korean war, whether they approved the U. N. or not. Only 1/2 of 1% of the students and 1 1/2% of the parents were totally opposed to international cooperation of any kind. 12% of the students and 9% of the parents approved the United Nations but felt that it had not functioned adequately in the Korean war. 70% of the students and 67% of the parents were in accord with the United Nations principle and felt that the U. N. had been of use in the Korean war also. Interesting in several ways is the fact that 87% of the students favored the U. N. as compared with 81% of their parents.

The quality of response to the Council's questionnaire was surprising. Many more were returned than the Council had expected. A large section of those replying had generously enlarged on their views, pro and con, and these opinions will be of great value to the Council in evaluating public feeling about the United Nations. The Council is also indebted to Mr. Grindle, principal of the High School, and Mr. Dickman, principal of the Junior High, and to the room teachers for their cooperation.

The Winchester U. N. Council is a group of representatives of existing organizations in Winchester which are interested in building an informed public opinion on international cooperation. The Council is particularly concerned with suitable observance of United Nations Day and U. N. Week in Winchester and is not affiliated with any of the various national organizations related to the United Nations.

A number of windows were broken this week in the Symmes Grain Mill.

NEW "PINT A YEAR CLUB"

Two residents of Winchester have been identified with the program of the new "Pint A Year Club" originated at the Blanchard Machine Company plant in Cambridge to obtain blood for the Red Cross. The company, located at 64 State street in Cambridge, manufactures surface grinding machines.

Mr. Henry K. Spencer of 1 Central Green, as general manager and treasurer of the firm, and Mr. Patrick Doherty of 233 High street, as supervisor of the magnetic chuck and coil winding departments, have both endorsed the program and cooperated in furthering it in every way possible.

The plan has worked so well at Blanchard's that it is hoped it will be adopted at other plants and offices throughout the country. Donations have been received covering 99 percent of those eligible to give by reason of their age. In discussing the recent explosion that took place on the carrier Leyte many of the men at Blanchard's feel that perhaps their blood may have helped save the life of one or more of those injured in the tragedy.

V. F. W. AUXILIARY

Middlesex County Council, V. F. W. and Auxiliary, will hold their annual banquet Saturday evening, November 7, at 7:00 p. m. in the V. F. W. home in Stoneham.

Middlesex County Council, V. F. W. Auxiliary will hold their monthly meeting in the Billerica Post home, Sunday, November 8, at 2:00 p. m.

COUNTY LEGION TO MEET

The regular November meeting of Middlesex County Council, The American Legion, Harold F. Collins of Ashland, commander, will be held on Sunday, November 15, at 3 p. m. in Maynard as the guest of Frank J. Demara Post No. 235. The executive committee will meet at 2:30 p. m.

Legion to Aid Auxiliary
One of the most valuable contributions which the American Legion Auxiliary makes to the rehabilitation of the veterans in Bedford Hospital is their annual Christmas Gift Shop. This shop is stocked with all kinds of suitable gifts for yuletide presents and include things for men, women and children.

Just before the Christmas holiday those veterans who are able to visit the shop are permitted to select a gift for every member of their family, and these gifts are then properly packed and addressed and mailed by the Auxiliary in time to be received by Christmas. Those veterans who are not able to visit the shop are not overlooked. Well-stocked carts are wheeled to their bedside in order that they, too, may make their selection.

While this project is distinctly an Auxiliary affair, nevertheless members of the Legion and others interested in the veterans can make their contributions. Harold F. Collins, commander of Middlesex County Council, urges all posts of The American Legion within Middlesex County to assist their Auxiliary units in making this year's shop a success. Middlesex County alone is called upon to prepare about 4700 gifts for Bedford Hospital. It is a large order, but one that can be filled, especially if the Legion posts of the county get together and assist their Auxiliary unit.

The tentative dates for the Bedford Hospital Christmas Shop are from November 30 through December 4.

Commander Collins points out that each gift brings cheer and gladness to at least three persons; first, to the donor of the gift; then, to the hospitalized veteran who is permitted to send the gift to his loved one, and then, to the recipient of the gift. These gifts cost so little, about one dollar each, and yet realize the value in the matter of cheering and rehabilitation of the hospitalized veterans.

Prominent Legionnaire Hospitalized

John H. McCarthy, formerly a member of the Winchester Board of Public Health and for many years a very active member of Winchester Post No. 97, The American Legion, is a patient at the Boston Veterans Hospital, 150 South Huntington avenue, Boston, where he will undergo surgery. Jack, as he is called, should receive a deluge of greeting cards and well-wishing notes.

Army Private Lawrence M. Callahan, son of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Callahan, 52 Clark street, recently arrived in Japan on his way to Korea. Pvt. Callahan entered the Army last February, received his basic training at Fort Dix, New Jersey and graduated from Leadership School there in September.

Left to right: Lt. Gov. Sumner Whittier, member of the board and corporation; Harold Russell, new president of board of trustees and corporation of Washingtonian Hospital; and Dr. Joseph Thimann, executive and medical director of the hospital.

RUSSELL HEADS HOSPITAL

Mr. Richard B. Knight of Alden Lane is treasurer of the board of trustees of the Washingtonian Hospital in Boston, which has recently installed Mr. Harold Russell, well-known World War II veteran amputee and Academy Award winner, as chairman of the board and president of the corporation.

The hospital, a 53-bed rehabilitation hospital for alcoholics and drug addicts, also maintains a five-clinic outpatient department and a social service department helping patients and their families.

Methods of rehabilitation include humane rapid sobering up and physical build-up procedures, scientific treatment of delirium tremens, hallucinations or other alcoholic derangements; psychotherapy to improve maladjustments, conditioned response treatment to eliminate the powerful urge for alcohol; antabuse to cope with alcoholic urge if conditioned response cannot be applied, hormone therapy where necessary, night hospitalization, enabling patients to work daytimes at their job while receiving protection in their free time; social casework for relatives and patients where indicated, and help in adjusting the environment to the realistic needs of the patient.

In selected cases reduction of the hospitalization rate and even entirely free admissions may be made to this hospital, which is a Red Feather agency and the only one of its kind in Massachusetts.

Mr. Russell, universally admired for his own inspiring adjustment to physical handicap, is the first president to be appointed since the death of his predecessor, Arthur Goodale.

Senator John F. Kennedy and Lt. Gov. Sumner H. Whittier, members of the hospital board of trustees, officially welcomed the new president of the hospital and chairman of the board.

RECOGNIZED WINCHESTER SPEECH

ACTOR THURSTON HALL MET LOCAL TOURISTS

Mrs. Alice Eberle, clerk in the office of the Town Engineer, and Mrs. Ruth Hilton of the Winchester Edison Office, returned home Sunday after a three-weeks trip by train that took them south to New Orleans and west to California by way of Tucson, Arizona; returning by way of the Yosemite and Grand Canyon and Chicago.

While in New York before leaving for New Orleans, Mrs. Eberle and Mrs. Hilton had dinner with Mrs. Hilton's son, Stillman, who has just received his Master's degree from Columbia and joined the staff of the Brooklyn Library system, second largest system in the country.

After leaving New Orleans they stopped in Tucson to visit Mrs. Eberle's son, David, who was then on duty with the Air Force at Davis Monthan Air Base. He completed his tour of duty and was discharged last Friday.

While on the west coast Mrs. Eberle and Mrs. Hilton spent a week in Hollywood, Mrs. Eberle visiting her brother, Bart Carre, who is first assistant director of "The Hank McCune Show", currently being filmed at Teleplex Studios in Hollywood.

While on the Teleplex set October 19, Mrs. Eberle was introduced to Thurston Hall, one of the featured players, and during their conversation Mr. Hall said that her accent, while very familiar, did not sound exactly like the Boston from which she was introduced as coming.

When Mrs. Eberle admitted that she was not exactly from Boston, but from a place nearby, Mr. Hall said, "I recognize it, Winchester!"

As Mrs. Eberle expressed her surprise, Mr. Hall told her that he used to live in Winchester as a boy and graduated from High School in Winchester. He asked her about many of his old friends in town, including the Editor of the Star. Price Wilson, whereupon Mrs. Eberle told him she would bring her friend, Mrs. Hilton to the studio, Mrs. Hilton knowing more of the real "old timers" of Winchester than she.

On October 21, Mrs. Eberle and Mrs. Hilton returned to the studio and Mrs. Hilton and Mr. Hall had a real "old home week" Mr. Hall recalling playing basketball with Mrs. Hilton's father, former Park Commissioner George Davidson, when both were members of the old Winchester Y. M. C. A. team years and years ago.

The veteran actor, who has appeared in the legitimate theatre all over the world, sent greetings to Helen Hall and Alice Barr and asked about Preston Corey, Clara Russell, and the late Elsie Belcher, among others.

He and Mrs. Hilton and Mrs. Eberle visited for some time at the studio and the two Winchester women enjoyed themselves immensely listening to the actor's reminiscences of bygone days in the old home town.

CHURCH OF THE EPIPHANY THE TANDEM CLUB

Thanks to the planning and organization of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Harlow "The Tandem Club" held a Treasure Hunt October 28th, at 7:00 p. m. which proved to be a wing-dinger. The Treasure, distinctive ash trays, was found by Mr. and Mrs. Bob Nyro and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Moore after much diligent analysis of the clues. All members of the club returned to the Parish Hall for cider and doughnuts served by Mrs. Donald McLean and Mrs. John Page.

The next meeting of "The Tandem Club" will be held December 9th, combining the November and December meetings, due to the holidays.

You may order personalized stationery which will be delivered in ten days, and attractive smocks and aprons which will also be ready in plenty of time for Christmas giving.

This year you will find a wonderful assortment of sparkling Christmas decorations, and after choosing your gift wrappings, cards and plants, you can relax with a cup of coffee.

With your menus for the next day in mind, you will want to choose from the delicious variety of home-baked foods and candy. Then browse at the book table and take a chance on a mystery package. Especially for the children, a real live monkey will arrive at 2 p. m. and do his tricks with the organ-grinder man until 4, followed by a magic and ventriloquist show by the Rev. GAVE PAPER ON ROBERT BURNS

Dr. Robert D. Thornton, assistant professor of English at the University of Colorado at Boulder, Col., recently delivered a paper on "Oxertones to Robert Burns' Duncany" at the Rocky Mountain Modern Language Convention in El Paso, Texas.

Dr. Thornton, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Thornton of Indian Hill road, is an intensive student of Burns and the author of "Robert Riddell, Antiquary" which appeared in the 1953 Burns Chronicle published in October.

This article is based upon material gathered in Scotland in 1949 when Dr. Thornton was studying abroad on a Dexter Fellowship offered by Harvard University to promising Ph. D.'s in the Department of English. This is the third article he has had in the Chronicle, which is published in Edinburgh, Scotland.

Burns scholars in Scotland call Dr. Thornton one of the most promising, capable students of Burns among young American scholars. A graduate of Winchester High School, Dr. Thornton has an A. B. from Wesleyan, an M. A. from Western Reserve University and an M. S. and Ph. D. degrees from Harvard. He has taught at Penn College in Cleveland, at Worcester Academy and at Harvard.

LITTLE LEAGUE TO ADD FOUR TEAMS

At a meeting of the Little League baseball Directors, Monday night, it was voted to add four farm teams to the program next year. One of the major problems faced by the Board was the availability of play. It was estimated that the proposed program for next year by the cooperation of the Winchester Park Department is making the southerly end of Ginn field available to the Little League organization for this purpose. It is estimated that approximately 60 boys, mainly the younger ball players, will be added to the program. It is expected that the farm teams will be issued T-shirts and caps and all necessary safety equipment.

Organizing of personnel to handle this phase of the program was discussed and was placed in the hands of a committee with George Neville as Chairman. It is expected that most of the personnel will be recruited from the fathers of the boys who will play on the farm teams plus other interested men who have not had an opportunity to work with the Little League teams. STAFF AND KEY

On Thursday, November 12th, the Winchester Staff and Key Society will hold its first general meeting of the winter season. The meeting will be held to discuss which musical show the society will perform this year and the date on which the performances will be given.

All persons in Winchester and surrounding towns are cordially invited to attend this meeting if they are interested either in singing in the shows or in the less publicized, but extremely important backstage work.

The Society is particularly interested in finding a new soprano lead to take the place of Miss Genevieve Crovo who has been signed by the Messrs. Rodgers and Hammerstein to tour the country in their musical "South Pacific." A previous Staff and Key soprano, Susan Hight, who was a member of the original Broadway cast of "South Pacific" is now playing "Sarah" in "Guys and Dolls."

The meeting will be held at the home of Francis J. Mardulier, 37 Woodside road, at 8:00 p. m.

INTERESTING FIGURES

The Star learns unofficially that the remodeling and equipping of the Junior High School to house a four-year high school and the construction of six additional rooms at the Parkhurst School will cost the town in the neighborhood of one million eight hundred thousand dollars. Since most of this sum will have to be raised by bond issue, the transaction will come close to reaching the debt limit, beyond which the town can not borrow without special permission.

Unofficially also it has been estimated that the proposed program from the Excess and Deficiency Account will reduce that fund about as far as it will be prudent to go. Raises in the tax rate for next year up to five dollars are being freely predicted, with the school program alone being responsible for about three dollars.

SHOPLIFTER SENTENCED

George W. Reay of Boston, 58, was sentenced to six months in the House of Correction by Judge William Henchey in the District Court at Woburn yesterday on the charge of shoplifting in Winchester.

Reay was apprehended October 17 at Filene's Winchester store by Miss Driscoll of Filene's security department and placed under arrest by Officer James E. Flaherty. He was booked at Headquarters and appeared in the Woburn Court the next day. His case was continued several times before his conviction yesterday.

Police say Reay has a long record, including many arrests for shoplifting. He appealed the sentence given him at Woburn and was held for appearance before the Grand Jury.

HEAVY RAINFALL

The rainfall in Winchester from October 23 to November 2, totaled 4.42 inches, according to figures released this week by the Water & Sewer Board.

From October 26 to November 3, the water rose in the North Reservoir by 14 million gallons. In the South Reservoir the rise was 44 million gallons and in the Middle Reservoir, by .91 million gallons.

TWO FIRES WEDNESDAY

The alarm from Box 542 at 8:52 a. m. Wednesday was for a fire around the kitchen sink at the home of Dr. Wilfred McKenzie, 20 Ardley place. A short circuit in the wiring was blamed for the trouble.

At 9:24 Box 332 was sounded for a brush fire at the rear of the Winn Watch Hand factory on Washington street.

ARMISTICE DAY OBSERVED

Winchester Post, A. L., and Aberjona Post, V. F. W., observed Armistice Day on Wednesday at the traditional hour of eleven o'clock. A detachment of Legionnaires and Veterans paraded from the Legion House to the War Memorial on the high school lot led by their Colors and Color Guards and by Commander Joseph McKee of the Legion and John T. Horn, past commander of Aberjona Post. Gretchen Luitwiler, drummer of the High School Band, provided music for the marching and as the detachment approached the monument Mary Ranton Witham, director of music at the Unitarian Church, played "Onward Christian Soldiers" on the church chimes. At eleven o'clock the detachment came to salute and echo taps were blown by two trumpeters from the High School Band, Thomas J. Severino and Stephen W. Dunn. After the taps Mrs. Witham played "America", and as the detachment left the monument, "America the Beautiful".

TRIPLE CRASH SUNDAY

At 8:33 last Sunday evening a Pontiac sedan driven by John R. Belluche of Whipple road, Billerica, while heading south on Main street near the Sunoco Filling Station, collided with a Mercury sedan, owned by Lawrence A. Simone of 664 Main street, Woburn, and parked at the westerly side of Main street.

No one was in the Mercury, which in turn crashed into the rear of a Buick, registered to Anita Cherchione of 473 Lebanon street, Melrose. All three cars were damaged, the Pontiac and Mercury having to be towed away.

Belluche told the police he fell asleep while driving. No injuries were reported.

HOMER EMERSON PENDLETON

Homer Emerson Pendleton, known to many in Winchester through his long association with the Economy Market in the center, died early Friday morning, November 6, at his home, 109 Cambridge street, after a long and painful illness.

Mr. Pendleton was the son of Mrs. Susan (Springer) and the late Joseph Brooks Pendleton. His father, for many years the dean of college football officials, was known and loved by more college and private school football fans than any other official in the east.

Mr. Pendleton, known familiarly as "Homer", was born November 14, 1911, in New Rochelle, N. Y. He came with his family to Winchester the next year and grew up in town, attending the Winchester schools. For a time he worked in the old Hutchinson's Market, then located in the building adjacent to the White Building on Main street, facing the railroad crossing, and later he was for 25 years employed at the Economy Market, remaining there until ill health forced his retirement in March of 1952.

His friendliness and willingness to serve won him the liking, not only of the Economy patrons but of his associates at the market and those who knew him around the center. This liking grew to a profound respect and admiration on the part of those who knew the courageous fight he waged against the malady with which he was afflicted and the uncomplaining patience with which he endured the suffering he was called upon to bear.

A close follower of sports, Mr. Pendleton was a great Bruins and Red Sox rooster, being especially fond of hockey and a regular attendant at the games in the garden as long as his health would permit.

His knowledge of hockey and baseball statistics was surprisingly wide and accurate.

He leaves his mother, who is seriously ill at her home, and two sisters, Miss Dorothy S. Pendleton of Winchester and Mrs. John Robertson of Lowell.

The funeral was held Sunday afternoon at the late residence with the Rev. Dr. Dwight L. Cart ministering at the First Congregational Church, officiating. Burial was in the family lot in Milton Cemetery.

MALLARD KILLED BY BOY

Early Wednesday afternoon the police were notified that two men had shot and killed a duck in the Aberjona near Davidson Park and were heading for Woburn. Officer William Callahan found that a Mallard duck had been killed all right, but it had been killed with stones by a 10 year old Winchester boy. His father was notified.

GEORGE R. BARNSTEAD

George R. Barnstead, for many years publisher of the Stoneham Independent, died Tuesday, November 2. His passing removed a figure long well known in the local weekly newspaper field.

Born in Watertown in 1873, Mr. Barnstead went with his family to Stoneham in '78, his father at that time entering the employ of the Stoneham Independent, then run by Whittier Brothers, from whom the late Theodore P. Wilson, father of the present editor and publisher of the Winchester Star, bought the Star in 1880. Up to then the Star had been an offshoot of the Independent with a very limited circulation in Winchester.

The late Mr. Barnstead, as a young man, became associated with his father in the newspaper business, buying the Stoneham Independent in 1909. He continued to publish the paper until succeeded by his son, G. Richard Barnstead, present publisher of the paper.

Mr. Barnstead was a veteran of the Spanish-American War, returning from Puerto Rico with the rank of captain. He served three terms as a Stoneham selectman, was for 12 years a member of the Stoneham hook and ladder company and was a trustee of Lindenwood Cemetery and a director of the Stoneham Cooperative Bank.

Mr. Barnstead was a widower. Besides his sons, he leaves three grandchildren and a brother, Sumner E. Barnstead.

Funeral services were held last Friday afternoon at the First Congregational Church in Stoneham.

PATRICK J. QUILL

Patrick J. Quill, a retired railroad man and lifelong resident of the town, died suddenly Monday morning, Nov. 9, at his home, 6 Westley street. He was 81 years old and had been in poor health for some time.

Mr. Quill was the son of Michael, and Ellen (Sullivan) Quill. He was born Jan. 4, 1872, in Winchester and grew up in town, being educated in the Winchester schools. For more than 25 years until his retirement he was freight agent at the old Boston & Maine freight house at the yard off Swanton street. He was a member of St. Mary's Holy Name Society and of the Massachusetts Catholic Order of Foresters.

Mr. Quill leaves his wife, the former Sarah E. McFadden; two sons, Henry F., and Edward J. Quill, both of Winchester; a daughter, Mrs. Mary Burke of Cambridge; and eight grandchildren.

The funeral was held Thursday morning from the Lane Funeral Home with solemn requiem high mass celebrated at St. Mary's Church. Interment was in Calvary Cemetery.

WINCHESTER CHURCHES PLAN LOYALTY SUNDAY

CLIMAX TO THIRD UNITED CHURCH CANVASS

Loyalty Sunday, November 15, will be marked in Winchester with special dedicated sermons in all Protestant Churches, and followed by individual home visits to all church members and friends. This will bring to a successful climax the town's 1953 United Church Canvass, and will close the third straight year in which the principal Protestant Churches have joined hands in their all-important job of fund-raising.

The United Canvass co-ordinates the efforts of all the principal Protestant Churches toward creating an awareness and an appreciation of the job the churches are doing to build a better community. At the same time it seeks to arouse a feeling of pride and responsibility on the part of every citizen to do his part in supporting the work of the church. The 1953 United Canvass theme is — "Support Your Church — The Greatest Hope For The World".

Winchester's 1953 United Canvass program has been planned and conducted by a Committee of 25 church laymen representing all of the seven participating churches. It was initiated about mid-October with a joint letter from the seven ministers, and a specially prepared folder developing the theme of this year's drive. This was followed toward the end of October with a letter from the lay committee sent to all church members, stressing the responsibility of progressive citizens to support a vigorous church movement in the town and the greatest hope not only for world peace, but the greatest hope for a better local community.

A contest among the Sunday Schools for big posters to place in store windows during the last week of the canvass, represented the final joint effort of the combined committee. Except for newspaper and radio publicity, each participating church is conducting its own individual campaign for pledges during the closing days of the drive with renewed emphasis not only on generous financial support, but also on church attendance.

The seven participating churches in Winchester are the First Baptist, New Hope Baptist, First Congregational, Second Congregational, Church of the Epiphany, Crawford Memorial Methodist, and Winchester Unitarian. Each is represented on the combined committee by three or more of its members.

PHILBROOK — MAXWELL

In a simple but effective setting of white chrysanthemums and red roses, at the beautiful memorial chapel of the First Methodist Church in Melrose, Miss Doris Althea Maxwell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Henry Maxwell of 3 Thornton road, was married on Saturday afternoon, November 7, to Dana Richards Philbrook, son of Mrs. Charles Freeman Philbrook of 49 Grove street, Boston, formerly of Winchester, and the late Mr. Philbrook. The Rev. John Snook, Jr., pastor of the Crawford Memorial Methodist Church, read the double-ring service at 2:30 o'clock, and the bridal music was played by Mrs. Earl Weidner.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white lace over satin with a long-sleeved redingote and a pearly nylon insert in the front. Her fingertip veil was caught to a tiara of matching lace and pearls and she carried a bouquet of stephanotis centered with an orchid.

Miss Marjorie Moore of Winchester was the bride's only attendant. She wore a deep red velvet dress with a matching head-band of velvet leaves and carried a bouquet of American Beauty roses.

Charles Philbrook of Winchendon was best man for his brother, and the ushers were W. Donald Maxwell of Winchester, brother of the bride, and Donald Cass of Natick.

A reception was held in Emerson Hall of the church with the mothers of both the bride and bridegroom assisting in receiving. Mrs. Maxwell, mother of the bride, wore an orchid with her rose gown and a rose veil with her pale blue beaded hat. The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Philbrook, was gown in aqua crepe and wore an orchid and a sequin-trimmed hat.

After a wedding journey by motor through the Blue Ridge and Great Smoky Mountains of Virginia, Mr. and Mrs. Philbrook will live in Cambridge at 8 Chauncy street.

The bride is a graduate of Cambridge Junior College, and Mr. Philbrook got his degree from Tufts.

TEMPORARY TRACKS LOCATED

Most Winchester residents have an idea of what the overhead railroad tracks will look like as they course through town on their great wall of earth and faced stone. The general structure of the plan has been well publicized and more or less accurate pictures of bridges that will carry the rails through the center of the town have been shown.

What hasn't been so well publicized are the temporary tracks, on which trains will run while the great wall is being built, and since these tracks will be in use for about two years the Star has felt that their location and ramifications are, or should be, of interest.

Consequently your Star reporter visited the Engineer's office at the town hall this week and with the valuable, nay absolutely essential, assistance of former Mayor Nicholas H. Fitzgerald, one of the better informed tub-thumpers for the overhead plan, attempted to trace the progress of the temporary roadbed through town.

As shown on the scale map of the overall plan the temporary tracks switch from the main line at a point about 2,000 feet below Bacon street and parallel the regular tracks northward, crossing the Aberjona on a trestle about 50 feet westerly (toward the Parkway) from the present tracks as they cross the river over the culvert just below Wedgemere Station. There will be at this point about 35 feet between the main and temporary tracks.

Continuing the temporary tracks pass through the location of the westerly wall of the present Wedgemere station with the inbound, or most westerly of the temporary tracks about 13 feet from the westerly wall of the station as it now stands. The station will of course have to be relocated to the westward while the temporary tracks are in use.

The temporary tracks as they head for Winchester Station are located inside the granite wall of the old Ginn Estate off Bacon street, now owned by William C. Cusack, being about 35 feet inside the wall at a point about opposite the former Ginn stable and 18 feet from the easterly side of the railroad wall at the Powers property. The railroad wall which continues from the Ginn wall sets in about 20 feet from the higher wall of the former Ginn property.

MARRIAGE INTENTIONS

Robert Kenneth Sharon, 29 Maxwell road, and Janet Pauline Stoddard, 46 Upland road, Melrose. George Joseph Dube, 39 South street, Natick, and Loretta Esther Errico, 398 Washington street.

COLLINS — HUMPHREY

At an early afternoon ceremony in St. Mary's Church on Saturday afternoon, November 8, Miss Mary Irene Humphrey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Humphrey of 246 Washington street, became the bride of Cornelius Joseph Collins, son of Mr. Patrick J. Collins of 20 Haverhill street, Charlestown. Rev. Fr. Martin Dolphin read the service at 2:30 o'clock in a setting of white chrysanthemums. Donald Hendy, Jr., of White Plains, N. Y., nephew of the bride, was altar boy.

Miss Humphrey was given in marriage by her father, and attended by her sister, Mrs. Donald Hendy of White Plains, N. Y., as matron of honor. Miss Judith Hendy of White Plains, N. Y., niece of the bride, and Miss Margaret Ann Buckley of Somerville, niece of the bridegroom, were junior bridesmaids.

The bride wore a gown of French silk Chantilly lace over satin with a hoop skirt of tulle, a mandarin neckline and long pointed sleeves. She carried a bouquet of white roses centered with an orchid, and her fingertip veil was caught to a coronet of pearls and orange blossoms, worn by Mrs. Hendy at her wedding.

Mrs. Hendy wore a waltz-length dress of changeable toast-colored taffeta fashioned with a hoop skirt. Her headpiece and shoes matched her dress and she carried a bouquet of yellow roses.

The junior bridesmaids wore frocks of changeable lime taffeta with hoop skirts and matching headresses. They carried old fashioned bouquets of red roses.

Joseph Collins of Somerville was best man for his brother and another brother, John Collins of Somerville, ushered, with Robert J. Humphrey of Winchester, brother of the bride.

A reception was held after the ceremony at Tupper's in North Reading, with the mother of the bride assisting in receiving. Mrs. Humphrey wore champagne taffeta with matching hat and yellow roses on her fur cape. Miss Dorothy Wyman of Winchester was in charge of the guest book. She wore an off-the-shoulder dress of changeable blue taffeta with a winter-white hat and corsage of red roses.

Mr. Collins and his bride left after the reception to spend their honeymoon touring Pennsylvania and Michigan.

TIME FOR DECISION

was last November. We voted overwhelmingly for LOWER TAXES and sensible expenditure of OUR tax money.

Our state taxes are now—Wages 2½%, Annuities 1½%, Taxable gains 6%, Interest and Dividends 6% — Above totals PLUS 20% General Fund, PLUS 3% old age, PLUS gasoline tax, tobacco tax, etc., PLUS. Can we dare hope for a reduction?

Can we afford to let our state officials spend 6-10 million dollars to keep open 60 FEET OF STREET when they could build 30-50 MILES of highways for the same money?

Highways can be put OVER or UNDER the railroad tracks for less than two million dollars.

With positive savings of millions of dollars should we not insist that the Department of Public Works work out plans to make this saving?

Regardless of plan, with recession years ahead, IS THIS THE TIME for this type of project?

The overhead railroad plan is nowhere near complete, even today, but as proposed so far will cost Winchester nearer $350,000 than $190,000. CAN WE AFFORD IT?

WE MUST PROVIDE SCHOOLS. Our immediate school building program will cost approximately:

Converting Junior High to Senior High	$1,900,000
Converting Senior High to Junior High	400,000
Addition to Parkhurst School	225,000
	$2,525,000

This program will necessitate spending above Winchester's present ability to borrow.

Winchester tax rate 1953	$12.00
Fair estimate 1954-1955	$17.00

WE CAN AFFORD A LITTLE MORE TIME during which we can work with the state to — SAVE MILLIONS — SAVE the Skillings property — SAVE the homes of our citizens on the "plains" and at Rangeley — SAVE the businesses of our center merchants — PREVENT drastic erosion of real estate values — ENCOURAGE LESS SPENDING of public funds and at least attempt to lower our taxes somewhere, somehow, sometime.

- You have already paid in taxes Winchester's entire contribution of $190,000 and the transfer of this sum will not require any future taxation.
- The State's share has already been set aside from the 1952 Highway Bond Issue which is financed by gasoline taxes.
- If we do not accept this project the money will be spent elsewhere for some similar project.
- After public hearing and 3½ hours of discussion at Town Meeting your representatives voted 143-23 in favor of this project.

NATIONAL BOOK WEEK AT THE LIBRARY

The thirty-fifth annual celebration of National Book Week will take place next week in most of the nation's public libraries and schools. "Reading is Fun" is the slogan for the week.

The Children's Room at the Winchester Public Library will be gay with posters and new books. New books for children will be on display during the week and will not be issued for home use until the following week. This will give parents, teachers, children and all interested people an opportunity to see a fine collection of children's books. It is suggested by the Children's Librarian, Miss Elizabeth Russell, that ideas for Christmas gifts may be found in this book display.

Highlight of Book Week
Mrs. Anne Molloy, a former Winchester resident and author of children's books will speak at the Winchester Public Library Friday afternoon, November 20th at 3:30 p. m. in the Art Gallery. Mrs. Molloy is a graduate of Mount Holyoke College and is now a resident of Exeter, New Hampshire where her husband teaches at Phillips Exeter.

It is recalled with interest that Mrs. Molloy wrote her first book, "Coast Guard to Greenland" while a resident of Winchester. She used the resources of the Public Library and did some of her actual writing here. Other popular children's books written by Mrs. Molloy include: "Decky's Secret", "A Bird in Hand", "Shooting Star Farm", "The Pigonomers", and a new one just published, "The Monkey's Fist".

Through the courtesy of Houghton Mifflin Company, Publishers, ten original illustrations from Mrs. Molloy's newest book, "The Monkey's Fist" are on display in the Children's Library.

The special program for Friday afternoon of Book Week at which time Mrs. Molloy will speak is for boys and girls of the fourth, fifth, and sixth grades so it is hoped that parents and teachers will direct children of that age group to the library for this special event next week.

DR. CHIDLEY TO OCCUPY EAST ORANGE PULPIT

Dr. and Mrs. Howard J. Chidley are spending the week end in East Orange, New Jersey, where Dr. Chidley has been invited to occupy the pulpit at Trinity Congregational Church, of which he was pastor before coming to Winchester. They will also visit friends in New York, returning next week.

The Star opposes the abolition of Winchester's grade crossing by raising the tracks through town. This will hardly be news to those who have been reading the paper for any length of time. We have always opposed raising the tracks and even the great weight of official opinion in favor hasn't caused us to change our mind. We have not, however, had much to say about the matter recently, feeling that after the action of the 1952 and '53 town meetings, and the referendum which followed the vote of the meeting last April, no good purpose would be served by continuing to harp upon the subject as it stood then. We would have been content to let matters take their course now, leaving the arguments pro and con to those in favor of the great wall through Winchester and its opponents, but the argument now being advanced by the overhead crossing proponents that those opposing the project by means of a referendum are departing from the democratic processes of good government prompts us to make one more observation. From the time the arguments for abolishing the grade crossing began to crystallize into the proposal to raise the tracks to this end the chairman of Selectmen have assured those opposed to the plan that a meeting would have to be called for the purpose of having the town appropriate money for land damages before a final vote on the matter could be taken. At a meeting in March of 1952 Mr. Freeman asked whether a meeting had to be held to appropriate money for damages before work could commence on the overhead tracks, and Mr. Lyman, then chairman of the Board of Selectmen, said that such a meeting would have to be held and the town would have another chance to decide upon the plan when the necessary funds for damages came up for consideration. These words stressed are important. At an adjourned session of the March town meeting of 1952 an article came up for consideration by the precinct members to establish a committee of three favorable to an alternate plan for the abolition of the grade crossing with power to expend part of the unexpended balance of a grade crossing appropriation made in 1944 for study and technical advice to prepare an alternate plan for the abolition and present it to the town at the earliest possible date. Mrs. Woodside, one of those who inserted the article in the warrant, consented to its being indefinitely postponed, but before this was done she was satisfied by Mr. Greer, then chairman of the Board of Selectmen, that the Selectmen would call a meeting at which final plans for the overhead with costs, and the cost of land takings would be submitted for approval by the voters. Again the stressed words are important. Subsequently a referendum was held on the vote of the 1953 town meeting authorizing the Selectmen to cooperate with state and county officials to bring about the abolition of the grade crossing by raising the tracks. The referendum supported the town meeting members by a decisive margin, but it should be remembered that at the time there was no definite plan for acceptance nor cost available, either for the entire plan or land damages. As a matter of fact at the 1952 meeting Mr. Lyman stated that the cost for land damages, if the temporary tracks went to the east of the present road-bed, would be about $63,365.00. But this is beside the point. What is important is that until the recently held special town meeting opponents of the overhead plan for abolition of the grade crossing had no finished plan presented for their approval, nor definite cost given them for land damages or for the entire plan, which had in the interim been altered to include a diversionary highway, one of the things for which opponents of the overhead plan of abolition have always stood. So it would seem to the Star, at least, that at the special town meeting for the first time, a specific plan of abolition and definite (we hope) costs were presented, as promised by Mr. Lyman and Mr. Greer in their capacities as chairman of their Boards of Selectmen. The meeting was called for but one purpose, to consider definite commitment to the overhead plan and to appropriate money for land damages. The delegates voted by an overwhelming majority of those present and voting to authorize the Selectmen to make definite agreements to abolish the crossing by raising the tracks and to appropriate the $190,000 necessary for land damages. Those who drew up our limited form of town meeting wrote into the referendum clause as a check against important questions being decided by too small a number of the town's voters. Therefore we see nothing undemocratic in those dissatisfied with a vote of town meeting members invoking a referendum to make sure that the town as a whole agrees or disagrees. That is what has been done in this instance. We can see no flouting of the democratic processes in so doing. Perhaps we do not understand democracy at work! That could be, but if we do, we feel strongly that the opponents of the overhead had, on the assurance of two Chairmen of Selectmen, the right to believe that the recently held special town meeting was called to present for their approval final plans for the overhead and cost to the town. No one can deny that this special meeting is the first at which such costs have been presented and more or less finished plans have been shown. Opponents of the plan do not feel that the vote of the precinct members is representative of the feeling of the entire town. They have consequently invoked a referendum as provided by our town meeting bylaw. The Star is glad that they have. It hopes that every one, eligible to vote and able to do so, will cast his ballot on this important question which will affect the town materially for all time. So far nothing like a majority of the town's electorate opposed on the overhead tracks proposal. Let us have the thing really decided beyond argument this time!

QUESTIONS SKILLINGS BYPASS!

Editor of the Star:
The vote at the recent special town meeting approving the plan for changing the grade of the railroad also authorized the cutting of the highway through the town property known as the Skillings estate and the construction of a large traffic circle at Washington and Mount Vernon streets. This action greatly surprised me in view of the fact that the Selectmen were authorized by a special town meeting called for the purpose in June, 1943, to purchase this property "as a site for a new Town Hall Building or other building for the public use". The sum voted was $32,000.00 and the vote was unanimous. In my opinion this property should be used for the purpose for which it was purchased. George M. Byrne 4 Copley street

WON'T RAISE TAX RATE

WINCHESTER TUBERCULOSIS COMMITTEE MEETING

A review of the activities for tuberculosis control being conducted in Winchester through the Winchester Tuberculosis Committee and an announcement of the coming 1953 Christmas Seal Sale were presented by Mrs. Harlow Russell, chairman of the committee at its recent meeting on October 23. Members of the committee also include Mrs. Franklin J. Lane, Treasurer; Mrs. Richard J. Clark, Mrs. John I. Donovan, Mrs. Philip C. Efronson, Mrs. R. Darrell Harvey, Mrs. Henry Moffette, Mrs. Sanford H. Moses, Jr., past chairman; and Mrs. William Spaulding. Among the programs being carried on in Winchester were chest X-rays for employees in industries in town. As part of this current program for industries, 600 X-rays were taken at the Beggs & Cobb Company when an X-ray van recently visited the company. Mrs. Russell also explained the scholarship funds which are available for nurses as another part of the activities sponsored by the committee. Through Mrs. Russell's committee, a program is being conducted to provide scholarships for courses which will help school and public health nurses in their jobs. Mrs. Russell also announced at the meeting that the 1953 Christmas Seal Sale will open on November 16 with the mailing of Christmas Seals to all residents of Winchester. Through the Winchester Tuberculosis Committee the Seals will be mailed to local residents of the year's distribution of Christmas Seals by tuberculosis associations throughout the country. In announcing the opening of this year's Christmas seal sale, Mrs. Russell said, "If anyone does not receive Christmas Seals in their mail during the week of November 16, they can get a supply at Ruth Porter's Real Estate office at 33 Thompson street. The next meeting of the Tuberculosis Committee was scheduled for November 16, with Mr. David Moxon, Executive Director of the Middlesex Health Association, the local tuberculosis association, as the Committee's guest."

As it heads for Winchester Station the temporary tracks cut through the properties of the Fitzgerald Brothers, Powers, McCarthy, McGrath, Roberts, Hurley, Harrington, Grant, Powell, Burns and Marchant, the encroachment decreasing from 18 feet at the Powers property to 8 feet at the middle of the Marchant land. Reaching the signal control building to the south of the Winchester Station the temporary tracks pass to the east, or in front of the building by some three feet at the narrowest point, passing through the present parking lot adjacent to the present inbound tracks at the station and right through the middle of the present Station building which will be temporarily moved back to occupy a part of the present parking lot behind the station. From the station the temporary tracks continue through the easterly side of Common street toward the square, approximately 30 feet from the present inbound roadbed with a distance of from 20 to 25 feet between the temporary inbound, or westerly tracks, and the curb along the easterly side of the Common. The trees located on the common will not be disturbed by the location of the temporary tracks, but some seven or so trees on railroad property along the present tracks will have to be removed.

At the junction of Common and Church streets in the center the temporary tracks will be 31 feet from the present inbound tracks and 15 feet from the present outbound tracks at the tip of the Common where Church and Common streets meet. The removal of this apron, which seems likely, will increase this space to 27 feet and one way traffic from the station should be possible along Common street west of the temporary tracks. Through the center the temporary tracks go to the west of the gate control and traffic tower, the outbound track being two feet from the tower at the nearest point. At the Shell Gas Station the temporary track cut through the present yard to a depth of 30 feet and take 17 feet from the building. At the First National store the tracks go through the southeasterly part of the building to a depth of 33 feet and at the parking lot the taking tapers from 33 feet to zero along a distance of 100 feet. There are practically no other takings at that point.

The temporary tracks cross the Woburn loop at the rear of the First National Parking area and proceed northerly beside the present tracks approximately 29 feet from the present inbound rails. For the most part the temporary roadbed goes through Town of Winchester Park land. At the culvert on Shore road the temporary tracks are located 32 feet west of the culvert and will pass over the Abernethy at that point on a trestle. Continuing northerly the temporary tracks go past the freight yard off Summer street, using the existing siding tracks with a switchover at about the location of the one in use there.

At Swanton street where the road is to be depressed, as Bacon street is to be lowered, the temporary tracks will be eight feet from the present tracks and there are shown on the map tracks already ready substantially in this location. From this point the temporary tracks veer toward the present tracks until they meet about 1,400 feet north of Swanton street. No land takings are necessary at Bacon street, and there as at Swanton street the depressed road will be in the same location as the present road.

POLICE HELD ANNUAL BALL

The usual large turnout was at the town hall Monday evening for the annual concert and ball of the Winchester Police Relief Association.

Six acts of vaudeville opened with Kenny and May, Jap tumbler and acrobats; followed by Elwin Shaw, "the honest pickpocket"; Harris and Shore, dance team; Lindy Doherty, "singing star" of Capitol records; Don Hooton, the "Broadway Cowboy"; and Edna and Leon, "European Novelty Sensations".

Don Hooton doubled by acting as master of ceremonies and he filled this important role most acceptably. Elwin Shaw had the assistance of several stooges from the audience who went to the stage to have their valuables removed from their persons with ridiculous ease. Lindy Doherty proved very popular with his varied songs, and in fact the entire ball was one of the best seen at the town hall for some time. The George A. Hamid office furnished the talent which was under the personal supervision of Jacy Collier, a favorite in Winchester for some years.

Music for the show was furnished by Bill Crosby and his Orchestra, and the same musicians played most acceptably for dancing after the show.

Chief Charles J. Harrold acted as floor marshal for the dancing with Sgt. Edward F. Bowler as floor director and Officer Archie O'Connell as chief of aides.

MONTICELLO DUE FOR RENOVATION

Historic Monticello, crammed by builder Thomas Jefferson with ingenious devices for comfort and convenience, will soon be fitted with two modern facilities — air conditioning and central heating.

The 180-year-old showplace is to be renovated from roof to cellar. This fall, basement rooms, including Jefferson's renowned wine and beer cellars, will be restored for the first time. Work will be directed by the Thomas Jefferson Memorial Foundation, which bought Monticello in 1923 and maintains it as a national shrine, says the National Geographic Society.

Sky-top Home
Last year 200,000 visitors toured the house that was Jefferson's home from 1770 until his death in 1826. Located on a leveled mountain top, it looks down on Charlottesville, where Jefferson founded, and the distant Blue Ridge Mountains.

Jefferson spent 39 years building, changing, adding to, and subtracting from stately Monticello, which means "little mountain" in Italian. His designs, derived from those of the Italian architect Andrea Palladio, helped introduce Roman classical architecture to America.

Built of native red brick and timbers heaved on the property, Monticello boasts Roman-Doric porticos on both west and east fronts — one for receiving public figures and the other for family friends and guests.

Three presidents — John Adams, James Madison and James Monroe — were among the mansion's frequent house guests.

Monticello has three stories and basement with a total of 35 rooms. Kitchens, servant quarters, stables, dairy and other utility rooms are in extensive basement wings, partially buried under terraces and promenades which make them almost invisible from both fronts.

Many Innovations
In the mansion's 13 bedrooms there is not a single bedstead; alcoves provided with wall hooks for mattress supports of rope were devised by Jefferson. His own bed was in an alcove between study and bedroom. It was so rigged that it could be raised to the ceiling by day, permitting him to walk between the two rooms.

Other Jeffersonian "gadgets" include hidden stairways; folding glass doors that move in unison when only one is touched; dumbwaiters concealed in the dining room mantelpiece for direct two-way traffic with the wine cellar; an interior weather vane connected with one on the roof-top; and a clock that can be read from inside or outside the house and marks the days of the week as well as the hour.

Monticello also contains what are said to be the first storm windows ever used in America, and the country's first parquet floors — trestled 10-inch squares of rosewood, satinwood and walnut — and cherry. The library held almost 10,000 volumes in 1814. Sold to Congress, it was the foundation of the present Library of Congress.

Hydraulic gold mining near Fairbanks, Alaska, frequently uncovers frozen prehistoric animals, says the National Geographic Society. On one occasion, the head, trunk, and foreleg of a mammoth at least 15,000 years old were flown to the American Museum of Natural History in New York and put on display in a home freezer.

Queen Victoria's Diamond Jubilee in 1897 was observed with fireworks displays throughout the British Empire on an unprecedented scale. Fireworks sent from London to Bloemfontein, Nyasaland (Southwest Africa), traveled through wilderness 300 miles from the mouth of the Zambezi River by cart, canoe, and on the heads of porters to be fired on the scheduled night before a huge crowd of as-founded tribesmen.

Passion plays of the 15th century were so well attended that armed bands of citizens were required to patrol deserted streets during performances in order to protect the property of theatergoers, says the National Geographic Society.

Dead squid tied to a pole are used to catch lobsters at low tide in New Caledonia. "Freezing" with fright at the sight, the lobsters are easily caught by divers wearing goggles and gloves.

Ocean steamers can sail 2,000 miles up the Amazon River from the Atlantic Ocean to Iquitos, Peru.

way by what and how you give.

Remember, the government makes a very liberal allowance up to 20% and one of the main reasons is for your giving to the church, the "Greatest Hope For The World." Give to the extent that you may feel God's sanction. The church asks for no more than enough to meet its needs.

In an effort to supply maximum protection to elementary school children, the school committee has adopted the following regulations to be followed in excusing children during school hours:

a. No child is to be excused except upon the direct request of his or her family.

b. No child is to be excused except through the office of the principal.

c. In case of doubt as to the authenticity of a written or telephoned request to excuse the pupil, the request will be checked by telephone before the child is released.

d. Parents or other members of the family calling at school for a child to be excused must be identified by the principal before the child is released. In the event the person calling is not known to the principal, the child will be asked to identify the person.

A revival of old plans will accomplish nothing. During the last 47 years every conceivable plan has been studied. A tunnel for the railroad underneath the center of the city, which would seem an attractive solution but which, incidentally, would require longer ramps or stairways, has been rejected as not feasible by every qualified engineer who has studied the problem. Only one plan, the plan of abolition, in the opinion of Colonel Moore, the town's own engineering consultant, whose wide experience and national reputation give weight to his judgment, and in the opinion of the state engineers, are three in number: (1) a

WYMAN SCHOOL
INFORMAL DANCE

Two hundred and fifty Wyman parents and their friends enjoyed a delightful evening last Saturday, when the Wyman Mothers' Association sponsored an informal dance.

The high spot of the evening was at intermission time when a floor show produced by Mrs. Bradford Bentley was announced to the surprised gathering. The orchestra played the well-known "Dragnet" theme, and Friday's capable substitute, a character known as "Sunday", appeared. "Sunday's" close resemblance to Rev. John Knox, Jr., was noted by those present as he proceeded with the case under investigation. The first witnesses called proved to be four well-known dancers, Mrs. Bruce LaRose, Mrs. Claude Callahan, Mrs. Herbert Wood and Mrs. John McClellan who gaily tapped to the tune of "School Days" while the audience shrieked their approval. The next witness, Mrs. Winthrop Knox, presented a more serious case, and delighted the audience with her lovely voice when she sang: "Gianina Mia" and "No Other Love". Hilarity ruled again when Jack Snook became quiz master and completely baffled the eight intelligent suspects (including Rev. John W. Ellison) picked from the audience. By the way, How many of us are in an inning? After the blushing contestants returned to the crowd, it was announced that Mrs. Robert Stewart won the door prize and Mrs. Robert Ingraham the lucky number.

Delicious refreshments were enjoyed and all agreed on a hearty vote of thanks to Mrs. Thomas Hill and her committee: Mrs. Bradford Bentley, Mrs. Alan Burns, Mrs. Howard Stockwell, Mrs. John Lathrop, Mrs. Thornton Stearns and Mrs. Raymond Chase.

Thanks go to all Wyman Mothers whose support of the dance made a great financial success. The proceeds will help the Wyman Mothers' Association make a gift to the school and a contribution to the Winchester Scholarship Fund.

Rev. Stephen Burke, council Chaplain, whose faithful attendance, interest and advice is inspiring the members, called on the Council to support the officers in their endeavors to insure success this season.

Preceding the installation ceremonies, the council enjoyed their own prepared and served lobster dinner with special commendation due Deputy Grand Knight Jim Mawn for arranging delivery of the lobsters fresh from Maine waters.

Particular commendation went to Brother Albie McDonald who as head chef spent considerable time cooking the dinner, aided by Past Grand Knight Harry Boyle and D. G. K. Jim Mawn.

The thanks of the council are due also to the American Legion for the loan of their cooking equipment and to the Elks for the use of their kitchen facilities.

It was the consensus that if Albie McDonald ever decides to be a chef permanently, the better Boston hotels could do no better than to engage his services. Assists are due to the following, who served as "waiters" for the dinner: John

A TRIP TO MAINE

Last week Thursday, Judge Curtis Nash, former State Senator Harris Richardson, Robert Healey, James Livingstone and Dr. J. Churchill Hinds, piled into the Judge's Cadillac and headed for Maine, their destination being Limington and the home of Samuel Perkins, now a resident of Limington, but formerly for many years a resident of Winchester and affectionately known far and wide as "Cy".

"Cy's" health recently hasn't been as good as his friends could wish, but he was able to receive and thoroughly enjoy his guests, their visit coming as a real tonic.

The Winchester voyageurs report that the Perkins hospitality and humor were in their old time form and that they had a most pleasant visit with "Cy" in Limington.

A LETTER TO YOU MR. HOME OWNER & TAXPAYER of WINCHESTER

DEAR SIR:

On November 16th Winchester will hold a Town Meeting to vote on the question of Rent Control for Winchester. YOU, as a HOME OWNER and TAXPAYER OF WINCHESTER should KNOW WHAT YOUR TOWN MEETING MEMBERS ARE VOTING FOR.

Last spring the Massachusetts Legislature passed a Rent Control bill. Let me quote some of the portions of this bill.

Section 2 (Definitions of Housing Accommodations and Controlled Housing Accommodations) states in item (b): "Controlled Housing Accommodations," all housing accommodations except: (Then follow six classifications of exceptions, of which we, as a whole, are interested mainly in the 6th, which reads: "On or after JULY THIRTY-FIRST, nineteen hundred and fifty-three, ALL housing accommodations in EVERY city and town in this commonwealth EXCEPT the housing accommodations in those cities and towns which ACCEPT the provisions of THIS act IN ACCORDANCE WITH SECTION TWELVE," which reads:

"Any city or town in which federal rent controls exist at the time of the passage of this act MAY, between the date of said passage and JUNE THIRTIETH, NINETEEN HUNDRED AND FIFTY-FOUR, by VOTE of the CITY COUNCIL, if a CITY, or of a TOWN MEETING CALLED FOR THE PURPOSE, if a TOWN, accept the provisions of this act. Such VOTE SHALL INCLUDE a DECLARATION that a SUBSTANTIAL SHORTAGE of RENTAL housing accommodations EXISTS in SUCH CITY or TOWN and that the CONTROL OF RENTS therein IS NECESSARY in the PUBLIC INTEREST."

Section 4 (a) reads: "Upon the ACCEPTANCE of THIS ACT as set forth in section TWELVE, the board of selectmen SHALL appoint a rent board of at least five members. A majority of said board shall be representatives of the PUBLIC INTEREST and the REMAINDER shall be EQUALLY REPRESENTATIVES of the LANDLORDS and TENANTS." (Note: This last sentence defines what is meant by "public interest," i. e., it means neither the landlord nor the tenant.)

A RENT BOARD may EMPLOY and FIX the SALARIES of such assistants and clerical aid AS IT DEEMS NECESSARY. During the CURRENT FISCAL YEAR, rent boards are AUTHORIZED to INCUR LIABILITIES in carrying out the provisions of this act and PAYMENTS therefor SHALL BE MADE FROM THE TOWN TREASURY FROM ANY AVAILABLE FUNDS THEREIN, and the SUMS SO EXPENDED in that period SHALL be certified by the treasurer of the town in January of nineteen hundred and fifty-four to the board of assessors who SHALL, WITHOUT FURTHER VOTE of the TOWN, RAISE SUCH SUMS in the TAX LEVY OF NINETEEN HUNDRED and FIFTY-FOUR. To PROVIDE FUNDS for meeting SUBSEQUENT EXPENDITURES authorized hereunder, a town may RAISE SUCH SUMS AS MAY BE NECESSARY BY TAXATION. (c) Forty per cent of the amounts expended by the cities and towns for the purposes of this act with the approval of the rent boards shall be reimbursed by the commonwealth upon approval and CERTIFICATION to the COMPTROLLER by the CO-ORDINATOR."

The Rent Board is subject to legal action.

Section 6 (a) reads in part: "ANY PERSON who is AGGRIEVED by ANY ACTION, REGULATION or ORDER of the RENT BOARD may FILE a COMPLAINT AGAINST THE RENT BOARD in the DISTRICT COURT for the judicial district within which is located the controlled housing accommodation affected by such action, regulation or order, and thereupon an order of notice SHALL be issued by such court and SERVED on the RENT BOARD."

These are a few of the highlights of the bill. Think them over well. Do you want any police state such as that in your community? Now let us analyze the above sections.

Under Section 12 of the law, Winchester took no action prior to July 31, 1953. In accordance with the law all rents became decontrolled on August 1st of this year. Adjustments in rents, in Winchester, if any, have already been made. What purpose can be served by controlling rents at present levels? Dissatisfied tenants have already found other quarters and under the rent control law a vacated apartment is automatically decontrolled. The law does not state that rents may be rolled back and if this were done, it might lead to endless confusion and even lawsuits. Why raise the issue now, after adjustments have already been completed?

Up to July 31, 1953, a centralized government in Washington, with billions at its command, paid the cost of rent control. Now, however, under this bill, you, the local taxpayer, must pay the cost. Read Section 4 quoted above.

The Rent Board may employ assistants and clerical aid. They may well be involved in lawsuits with corresponding legal expenses. They may have to employ operators to enforce their rulings. And the final bill to the community, regardless of the amount, MUST BE certified by the treasurer in January, 1954, to the board of assessors, who SHALL, WITHOUT FURTHER VOTE of the town, RAISE SUCH SUMS in the TAX LEVY of 1954. I doubt if our taxpayers, with the interest in present high taxes and pressing problems in school conditions, municipal salaries and the like, will care to endorse any blank check like that to keep a control no longer needed, especially as ALL other controls in the country have been removed. Do you want your tax rate to go up in order to form a bureaucracy in Winchester?

This rent bill says that a vote SHALL include a DECLARATION that a SUBSTANTIAL SHORTAGE of RENTAL HOUSING ACCOMMODATIONS EXISTS in Winchester and that the CONTROL OF RENTS therein IS NECESSARY in the PUBLIC INTEREST. Just what does this mean? It is not just a meaningless phrase; it means that such a declaration must be based on irrefutable facts, a truthful statement that such a condition does exist. No survey has yet been made in Winchester to find out if this need exists.

What are the facts? According to the 1950 census there were, in Winchester, 4160 occupied dwelling units. Of these, 3180 were owner-occupied and only 980 were renter-occupied. These are the figures of 1950, compiled from a disinterested Government source, and do not include the additional dwelling UNITS made available by the building boom of the last three years. In 1950, again according to the census, there were 67 vacant rental units, or a vacancy ratio of 6.8%. A vacancy ratio of 3% has been accepted as the limit beyond which rent controls are no longer necessary. In 1940 the population of Winchester, according to the census of that year, was 15,081, the increase in population from 1940 to 1950 was 428 or 2.85%. The number of dwellings in Winchester in 1940 was 3687, the increase in dwellings from 1940 to 1950 was 550 or 14.9%. In 1950 there were more dwelling units per person than in 1940, and no controls were needed in 1940. And these figures do NOT include the building boom of the last three years.

But this is not all. The Declaration must also state that CONTROL OF RENTS therein is NECESSARY in the PUBLIC INTEREST. But what is meant by PUBLIC INTEREST has already been set forth in the bill. PUBLIC INTEREST is not the interest of either the landlord or the tenant, but the interest of the citizens of the Town as a whole. How, then, can any such statement be substantiated, when all advocates of the bill claim it is for the "poor, defenseless tenants" to protect them against the "avaricious" landlords. When will the citizens of this Town wake up and become Americans again?

Fellow townsmen, landlords are no different than other businessmen; all they want is fair play. No landlord is going to raise his rents to unwarranted levels. If he did, he would soon have empty apartments and be out of business. The same laws govern renting as govern other businesses. The average landlord takes pride in his property, pride in his community, and yes, pride in his tenants, too. And if, occasionally a misguided individual among landlords acts unwisely, his own industry and fellow citizens can quickly bring him into line. There is no reason for the class hatred that has been built up in this country between landlords and tenants. Any landlord has the privilege of becoming a tenant and any tenant of becoming a landlord. This is supposed to be a nation of free enterprise.

November 16th Winchester will DECIDE between AMERICANISM and SOCIALISM, whether they will govern themselves or delegate part of that power to a Bureaucracy. That is the real question before you. One Hundred Seventy-Eight years ago the citizens of Winchester were faced with a similar problem. They voted with their blood on the battlefield of Lexington. Their sacrifice made it possible for you to go to a Town Meeting today and vote. Have your Town Meeting Members go the Town Meeting November 16th and VOTE NO to Rent Control. VOTE NO, because your liberty is not an inherited privilege, but something for which you must certainly fight. VOTE NO, for today oppression of landlords may tomorrow mean oppression of you.

Sincerely,

(Signed) LESTER C. GUSTIN,

A Home Owner and Taxpayer of Winchester

B. & M. FEATURES NEW TRAINS

Four new "Highliner" weekday trains will start operating on the Boston and Maine Railroad November 16, adding new service between Boston and Portland, Maine, and Boston and Concord, New Hampshire.

Leaving Boston at 7:50 a. m. will be the "Businessman" with an operating schedule designed for businessmen and business men who make frequent trips to Portland, Me. The new train will feature a stop at Wakefield, close to Highway route No. 128 at 8:04 a. m. and will make stops at Exeter, Dover, N. H.; North Berwick, Biddeford, and Portland, Maine, arriving in Portland at 9:55 a. m. Matching this eastbound morning train will be a mid-afternoon westbound "Businessman" leaving Portland at 3:30 p. m. making the same stops at Wakefield, Mass., at 5:20 p. m. and Boston at 5:35 p. m.

R. F. Cowan, Passenger Traffic Manager of the Road is stressing the importance of the new train to the businessmen said, "This new deluxe air-conditioned train will give a convenient schedule adapted to the businessmen and will allow them to relax or do their paper work enroute. It will also free them from tiresome driving plus the added expense of highway tolls and give them a dependable arrival time regardless of weather conditions." Cowan also pointed to the early arrival time at Wakefield and Boston on the return trip.

The new service for Concord, N. H., from Boston will consist of a deluxe "Highliner" train leaving Boston at 6:30 p. m. with stops at Nashua, 7:13 p. m. and Manchester, 7:31 p. m. arriving at Concord at 7:55 p. m.

A new evening "Highliner" train leaving Concord, N. H., for Boston at 9:00 p. m. will make stops at Manchester, 9:26 p. m. and Nashua, 9:45 p. m. arriving in Boston at 10:30 p. m.

The addition of these trains makes a total of 38 deluxe Highliner trains now in operation on the Boston and Maine Railroad.

The new deluxe stainless steel trains are self-propelled and completely air conditioned. Some of the interior features include large picture windows, highback foam rubber upholstered seats, fluorescent overhead lights, and colorful rubber tiled floors.

HIGH SCHOOL OPEN HOUSE BROKE RECORDS

Parents eclipsed all previous records for attendance as approximately seven hundred and fifty enthusiastic mothers and fathers attended Open House at Winchester High School last Thursday.

Reviewing the attendance reports collected during the third period of the simulated school day, Principal Wade L. Grindle commented, "We certainly had a record-breaking attendance. Not only were there more parents present, but they gave every appearance of being pleased with what they saw and heard. Science laboratories, especially, were unable to seat all of the guests, and to make the evening complete, the refreshments provided by the ladies of the Parent-Faculty Association were delicious and abundant."

Home room teachers and room mothers greeted the early arrivals, who were given copies of their boy's and girl's Thursday schedule and, after a few explanatory words, were on their own to follow the program as it took them from room to room and building to building.

Teachers dropping into the cafeteria for an after-school snack were unanimous in their praise of the spirit that prompted so many to attend, attending, to be so complimentary.

Of particular interest was the sample room, Room 13, in which parents could readily observe the effect of adequate light, sound resistant ceilings, movable furniture, extensive bookcases and bulletin boards, and a floor surface that permits more thorough cleaning.

Another pleasant feature of Open House was the larger number of parents who followed the programs of their boys and girls enrolled in the commercial course or other terminal education subjects like practical mathematics, aeronautical science, non college English, geography, and many others.

Representatives of the Parent-Faculty Association were pleased with the large total of family dues collected which helps to assure a continuation of the parent-inspired aid to the school and to its graduates.

Patrolman John F. Hogan, veteran traffic officer on duty in the center, is on vacation this week. He spent a part of his week off in New Hampshire. This is the third vacation week for Officer Hogan, whose years of service entitle him to an extra week off.

The department is always working on preventative measures and Miss Kitzpatrick urged all parents to be very careful to set a good example, as children try to imitate them. Also, to report immediately anyone or anything that they suspect of being immoral or dangerous to society in any way.

COLLEGE CLUB MEETING WELL ATTENDED

Dr. Frederick Wulsin, speaking to a large group of College Club members and guests at last Monday evening, made ancient Babylon come vividly alive. Tracing the development of Babylon from its beginnings as one of the earliest experiments in city living, Dr. Wulsin depicted this ancient empire of vast scope and influence.

Because of its geographical location, and scarcity of native raw materials, large-scale commerce became a necessity to the Babylonian empire. This in turn required strong government organization and unified large areas. Businesses thrived; banking firms were busy and well-organized. There was speculation and development in real estate no different than that of a fancy Florida boom!

The small family unit prevailed as it does today, with neighborhood squabbles just as typical; women were active not only in home-management but in business affairs. Education was widespread. Legal thought and practice was mature, as evidenced by numerous wills and deeds recorded in well-preserved clay tablets. In short, Dr. Wulsin's audience realized that life in Babylon in 1850 B. C. did not differ essentially from life in 1950 A. D. Technical advances and gadgets have altered the exterior picture of the modern city, but the basic principles of city planning are still the same whether in "Babylon or Boston."

Before presenting the speaker, Mrs. James B. Willing, called on the minutes of the last meeting. Mrs. Paul B. Leverette followed her financial report with the request that dues be paid as promptly as possible. Mrs. Pittim Sorokin described the Club's very active and successful Day Time Study Groups. Included were the History Group and the three enthusiastic French Conversation Groups. The Art Group, led by Mrs. George B. Heath, will have its first meeting on Nov. 20th, at 2 p. m. At the Museum of Fine Arts, The Thrift Time-saving Tactics Group will begin in January.

METHODIST LOYALTY SUNDAY

Every Methodist family is strongly urged to make every effort to attend this coming Sunday morning service which will be designated in the Protestant churches of the community as Loyalty Sunday.

Church membership in the United States has almost reached the one hundred million mark, which is a tremendous increase in numbers and more important, a sharp increase in the percentage of the population.

With all the activities of the church program, the Crawford Memorial Methodist Church is placing a stress on the public worship of God. Consequently, church attendance this Fall has increased and people are becoming more aware of this as a vital part of one's life.

The pastor, Rev. John Snook, Jr., is speaking on the subject, "Your Giving Proves Your Loyalty." He and his friends are again invited to attend church as a public witness to one's belief and faith in the church, the Greatest Hope For The World.

NEW SOLDIERS SWORN IN

Nineteen students of the East Coast Aero Tech School were sworn into the Enlisted Reserve Corps of the Army Reserve on November 3 at the school in Bedford by Brig. Gen. Ralph A. Palladino of North Gateways, commanding general, 94th Infantry Division, U. S. Army Reserve. The new soldiers are members of the new Provisional Detachment (Air) of the 94th Infantry Division.

The incident has further Winchester interest in the fact that Captain Donald Van Hoesen, commanding officer of the Provisional Company, makes his home at 49 Allen road.

Wild elephants damage rubber plantations in Malaya by pulling up young trees, reports the National Geographic Society.

Baby kangaroos are only about an inch long at birth.

Several orchids are among the nearly 500 varieties of wild flowers, ferns, and shrubs growing in northern Canada's Yukon Territory.

OLD RIVALS MEET

WINCHESTER AND WOBURN AWAIT THANKSGIVING
WHISTLE

Continuing one of the oldest schoolboy gridiron rivalries hereabouts, a rivalry that goes back to 1891, Winchester and Woburn High Schools will square away for their 47th annual football game Thanksgiving Day morning on Manchester Field with the kickoff at 10:30.

Winchester is rightly the favorite this year, despite the fact that Woburn is much improved over last season. The Tanners have won three, lost three and tied one, while last year the Orange failed to win a single game.

Woburn's wins this year have all been convincing, 21-0 over Methuen, 20-0 over Reading and 27-6 over Wintrop. Last Saturday the Tanners should have won their scoreless tie with Marlborough. For all this, Winchester's record is the better one, the Indians having won six, lost one and tied one. Concord upset the Indians, 13-0 in the season's opener, a game the locals would dearly love to play again, and their 13-13 tie with Watertown was one of Winchester's better performances of the season. Like Woburn against Marlborough, Winchester should have won that one, only its inexperience preventing a victory.

Undoubtedly Winchester's best performance of the season was last Saturday against Wakefield, unbeaten Class B leader when the Indians took them on. That 28-13 win over a team with supposedly the "strongest line" in the Greater Boston schoolboy ranks set up the locals as one of the best Class B teams, and also from the rather shaky state of the Indians' record makes the Indians look like winners against Woburn.

The Tanners dropped an early season game to Wakefield, 14-0, and against the other three teams met in common, Winchester would also seem to have the edge, at least offensively. Woburn beat Reading, 20-0. Winchester won from Reading, 39-6. The Tanners outscored Wintrop, 27 to 6. Winchester won this one, 31-0. Stoneham, a team beaten by Winchester, 20-13, beat Woburn in a local upset, 12-0.

Comparative scores are dangerous things on which to predict a win or loss on any one occasion, for they do not take into account the condition of the teams on that day, the condition of the field and the relative spirit of the contestants. A wet field generally aids the underdog and while Manchester Field is no Woburn stadium when it comes to mud, it can still be slippery enough to affect a good offense adversely.

So in the matter of comparative scores, condition and field Winchester has the advantage. This leaves the all important spirit, and in this connection Woburn through the years has outfought Winchester. Come Thanksgiving, the hungry Tanners, with two losses and a tie in their last three games against the Indians will be wanting that win badly. They could get it! Stranger things have happened!

Winchester, as it played against Wakefield would seem to be beyond Woburn's reach to defeat, but whether the Indians can get as far along the warpath as they were last Saturday is a question.

We still like 'em and everything considered they should win. We'd feel more secure with them to back in the middle of that line to guard against those fullback traps the Orange has always used so effectively against Winchester, and of course our fingers are crossed while we wait the scholastic grades of the players.

TOWN MEETING VOTE SCHOOL FUNDS

JUNIOR HIGH REMODELLING
TO COST $1,886,256.00

It took 147 town meeting members 45 minutes at a special session Monday evening to vote unanimously to appropriate $1,886,256 to remodel and construct additions to the present junior high school building which is now to become a four year senior high school. Those in the balconies and rear of the hall burst into applause when they saw all the town meeting members on their feet when the vote was put. No one spoke in opposition to the recommendations of the Building Committee for additional facilities for the Senior and Junior High schools, which were virtually accepted last March when their plans for the secondary schools were explained in detail. Thursday's meeting was called to do the actual work involved in the change-over.

Mr. Speers, chairman of the Building Committee, did a masterful job of explaining the ramifications of the plan's financing, so as to take advantage of State aid, which he explained that the cost of the work is greater than estimated, but stated that in any construction, from a small house up, the cost of actual construction is always greater, sometimes by as much as 100 per cent.

In case of the school addition Mr. Speers felt the increase very reasonable and he also felt that with the bidders, the low bidder, by $60,000 and the other nine bidders, a total of $50,000 the contractors were unusually close to the estimates of the cost of the job. Low bidder was J. F. Rand & Son.

Mr. Speers explained that the cost of the school construction over the 20 year period covered by the bond issue will add an estimated $2.78 to the tax rate the first year and will taper off to $1.83 in 1974, though he expects the actual increase in tax rate will be less.

The plans for the remodeling and new construction have not been materially changed from those presented to the last March meeting. There have been some changes, but they are in all cases minor and more in the nature of refinements or improvements suggested as the actual working specifications were produced. The speaker was very positive on this point and also on the remodeling of the school. Mr. Speers said that Architect Jerome Bailey Foster has been instructed to have his plans and specifications ready by February 1, although the job can not be done prior to 1955.

Estimated cost of this work is $300,000, and it is believed that the actual cost will be very close to this figure. Unfortunately the job is going to take much longer to do than the original estimate of a single year. (Continued on Page 5)

BAPTIST'S BIG HARVEST FAIR TOMORROW

Tomorrow, November 21st, is "Fair Day" in Winchester. All day and evening, starting at 10 a. m. the members of the First Baptist Church expect to welcome hundreds of happy gift and bargain hunters from Winchester and for miles around, to their gala, colorful Harvest Fair.

"This year's fair," according to Mrs. Elizabeth McLeod, Fair Chairman, will be bigger and better than ever, with just about everything anyone could desire in the way of 25¢, food, toys, novelties, white elephants, rare and unusual articles, one-of-a-kind items, and just plain "bargains". Visitors will enjoy wandering from booth to booth, looking over the interesting displays, they won't want to miss the children's booth or the exciting gift exhibit. Then there's the food booth, the apron table, the doll, candy, jewelry, scout and plant displays. And of course, no fair would be complete without a grab bag and a soda-pop stand. "Up the Aitch Stairs", one of last year's most popular attractions, will be repeated again this year with an even wider selection of old and unusual articles for sale. And probably the biggest attraction of all will be the General Store with a really wonderful stock of worthwhile "buys". Last but not least, there's the Parcel Post Booth featuring articles mailed to the fair from all over the nation and from foreign lands, still in their original unbroken mailing wrappings. It's also a wonderful opportunity to do some pleasant and convenient Christmas shopping and collect some gifts that are really distinctive and appealing."

Fair visitors are also invited to enjoy the delicious luncheon which will be served between 12 and 1 o'clock, at the reasonable charge of 25 cents. Another highlight of the fair will be the New England Supper, 5:30 to 7:00 p. m. Many reservations have already been made, but tickets can still be obtained by calling or visiting G. A. Josephson's real estate office, next to Star office, Winchester 6-2426. Tickets, Adults 99 cents, children twelve years of age or under, 50 cents. Supper tickets may also be purchased at the door if desired.

No doubt about it, First Baptist's Harvest Fair promises to be a real "bum-dinger". Don't forget it's Tomorrow, November 21. Why not plan to drop in at the Baptist Church and "visit the fair"? You'll be glad you did.

NEWMAN — ROBERTS

Miss Dorothy Jean Roberts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Roberts of 12 Clematis street, had her sister, Miss Shirley Roberts, as her only attendant at her marriage to Robert L. Newman of Evansville, Ind., at the Crawford Memorial Methodist Church on Saturday afternoon, November 7. The Rev. John Snook, Jr., officiated at the 4 o'clock ceremony in a decorative setting of white chrysanthemums and candelabra.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown fashioned with a net-over-satin skirt and a lace bodice trimmed with rhinestones and seed pearls. A fitted lace jacket with long sleeves and a Peter Pan collar topped her gown, and she wore a shoulder-length veil caught to a crown of seed pearls. Her flowers were white roses and stephanotis arranged in a shower bouquet.

The honor maid wore a cotillion blue dress with a velvet bodice and bolero and a net-over-satin skirt. She carried a bouquet of yellow roses and wore a hat of matching velvet flowers and an orchid corsage. James W. Carrie of Belmont was Mr. Newman's best man, and ushering were Robert M. Ellis of Melrose, cousin of the bride; and John A. Stevenson of Winchester.

A reception was held after the marriage at the home of the bride's parents, who assisted in the receiving line. Mrs. Roberts wore a street-length gown of Dior-blue tulle with a matching hat of velvet flowers and an orchid corsage. The bride is a graduate of Winchester High School. Mr. Newman, who is the son of Mr. Bertrand Newman of Evansville, Ind., and Mrs. Dorothy Newman of Detroit, Mich., graduated from Central High School in Evansville.

TOWN MEETING SUPPORTED SCHOOL BUILDING COMMITTEE

With 152 precinct members present at the start of Monday evening's special session of the town meeting it was voted to support the Lewis Parkhurst School Addition Building Committee's recommendation to add six rooms to the present school building, continuing the committee with authority to complete plans and specifications so that true bids can be received and the cost of the addition determined in time to report to a special town meeting to be called next February. The sum of $10,000 was appropriated from the Excess and Deficiency fund for the committee's use.

Mr. Butler reported for the committee and explained that the School Committee and Superintendent of Schools feel that educationally and financially the Parkhurst School with the six rooms added would be better than to put three rooms on the school now, all of which would be filled at or near the time of opening, and build another small school further out in the vicinity of High and Ridge streets. The Committee was supported by Mrs. Woodward, representing the School Committee; Mr. Redding, representing the Finance Committee; Mr. Barnard, Mrs. Woodside and Mr. Speers. Mr. Bonnell and Mr. Farnsworth expressed the Planning Board's preference for three rooms at the Parkhurst and a new K-6 unit further west, feeling that in the interest of long range planning we should recognize the probable growth of the latter district and also plan, by placing a school in that district to attract future growth there instead of in the vicinity of the Parkhurst school.

Mr. Bonnell questioned the child growth figures presented by the school authorities and stressed the fact that the planning expert which his Board had engaged felt the three room addition at the Parkhurst and the new school further west would be preferable to the proposed six room addition.

Mr. Farnsworth made the topography of the Parkhurst lot was not favorable for the addition of six rooms, which he believed would cut too much into the playground area there. He said that the town is going to have to build a new school in the High and Ridge street area some time and might as well build it now while land is available there, particularly as such a building is in accordance with the best long range planning advice the Planning Board can get.

Mr. Hewis supported the Planning Board, but the meeting went along with the Building Committee, a standing vote being taken, but without the necessity for counting the voters, so great was the sentiment for the proposed six room addition. The clock showed 9:22 when the school article was disposed of and after a recess the delegates, or most of them, (there were not many more than the 100 necessary for a quorum toward the end of the meeting), appropriated $15,000 from the Excess and Deficiency Account, in addition to the amount previously appropriated, to meet the cost of land takings for the enlargement of the Junior High School lot, these takings being authorized by the special town meeting November 30, 1950.

Plans and sketches for the new structure were submitted by eight architects. Those finally selected were from Jerome B. Foster of Winchester. The building will be of modern contemporary architecture constructed of steel, masonry and wood. It will have every modern appliance and will be the most modern Restaurant in Greater Boston.

The Chases wish to thank all their kind friends and customers who send sympathetic messages via telephone, letter and telegraph. They also wish to thank the local Fire Department who worked ungrudgingly in trying to conquer the fire.

The construction of the new building began on Monday, and it is hoped that it will be ready for operation about the 15th of March.

WILLIAM J. HANLEY

William J. Hanley, formerly of Winchester, and prominent in the leather trade hereabouts for many years, died Tuesday, November 17, in Baltimore, Md., where he had been living since leaving Winchester six weeks ago.

A native of Galway, Ireland, Mr. Hanley lived in Winchester for fifty years, making his home on Washington street. He was a leather worker by trade and was employed at the Beggs & Cobb tannery until his retirement five years ago.

He leaves his wife, Mrs. Delia Hanley; two daughters, Mrs. P. H. Russell and Mrs. M. E. Cline, both of Baltimore; a son, William, Jr., now on Army duty in Korea; two sisters, Mrs. Kirwin of Needham and Mrs. William Pettenger of Winchester; also six grandchildren.

TAX RECEIPTS

Winchester has received a lump-sum payment of $54,330.37 in real estate taxes for 1953 from the Workingmen's Co-operative Bank of Boston, it was announced recently by Mr. Everett P. Pope, president.

This figure represents tax payments on homes in Winchester which are financed by the bank, and whose real estate taxes are paid through the bank by the owners of the property.

members as possible will attend and urge their neighbors and friends to be present.

Committee Chairmen are Bill O'Leary and Johnny Erhard, with Grand Knight Nowell as Honorary Chairman. Prizes have been solicited from among the membership and some lucky people will go away with a Turkey.

Memorial Mass Held
Armistice Day morning at 8:00 o'clock, at the Immaculate Conception Church, the Knights of Columbus attended the annual Memorial Mass for deceased members of the Council. The celebrant was Rev. Stephen Burke, Council Chaplain; and the mass servers were Council Officers Francis Fisher and Vincent Erhard. A fine assembly attended to honor the memory of the departed brothers of the Council, which was particularly pleasing to Father Burke who had been emphasizing the Council's duty in such services.

Council Pays Respects
On Armistice Day-evening the Council visited Lane's Funeral Home in a body to pay their respects to the Dad of member Eddie Quill who had passed away earlier in the week. Ed is one of the most popular members of the Council who almost never misses a meeting.

Note: Again a reminder not to forget the Turkey-Bridge and Whist Party at Noonan School!

METCALF UNION DANCE TONIGHT

Metcalfe Union, the high school group of the Unitarian Church, will hold an evening of movies, games and dancing this evening in Metcalfe Hall for members of the group and their friends.

The program will begin at 7 o'clock with an hour long comedy, followed by refreshments, games and a record hop. The party is to be very informal.

Sunday evening an important meeting of Metcalfe Union members will be held at the church at 7 o'clock to start plans for a gala Christmas dance to be held at Metcalfe Hall on December 19.

Plans also are to be discussed for a swimming party after the first of the year and a program to raise funds for Star Island delegates also will be brought up.

Sunday, Metcalfe Union members will attend church with their parents for the Family Sunday observance instead of meeting for their regular 10 o'clock Bible class.

PARKHURST SCHOOL OPEN HOUSE

Parkhurst School held open house on Tuesday evening, November 10, 1953. The many parents present visited classrooms informally to view the work of their children and to listen to the teachers explain curriculum requirements and grade objectives. These discussion periods were very informative and consequently most successful.

Parents enjoyed meeting the new superintendent of schools, Dr. Harry V. Gilson, who was present. They also enjoyed seeing the blueprints of the proposed Parkhurst addition.

Coffee and assorted cookies were served by the social chairman, Mrs. Scott Parrott, and her committee, Mrs. Bertram Dube, Mrs. Harold Lewis, Mrs. John Lennon and Mrs. Thomas Gouzoule.

UNITARIAN PLAYERS PRESENT "THE MALE ANIMAL"

A fine cast brought "The Male Animal" to the stage of the Unitarian Church last Friday and Saturday nights. James Thurber and Elliott Nugent have stated the case for freedom of speech in this sparkling piece more tellingly than more weighty words could, for it is the story of how the defense of this principle threatened one man with the loss of his job and his wife.

The play, directed by John R. Woodruff, built up momentum steadily until the very impressive third act climax and the main characters became a well-knit unit showing each other off to good advantage.

As Tommy Turner, the young English professor who finds that standing firm for his beliefs is more important than his security, Bradford Darling gave a sensitive performance which brought out the basic seriousness of the man, his wit and intelligent humor and his bewilderment at that uncertain quantity, his wife. Bettina Harrison was very much at ease in the role of pretty, practical Ellen Turner, who tended to patronize her absent-minded husband and then woke up to find that he was a hero in his own quiet but articulate way. Completing this triangle was Joe Ferguson, the former football star, who thought he was returning to his alma mater for a carefree week and suddenly found himself entangled in the Turners' marital affairs. Thornton Stearns made Joe a very appealing figure, obtuse at times, gregarious and unvarying as a puppy dog, but always thoroughly likable. As Ed Keller, the college trustee who thought he could dictate his own version of "Americanism", Harry Wood gave a funny but sometimes frightening picture of a man insulated against all new ideas.

The younger generation in the play did not lack for emotional crises. William Symmes interpreted with a fine troubled earnestness the role of Michael Barnes, the young student whose fiery editorial started the trouble at Midwestern. Diana Mansfield added just the right touch of teenage superiority as Ellen's kid sister, and Robert McMaster played the current football hero in relaxed fashion.

Robert Eddy was convincing as an older faculty member hesitating between caution and courage. As Cleota, the Turners' maid, Dorothy Abbott was on hand to add to the gaiety and block the communications system. Others very much involved with life at Midwestern were Muriel Danton as Mrs. Damon, Charlotte Burr as Myrtle Keller, and Madeleine Blair as Nutsy Miller.

The comfortable living room with its champagne walls and long windows was a bright and appropriate setting.

NEEDLEWORK GUILD THANKS ITS MEMBERS

The Winchester Branch of the Needlework Guild of America wishes to thank its members sincerely for giving so generously to its "Ingathering" November 12th at the Second Congregational Church. It takes time to make this personal gift but it is an opportunity, too, and a blessing to the giver and receiver. To give one's best to those who need it most, is a satisfaction.

Spread on tables around the hall were the 723 articles in their fresh newness. They ran the gamut from blankets to mittens; from boys' sweaters to babies' sacks and from dungarees to diapers.

It seemed most suitable to have the annual meeting of the Branch surrounded with the gifts which are its purpose. The hall was filled to capacity with the largest attendance in many years. More than seventy enthusiastic members conducted their business with interest. Mrs. Ellsworth Snow, nominating committee chairman, reported, Mrs. Wayne Thompson retired from the presidency and Mrs. Gilbert Tapley became the new president.

It was especially interesting to meet the Reverend John Skeirik, the new minister of the Second Congregational Church and to hear him speak with real conviction on the Holiness of Charity.

There, to receive and later to distribute the gifts from the "Ingathering" to those who need them, were Mrs. Doris Wilkand, R. N., and Miss Phyllis Tucker, R. N., from the Winchester District Nursing Association; Mrs. Mary J. Lyng and Miss Nellie Sullivan of the Winchester Welfare Department; Mrs. Alice V. Murray, R. N., the Public Health nurse; Miss Nathalie Jewett of the Red Cross; Mrs. Maude Wolloff for the Home for the Aged; and the representatives of the various churches.

A delicious tea was served by Mrs. Rony Snyder and her committee.

The officers for 1953-54 are: President—Mrs. Gilbert Tapley Vice President—Mrs. Rony Snyder Secretary—Mrs. Ben R. Schneider Treasurer—Mrs. Edward Winn

WINCHESTER'S STARTING LINEUP THANKSGIVING

*Cusack will not play, due to a broken leg sustained in the Wakefield game. Either "Denny" Doucette or Jasper Asaro will start in his place.

WINCHESTER WRECKS WAKEFIELD'S HOPES

JIM CUSACK BREAKS LEG IN GREAT 28-13 VICTORY

Completely undisturbed by constant reports of Wakefield's invincibility, of Wakefield's mighty line, of Wakefield's elusiveness, of Wakefield's supreme confidence, Henny Knowlton's team, moving with the power and precision of a well-oiled machine, crushed Wakefield with a display of power and determination against which the boys from Wakefield were all but helpless. The final score of 28 to 13 was not a true index of the relative ability of the two teams. Even the highly partisan crowd of hopeful Wakefield fans were willing to concede that their favorites were lucky to score at all.

This was no victory of individual stars, although Joe Bellino, Mike Murphy, Bob Haggerty, and Dave Pratt played stellar roles in touch-down drives. This was a team victory from start to finish.

Facing what was reputed to be the best line and the two best defensive ends in high school ranks hereabouts, Dave Pratt, Winchester's quarterback, calmly called for cross bucks through the tackle and guard positions and for pitchouts to Bellino and Murphy for a grand total of 228 yards advance from scrimmage.

On each of sixteen ground plays through Wakefield's line or around the ends, Bellino, Murphy, Haggerty, and Pratt racked up five yards or better, the longest drive being Bob Haggerty's once through left tackle on a cross buck for 45 yards. In contrast, Wakefield's highly scouted seatbacks were able to pick up a total of only 73 yards.

As far as Winchester fans are concerned, they can throw away all Class B ratings. Winchester will not be awarded the Class B championship this fall, but those who saw the game last Saturday at Wakefield, whether they were Wakefield or Winchester supporters, came away aware of the fact that they had seen the best football team in Class B on that day.

Perhaps one little incident among many might be cited as a clue to the character of Winchester's play from the beginning of the game. On the very first play Mike Murphy was forced to retire to the sidelines for treatment of a bloody cut in the face, and at once there were some who were predicting "curtains" for Winchester.

On the third play after that, the same Mr. Murphy, who had returned to the game unnoticed by anyone, broke into the Wakefield backfield and stopped left halfback Jeffrey in his tracks with a jolting tackle, which prompted the 145-pound seat-back to remain prone on the ground while he tried to remember what day of the week it was.

On both offense and defense, Mike was a bearcat, ploughing roughshod through the Wakefield line for consistent gains and racing up and down behind his own line on defense, snarling at his mates to do their stuff, with the result that the Winchester line gave the crowd the finest sample of rugged play seen this season.

Even the loss of Jim Cusack, veteran star guard from the line near the close of the first half didn't discourage his mates. As a matter of fact, it may have added to their determination to "win this one for Jim." Denny Doucette, who replaced Jim at guard and who had had the misfortune to suffer a broken front tooth in scrimmage two days before, did a fine job filling Jim's shoes for the remainder of the game.

It is not the purpose of the writer to suggest that Wakefield fielded a weak or a poorly coached team last Saturday. Any team which is scored upon only once in six games can't be laughed off.

Wakefield fans had every reason to be proud of their team and to anticipate another victory as the two teams lined up for the kick-off. Wakefield had scored 137 points in six games against only 65 by their opponents. Winchester in seven games had totaled 157 points against 77 by opponents. Wakefield had beaten Stoneham by three touchdowns, while Winchester had beaten the same team by only two. Wakefield trounced Melrose 34 to 0, while Winchester had squeezed by Melrose with a 20 to 13 score.

Most of Wakefield's first team had journeyed to Winchester on Monday to watch Winchester beat Belmont 28 to 13, but because our second half most of the second half, the boys from Wakefield may well have carried away a false idea of Winchester's power. They may have been over-confident last Saturday — and who could blame them? It just wasn't Wakefield's day for football. They couldn't have realized what kind of football team they were facing when the whistle blew for the first kick-off, but the game wasn't many minutes old before they were aware of the fact that they had been tossed into a cage of wildcats.

In Ralph Tropeano, 143-pound right halfback, Wakefield showed a clever and shifty open-field runner, but he was able to flash on only one occasion, so successfully was he bottled by Winchester's charging ends and tackles. On his one successful dash of 28 yards into the clear his scoring plans were rudely upset by a fine saving tackle by Dave Pratt.

Winchester wasted little time in the first quarter. After forcing Wakefield to punt twice, the Indians showed their offensive power in a 56-yard drive from their own 46-yard line to score on a pretty pitchout to Bellino from the one-yard line. This scoring play had been set up by a 36-yard pass to Bellino, who caught the ball over his shoulder and carried off two defenders to the one-yard line.

Wakefield's first score came in the second quarter when, after Tropeano's 23-yard end sweep, interference by Winchester was called on a pass into the end zone, giving Wakefield a first down on the 20 yard line. Bob Bisacre scored through the line on second down. Wakefield's final score came as the result of rather sketchy pass defense on the part of Winchester's substitute backs in the final quarter.

Dave Rotundi, substitute fullback for Winchester, kicked four consecutive goals after touchdowns. And that was on top of kicking four straight against Belmont on the previous Monday! Eight straight isn't bad! Bill Ross piloted the seconds during much of the final quarter and, while Wakefield was able to score on them, the seconds played as if they meant business.

A great deal of credit should be given to the officials of the game: James Jordan, Roco Lasala, James McGuinness, and Joseph Duffy, all of whom did a fine job in keeping the game in control from start to finish, in spite of the intense feeling which the game had inspired and in spite of the hard-hitting tactics used by both teams. The game was clearly played, although seventeen penalties were handed out for various offenses, with Winchester receiving the lion's share of twelve. Of the seventeen penalties, only two were for unnecessary roughness.

During the game Winchester used thirty-four players as against Wakefield's twenty-one. And once more, let it be remembered that this was a team victory and a magnificent one, reflecting great credit on players and coaches alike. Which brings us down to the last game of the season, the annual Thanksgiving Day game with Woburn. It will be our last chance to watch a team that started slow but that has improved rapidly and tremendously from game to game until they can hold up their heads with any team which has represented Winchester for many years.

Wakefield won the toss and chose to receive.

Riordan kicked off to Tropeano on the Wakefield 17. Tropeano made a nice runback to the Wakefield 37. Jeffrey made good yardage on first down at right end, but a back-in-motion penalty put the ball back on Wakefield 32 yard line. On second down, Jeffrey made five yards at right end. Tropeano made only one at right tackle, and on third down Jeffrey was stopped by a jolting tackle by Murphy for a loss of a yard. On fourth down Montgomery punted to Bellino on the Winchester 27, where he was stopped with no run-back.

Murphy made a yard at left guard and Bellino carried 14 yards for a first down on the 42. Cusack recovered a Winchester fumble on the next play. A back-in-motion nullified a short gain by Bellino on second down, but Joe picked up five yards on a cross buck, and on third down made two more at right end. On 4th down Bellino punted, a beautiful kick that rolled out of bounds on the Wakefield five yard line.

On two rushes Wakefield picked up only three yards, and Montgomery got away a quick kick on third down that went over Bellino's head and rolled dead on the Winchester 44.

Bellino and Murphy combined again in two plays through the line for a first down on the Wakefield 34 yard line.

cross buck. A back-in-motion penalty on the next play cost five yards. Then Pratt, taking advantage of Wakefield's packed defense, threw a long pass to Bellino, who was finally bowled over on the Wakefield one yard line.

Pratt and Murphy tried in vain to carry through the center of the line on two plays. Then on a pitchout Bellino skirted right end for the score. Rotundi kicked the point after. Score: Winchester 7; Wakefield 0.

Rotundi kicked off to the Wakefield 10 yard line, to Bisacre who carried the ball back to the Wakefield 39 by some brilliant open-field running. A penalty on Winchester for unnecessary roughness on the play gave Wakefield fifteen more yards and a first down on the Winchester 48.

On first down Tropeano skirted left end for 28 yards, being stopped by a fine tackle by Pratt, on the 20 yard line.

On the next play Tropeano carried again for 9 yards to the eleven.

Second Quarter
Jeffrey carried to the 6 yard line for a first down and then lost 3 yards on a line buck. Tropeano got back two through the line. On third down Montgomery passed into the end zone where a Winchester defense man was charged with interference, although he played the ball and not the man. This penalty gave Wakefield the ball on the one yard line for a first down. On two line plays Bisacre scored. Bisacre missed the try for point after and the score was Winchester 7; Wakefield 6.

Haliday kicked off to Bellino, who was nailed on the Winchester 19 yard line, and a clipping penalty on Winchester on the play put the ball back on the 4 yard line first down. Pratt hit the center of the line for 2 yards, then Murphy drove to the 17 for a first down.

Haggerty made five yards at left tackle. On a pitchout, Bellino was thrown for a seven yard loss. On 4th down Bellino punted to Montgomery just over midfield, but Wakefield was penalized 15 yards for roughing the kicker on the play and Winchester took the ball for a first down on the 30 yard line.

Murphy made five yards at right tackle. Haggerty was held for no gain on a line buck. Pratt's pass was intercepted by Wakefield on the Wakefield 43 yard line and Wakefield took over.

On a double reverse, Wakefield fumbled and Murphy recovered for Winchester on the Winchester 47.

In three plays through the off-tackle holes Murphy and Bellino carried to a first down on the Wakefield 37.

Pratt hulled through center for 8 yards to the 29. On second down Bellino took a pitchout from Pratt and by clever dodging and faking went the distance to score standing up, a run of 29 yards. Rotundi kicked the point after. Score: Winchester, 14; Wakefield, 6.

Rotundi kicked off to Bonomo on the Wakefield 10 and the ball was run back to the 30. Montgomery failed to find a receiver on a pass attempt. On second down he threw a long pass to Fotino deep in Winchester territory, but the big end dropped the ball while in the clear. Tropeano lost a yard on an attempt to skirt the end. On this play Jim Cusack suffered a broken leg and had to be removed from the game. Jeffery punted out of bounds on the Winchester 48.

Haggerty made one yard on a cross buck. Bellino lost 10 yards on an attempted reverse from Murphy, and the half ended with the score Winchester, 14; Wakefield, 6.

Second Half
Haliday opened the second half by kicking off to Murphy on the 30 and Mike barreled his way to the 43.

Murphy lost a yard through the line, but on second down Bellino carried around right end for 25 yards to the Wakefield 33.

Haggerty hit off tackle for a first down on the 23.

Two short gains were nullified by a five yard penalty for delaying the game by substitution and Pratt's pass on third down was intercepted by Wakefield on their 19 yard line.

On the following play O'Brien recovered a Wakefield fumble on the 14 yard line.

After making no yardage on three line bucks, Pratt missed his target on a pass attempt on fourth down and Wakefield took over on their 16 yard line.

Mantini stopped Montgomery behind the line of scrimmage, O'Donnell made two yards at left guard. Tropeano made five at left tackle. On fourth down on an attempt to punt, the ball was passed far over Montgomery's head and was barely recovered by him on his own 1 yard line.

On first down Murphy broke through center to score.

Rotundi kicked the point after, making the score Winchester, 21; Wakefield, 6.

Rotundi kicked off to Sylvester, who brought the ball from his own 15 to the 30. On first down Montgomery passed 33 yards to Fotino on the Winchester 37. On the next play Bellino made a beautiful interception of Montgomery's pass, but a penalty on Winchester after the interception placed the ball on the Winchester 18 in Winchester's possession.

Murphy recovered Bellino's fumble on first down on the 15. Murphy made no gain at the center of the line. Bellino carried without gain, but a penalty of 15 yards against Wakefield for unnecessary roughness gave Winchester first down on the 32.

In two plays Bellino and Murphy carried to the 45 for another first down.

Final Quarter
Haggerty made 4 yards through right tackle. Bellino lost three yards on an attempt to sweep right end. Haggerty drove through to the 8 yard line. On 4th down Pratt passed into the end zone to Dattilo, who caught a batted ball and scored the touchdown. Rotundi kicked his fourth consecutive goal of the game. Score: Winchester, 28; Wakefield 6.

With the Seconds in the game, Rotundi kicked off to Bisacre on the 20. The whistle hadn't blown and the kick was made over, the ball rolling to the Wakefield 15.

On two line bucks and one pass attempt Wakefield made no yardage against the spirited Seconds and punted on fourth down to the Wakefield 46.

On three consecutive line plays McLaughlin totaled only 2 yards and Jacobellis punted on 4th down to Montgomery. A Winchester off-side on the play gave Jacobellis another chance to punt to the Wakefield 20, where the ball was fumbled and recovered by Nelson on the 25. McLaughlin fumbled on first down and Wakefield recovered on the 21.

Wakefield was unable to advance the ball on three downs and punted on 4th down to Jacobellis, who brought the ball to the Wakefield 34.

Rimbach lost 8 yards on a pitchout. Ross passed to Gove over the line for 12 yards. J. Murphy made 2 in the line. On a double-reverse Winchester lost 10 yards and the ball.

Winchester was penalized 15 yards for holding on the next play and Wakefield had a first down on the Winchester 47. On a weird pass play combined with a fumbled lateral Wakefield lost a yard. On 4th down Montgomery passed 23 yards to O'Donnell on the 20.

On second down another pass was completed on the 4 yard line to a man completely uncovered. On a line buck Denny scored for Wakefield and Bisacre kicked the point after. Score 28-13.

Haliday kicked off to the Winchester 49 and Winchester was twice penalized for delaying the game and for holding, giving Wakefield the ball on the Wakefield 45 as the game ended.

We made a couple of errors in our Grade Crossing editorial last week, and though our corrections can come only on the actual referendum voting day we still want to make them. "Vin" Farnsworth called one of the errors to our attention. At the end of our remarks we stated "Nothing like a majority of the town's electorate has voted on the overhead tracks proposal." That is a misstatement, and it is not what we intended to say. What we meant was that a majority of the electorate as yet hasn't voted for the overhead tracks. Mr. Farnsworth contends, and he is "so right," that the total of those favoring and opposing the overhead tracks at the time of the '52 referendum constituted a majority of the electorate. At the time of writing this no one had called in to report that we said "east side" in respect of the referendum. In fact, we said "west side," where the temporary tracks will go. We offer our apologies for both mistakes. Not an excuse, but in partial extenuation, may we say that last week was quite a week at the Star office. There were times when we really wondered whether we would make the grade, and we do not mean a railroad grade, either!

Doubtless there is much to be said on both sides of the question of the removal of soil for sale or other purpose from land not in the public use. There have been, probably been abuses of the public interest in such removal and there may be a great need for clarifying and, within reason, restricting the statute governing such removal in Winchester. It was well, we think, that the much more stringent restrictions incorporated in the article that came up at Monday's special town meeting were referred to a committee for study and report with recommendations. And while the committee is at it they should carefully consider the advisability of having the Board of Appeal actually issue permits for soil removal in the future. The Board of Appeal has been and it seems to us, should be a judicial body reviewing applications for relief from rulings believed too arbitrary by those refused permission to do this or that by duly constituted town officials. A review board, if you please, to determine whether justice to the community and the individual petitioner has been done. To have the Appeal Board actually issue permits for soil removal would seem to us to leave the petitioner with no recourse outside court action should the Board decide not to grant his original request. The committee studying the proposed new law ought to be quite sure this is going to work out well.

Winchester followers of the high school football team were impressed with the way the Wakefield police handled the serious accident which befell Jim Cusack, guard on the local team, who had the misfortune to break his leg toward the end of the second quarter of play in the Wakefield game Saturday. The Wakefield police ambulance was ready at the field for just such an emergency and the injured Winchester player was removed in it to the Winchester Hospital with the least possible delay, which is important in such injuries as he sustained. Wakefield keeps its ambulance at the football field each Saturday that a football game is played there, to be ready in case there is injury to the players or illness or accident in the stands. With two-way radio the ambulance is equally available for any other use for which it may be needed, even though it is in readiness at the football field. It is simply taken there to stand instead of being left in the garage. Last Saturday its availability meant much to Jim Cusack, his parents and every Winchester follower of the team. It must have given the Wakefield people a lift, too, to know that a boy who was an athletic guest of the town was being given very necessary emergency service with the least possible delay. Many felt the Wakefield idea of the ambulance in readiness at the field is a good idea. The Star agrees and commends the idea to the Selectmen for consideration.

HOW MANY DEATHS?

Editor of the Star:
The first big announcement by the promoters of our Elevated Railroad appearing in all the Boston and local papers and repeatedly circulated was: "100 Deaths in a 100 Years," featured below a picture of our Railroad Crossing in the Square.

The most recent frightening version of the Crossing danger appeared in last week's Star signed by "Chairman of the Committee for Grade Crossing Elimination and Traffic By-Pass" and reads: "At Least 43 Deaths As Result Of Accidents The Past 10 Years." "Railroad Tracks"—Where? Between Here and Boston or Here and New York? The Question Concerns The Railroad Crossing in Winchester Center Only. "43 Deaths Including 2 Fatalities"—fortunate that the remaining 41 deaths were imaginary.

When I stated during our previous Referendum that 3 deaths in 56 years was the accurate number quoted from a letter from the general counsel for the Boston & Maine Railroad, one of our own residents. With thanks to Mr. Fletcher for his kind permission, I submit herewith the entire letter for your information:

Lorence M. Woodside

Dear Mrs. Woodside:

You have requested information with reference to what the Railroad's records show as to accidents occurring on the Church and Main street crossings in the center of Winchester. This information, as drawn from the records of the Railroad is as follows:

Our records as to death cases go back to 1895. During this time there have been three fatal accidents on the crossing, all caused by collisions between trains and high-way vehicles. The dates of these three are: October 26, 1904; October 18, 1913, and January 21, 1944. In addition, on November 23, 1949, a Miss Elizabeth O'Malley was struck by a train and killed near the crossing when she was walking around the fence in the course of an attempt to cross from the out-bound to the in-bound platform. We do not consider that this should be classed as a crossing accident.

Commencing in 1923, we have records of accidents resulting in serious injury or damage to property. During the period to 1937 there were no such found in our records.

Commencing January 1, 1937, we have detailed records of all types of mishaps. From that date to the present, there have been nine instances of injuries due to pedestrians slipping or stumbling and falling while walking across the tracks at the crossing, and two instances of pedestrians being struck by the gates coming down. In the incident of January 21, 1944 one person was killed and seriously injured. On November 3, 1951 there was an automobile collision on the crossing involving five persons, but so far as our records show, there was no train involved. In addition, on November 15, 1945, a train struck a stalled automobile on the crossing doing considerable damage but not resulting in any personal injury.

In addition to the above, there have been several instances of automobiles damaging the crossing gates or signs, and a few instances of malicious mischief by boys.

The above is the complete story so far as it can be ascertained from the Railroad's records.

Very truly yours,
R. J. Fletcher
General Counsel

ALTERNATIVES

Editor of the Star:
One of the best letters in the Star for November Sixth accented the need for alternative plans for the Grade-Crossing had been given sufficient study. In some cases, good ideas have been "brushed aside" with the remark, "Ramps too steep".

From 1945, the writer has given more hours, probably to this problem, than the average citizen has. After all, most of our Town Officials do not claim to be engineers and have no special qualifications enabling them to decide this problem for us. The experts do not agree, even.

There are good alternative plans. Mr. Kellaway gave generously of time and money. Many of us feel he had the makings of the best solution in his plan. His ideas were so sound that the B. & M. Engineering Department based their plan on the Kellaway idea of an Over-Pass (Vehicular) just north of the Center. (See Star for January 10, 1947).

At about that same time the writer offered a plan based on the same idea but modified to meet changed property conditions over the past twenty years. The Mott Plan was an attempt to correlate several needs that were confronting us at the same time, namely, The Grade-Crossing Elimination, The New High School, a centralized school area serving Junior and Senior High Schools by closing a section of South Main street, a Centralized Bus Transfer Point and greatly increased efficiency for the Fire Department. The Mott Plan gave a quick get-away to all parts of town. This can still be done if the new By-Pass is planned to run from the eastern end of old Town Hall to a new traffic circle west of the Winchester Theatre.

The above is a variation of the scale model you may have seen in store windows in past years. This modified Kellaway plan leaves the tracks alone. Shuts them off to lessen the noise and dust. Prevents people and pets from wandering onto the Railroad Right-of-Way, diverts traffic through traffic around Center, permits shoppers to pass under the tracks at several handy spots and increases the safety of shoppers wishing to cross and recross Main street East to West or back. Traffic (local only) would flow one way—towards the Bridge at File's.

This Mott plan saves the $32,000 Skilling's Estate for the future good of our Town and prevents it from being given away to a contractor. Percival Mott

LET'S LOOK AT THE RECORD

Editor of the Star:
In response to inquiries about the basis for the statement "forty-three known deaths from accidents on the tracks" we are appending a list of those accidents.

Further investigation has increased the number to forty-seven. This list has been compiled from police records, old copies of the Star and other sources which show that a majority of the accidents occurred in the near vicinity of the center. Probably most of them involved no legal liability on the part of the railroad but they are none-the-less fatalities resulting from accidents on the tracks.

The list does not include injuries or narrow escapes of which there have been many.

A MATTER OF RECORD!

Editor of the Star:
In your editorial of last Friday, you say: "As a matter of fact at the 1952 meeting Mr. Lyman stated that the cost for land damages, if the temporary tracks went to the east of the present road-bed, would be $63,365.00."

The only figures then reported by me to the town were the assessed valuations of the property expected to be taken under each of the alternative routes for the temporary tracks. I did not intend to suggest that those figures were the cost for land damages and I feel sure that if any other member of the Selectmen or the Planning Board (or the Town Council for that matter) had thought that this distinction was not being clearly stated he would have corrected me at the meeting.

It is a matter of common knowledge that there is no telling what the cost of land damages is going to be in any particular case unless an agreement has been reached or until a jury has made its award in a court proceeding.

Assessed valuations were stated for the purpose of bringing all available information before the meeting, but I did not speculate upon what the eventual amount of damages might be.

We have, in fact, a record of what the Selectmen told the town about the grade crossing project in 1952 in the form of the Special Report of the Selectmen, written by me, signed by all members of that Board, printed on the Star's press, and delivered to every home with the warrant for the 1952 referendum which followed the town meeting in question.

In that report (which is reprinted beginning at page 305 of the 1952 Town Reports) there are appended the following statements: "The only figures which are obtainable at this time, and they do not bear any controlling relation to the extent of damages, are the assessed valuations of the property which would be taken under each of the alternative methods of temporarily relocating the tracks. The assessed value of the property which would be taken were the tracks to be temporarily relocated on the west side of the Center is $62,367. The assessed value of the property which would be taken were the tracks to be temporarily relocated entirely to the east of the present line, so that it would be necessary to demolish the buildings on the west side of Thompson street, would be $172,850."

That 1952 report went on to say: "Commissioner Callahan is expected to announce his decision shortly with regard to temporary relocation of the tracks. It may then be possible for the Board of Selectmen to arrive at a tentative agreement with the Commonwealth limiting to some definite figure the extent of Winchester's liability to reimburse the State for damages. As was pointed out at the Town Meeting, it will then in any event be necessary for the Selectmen to present such a proposed agreement to another Town Meeting for approval and appropriation of whatever funds are needed."

I do not see how the entire matter of cost to the town could have been more fairly stated or the danger of confusing "damages" with "assessed valuations" more carefully warned against.

ELEVATED TRACKS OLDEST PLAN

Editor of the Star:
Referring to an article in the Star of November 13 under the heading, "Arguments Answered," by the former chairman of the Planning Board, he states that the opponents "have no different or better plan to offer. A plan which has included the saving clause, 'in my opinion.' Our officials have so long been used to considering their own desires and opinions that it never occurs to them they might do well to consider the judgment and wishes of the people."

Referring to the elevated railroad, he further states, "this improvement is not for Winchester alone—it is for the benefit of all the travelling public." Omitting the word "alone," the statement coincides with what we have suspected all along. He further says, "Revival of 'Old Plans' accomplish nothing." Is not the elevated railroad plan, dated 1904, the oldest of all the plans recorded by our Selectmen? Has it not twice been rejected by the town?

Being aware of the number of people who approve the modified Kellaway Plan, the former chairman devotes approximately half a column to disparaging remarks about this plan, stating that "the taking of property would include the whole or part of some 15 buildings—and about half of the front lawn of the Congregational Church."

No one knows better than the former chairman that these features were abandoned long ago and we are discussing the "modified plan." The overpass would cover exactly the same location as the underpass proposed by the proponents of the elevated railroad. It would be an overpass in the exact same location over the tracks as they are to eliminate danger and delay. Neither plan would take any part of the Congregational Church lawn—that is merely a "red herring" scare statement. The chairman further refers to our townsman, "Commissioner Volpe, who recommends the plan." It was not always "thus." Until initiated into our political society, he was told that Commissioner Volpe, the "overhead" plan.

OUR 'LOYAL OPPOSITION'

Editor of the Star:
Friday, November twenty, Nineteen-fifty-three, is here. Partisans still shout "Our plan is best!", and fearful souls vision dire disaster. Consultants and engineers have weighed the evidence presented and have expressed opinion. The facts remain unchanged. Proportion is forgotten if sad incidents were unkind to us. That is human. But, sideways can't be poned in from the roads, no ponding up.

So why accuse the railroads? Men of generous impulse and noble nature have tried and tried to make impossible the human toll that traffic takes when opposing forces geared to high speed and tremendous power come together if courses cross. In many a town and city throughout these United States such hazards still exist. One such is ours. Formed by weight of ice onward to the sea, the lowest point offered an easy avenue when our own first railroad was laid. We of Winchester have inherited a dangerous condition where streets and railroad cross, and traffic concentrates. Everybody knows how expensive it is time, and money, and how hard to know how much so in other ways. Call it a slow growth disease, not necessarily permanent. It is imperative that we be found to not only relieve, but to cure this ailment, and not terribly disfigure nor kill the patient.

Our Selectmen constantly labor for public betterments. Up to now, the grade crossing has been just a sore to cure, and not a problem to solve. The "easiest way out" now seems to them the best way out. A plan to elevate the railroad tracks, and the indecision, has been put forward with some force, and that is for a certainty or other. It is based on the assumption that no other possibility offers by which to free the Centre from the painful blight of train and traffic conflict, — that there's NO OTHER WAY.

However, it is my understanding that the Town's consultant, in offering three solutions, placed in first order an enlarged traffic route beginning at Swanton street. Here the height of land is ideal for overpassing the railway, and the plan shows herself the Town's best friend. It seems logical, and I believe it is THE BETTER WAY. The Opposition at the several meetings of the Selectmen for discussion of the Elevated plan, and the letters of protest to the Winchester Star, has maintained that no concerted effort has been made except to push the Selectmen's own favorite idea of beginning with zero at the Medford line and raising the roadbed to a level of 19 feet at the Centre, with underpasses there and at Wedgemere for vehicular traffic. This would be of solid, granite-faced construction. In many instances no hardship would be caused, but this town of ours is unique, in that a structure such as this would literally cut the place in two. The prospect speaks for itself. On the one hand a chance to preserve and protect what we have by proper traffic routes, and on the other hand a costly nightmare dividing East from West, erected at tremendous cost. Disaster and disruption for all, loss and calamity for all, and deserving tradesmen; unpeppable distress for sick and well for more than two years; and THEN, to continue indefinitely, the ever-increasing volume of cars and trucks cutting through the center of town in competition with our own would-be shoppers.

THE VOTING is to-day; but at any cost before you do vote visit the Centre and compare the heights of Railroad tracks, the level of running Passenger and Freight Trains, — with everything around: Projected Roadbed, 19 feet.

Passenger and Freight Trains, 10 to 12 feet.
Winchester Drug Store building, 17 feet.
White Block (MacCormack's Drug), 30 feet.
Lyceum Building (P. T. Foley), 30 feet.

The situation explains itself. We know the work done would be as fine as could be, and every effort made to safeguard with rails and ramps the safety and comfort of all concerned. Level would be lowered to fit into the Woburn picture. Find someone to explain the WHY of everything if you can! But, don't vote until you know what you are voting for.

FACTS DISTORTED

Editor of the Star:
Several public hearings devoted to the Grade Crossing Elimination Project, our local and state officials clearly exposed all of the facts involved, and certainly made no attempt to gloss over the unfortunate facts which are part of any large public improvement program. In the past weeks, these facts have been so distorted by opponents to the plan that it seems that a deliberate attempt is being made to mislead the voters.

A statement has been printed that temporary tracks will pass through the back yards of Spruce street residents. The fact is that the tracks used will be those now part of the existing crossings on the west of the right of way, and the trains will be farther from Spruce street than they are right now.

It has been printed that Swanton street residents will look up at twelve to twenty foot walls rising in front of their homes. The fact is that they will be above and look out over the walls,—the walls are those that will support the sides of an underpass and they will extend down, not up.

No attempt to minimize the inconvenience, both temporary and permanent, to the residents of Swanton-Spruce street area has been or should be made. They will bear the brunt of the damage to property, but there is no reason to believe that their loss will not be suitably compensated. Certainly a modern underpass will provide a cleaner, better looking, and safer area than that now provided by the structure that bridges the tracks.

An attempt has been made to create the idea that this project will have an adverse effect on our tax rate. Any such idea is without foundation in fact. Winchester's total contribution to the project will be $190,000, and that there will be no further contribution is made part of Winchester's contract with the state. The $190,000 is presently available and is part of savings made available by the efficient and closely guarded expenditure of Winchester's tax dollar. It has been saved over the past years and labored for by capital investment and probably never again will $190,000 buy so much for the residents of Winchester.

The state's portion of the cost comes from sources set aside during 1952 for Grade Crossing Elimination. Certainly, I do not want its headache cured, the money will be spent on a like project in some other community that has reasonable regard for the safety and convenience of its residents and visitors.

An attempt has been made to cloud the issue by stating that no alternative plan is being offered for the voters' consideration. A review of the town's reports or a visit to the office of the State's Department of Public Works will prove that every conceivable plan has been explored again and again, and that the present plan is the only feasible answer to the problem.—It is the result of over thirty years of study, by different engineers and public officials. Strangely enough, despite all of the disparaging comment at this time, no one has come forth with any other solution.

An attempt has been made to scare the parents of our school population into thinking that this work would impede or eliminate necessary school construction. Having studied this whole financial pic-

Who says Private Ownership is bad?

When someone is against private ownership of property, he must be for something else. The communists make no bones about what they are for. They want to take your property away from you, and have it owned and managed by the state. In actual practice, the communists' state is an inner ruling clique—men who wax fat and grow rich on the misery and unhappiness of others.

Private ownership is part of the basic philosophy of our American way of life. An American, even though born in poverty, may strive for success and happiness to the utmost of his ability. He may own a car, a home, shares in corporations, and may even have a business of his own.

It is the incentive of owning things without political domination and control that inspires Americans to rise to heights of ingenuity and productivity that are the envy of the world. Private ownership is an important principle of our free enterprise system. Don't let anyone ever take this right away from you.

America's privately-owned banks continue to meet the increasing demands of individuals, businesses and communities for more and better banking services. Whenever you have a money problem, stop in at our bank and talk it over.

COMMISSIONER SPOKE AT TOWN HALL
Patrick Tompkins, State Commissioner of Public Welfare, was guest speaker Wednesday at the luncheon meeting of the Winchester Social Agencies Group in the General Committee Room at the Town Hall. Don S. Greer, chairman of the Board of Selectmen, was also present and spoke.

Mr. Tompkins, introduced by Francis McPeck, Boy Scout Executive, spoke on "Public Welfare" and gave a most interesting address, emphasizing the fact that real welfare is much more than handing money to a needy family. Real welfare work should go much further than financial aid and should take into account the betterment of the family and social unit as well as the individual.

GOING TO BE SNOW!

Chief of Police Charles J. Harold watched a load of Thanksgiving pumpkins going by yesterday, and through a process of logical deduction, he saw in them a warning to motorists.

"When the frost is on the pumpkin," the chief said, "it means that pretty soon there's going to be snow."

November snowstorms, Chief Harold said, can be more hazardous to motorists than January blizzards, for the reason that they come unexpectedly and find many motorists unprepared both mechanically and psychologically for the problem of snow driving.

Right now is the time, Chief Harold emphasized for all wise motorists to observe the following safety rules:

1. Don't blame accidents on the weather; be prepared for bad weather.

2. When snow comes, get the "feel" of the road when starting out.

3. Keep the windshield clear of fog and frost, and be sure headlights, windshield wiper blades, and defrosters are working.

4. On snow and ice, use tire chains. They cut stopping distance in half, and give 4 to 7 times greater traction.

5. When you have to stop, don't jam on the brakes. "Pump" your brakes to avoid skids.

6. Follow other cars at a safe distance. Give yourself room in which to stop.

Asked if tire chains are necessary if a car has "winterized" tires, Chief Harold said that the report of the National Safety Council's Committee on Winter Driving Hazards has found that snow tires with special treads cannot approach tire chains for safety.

Even less reliable, Chief Harold added, are so called "inertia" type anti-skid devices.

These, he explained, are mysterious pipe-like gadgets which are being widely sold and installed under the rear frame or luggage trunk of automobiles, on the claim that they prevent winter skids.

National Safety Council tests, the chief said, show these so-called "stabilizing" devices to be of no help whatever on snow or ice. He warned against being misled into trouble by a false sense of security.

LEADING ROLE FOR CONNOR

George E. Connor, 403 Main street, will play a featured role in the Tufts Arena Players' production of "See How They Run," to be presented at the Tufts Arena Theatre Friday and Saturday evenings, December 4, 5, 11, and 12.

In this rollicking English comedy set in a vicarage, Mr. Connor plays the part of a sedate bishop who finds himself innocently involved in a situation of mistaken identities. This will be his third appearance with the Tufts Community Players following roles in "Ten Nights in a Barroom" and "Season in the Sun."

He has appeared in numerous productions of the Parish Players here in Winchester.

Handling publicity for the show at Tufts is Mrs. Ganson P. Taggart of 18 Lloyd street, who has been seen in Parish Players and Unitarian Players productions here.

BURNED IN FIRE AT HOME

Mrs. Margaret Wyer was burned about the hands in a fire at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Henry J. Fernald, 11 Mt. Pleasant street, last Thursday afternoon. The fire originated in a closet and burned articles of clothing as well as putting the closet and eating out to the room at one spot.

Mrs. Wyer was attended by Dr. Richard W. Shoolby.

While the local apparatus was at the Fernald fire the firefighters were called to the Marchesi store at 32 Swanton street, where a fire was reported in the basement of the building. The men found upon arrival that the fire was in the rubbish in the rear store and it was put out with slight damage. Apparatus from Woburn covered while the local department was at the Marchesi fire.

NEW TELEPHONE DIRECTORY TO BE DELIVERED

This year's edition of the Boston and vicinity telephone directory, delivery of which begins today, marks the 75th anniversary of Boston's first telephone directory, issued in the fall of 1878.

The new directory, again bigger than ever with 1240 pages, contains around 587,500 listings. Its forerunner of four decades of a century ago had fewer than 70 listings, all on a single sheet.

The Telephone Company estimates it will take until nearly the end of the month to complete delivery of some 750,000 copies of the new book throughout the Greater Boston area. Delivery of the yellow-paged classified telephone directory will begin in early December.

SCHOOL FUND

It is hoped that the classrooms at the revamped junior high school will be ready for occupancy by senior high pupils next September and that the entire work at the building will be completed by the Christmas vacation next year.

Mr. Speers admitted that the new high school may not be large enough for long, although his committee's best judgment based on available figures, is that there will soon be a leveling off in school population. How long the new building will be adequate is any one's guess, but in the committee's judgment it will not be feasible to add to the building again.

FUNDS FOR FACTS

"You girls are doing a good job," volunteered John I. Donovan, "keep it up." Then he handed an unsolicited contribution to Mrs. William Davies, President of the League of Women Voters of Winchester.

News of this spontaneous token of approval was an inspiration to solicitors, meeting Tuesday morning, at the home of the Finance Chairman, Mrs. William E. Spaulding, to launch a one-week finance drive.

Rodney Long, Finance Chairman of the State League, provided momentum by staging a live interview with Sherman Russell. Mr. Russell's penetrating questions served better than a lecture course to bring out the facts needed by the solicitors. They pointed up ways of explaining the League's continued efforts to "promote informed and active participation of citizens in government" in the years between national elections, while maintaining a strict policy of non-partisanship as an organization.

Mrs. Long's replies were fully factual, but invited further questions if more details were desired. In explaining how dues are kept low so that anyone can enjoy membership, she also brought out that about ten hours of volunteer work are spent for every dollar from the budget.

Members of the Finance Committee are:

Mr. Theodore Atkinson
Mrs. Henry A. Delleker
Mrs. Robert A. Drake
Miss Natalie Jewett
Mrs. Rowland V. Patrick
Mrs. Philip Woodward
Mrs. Isiah Bullard
Mrs. Roger Burton
Mrs. Frank Hawkins
Mrs. Thomas Hennessey
Mrs. Edgar Hinton
Mrs. Olcott L. Hooper
Mrs. Philip H. Johnson
Mrs. Richard Johnson
Mrs. Leonard Mead
Mrs. Larry H. Pexton
Mrs. Oscar W. Surten
Mrs. Walter W. Winship

Additional solicitors include:

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Aiken
Mrs. Robert Bryant
Mrs. Isiah Bullard
Mrs. Roger Burton
Mrs. Frank Hawkins
Mrs. Thomas Hennessey
Mrs. Edgar Hinton
Mrs. Olcott L. Hooper
Mrs. Richard Johnson
Mrs. Leonard Mead
Mrs. Larry H. Pexton
Mrs. Oscar W. Surten
Mrs. Walter W. Winship

Public-spirited citizens are being asked to consider a contribution to the League of Women Voters as an investment in democracy, with dividends in the form of more responsive and responsible government.

Mr. William Spaulding, 379 Main street, is receiving non-member contributions. Contributions from members are handled by the Treasurer, Mrs. A. Allen Kimball.

MYSTIC GLEE CLUB

TO PRESENT
14th ANNUAL WINTER CONCERT

The Mystic Glee Club, under the leadership of Allen Lannom, will present its 14th Annual Winter Concert in the Winchester High School auditorium on Saturday evening, December 12.

The program, which has been carefully selected to appeal to varied musical tastes, features a closing group of beautiful and well-loved Christmas carols.

One of the highlights will be the introduction of the newly-formed Mystic Glee Club Octette. Two members of the justly popular Mystic Four, Tom Worthen and Bill Hopkins, are singing with this group which also includes George Stothoff and Ken Wright, first tenors, Jack Gilbert, second tenor, Fred Rozelle, baritone, and Len Lord and Dick Jackson, basses.

Another first for this concert will be the use of the new risers designed by Adin Bailey. Construction was under the direction of Tom Johnston, who had able assistance from Charlie Buchanan and Carroll Knowlton.

The club, having won the Grand Award at the annual contest of the New England Federation of Men's Glee Clubs last May, is determined to make its first appearance of the 1953-54 season an outstanding musical evening. John Lyman, sponsoring membership chairman, reports that season ticket sales are satisfactory but indicates that there will be seats available for this concert.

TO JOIN HUSBAND IN GERMANY

Mrs. John M. Conahay (Doris Perry), her daughter, Nancy, and son, John, Jr., left last week to drive to New York, where, with their dog, Penny, they boarded an Army transport plane at Fort Hamilton to fly to Erding in southwest Germany to join Mr. Conahay. The Conahays had been for the past four months stopping with Mrs. Conahay's mother, Mrs. Betty Alden Perry of 361 Main street, coming on east from Fort Worth, Texas, where they had been for two and a half years.

Mr. Conahay is an IBM service representative with the Air Force with the rank of master sergeant. He and his family will remain in Germany for three years, living in a government-furnished home.

Where he is stationed there are 300 American children in an American-run school, studying the same curricula in use in the schools of this country.

SOCIAL SECURITY

Survivors of the Worcester County tornado disaster may receive an estimated total of $120,000 in social security insurance payments, according to a statement made today by the Social Security office.

This total of eventual benefits will be in the form of monthly insurance payments to entitled survivors of family breadwinners, and lump sum death payments to families or administrators who paid burial expenses.

Of the 87 victims of the tornado, nearly one-half, 38, were insured under the old-age and survivors insurance provisions of the social security law. Many of those killed were women and children, as the twister struck hardest in residential sections just before most wage earners had returned home at the end of the work day. Social security insurance benefits are payable only to entitled survivors of insured workers.

There are six widows, one aged dependent parent, and ten children now getting monthly survivors insurance payments based on the social security wage records of workers killed in the disaster. Three of the widows are not yet 65 but were entitled to immediate benefit payments because they have minor children of the deceased worker in their care. These widows will continue to get monthly payments until the youngest child in the family reaches 18, or marries before that age.

Three widows of the tornado victims who are now 65 or over are getting monthly payments totaling $125.50 per month. Another widow, aged 79, is getting $40.20 monthly.

About $6,800 in lump sum death payments will have been paid when all applications for such payments have been filed by the families or administrators of the insured tornado victims.

The same protection illustrated in this community when the disaster struck among heads of families is now covering over four out of five of the mothers and children in the country in case the family breadwinner should die under any circumstances.

James F. Mawn, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. James F. Mawn of 51 Forest street, and Dave Fessenden, son of Mr. and Mrs. Laurence M. Fessenden of 1 Lakeview road, are due home soon after completing 10 weeks basic training with the Marines at Parris Island, S. C.

W.H.S. DRIVER TRAINING

Earlier this week Mr. William F. Branley, director of driver education at the high school, announced that he had received a supply of insurance certificates from the Registry of Motor Vehicles. These are available to all graduates of the driver training program upon application to Mr. Branley. The state department of insurance has stated that the possession of this certificate will entitle the holder to a 15 per cent reduction in the liability insurance rate charged against cars driven by drivers below 25 years of age. The first group of student drivers for 1953-54 took their tests last week under the supervision of Inspector Riddells, of the Woburn office of the Registry. The list of successful candidates is as follows: Pat Newhall, Margery King, Seth Weston, Harold McKinley, Nancy Handford, Judy Sullivan, Alice Walsh, Claire Hilgedick, Nancy Kelleher, Reed Harvey, Louise Orgettas, Nancy Vaughan, and Leora Peckham.

Enrollment in the high school driver training course this year is bigger than ever before. Mr. Branley and his assistant, Joseph S. Aversa, have increased the amount of time devoted to "behind the wheel" training so that more students may be accommodated. As in previous years, the dual-control car is being provided through the courtesy of Bonnell Motors.

The Navy's Officer Candidate School November 13th graduated its thirteenth class of former enlisted men and commissioned them as Ensigns in the Naval Reserve. Among the new officers are Carl M. Pihl, son of Mr. and Mrs. Marshall R. Pihl of 30 Mystic Valley Parkway, and Ronald W. Koch, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Walter of 8 Sunset road.

LEGION OPEN HOUSE

THIRD WINCHESTER MORNING

John Ely Burchard, dean of humanities and social studies at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, was the speaker for the third Winchester Morning on Thursday, November 12th, at the Music Hall.

Discussing liberal education, he said there are four major problems facing American education today. First he urged that more attention be given to the gifted child. Far too often, under our present system, the talented child is in danger of succumbing to boredom. Our educational system should make provisions for his fullest development. Next, he discussed mass education, and the tremendous problem of providing adequately for the various aims of the increasing number of students enrolled in our colleges. He mentioned the difficulty of securing qualified teachers, especially in such subjects as English and History. The third point stressed by Mr. Burchard was the overemphasis on the desire for security which is characteristic of present day American society. He cited the tendency to consider certain professions, such as science and engineering, as useful, while others, for example, literature and art, are useless. This selective choice of useful people, he believes, presents a threat to democracy. Finally, he spoke of the specialists themselves, and what we should ask of them beyond their specialties. He warned of the danger of looking to scientists for solutions of problems outside their field.

Mr. Burchard's lucid analysis of these educational problems, highlighted by apt references to literature and the arts, history and philosophy, as well as by delightful anecdotes from his own experience, provided his audience with a most stimulating and thought-provoking lecture.

This was the final program of the sixth annual series of Winchester Mornings, sponsored by the Winchester Wellesley Club for the benefit of the Wellesley College Development Fund and the Winchester Scholarship Foundation. Mrs. Peter Laban was chairman of the Mornings. She was assisted by Mrs. Richard Jordan, ticket chairman, Mrs. Arthur Rogge, social chairman, Mrs. Albert Swazey, arrangement, and also Mrs. Wayne Davis, Miss Loretta Carleton, Mrs. Lindsey Caldwell and Mrs. Thomas Halloran.

Mrs. Samuel Kirkwood was responsible for the lovely flower arrangements for the Mornings.

Ruth Munro, manager of the Silver Slipper, is reported resting comfortably after an operation at the Winchester Hospital. She expects to return in three weeks.

Artist Arthur R. Herrick of Arlington displays his watercolors which will be reproduced on place mats to be sold by the State Federation of Women's Clubs to restore trees destroyed by the tornado in the Worcester disaster area. The Fortnightly is represented in the drive by Miss Louise Bancroft of 525 Washington street and Mrs. Warren C. Whitman of 30 Prospect street, as Fortnightly members of the State Drive Committee. Shown with Mr. Herrick above are Mrs. Myron A. Holmes of Greenwood (left), director of the Federation's local 6th District; and Mrs. William M. Munroe of Melrose (right), Federation clerk.

GEORGE WASHINGTON SCHOOL

FIFTH GRADE TEA

Mrs. Herbert D. Thompson of 24 Fells road was hostess to the fifth grade mothers and teachers on Tuesday, November 17th.

The informal gathering at the tea table, where Mrs. George M. Neville and Mrs. John F. Coakley poured, was followed by a discussion of the subjects covered in fifth grade work.

Miss Leonor Rich greeted the mothers and asked that they feel free to have any phase of the curriculum clarified. Mr. Nault and Mrs. Thompson, the teachers, then explained Language and Social Studies, with special emphasis placed on the integration of all materials presented to the students. Arrangements for the tea were made by Mrs. Arthur Cann and Mrs. Herbert D. Thompson, the mothers, assisted by Mrs. Alphonse Ambiasse, Mrs. Robert L. Low, Mrs. George M. Neville, Mrs. John S. Swift, Mrs. Kenneth Cady, and Mrs. George E. Sjolholm.

This tea concluded a very successful series of Grade Teas for all the George Washington School Mothers.

In the "Did-ja-know" column, "did-ja-know" that our vice-president Mrs. Ray Harding, of 24 Hancock street, fell and broke her ankle? She is now getting around, although still "cast", on spunk and crutches. How about letting her know how much we appreciate her efforts in our organization by means of a personal message?

COMPANY-UNION BANQUET

On November 14, 1953, the Third Annual Company-Union Banquet of the Massachusetts Gear & Tool Company of Woburn and the United Steelworkers of America, CIO, Local Union 3829, was held at the Andover Country Club.

Table decorations were centerpieces of colorful seasonal flowers. A fellowship hour was followed by dinner, a brief head table program, entertainment and dancing. The following "Welcome Message" was extended jointly by John H. Lyman, President of Mass. Gear, and Robert M. Gail, President of Local 3829: "It is a pleasure once again to welcome all the employees and their guests to this Third Annual Company-Union Banquet. A special welcome to employees and guests, who are attending for the first time. We hope that everyone will have a most enjoyable evening."

Mr. Lyman acted as master of ceremonies and introduced Mr. Joseph Cavicchi, Chairman of the Board and Treasurer of Mass. Gear who spoke very briefly.

In recognition of their efforts in the company's behalf, service pins were again presented to those employees who have been with the company for ten, fifteen and twenty-five years. This year there were no employees to reach the in-between 20-year mark.

The well-known comedian, Walter Flerty, of Watertown, was introduced from the head table as an eminent atomic expert, and after his entertaining antics, music was furnished for dancing until midnight by Roland Russell and his orchestra.

many years active in the Post and Chairman of the Board of Selectmen of Maynard, who gave the welcome to the town; Department Vice Commanders Charles N. Collatos and Joseph C. Ellsworth; Governor's Councilor David B. Williams, Past Commander of Mansfield Post No. 158 of Concord; Department Executive Committee Woman Betty A. Cunningham; Past Department Commanders John H. Walsh and Edward Convery and Department Transportation Officer William J. Hopkins.

Department Vice Commander Ellsworth spoke at some length on the Rehabilitation Stamp Program which will be launched for the third year early in December. Sheets of these stamps will be sent to every Legionnaire in the Commonwealth seeking a donation to the fund, but if not able to donate, the stamps are to be used by the recipient as advertising for the Program.

Department Vice Commander Collatos told of the accomplishments of the American Legion, Program and paid great compliment to his committee especially to that fine Legionnaire from Lowell Post No. 87, Thomas F. Duffy, when he said in part, "Much of the success of the American Legion is due to the untiring efforts and diligence of Thomas F. Duffy of Lowell Post."

Commander Fred Sharkey of Belmont Post No. 165 presented a motion picture of the American Legion, Department Commander John H. Walsh, that the Reverend Doctor John P. Fitzsimmons, Minister of the Plymouth Congregational Church in Belmont, be nominated for the office of Department Chaplain. This motion was passed and will be advanced to the Department Executive Committee and thence to the Department Convention next year.

Endorsement of the American Legion is presently serving as Chaplain of Middlesex County Council.

Governor's Councilor Williams to the meeting of the Post of Cushing Hospital in Framingham. He laid emphasis on the type and quality of the buildings, the beauty of the location and its easy accessibility. He stated that no Department of the Federal Government apparently has a use for it.

Williams further called the attention of the Council to the fact that the only Soldiers' Home in New England, that is the only home for aged or indigent veterans maintained by the Federal Government, is the home at Togus, Maine. He firmly believes that with the closing of Cushing Hospital the time is ripe for the Federal Government to convert it into another Soldiers' Home. He pointed out that wars are produced by Government and therefore it is the responsibility of Government to provide proper facilities for the aged and indigent veterans of those wars.

He made a motion that the Council call upon the Federal Government to create such a Home at Cushing Hospital. The motion was seconded by Past Commander Joseph Dineen and passed. This motion will travel through the proper Legion channels and finally reach the Congress.

Following the making a fine collection was served by the host Post and Legionnaires leaving for home felt that a lot of fine work was accomplished at this meeting. The next meeting of the Council will be on Sunday, December 14, 1953, at Sullivan Post No. 358 in Cambridge.

HARRIERS CONCLUDE SEASON WITH DIVISIONAL AND LEAGUE RACES

The local cross-country runners concluded their regular season with the Pilgrim Divisional title race at Essex Agricultural School in Danvers and the MCLL Championship at Tufts College.

At Danvers the long-expected duel between Lou Farrell and Peter Schwarz took place. The race was run in a driving rainstorm but it did not dampen the leaders a bit. Schwarz jumped away to an early lead, with Lou and Dave Chapin on his heels. This order prevailed until about 4 mile from the finish, when Lou Farrell pulled into a five-yard lead. As they entered the track with about 300 yards to go Lou increased the lead to 8 yards and seemingly had victory in his grasp, but 20 yards from the finish Schwarz made a final bid that caused Lou to break his stride, which gave the victory to the Wakefield runner by 4 yards in the record-breaking time of 13:38.6.

Capt. John Becker moved up in the closing stages to take 6th. The team scoring was completed by Dick Borggaard in 14th, Bob Becker in 15th and Hank Morgan in 20th. The team total placed Wakefield in 3rd place behind Wakefield and Wellesley.

In the Junior Varsity race Bob Smith, fast in the sophomore division, took an early lead which he held until midway in the race when he took a wrong turn which added about 100 yards. This error cost him a victory, as he finished third about 75 yards behind Rizzo of Wakefield, the winner. Paul Franson, a sophomore, also finished a strong 7th. Jon McCarthy in 9th, Dick Kneeland in 12th, and Freshman Bob Dauphais, 20th, completed the scoring to give Winchester the runner-up spot behind Wakefield.

STAFF AND KEY

On Thursday, November twelfth, the Winchester Staff and Key Society held a meeting at the home of Mr. Francis J. Mardulir to make plans for their annual musical.

During the meeting a music committee was appointed by the president, Miss Virginia McPartland, to select the musical show to be produced. The music committee will be presided over by Dr. F. Milne Blanchard, Chairman, who is well known for his excellent performances with The Parish Players as well as The Staff and Key. Dr. Blanchard will be assisted by Mrs. Lucy Cushman, Winchester piano teacher and accompanist for the society and Mr. Hassler Einzig, Head of the Music Department in the Arlington public schools and the director for the past performances of Staff and Key. Mr. Einzig has also directed several Gilbert and Sullivan operettas for Wheelock College and is at present directing "Iolanthe" for the Peabody Play House, Operetta musical.

It was also decided that Staff and Key will again assemble this holiday season to sing Christmas Carols at the Winchester Hospital, the Winchester Home for the Aged and to any known "shut-ins". The Society will be happy to receive the names of any "shut-ins" who would enjoy having the group sing outside their homes. The tentative date for this event has been set for December twenty-first. If as has happened last year, the weather should be too inclement, the carolers will gather on December twenty-second instead. After the carols the members will gather together for a Christmas party at 37 Woodside Road.

After the business meeting refreshments were served and the new members were given an opportunity to become better acquainted with the organization and its members.

JUNIOR HIGH FELLOWSHIP

The second bi-monthly meeting of November held at the Unitarian Church on Sunday the 15th was highlighted by the presence of Mrs. Kenneth Toye, regional director of the Military Manpower Commission, who talked to an attentive group of boys and girls about a number of aspects related to choosing a military life as a vocation. She answered many questions presented by the group with patience and directness, among other things emphasizing the seriousness needed for high scholarship and a complete secondary school education as a prerequisite to a successful military life.

A group of junior hi-ers from the Unitarian Church in Concord were guests at the meeting, which ended with games and refreshments.

John Francis Notemeyer, 14 Nathaniel road, has been awarded a Charles Hayden Memorial Scholarship at the Wentworth Institute. He is also manager of the Wentworth Institute basketball team which opens its 17 game schedule on December 2, with Babson Institute.

LOU FARRELL CAPTURES STATE HARRIER TITLE

Lou Farrell, local Red and Black runner, raced to the State Class D championship on November 11.

This race, postponed from the previous Saturday because of the storm, proved to be the most hotly contested of the four classes. At the outset of the race Don Luisi of Rockland, Dave Chapin of Wellesley and Lou Farrell jumped into the lead. They soon put a rather wide margin between themselves and the other runners and it became evident that the race was going to be close. At the mile and one half the three were running shoulder to shoulder and this condition continued until they entered the final 600 yards. At this point Luisi took a five yard lead, with Lou and Chapin evenly positioned behind. The pace then stepped up and Chapin faltered, leaving the race to the other two. Lou began to put on the pressure and moved up stride for stride with the leader. The next 300 yards found less than a yard separating the pair. With less than 150 yards to go Lou made his bid and poured it on. Luisi watched him for 50 yards and then faded as the Red and Black speedster finished with a 10-yard lead in the second fastest time of the day, 13:29.5.

This victory was a fitting climax to two years of brilliant running for Lou, which includes 13 dual meet wins in 14 races, a Pilgrim divisional individual crown, and a record holder on three of the cross-country courses in the MCLL, as well as the record holder on the local course. As Lou is only a junior perhaps even greater laurels may be waiting next year.

Lou's victory also qualified him for the New England Cross Country Championships which was run last Saturday. He is the first local runner to be selected for this honor. He was competing against the top runners from all over New England. Over 180 runners left the mark in this race and Lou finished 18th in what proved to be the fastest race of the season.

Other local Harriers also finished well in the state meet, with Capt. John Becker running a fine race to capture the 6th spot and rapidly improving sophomore Bob Becker finishing strongly to capture 11th. Dick Borggaard was 29th and another sophomore, Bob Smith, with definite future potential, took 32nd to complete Winchester's scoring. The team total gave Winchester 3rd place behind Rockland and Woburn in the 17-school race.

FARRELL THIRD AT TUFTS

The last regularly scheduled meet of the year was the MCLL Championships held at Tufts College.

This race brought together 14 teams and at least 100 individual runners.

In the Varsity race 95 runners faced the starting gun. The first half mile saw Bob Dias of Melrose take the lead, with Burns of Beverly second and Lou Farrell, third. These positions were maintained throughout the race, with Dias winning in the excellent time of 13:03. Lou made a bid to take second from Burns but fell one stride short.

The team total gave Wakefield running his best race of the season finished a strong sixth. The team scoring found Bob Becker in 21st, Borggaard, 50th, and Morgan, 66th, gave Winchester a point total of 136. This total placed the Red and Black in 6th place, with Wakefield taking the League title by one point over Melrose.

Mr. Greer stated in this connection that the entire cost of land takings would be $42,000, adding a few dollars for odds and ends.

The meeting voted $48 from the Excess and Deficiency Account to reimburse L. P. Yale for medical expenses resulting from an injury to his daughter at the Wadleigh school May 9, 1952. It was explained at the March meeting that Mr. Yale's daughter had broken through a floor at the Wadleigh school, and that until an enabling act of Legislature was passed the town could not appropriate money to reimburse him for medical expenses incurred.

Mr. Crockett reported at some length for the Personnel Board which is still engaged in setting up an adequate wage schedule for the town. Using grafts, he explained the wage differential and told how his committee had arrived at the schedule they recommended.

He told of the difficulty encountered by the committee, of the time its members have spent in conference with town department heads in making the wage schedule, and of their good fortune in acquiring the services of an expert in the field of job evaluation whose assistance has proven invaluable.

Mr. Crockett stressed the fact that in arriving at its wage schedule the committee had considered jobs and not individuals, and that its plan is an attempt at positive job evaluation by an expert so as to establish an adequate wage scale.

He made clear that his remarks at the meeting were an interim report, and expressed the hope that before the Personnel Committee concludes its study of the problem a wage scale will have been worked out of which the town can be proud.

Mr. Crockett stated in reply to a question that the wage scale of which he spoke at Monday's meeting did not include the cost of living, but did explain how such a cost of living increase could be applied to two random wage units taken for demonstration. He also recommended that the town have a permanent committee to keep up to date wage and hour schedules for public employees.

Two motions introduced by the Personnel Committee were passed by the meeting, without opposition, both the Selectmen and Finance Committee voicing approval.

The first was that the Wage and Salary Guide as published by the Finance Committee in 1950, and as later amended, be further amended by making the changes and additions herein stated:

tendent of Schools $2496 ($48 per week) $2704 ($52 per week)
Section 2. Town Department Workers. Increase the present maximum hourly rate ranges as follows:

Article 6 was inserted in the warrant to see if the town would appropriate money from the Excess and Deficiency Account to install a new water system at Palmer Playground to improve the playing condition of the tennis court there. The sum of $2,000 was originally asked for this article, but upon the motion of the Finance Committee action upon it was indefinitely postponed. Mr. Redding told the meeting the funds would not be necessary to effect the needed water improvement at the tennis courts since the Water Department had agreed to furnish the necessary pipe for the installation with the Park Department supplying the labor.

The meeting voted to authorize the Water Department to transfer $4,000 from the personal services in the Water Department construction account to personal services in the Water Department maintenance account, and also the sum of $2,500 from the personal services in the Sewer Department construction account to personal services in the Sewer Department maintenance account.

Mr. Dwinell explained in this connection that the Board in estimating the amounts needed for personal services at the beginning of the year had overestimated the amount necessary for construction of the Water and Sewer Departments and underestimated the amount necessary for maintenance.

Mr. Greer explained the request of the Selectmen for authority to add a new police officer to the department, explaining that the increase in motor traffic makes one or two new officers necessary for traffic law enforcement.

The new officer asked for would be the beginning of a local traffic department and will devote his entire time to traffic enforcement. The Board considering also the appointment of a new sergeant to devote a part of his time solely to traffic.

The sum of $3,068 to be taken from the long suffering Excess and Deficiency Account was asked for the expense of the new officer, and after the Finance Committee dashed the green light, the sum was voted.

Under Article 9 the sum of $215 was asked to be transferred from Excess and Deficiency to make it possible for the clerk now working in the time in the Accountant's department to become a full time clerk at a salary of $2,000.

Mr. Greer and Mr. Redding argued the necessity for the full time clerk to give the accountant of routine work so that he can devote more time to the analytical work needed to assist department heads and committees such as the Personnel Committee.

The meeting voted the money and also voted to accept the provisions of the General Laws permitting town officers and employees to be paid for their vacation before they leave to enjoy it.

The supposedly controversial article dealing with more stringent regulation of the removal of soil from private property was referred to a committee of three to be appointed by the moderator to study the proposed new law and make recommendations at a subsequent town meeting.

The article dealing with rent control was indefinitely postponed upon the recommendation of the Selectmen, Mr. Greer feeling that from the Board's experience there is little call for rent control in Winchester at present. The Selectmen do feel, however, if the action on control is indefinitely postponed, it can be brought up for action at any time should there be evidence of abuse on the part of landlords.

Mr. Hewis made the actual motion for postponement, and after it had been carried the meeting was dissolved at 10:55 p. m.

Carl Pihl received last Friday the commission of Ensign of the Line at Newport Naval Station, Newport, R. I. He has been ordered to report in New York City, where he will be stationed for the next 18 months.

Carl graduated from the Holderness School, Plymouth, N. H., where he was a 9-letter athlete, distinguishing himself in football, hockey and baseball. After a post-graduate year at the Browne & Nichols School in Cambridge, he spent two years at Kenyon College, Gambier, Ohio, where he again received varsity sports letters.

Transferring to the University of Vermont as a pre-medical student, Carl's interest in skiing was intensified and he again distinguished himself there as a skier.

He received his B. A. degree from the University of Vermont last June and entered the Officers' Candidate School at Newport, R. I., last July. He was in the 13th class to be graduated from the school, and on Friday, November 13th!

M. S. P. C. A.
A very well attended meeting was held Thursday, November 12th, at the home of Miss Mary A. Fitch, 14 Sheffield West.

After the business meeting we were addressed by Mr. John C. Macfarlane who is the director of New England Livestock Conservation Inc., the office being at 180 Longwood avenue, Boston, the M. S. P. C. A. building.

He told us about the great need for improved equipment and better handling methods for livestock in our region, and said that considerable advance has been made in the Brighton stock yards.

"When livestock bruises, everybody loses," is his slogan. Many old cows are taken to the market in trucks with sharp nails sticking out, as the trucks weave the unfortunate animals are bruised by the nails even through their hides. After a long life giving milk and milk for people they are sold to make frankfurts as the meat is too inferior for other use.

Ignorance and thoughtlessness are responsible for most of the suffering of our food animals. They are kicked and beaten and prodded by rods which give electric shocks, as they are being loaded and unloaded and hurried beyond reason.

Money is constantly needed to carry on the human education so urgently needed in our rural areas. Much better methods of transportation have been devised, so that the loss by bruises will not be so great. The result of bruised animals, cows, calves, pigs and lambs, is poorer quality meat and less money for the one who has raised them.

It is important to teach the farmers particularly boys in 4H clubs, and other groups, the better methods. A very delicious tea was served by our cordial hostess.

MRS. DORIS GODDU McLEOD

Mrs. Doris Goddu McLeod of Falmouth, a native and former resident of Winchester, died suddenly Monday morning at the Falmouth Hospital, to which she was taken after suffering a heart attack earlier in the morning at her home. She had been in her usual health over the week-end and on Saturday had done some Christmas shopping, her sudden death coming as a severe shock to her family and friends.

Mrs. McLeod was the daughter of William and Florence (Schaefer) Goddu. She was born in Winchester July 27, 1892, and grew up in town in the home built for her father at the corner of Chestnut street and Goddu avenue by her grandfather, the late Louis Goddu. She attended the Winchester schools and was graduated from Winchester High School in the class of 1911, being a member of the then girls' sorority Sigma Xi.

Mrs. McLeod made her home in Winchester until 1938 and was a member of the Winchester Choral Society during its existence several years ago. She took up residence in Randall, Vt. in 1938 and lived there until 1949 when she went to Falmouth and became assistant librarian of the public library there, holding this position until her death. She was well and favorably known in Falmouth, having made many friends during her residence there.

Mrs. McLeod leaves two daughters, Mrs. Vernon Anderson of Manchester and Mrs. Burton W. Cary, Jr., of Manlius, N. Y.

Funeral services were held in Winchester Wednesday afternoon at the Unitarian Church with the minister, Rev. Robert A. Storor, officiating. Burial was in the Goddu family lot in Wildwood Cemetery.

BETTER-HALF MEN'S NITE

A man of mystery will model apparel from Chitella's. Flowers and corsages will be by Forester's Flower Shop. Exhibitions of selected items as gift suggestions from the lemmens, Mouradian Rug Galleries and Beauty Counselors products will be shown.

Gift certificates can be purchased which will be honored by any of the Better-Half Club Shops.

NO NEW PLANS

Your Star reporter ran into Don Greer at the Town Hall Wednesday and found the usually genial chairman of the Board of Selectmen, pretty well steamed up over an article appearing in last week's Star reporting that several new plans for the elimination of the grade crossing by means other than the overpass had recently come to light.

Mr. Greer was very emphatic in denying that any new plans had come to the attention of the Board and felt that the article in the Star put the Selectmen in a bad light through implication, conveying the idea that they had not known all the facts in connection with a matter on which the town was voting the day the announcement of new plans appeared in the Star.

Don did admit that wherever two interested people had gotten together to discuss the overhead new plans had been born, but that these plans have been in form to merit consideration he questioned, and that they had even been presented to the Board for study he denied.

The Star surely had no intention of putting the Selectmen in a false position and we have for a long, long time known the Board's attitude on the elimination of the grade crossing in the square. They have made their position very clear! The article was given us by a citizen opposed to the overhead who asked us to publish it to let the public know that opponents were even then attempting to find an alternate solution.

The idea seemed to be that in the event the referendum did not support the overhead plan the town might know that there would be other plans forthcoming. We knew nothing more than that, and had nothing more sinister in mind.

LEAF COLLECTION

There appears to be some misunderstanding in the town as to the use of the town-owned and-operated leaf collectors.

These large machines which act like oversized vacuum cleaners do an excellent job of removing leaves, particularly when dry. They have been of great value to the street department in speeding up this operation and facilitating the disposal of the leaves.

Many Winchester landowners, seeing the ease with which this device is clearing the gutters of leaves, have adopted the practice of raking all the leaves from their property into the streets. This has multiplied the work of the leaf collecting crews manifold.

This equipment was purchased to take care of the leaves that normally fall into the public ways. The two leaf collectors the town owns are barely adequate to keep up with this work. If property owners continue to add to the burden by placing their own leaves in the public ways it is obvious that the town's equipment cannot hope to collect all the leaves before snow flies.

It is doubtful that the town will buy as many additional leaf collectors as would be required to collect everyone's leaves.

Furthermore, the placing of leaves and other such material in the streets from private properties is illegal according to Article III, section 6 of the General By-laws of the Town.

The attention of all residents is called to this practice which should be discontinued immediately.

SCHOLARSHIP FOUNDATION BENEFITS

Lester C. Gustin & Son of Winchester, as low bidders, were recently awarded the contract by J. F. Rand & Son of Boston, general contractors, for steel joists for the changeover of the junior high school building into a senior high school.

Yesterday Mr. Leslie J. Scott, treasurer of the Winchester Scholarship Foundation, announced that the Gustin firm is turning over all commission derived from the contract to the Foundation.

It was also announced in this connection that the firm will absorb all costs of sales engineering and miscellaneous costs incurred in processing the work.

For many months, Calidyne had no employees. The partners did all the work including engineering, purchasing, manufacturing and selling. But, by January 1950, two years later, two machinists, a stenographer and a part-time electrical technician were on the payroll. The "plant" consisted of a small part of an old garage at 751 Main street in Winchester. The first machine tool was a second-hand bench milling machine.

OPEN HOUSE AT CALIDYNE

The Calidyne Company, one of Winchester's new businesses, held open house last week at their new plant at 120 Cross street near the railroad bridge. Customers and sales representatives, the people who actually deal with Calidyne, were entertained during the first three days of the week, and were absorbed in the various steps and processes that go into the machines they buy.

Thursday evening the company was host to its employees and their families and friends, and last Friday afternoon from 4:30 until 6 o'clock local businessmen and non-business friends of the company were shown through the plant.

Several hundred enjoyed the company's hospitality and a delicious buffet luncheon waiting for the guests after they had made the round of the plant. The young ladies of the office staff with colorful corsages met the guests at the door, the men in the plant, the book, the visitors, in small groups, picked up a company employee serving as guide and began their tour, going first through the drafting room and from there to the machine and assembling rooms, the winding room, power plant, shipping and receiving room, coordinating room and back to the general offices and private offices of the company owners, Robert C. Lewis and Thomas Gouzele of 108 Arlington street, and Philip C. Efronson of 22 Hill side avenue. L. W. Kelpely of Waltham is plant manager.

A lay man, such as you, Mr. Star reporter, was more or less mystified by such machines as breakers, shears, shapers and vibrators, one of which was by means of vibration actually playing music while making it possible for the listener to see the sound delcibels going up and down, now showing faintly, now sharply, in a small red finder.

Even a layman can appreciate the precision work done in the plant, attractively laid-out plant, the fine mill work and the individual assembling of the attractive consoles and chassis with their mystifying dials and controls. Here are machines that measure the vibration of airplane wings before they are sent into the air, there are other machines used in the new radar field. Some are made for the government, others for those who produce for the government. Everywhere is evidence of rigid precision.

Aside from care-takers and janitors, there is no unskilled labor at Calidyne, and many of the employees have engineering degrees from leading universities and technical schools. They were present on Friday and busy answering the questions of the visitors, more technically erudite of the visitors.

While your Star reporter was there he saw many familiar faces, including Dr. Nelson Fonteneau, who knew a surprising lot about the various machines in the shop, Horace Ford of Horace Ford's taurant, Chief Charles J. Harrold of the Police Department, Selectmen William C. Cusack and Joseph Tansey, former Selectman of the town, and a group of opponents of the plan.

The going got pretty heavy toward the end of the campaign with each side accusing the other of misrepresentation and each side battling hard right up to the very last minute.

As before, Mrs. Woodside was the chief leader of the opposition to the overhead, though this time she was accompanied by her son, Mr. Woodside, and a group of opponents of the plan.

The Selectmen had distributed the pamphlet explaining the referendum and giving the reasons leading them to recommend it to the town. This was countered by a flyer fairly widely circulated by Mr. Woodside, Mrs. Alonzo Woodside and a group of opponents of the plan.

OVERHEAD VOTED

REFERENDUM SUPPORTED LIMITED TOWN MEETING

By a vote of 2,982 to 2,109 the referendum election held last Friday, supported members of the limited town meeting, held October 22, when it was voted 143 to 23, to approve the overhead tracks plan for the elimination of the grade crossing and to authorize the Selectmen, or chairman of the Board of Selectmen, to enter into definite agreements with the State Department of Public Works and any other parties in interest which will bring about the elimination of the grade crossing and provide therewith a traffic bypass around the center; and to appropriate $190,000 of the town's entire share of the expense of the project.

This is the second referendum held on the overhead plan for the elimination of the grade crossing, a previous one having been held in April of 1952. At that time the overhead plan won out, 3,120 to 1,242, the referendum supporting the action of the March town meeting, the members of which voted for the overhead 151 to 1.

Last Friday's referendum shows 138 in votes for the overhead of 138 and a gain of 307 for those opposing the plan. The total vote this time was larger, 5,096 against the polls last Friday and 4,862 in April, 1952. In that year slightly more than 54 percent of the 9,000 voters expressed their preference, and this year's vote was no better percentage-wise, in fact it was just the same, 54 percent plus.

In view of the advance interest, and the heat of the campaign over the weeks since the special meeting in October it does not speak too well for the voters' interest in a major project having a lasting influence on the future of the town that only 54 percent of the electorate would take the trouble to vote.

This year's campaign was fully as hot as its predecessor, with every possible effort being made to reach the voters, including advertising in the newspapers, telephone solicitation and the distribution of pamphlets and flyers to the householders.

The Selectmen had distributed the pamphlet explaining the referendum and giving the reasons leading them to recommend it to the town. This was countered by a flyer fairly widely circulated by Mr. Woodside, Mrs. Alonzo Woodside and a group of opponents of the plan.

MESSIAH TO BE PRESENTED

Sunday, December 13, at four o'clock in the Winchester Unitarian Church, will be the occasion of the second public performance in Winchester of the Christmas section and the "Messiah" Chorus of Handel's "Messiah". That will be exactly 211 years and 8 months from the time of its first performance anywhere, which happened to be at a concert in Dublin, Ireland. As the story goes, Handel wrote this oratorio — in 24 days, incidentally, generally considered to be a record for certain distinct limitations in Dublin's orchestral and choral resources. The "Messiah" is not a particularly complex piece. It has the size and dignity and melodic beauty which have made it perhaps the one great classic work of music automatically connected with Christmas in the minds of many people for many years; but its theme is fundamentally simple rather than elaborate, philosophical rather than emotional.

The speaker emphasized the popular success from the beginning. Handel, until his death, brought it out every year in London to great applause; it is the work by which he is most familiarly known to most of us; and most of us know about the tradition, presumably started by King George II of England, that the congregation rises and remains standing through the "Hallelujah Chorus". Also, it has been the subject of much editing, re-arranging, and "interpretation" in vocal and orchestral parts alike, by Handelians scholars of vast category from Mozart to Vincent Novello, all doubtless convinced that they were improving on the original.

However that may be, the version to be presented December 13, by the augmented Winchester Unitarian Chorus, is authentically Handel's, as is the "Messiah" originally composed. It is so traditional an association of the Christmas season that there is no need to emphasize here that this forthcoming performance should not be missed.

ADVENT SERIES

Pastor A. John Skeirik of the Second Congregational Church will begin his Advent Series this coming Sunday, For Sunday, November 29, Mr. Skeirik will be talking on the subject of "In Search of a King", which will be a modern parable of life drawn from the story of the Three Wise Men.

On Sunday, December 6, the topic will be "The Incarnation". An attempt will be made to present a brief historical explanation of how this word came into the Christian History. Then he will evaluate its meaning to the modern Christian.

The December 13th topic will be "In the Beginning," at which time Mr. Skeirik will present the spiritual birth of Christ as found in the Gospel of John.

Christmas Sunday, December 20, will conclude the Advent Series. The pastor will consider the true depth and beauty of Christmas, pointing to the need of making this holiday a holy day. The topic will be "A Mother and a Babe."

HISTORY OF METHODIST CHURCH

This coming Sunday morning at the 10:45 a.m. service, Rev. John Snook, Jr., pastor of the Crawford Memorial Methodist Church, will preach on the subject, "Through the Years." Part of the source of the pastor's material will be taken from a history of the church, written by the late Albert B. Bent, entitled "Through the Years."

Mr. Bent spent literally hundreds of hours over a period of several years gathering information for this historical record. The writing of this history covers over seventy pages and records valuable information of the progress of the church from 1871, when the church had its beginning, through the next 80 years to 1951. The labors and sacrifices of the members of the church, resulting in the present beautiful edifice, tells an interesting story of Christian loyalty.

Members and friends of the community are welcome to this special service.

NATIONAL SOLDIERS' HOME AT FRAMINGHAM

If the plans of Middlesex County Council, The American Legion, materialize, there will be a National Soldiers' Home established on the site of the former Cushing Hospital in Framingham. That is the purpose of a motion adopted at a recent meeting of the Council in Maynard.

At the present time there is but one National Soldiers' Home in New England, the one at Togus, Maine. It is felt that inasmuch as neither the Department of Defense nor the Veterans Administration apparently has a use for the hospital buildings, the Government should immediately take steps to reconstruct the installation so that it will suitably serve as a National Soldiers' Home.

CUSACK EXPECTED HOME

It was expected that "Jim" Cusack, star lineman on this year's Winchester High School football team, who sustained a badly broken leg in the Wakefield game two weeks ago, would be able to be home for Thanksgiving.

Coach Henry Knowlton and Scout Executive Francis MacFieley drove to Amesbury Tuesday to the Boy Scout camp there, bringing back a hospital bed from the camp for Jim's use.

CHARLES P. (PHIL)
O'ROURKE, JR.

RAILS AFFECT PLANT DISPERSAL

"The nation's railroads are taking a highly important part in the vast dispersal of industry for defense movement," an industry spokesman said in Woburn Wednesday evening, November 18.

Charles P. O'Rourke, Jr., of Symmes road, former Winchester High athlete, a member of the freight traffic department of the Boston & Maine Railroad, told members of the Woburn "Y" Men's Club how the railroads' industrial departments help locate new industries and relocate old ones.

"One Eastern railroad helped locate and relocate 336 permanent industries along its lines in 1952," he said.

Mr. O'Rourke spoke under the auspices of the Railroad Community Committee of Greater Boston, recently organized by the Eastern Railroad Presidents Conference. The meeting was held in the Woburn YMCA.

The speaker emphasized the essential nature of the railroads' participation in the industry dispersal trend. "Many large firms have relocated with the help of engineers in our industrial departments," he said.

"They not only help choose a proper location for the firm, but handle problems of light, power and other utilities, survey labor markets and availability of housing, schools, stores and other necessary items."

"We have a number of new industries located in Woburn and Wilmington and other areas along the road's right of way. And, of course, while we are helping the new industries we are also helping ourselves—but the end in view is much more far reaching than a railroad's own business."

Mr. O'Rourke outlined the growth and development of the railroads and said that they are now spending more than $1 billion a year on improvement and modernization—$8 billion in eight years—"more than what the country has spent on atomic power."

He told his hearers that nearly all of them, as insurance policy holders at least, are investors in the nation's railroads.

As investors, he told them they should be interested in such things as the number of rail employees—1,220,000 in the country, 12,600 on the B & M—and the annual payroll, which runs to nearly $5 and 1/3 billion annually.

He said it takes an average of $21,436 to start one railroad man on his job, exclusive of wages. The railroad tax bill for last year, he said, came to 1 1/2 billion. "On the local level," he said, "the Boston & Maine alone paid out $2,944,000 in taxes, both state and municipal."

As for the national railroad tax bill, Mr. O'Rourke said:

"In terms of money the railroads took in, this means that all their revenue from passenger traffic, plus all the money they received for express shipments, plus two-thirds of their revenue for carrying mail were required to pay their local, state and federal taxes."

TO START ON OVERPASS SOON

In an attempt to satisfy a general curiosity the Star yesterday asked Chairman Don S. Greer of the Board of Selectmen how soon work on the overpass to eliminate the grade crossing will commence.

Mr. Greer was not sure of the exact time, but did state that several of the contracts were in shape to be let out for bids and that it is believed that work on the trestle at the Woburn loop would start in the near future.

How soon the main job will get underway has not been determined as yet, but work which has to be done where the soil is wet and mucky can best be done when the weather is cold.

SENIOR FORUM

The last Sunday of the month is here again, which means for the Senior Forum of the First Congregational Church there will be no chapel service but all Forum will attend Church at 10:45 a. m. to hear Dr. Cart preach on "Incredible but True." Assisting Dr. Cart will be Forum Chaplain, John Becker. Forum members who will be ushering are Bob Hazon, Allan Cairncross, Bob Crockett, John Day, David Gowing and Bert Kneeland; and acting as deacons will be Bill Harlow, Brad Johnson, Steve Kallis, Erskine Kelley, Buddy McKinley, and Gardner Smith.

When Forum meets again at 5:30 they will have the pleasure of an informal meeting with Mrs. Cart who will tell them about the interesting experiences she had in observing some of the young people of Europe.

At 6:00 p. m. a delicious supper will be served by Mrs. Hazon Ayer and her committee consisting of Mrs. Richard Cunningham, Mrs. George Gowdy, Mrs. Richard Johnson, Mrs. Carl Morse and Mrs. Dana Sawyer. A cordial welcome will be awaiting the speaker of the evening, Rev. William Hamilton of the West Roxbury Congregational Church. Mr. Hamilton, who is in great demand for the young people's summer conferences, first met with Forum a year ago and entirely captivated them all with his friendliness, wit and timely message. He has chosen for his topic on this occasion, "High Tide Living."

Forum's Social Committee, with Sandra Wittet Chairman, is very busy on plans for the Annual Mistletoe Dance which will be held on Saturday, December 12. Also working in behalf of the dance is the Poster Committee, headed by John Morrill, and attractive reminders to buy tickets will soon be in evidence around town. In charge of tickets are Margaret Thomas, Peter and Bill Schmink.

BEAN SUPPER AND SOCIAL

The Couples' Club of the Unitarian Church is holding a Bean Supper and Social on December 5th at 7:00 p. m. in Metcalf Hall. An evening of entertainment and prizes is being planned by the committee who are Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Root, Mr. and Mrs. James Preston, and Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Heinde. Score Card Punched for the evening were the following: Sam Kinton, Chet Thibault, Johnny Erhard, Bill Dailey, Charlie Haggerty and John Nowell.

First prize winner for bridge was Mrs. N. Holland of 12 Hancock street, while the whist winner was Mrs. Ann Bell of 3 Third road, North Woburn. Both received 11 pound turkeys. Other turkeys went to Doctor Charles Rooney of Washington street, John Dolan of Eaton street, Sonny Eason of Keenan's Service Station, all of Winchester; and to J. Nason and Miss C. Cahill of Woburn. There were many prizes donated by the membership and friends of the Knights of Columbus of foodstuffs, such as 50 pound bags of potatoes, turkeys, canned goods and cakes plus many items of practical value such as anti-freeze, clock, place mats, canister sets, giant service flash lights, novelties and medicinal preparations too numerous to mention.

Just a few words about the team (Go West Young Man) California a state of opportunity. This team consists of "Grepper Gene" who is so well rooted he can't possibly go west without an okay from the state officials so as not to jeopardize the population of the state.

"Ballerina Tony" a quiet sort, but beware of the quiet ones. "Atlas Frank" don't cross him but still a good guy. "Rattler John" hard to figure says little but gives his all for the team. "Halfback Riga, Jr." a good bowler, the best on the team. "Shiny" easy going round faced boy of youth. Innocent as a babe in the woods.

Whispers heard around the alley "St. Bernard Eyes" Voci was the winner of a 25 pound sucking pig. Will he be able to raise it or will he talk it to death?

Married men have put in for a 60 cent raise in allowance from their spouses. Reason: Raffle and Sandwich a must from Turkey. The Star was interested this week to be told that because of the "land takings" involved in the overhead tracks and diversionary highway project the vote, both at town meeting and in referendum should have required a two-thirds majority to pass. The town meeting vote was away in excess of two thirds, but the referendum would have decisively beaten the proposition to raise the tracks had a two-thirds vote been necessary. The Star, when told of the two-thirds vote angle, felt that perhaps such a vote would not apply in the case of the overhead since the land money was appropriated for damages and not takings. As we understand it, except for a small bit at the Winchester Drug corner all the land to be used for the temporary tracks and permanent construction of the overhead can be returned to the owners. In the case of the diversionary highway some of the abutters are losing strips of land permanently, and if the town was taking the land a two-thirds vote would be necessary. In every instance however, the State is taking the land, permanently or otherwise, so that the town has nothing to say about the matter, except to pay the $190,000 which the State has designated as our portion of the land damages. The State of course needs no vote by a city or town to take land, either temporarily or permanently.

The votes are in and counted and it now looks definitely as though we are going to have the railroad tracks raised from approximately the Medford to the Woburn line to eliminate the grade crossing in the center. The proponents of the overhead plan are now rejoicing in their victory and those opposed to the great wall through town are dreading its coming erection. As opposing the overhead, the Star would feel a lot better about the outcome of last week's referendum if a larger proportion of the town's citizens had evinced a greater interest in raising the tracks through town and a greater proportion of the town's electorate had voted for the scheme. At the time of the previous referendum on the overhead only a little more than 54 percent of the town's registered voters went to the polls, and many were disturbed over what was thought to be an inexcusable apathy over a matter of importance affecting the town for all time. This year's vote, though larger, 5,096 to 4,869 in April of '52, is still no better percentage wise than the previous 54 percent, being virtually the same. As a matter of fact, and in spite of repeated announcements that a great majority of the citizens of the town favor the overhead, only about 32 percent of the 9,421 registered voters have been recorded in favor. Actually more than 33 percent of the approximately 9,000 voters in April, '52, voted for the overhead at the previous referendum. The official census figures of 1950 total the town's population at 15,567, and even with this figure, which of course is too low, even for 1950, slightly less than 13 percent of the town's inhabitants want the overhead tracks. Granting, of course, that all the town's population is not adult and eligible to vote, the percentage of those who want the great wall through town still is not impressive, though we will have to admit it is greater than those who by their vote at least have signified that they do not want it. The proponents had a strong hand to play from. With the Selectmen, Planning Board, Finance Committee and the State Commissioner of Public Works recorded for raising the tracks, not to mention the last, minute boost from the Assessors, those leading the opposition had a really tough row to hoe, particularly in view of the gospel that had been widely spread to the effect that it was the "overhead or nothing." Undoubtedly those who felt strongly enough that something had to be done about traffic in the square, went for this reasoning, and we believe this was the deciding factor in last Friday's referendum. There were other factors of course. The proponents made much of the argument that those opposing the overhead had no other plan to offer, while the opposition countered with the claim that no plan but the overhead would be considered. Some undoubtedly voted against the plan to save the $190,000 which is the town's share of the six million dollar project, while others argued that to get six million dollars worth of construction for $190,000 is a good deal. Some were undoubtedly influenced by the warning of overhead proponents that if Winchester did not take the six million, it would go to some other community. Each side accused the other of misrepresentation and very probably neither was wholly blameless in this respect. For example the proponents' claim of deaths due to the railroad differed widely from that of the legal department of the Boston & Maine Railroad published by the other side. Some of the claims were not pretty, and undoubtedly personalities entered into the final decision of the voters to far too great an extent. From all the arguments, pro and con, one fact emerges clearly. The limited town meeting delegates can not be argued to represent the feelings of their respective precincts when a vote passed by a limited town meeting with the overwhelming majority of 143 to 23 can get by in a referendum vote, under the most favorable of conditions, by only 873 votes out of 5,096 cast.

Editor of the Star:
Every fall hundreds of hopeful parents arrange for music lessons with enthusiastic teachers, and hundreds of children, with dreams of making music, go to their first lesson. How many teacher hours and little boy and girl hours are needed to make one dream come true?

Judging by the innumerable adults who had music lessons in their youth but now "Can't play a note", who wish their parents had made them practice, who wish their parents had not forced them to practice, there has been an enormous waste of time, effort, and money, and this waste, with accompanying feelings of regret or resentment, will go on unless certain facts are recognized and certain things brought under control.

A Mozart sonata is like maple syrup. It takes five gallons of technique to produce one pint of pure Mozart. Let's face the first fact. The child has to practice, and practice every day. The other fact is that the teacher sees her pupil once a week, or at best, twice, and if she is worth her salt, will send the child home full of ambition and enthusiasm. What happens to that enthusiasm? Is it put to work and kept alive, or allowed to evaporate through lack of planning, or stifled by a multiplicity of other matters clamoring for the child's attention?

Who is responsible for it? If a parent assumes this responsibility, good! Heifetz, himself a parent, believes that "the parental attitude is the main factor in making the difference between a successful musical education and a botched-up business, in which the child resents the parents, and the parents feel they are wasting money on the lessons, and the practice hour becomes a pitched battle."

We all know those pitched battles! How can they be avoided? But remember, the child wants music. He himself probably asked for the lessons. Every child understands the need for practice in games and sports, and not one begrudges the hours of practice on the playing field or in the gymnasium. He has already accepted the idea of practicing and certainly at first he is willing and eager to practice. Then how do we keep him eager and willing? Here is where careful planning and cooperation is needed.

Help the child choose a convenient time for practicing, and a place too, if the instrument is not the piano, then stick to it. Protect that time and the child from encroachments and distractions. Like a dental appointment, there simply are no arguments against keeping it. Also, decide with him in advance how he is to be reminded, should he forget. A gentle reminder, even a look, can be turned into "nagging" by a guilty mind. He may prefer to keep his own practice chart.

By all means surround him with music to keep his goal in sight and remind him what the practice is for. Play with him. Play for him. Play for yourself. It will do you good as well as him. Take him to concerts. Tune in to the wonderful concerts offered by TV and radio. Buy him records. Don't ask him if he had a "good lesson", but show genuine interest in what he is learning, and why, and how. Curiosity stimulates, enthusiasm is contagious, and appreciation and encouragement work wonders.

Today's competition for time and attention is not confined to our children. Aren't we all in the same maddening dilemma of having constantly to choose what we consider most worth our time and attention and letting less important things go? Perhaps if we help our children to learn to make a wise selection of activities they will not have ulcers and break-downs when they reach our age.

There is no age limit to the making of music. The practice and playing of the game is more important than the outcome. Time spent now in practicing and playing music is an adventure into the world of sound — a world of timeless beauty with no boundaries, no tensions, and is an investment for an enriched life to the end.

THANKING WORKERS

November 24, 1953
Editor of the Star:
May we through your columns express our sincere appreciation to all those who worked for the success of the grade crossing project in the referendum.

We are very glad that the action of our Town Meeting Members has been sustained by the voters and that the project which has been so long in the making is now being carried out. We are sure that the project is complete an even larger percent of our townspeople will agree that Winchester has been greatly benefited.

Sincerely yours,

CORRECTION

We got our raises mixed a trifle in last week's Star as we reported the recommendations of the Personnel Committee accepted by the special town meeting of November 16. Fred Ives, chairman of the Board of Park Commissioners, informs us that it was the superintendent of the Park Department whose maximum pay was advanced from $3500 to $4000, and not the superintendent of the Cemetery Department, as printed in the Star. The Cemetery superintendent's maximum was advanced from $3500 to $3700. Sorry "Babe", and incidentally, "Joe!"

We made another mistake in our report of the meeting, in connection with the authority voted the Selectmen to appoint a new police officer to the local department for traffic duty exclusively. We reported that the sum of $3080 was appropriated for Excess and Deficiency for this purpose, in accordance with the motion as printed in the warrant. Actually the motion passed by the special meeting made no appropriation for the officer, though it voted the Selectmen authority to appoint one January 1.

TO THE PARENTS OF WINCHESTER

The Winchester District Committee of the Fellowship Council, Inc., requests that you read each and every word that follows. It is vital to you as parents of boys who are now Cubs, Scouts and Explorers, as well as those parents who have young sons who are soon to enter the movement as Cubs and advance through the trails of Scouting.

The Boy Scouts of America realize the great responsibility which is being placed upon it as the leading institution and organization to instill leadership, character and moral stamina in the growing boys of every community in which the Scouting movement is sponsored. Over the years more than 20,000,000 boys have participated and enjoyed the advantage of Cubbing, Scouting and Exploring. To-day the organization, on a nation-wide basis, furnishes more than 2,500 professionals to the various Councils to provide the program to over 3,148,000 Scouts. There are also more than 847,000 volunteer personnel such as are requested by the Scoutmasters, Cubmasters, Committeemen and women, Den Mothers and so on up through the District Councils, Regional and National organizations.

What does this all mean to you as an individual parent in Winchester? It means that there is available in your Town one of the greatest movements for good, to prevent juvenile delinquency, to develop family participation and create a greater understanding between parent and son. It means regardless of race, color or creed that your son who participates in this program shall receive and be instilled with the fundamental principles which, if followed, will develop him into a citizen who will be respected in his community.

Because of the rapidity of expansion in Winchester (1952-45) to 1953-700 for Explorer Post, Scout Troop and Cub Packs, the District Committee has felt that an appeal must be made to the parents of Winchester to come forward and volunteer their services in any capacity for which they feel they are qualified, or for which they are willing to be trained. Within the next year we will need the services of Scoutmasters, as new Scout Troops must be formed. We will need six Cubmasters to replace the replacement of the present Cubmasters (who just become worn out). Several of your packs are now caring for over ninety-cubs — too large for efficient operation. To back up these Scoutmasters and Cubmasters likewise requires extra personnel in the form of committeemen and Den Mothers. All we need is your willingness to co-operate, we have the instructors and literature to inform you of this stupendous program.

There are among you many willing parents and there are too, many who were Scouts in their youth, Eagles, Life, Star, First Class and so on. Let us hear from you what Scouting has meant to them.

Please, your cooperation and help is needed. Volunteer! Call Winchester 6-2030 or write your chairman at Fellowship Council, Inc., South Border road, Winchester.

Thank you for your interest.

Expansion
In January 1951, there were still only nine employees but it was in this year that the company became known and recognized. A demand developed for its products. Expansion began in earnest. The Winchester building became overcrowded and overflowed into additional manufacturing space in Woburn. Soon, both buildings became overcrowded and a completely new and modern building was expressly planned for Calidyne. A site was selected on Cross street and construction was begun. In June 1953, the entire operation was consolidated and moved into the new building.

Growth
Calidyne now consists of more than a hundred people and growth in sales has been proportional to people. In 1952, sales were 240% higher than in 1951. And, for the first eight months of 1953, they were 40% higher than for the same period in 1952. A strong backlog of orders still exists.

Prospects
Our products are largely used by manufacturers of airplanes and other devices which call for careful design and testing for critical usage by military and civilian agencies. But, the demand is great and the future encouraging. Applications for Calidyne products also exist in general industry.

Products
Our primary interest is in vibration measurement, and Calidyne products all stem from this interest. Yet, they still cover a wide field in types and principles of operation. Our shakers and calibrators are the best known. These are used for shake-testing (vibrating) various types of assemblies, machines, vacuum tubes, etc., to see what effect actual vibration in service will do to them. Our other products such as Calivolts, Probes, Ratio Boxes, Signal Monitors, etc., are complex instruments for precise laboratory and other scientific vibration measurements.

Custom Quality
There is no production line at Calidyne. Each Calidyne instrument is custom built to fill a particular order and the parts we manufacture are made only as and when required. Work assignments vary sufficiently to maintain interest and call for both initiative and ingenuity. These conditions all call for people of unusual ability and special skill, people who enjoy their work and are willing and able to develop new methods and techniques, people who get along well together. This is why you can depend on Calidyne.

SOCIAL SECURITY

Men and women who remain in active military service after December 31, 1953, or enter service after that date will get social security wage credits under the old-age and survivors insurance program, the Cambridge social security office, declared today.

A newly enacted amendment to the law extends the period of military service coverage to July 1, 1955. Persons in service will get $160 a month social security wage credits for each month of active duty until that date. Under the previous law, social security military wage credits did not apply to months of active service after December 31, 1953.

The Manager of the Cambridge office pointed out that this amendment to the Social Security Act is of particular value to those who will not complete their period of active military service this year, and to those newly entering military service. It will be of advantage also to some career service persons who completed their 30 years of service during the World War II period and who are still on active duty. They will continue to get $160 a month social security wage credits until mid-1955.

Another provision of the amendment law extends the time for filing application for lump-sum death payments. This is of interest to survivors of service persons who die outside the United States after December 1953, and whose remains are returned to any one of the 48 States, Alaska, Hawaii, Puerto Rico, or the Virgin Islands for burial or reburial. Under the amended law, lump-sum payments may be made in case death occurred in active service abroad before July 1955 provided application for the payment is made within two years of the date of burial or reburial.

WINCHESTER GARDEN CLUB

The Winchester Garden Club met at the spacious home of Mrs. J. Edward Downes on Thursday, November 19, the beauty of the house and grounds giving added pleasure to the afternoon's enjoyment. Dessert was served by the hostess, assisted by her charming daughters-in-law, with Mrs. William W. Goodhue and Mrs. Angela W. Ghirardini at the coffee and tea urns, a beautiful arrangement of pink carnations and white chrysanthemums gracing the center of the table.

Mrs. Samuel B. Kirkwood, President, conducted the business meeting, after which a most delightful program was presented by Mrs. Norman M. Mitchell. Her subject, "Christmas Decorations for the Home", was illustrated by many of her distinctive wreaths and sprays made of evergreens and pine cones, showing her skill in creating such beauty with the materials found in her own home in Maine.

Her first treatment of decorations for Christmas gave suggestions for the outside door, using large wreaths or sprays, some of which were decorated with pine cones, gilded or plain, or clusters of Christmas tree balls, for impressive doorways, and smaller wreaths or sprays for less pretentious doors. This was followed by suggestions for decorating the living room, one arrangement of graceful sprays of juniper with pine cones for the center of interest, in a soft green pottery container on a wooden stand.

A beautiful head of a Madonna and Child, backed by sprays of juniper, with bayberry candles in hand-carved candle sticks on each side of the Madonna, created great interest, and another small standing figure of a Madonna and angels against a pale blue background brought a mystic feeling in contrast to the brilliance of some of the other arrangements.

Another appealing group revealed some Christmas carolers standing beside a lighted street lamp, with a white fence and evergreens in the background.

In decorations for the dining table Mrs. Mitchell showed two contrasting arrangements, the first, using a plain red cloth, featured a simple massing of evergreens in a center, with a big red candle at each end and a fat Santa Claus up to each candle. The other arrangement, for a formal dinner, used a soft green cloth with a centerpiece of gilded fruit, including a pineapple, pears, gourds, pecans in grape-like clusters, pine cones, limes in their natural color, and small green Christmas tree balls. This stunning arrangement was placed on a modern container of bent glass, and the place cards were gilded and decorated with tiny sprays.

For the buffet Mrs. Mitchell showed a distinctive arrangement of three of her beautiful wreaths made entirely of pine cones, the large wreath in the center and a smaller one on each side, with candles inside the wreaths. For a simple decoration of a massing of evergreens with two red pomegranates and a single candle in a red glass vigil lamp proved satisfying, as well as the familiar plaque of the Bambino inside a pine cone wreath. Last of all, an appealing figure of an angel with a lamb at its feet and a child looking adoringly at the angel brought the true spirit of Christmas to all the members and their guests.

The meeting closed with a vote of gratitude to Mrs. Mitchell for her delightful presentation of holiday decorating.

WINCHESTER HOME AND GARDEN CLUB

On Wednesday afternoon, November 18th, the Winchester Home and Garden Club held a most interesting meeting in the Art Room of the library. The Club's own Mrs. Norman M. Mitchell was the speaker, her subject being "Decorating for the Holidays." By 2 p.m. there was standing room only, for this afternoon had been long awaited by the club members. Mrs. Mitchell told of the joy each Christmas season of going into the woods and fields to gather the needed materials for a truly traditional Christmas.

She showed beautiful swags of different designs for the front door. A large wreath of fine cones in their various shadings was most enthusiastically received. For the inside of one's home she showed several types of wreaths for over the mantle, all most interesting and beautiful. A handsome table arrangement of gilded fruit on a glass tray with touches of green for the limes and the green top of the gilded pineapple, was much appreciated. And of course it wouldn't be Christmas without the nativity scenes. Mrs. Mitchell, as always, showed deep thought and sensitivity in her lovely arrangements of these.

The meeting closed with a vote of gratitude to Mrs. Mitchell for her delightful presentation of holiday decorating.

Following the luncheon, Mrs. Joseph T. Grady of Wakefield introduced the guest speaker Nicholas J. Fiumara, M.D.M.P.H. Director, Division of Venereal Diseases, Massachusetts Department of Public Health. Dr. Fiumara's talk was entitled: "Boston after dark."

The business meeting was omitted. The members of the Auxiliary are looking forward to the January 21st dinner-meeting with the Middlesex East Medical Society.

FIRST CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH
MEN'S CLUB MEETING

The speaker for the second meeting of the Men's Club, of the First Congregational Church to be held Tuesday, December 1, will be Dr. John S. Badeau, President of the Near East Foundation, New York City.

The title of Dr. Badeau's talk will be "Watch The Middle East — World Danger Zone". Dr. Badeau has just returned to this country from an extensive trip through the Near East where he has visited at length with the leaders of government and public life in Egypt, Lebanon, Syria, Iran, and Greece.

Dr. Badeau is one of the best informed Americans on affairs in the Near and Middle East. For the past seven years he has been the President of the American University at Cairo, Egypt, the leading educational institution of that strategic land.

During the war Dr. Badeau was chief of the Middle Eastern Affairs division of the U. S. Office of War Information.

Following graduation from Union College in 1924 as an engineer, Dr. Badeau decided to turn to education and missionary work in the Near East. Accordingly, he gave up engineering to attend Union Theological Seminary from which he received the Master's degree in religion and philosophy in 1928. From that time to the present his life has been spent in the Near East. He has taught in schools and colleges in Mesopotamia, Mosul, Baghdad, and Cairo. From 1938-1942 he was Dean of the Faculty of the American University at Cairo.

Dr. Badeau is the author of two recent studies on the Near East published by the Foreign Policy Association. One is entitled "East and West of Suez". The other is "Modern Egypt".

Our guest is no stranger to Winchester, having spoken to the annual meeting of the College Club two years ago. He is one of the most dynamic speakers on world affairs and is in heavy demand among American colleges and Foreign Policy Association gatherings. This should be one of the year's most worthwhile evenings.

The meeting will start with supper at 6:30 p.m. Following supper there will be a program of music by Miss Dorothy E. Brandt and the Male Chorus of the Senior Choir. The music program will be under the direction of Mr. Albert O. Wilson.

Take a Look at the New Macfield ad on page 5 among the group of weekly ads. For a change, they have used the marks to be found on their work in gold and silver. Their address is there too for those who do not yet know where to visit this workshop where all new designs are made by hand. Everyone knows he is welcome to see the exhibitions inside without having to buy; and there is always a good showing in the beautifully arranged window (partner Len Field is an expert at display).

You may be interested to know that the many orders for new designs continue to come from all across the country, partly due to a very successful summer shop in Ogunquit, Maine, and partly due to visitors to Winchester.

An occasional touch of humor crept into the referendum campaign bitterness last week, two of the better examples we happened to hear about being the posting of a "Vote No" sign in the shop window of one of the stronger supporters of the overhead and the painting of "Vote Yes" on the back of the automobile of an equally rabid opponent of the great wall of Winchester idea. Needless to state each of the parties would pay well for information leading to the apprehension, etc.

WOMEN'S REPUBLICAN CLUB

Irene K. Thresher, representative in the General Court from Newton, was the speaker at the last meeting of the Winchester Women's Republican Club held in the Baptist Social Hall on Wednesday, November 18. Mrs. Robert Wood Reynolds, president of the club, conducted the business meeting, and the speaker was introduced by Mrs. Rowland V. Patrick, chairman of education.

Mrs. Thresher is one of seven women in our legislature, which is a small number in comparison with the number of women serving in the legislatures of many other states. With this in mind, the speaker paid tribute to women in government, pointing out that unlike men who frequently enter politics for personal gains, women usually seek election because they have ideals they are fighting for and causes they wish to sponsor and improve.

Mrs. Thresher urged her audience to familiarize themselves with our legislative procedure. "Come and see us spend the tax dollar," she invited. She paid tribute to the "Right of Petition" we have in Massachusetts whereby anyone can file a bill and which entitles every piece of legislation to a thorough hearing. Three to four thousand bills are reported out each year.

Particularly interesting was the speaker's report of her work on special committees. As a member of the committee on education, relating to all bills in education on the state level, she pointed out that recently has been passed the long-sought law providing for the certification of teachers. Of great importance also has been the passage of the Married Women Teachers Act, whereby marriage is no longer a cause for dismissal. Progress is being made in educational television with a grant forthcoming from the Ford Foundation and the Lowell Institute to be advising the proposed station.

As a member of the Public Welfare Commission Mrs. Thresher reported that she has visited widely our mental health institutions, finding them by and large satisfactory. However more intelligent social planning is necessary for the aging, and industry should not arbitrarily retire people at 65, she felt.

In our penal institutions, she regretted, we are doing the poorest job. There are too many repeaters. Our reformatories and prisons. We are not rehabilitating people. A successful experiment is going forward, she said, at the prison camp in Miles Standish Forest in Plymouth, where a picked group of trustees are working together under minimum security restrictions and living healthy, constructive lives.

A social hour concluded the afternoon. Tea was served by Mrs. Wilfred McKenzie and her committee. Mrs. William I. Palmer and Mrs. Ralph Bonnell poured.

MORE FUN FOR YOUR FAMILY

The second meeting of the Mystic School Mothers' Association will be held in the school auditorium on Wednesday, December 2, at 2:30 p. m. All mothers are invited to attend and hear the many ways that a family can enjoy itself. Beginning promptly, Miss Jean Louden, Supervisor of Music, will direct a group of children in a short program of choral singing.

BETTER HOMES AND GARDEN CLUB

Members of the Better Homes and Garden Club have been busy working on their annual Christmas Greens Day and Workshop. It is called Christmas Greens Day because all kinds of greens for Christmas home decorations are being assembled for the sale on Wednesday, December 9, at the First Baptist Church. Pine cone wreaths, mantel, dining room and table arrangements are also being artistically put together by these members who are: Mrs. Robert S. Baylies, Miss Louise Bancroft, Mrs. Henry G. Bigelow, Mrs. Harley Hart, Mrs. June Mason, Mrs. Roger Newton, Mrs. Ethel Stewart, Mrs. Joseph J. Vaccaro and Mrs. Malcolm Wilson.

The workshop will be set up in the rear of the hall where instruction will be given to those interested in learning to make wreaths and table arrangements for Christmas. Material for these decorations will also be for sale. Instruction will be given by Mrs. J. Stewart Chaffee, Mrs. Norman Mitchell, Mrs. Harold M. Twombly and Mrs. John Wills.

At the "twoables" table, Mrs. Theodore Atkinson will be in charge assisted by Mrs. Donald Davis, Mrs. John Chipman, Mrs. James McGovern, Mrs. Margaret Keyes and Mrs. E. Ober Pride.

Another very nice feature will be decorations for Christmas packages, including unusual packaging material, which Mrs. Rowland V. Patrick has been assembling with Mrs. Alexander Aitken, Mrs. S. Bruce Clark, Mrs. Richard Frazier and Mrs. George Lemany.

Permanent Christmas Tree decorations are being put together by Mrs. Frank J. Robinson, Mrs. Richard Keppeler and Mrs. Wilfred McKenzie.

Mrs. Burton Gove with Mrs. Charles Hart, Mrs. George Hall, Mrs. Roger Burgoyne and Mrs. Robert T. Gove have been gathering and painting madonnas and angels which they are assembling with decorations and greens for table and mantel decorations.

And again this year, due to the great demand for them, Mrs. Alexander Aitken is busy making Christmas bells and reindeers.

Another popular feature of last year was the decorated candles in their unusual holders which Mrs. Edward J. McDevitt and Mrs. John Wills are making.

And, of course, the so-called "special" table is being filled with beautiful and artistic pieces by Mrs. William W. Goodhue, well known for original creations.

A brand new feature this year will be the so-called "bird comfort" table. Here, Mrs. Frederick W. Cole is introducing all sorts of food, feeders, houses and everything for the comfort of the birds during the winter.

Again this year, there will be a home cooked food table for which Mrs. Edward Mansfield and Mrs. Frederick Churchill will ask donations for sale. And the luncheon which is being served will again be prepared by Mrs. William E. Hollich and Mrs. Percy Bugbee. Mrs. Robert S. Baylies will act as treasurer and the co-chairmen for the day are Mrs. J. Stewart Chaffee, Mrs. Wilfred McKenzie and Mrs. Marshall Phil.

At a recent ceremony at the State Department of Public Works, Commissioner John A. Volpe presented to a group of Department engineers certificates and pins denoting 25 years of meritorious service made in behalf of the American Association of State Highway Officials.

GIRL SCOUT NEWS

CHRISTMAS SERVICE PROJECTS

Again this year, the Winchester Scouts will not have a Christmas party at the Well Baby Clinic. Instead, Mrs. James Marchant, service chairman, has planned for each troop to adopt two or more children who need your help to make Christmas a happy occasion. We will have a list in the office of ages and sex. Each leader is asked to call Winchester 6-2592, and notify us of the age and sex of the youngster her troop wishes to adopt. We have them from two months to 16 years, girls and boys, even twins! We have been requested not to wrap the gifts, which may include toys, books, games, clothing, etc., in fact anything suitable for Christmas giving. When your gifts are ready, pack them in a carton and leave them in the office, but the deadline date is noon of December 18th.

Mrs. Edward Shinnick, Executive Director, is at Northampton, attending a conference of New England Girl Scout Executives.

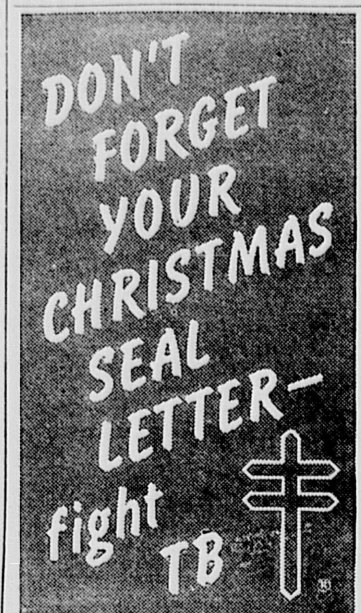

BOY SCOUTS

TROOP 3 — POST 3

Troop 3 will hold the first of their monthly winter swims on Monday, December 7, at 7:00 p. m. at the Maiden YMCA Pool.

Sale of Christmas Wreaths under the direction of Committeeman Walcott Thompson ended November 26, with a total of 332 wreaths being sold. First prize goes to Richard Cummings with 41 wreaths, second prize to John Thompson with 36 and third prize to Robert Dickey with 35.

Post 3 spent November 27-29 camping under canvass in Rowe, Mass., in the Berkshires and hiking on the Appalachian Trail. Explorers Howie Bates, Joe Camara, Bill Edgar, Dick Gaffney, Andy Hertig, Dave Leverette, Donald Murray, Peter Schmink, and Bill Schmink were accompanied by Explorer Advisors Dick Davenport and Larry Beckley. The Explorers also engaged in a supervised competitive rifle match on the Charlmont Sportsmen's Range. It snowed during the weekend and the temperature dropped to 20 degrees but the boys say Andy Hertig was very comfortable with his blanket, two sleeping bags and air mattress.

PARK DEPARTMENT TROPHY RETIRED BY SONS

Last Saturday evening, some fifty members, guests and friends gathered at the S. O. I. Club-house on Swanton street to pay tribute to the club's softball team, which this year won the Town Softball League for the third time, taking the title from the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

The "Sons" have been contenders or titlists in the league ever since its beginning and have been one of the most colorful teams to perform on the circuit, always giving a good account of themselves both at bat and in the field. Their series with the Vets this fall was one of the best in recent years, the first game being an extra inning affair with the Sons coming out on top by a score of 2-1, and going on to win the series in the fourth and deciding game. Their overall record for the season was 24 wins as against only four defeats.

At the head table last Saturday were Venerable Dominic Provinzano; Carmine Frongillo, master of ceremonies; Edward A. Bartlett, Director of the Town Softball League; Paul Connors, popular manager of the V. F. W. team; and Frank Procopio, manager of the S. O. I. team. Mr. John Volpe, Commissioner of Public Works, and Venerable of the Lodge when the Sons put their first team on the field was unable to be present.

Mr. Frongillo introduced Venerable Dominic Provinzano who welcomed the members and guests, and congratulated the team on behalf of the Lodge.

Paul Connors, when introduced, expressed his thanks for being invited to attend and congratulated the members of the team for their fine performance, also paying special tribute to their fine manager "Hokie" Procopio. In closing "the old Pro" warned the Sons of a complete shakeup in the Vets organization for next year.

At this time Mr. Frongillo introduced two of the ex-Venerables of the Lodge, Mr. James Violante and Mr. Angelo Tofuri, who also paid tribute to the team. Mr. Tofuri stressing that the younger members should continue the good work and keep the league alive and running smoothly. He also pointed out how fortunate the Town was to have a director with the ability and willingness of Ted Bartlett to set up and carry out such a successful recreational program, a rising vote of thanks being given Mr. Bartlett for his work.

Venerable Dominic Provinzano then presented all the members of the team with trophies suitably inscribed, for winning the Town Softball League championship, and expressed the Lodge's appreciation of the honor brought to the Lodge by their efforts. Acting captain, William Fiore, on behalf of the team, presented a beautiful jacket, to "Hokie" Procopio, for his fine work in managing the team to a successful season. Needless to say, "Hokie" was at a loss for words, but did manage to thank the boys and say he was ready for another season. Members of the team receiving trophies were:

Mike Penta, Larry Penta, Richard Bucci, Paul Lentino, Richard Penta, Nick Molea, Ralph DiMambro, Al Tibando, Sam Bellino, Frank Gangi, William Fiore, Tony Bellino, Tony Cheffalo, Robert DelGrosso and manager Frank Procopio.

Mr. Frongillo then introduced Mr. Edward A. Bartlett, Director of the Town Softball League, who presented the trophy emblematic of the Town Championship, to Manager Procopio on behalf of the Park Department. Congratulating the team for their fine work he also stated that this being the third time that the championship had been won by the Sons, the trophy is now to remain in their permanent possession, and a new trophy will be made available to the League by the Park Department.

Mr. Bartlett then reviewed some of the highlights of the series with the Vets, drawing several impromptu remarks from Paul Connors, erstwhile manager of the Vets. There were many humorous incidents that occurred during this series, especially in regards to the umpiring, and Mr. Bartlett brought many a chuckle from the boys with his remarks. Again he expressed his thanks to the Club and offered his congratulations to both the team and the Lodge.

Committee members in charge of this most successful banquet were: Chairman Randolph Kazanian, Venerable Dominic Provinzano, Michael Saraco, Anthony Penta, Carmine Frongillo, Frank DiMambro and C. Bertellucci.

S. O. I. BOWLING LEAGUE

As we slide into the 8th week of bowling we had a little excitement as you will note later in this item.

Team	Standings:
Holy Cross	28-4
Bates	20-12
Yale	17-15
St. Mary's	16-16
Georgetown	15-17
Alabama	14-18
Boston College	14-18
Harvard	13-19
Notre Dame	12-20
California	12-20
Top five bowlers
R. Riga, Jr.	102.3
R. Bucci	102.3
E. Tofuri	99.4
Moose Bellino	99.9
Hokie	97.9

I had the pleasure to witness, in my estimation, a remarkable bit of bowling. I witnessed to my enjoyment, a bowler, cunning as a leopard, toying with unseen accuracy, perfectly relaxed and poised whose arm whipped the ball down the avenue with the accuracy of a bullet. He not only obliterated the hi-single with a 141 but continued on to disintegrate the hi triple with a 376. This honor goes to a new bowler of this season, a bowler whose name will continue to star in the limelight again in my estimation. This young man is a brother to the famous "Stone Wall" Joe Bucci of softball fame. None other than Richie Bucci.

The boys from the South of the Mason-Dixon Line of the Confederate Army of Alabama seem to be fighting a losing cause. Why? Let me explain why. "Deadhorse" is at the stage where he forgets to leave the plumbing supplies out of his pockets. "Larry" father of twins recently, done for at least five years as a bowler. "Arka" I don't know what's happened to him except to say he hasn't been able to hit "Noah's Ark" recently let alone the pins. "Pete", if he doesn't let the ball go soon enough one of these nights he's going to kill himself. "Goldy-Locks Raffle Randy", they say he's a bowler, but where has he been? It can't be that he's trying to protect his average! "Mike", the black curly haired lover who can bowl 300 one week and drop to 220 the next. There's your explanation!

One of our new boys won the married man's increased allowance raffle, D. Suppa of Notre Dame. Whispers heard around the alley. Can LaTorella bowl without a cigar? Lentino to step up the speed of his ball.

Is young Giacalone being coached by his brother, the "Jeep"? Magano is slipping. Has 45 degrees "Pibby" Tofuri shaved off his eyebrows so the hair won't interfere with his eyesight? Will the man behind the most powerful machine in town make a comeback? See you next week.

DON'T give children dangerous toys, or toys with sharp points. If they operate with electricity, be sure you supervise their use.

CORRECT AND CAREFUL MAILING IMPORTANT

Local residents and business firms alike were reminded by the postmaster, "Correct and careful mailing is just as important as early mailing. Perhaps more so. Any unnecessary delay may prevent delivery of your Christmas cards and gifts by December 25." Postmaster Thomas J. Gilgus lists haste and carelessness as chief trouble makers for postal employees, and quickly adds:

"There's no good reason for either. People still have a week or ten days for leisurely shopping. During that time give your Christmas card list a thorough going over. Be sure you have everyone's full name, street and number, city, zone and state.

"Estimate the number of stamps you'll need. Stock up on a supply of heavy wrapping paper, strong cord and parcel post labels. Then you'll be safely over the first hurdle in the race against time."

The important thing, of course, is to get started now. If all gift packages are mailed by December 5, and all Christmas cards by December 15, they'll arrive shortly before Santa.

Business firms can do their part by withholding all circular and catalogue mail during the critical period, December 15-25. It will help avoid post office congestion if their regular correspondence is posted before 4:00 p. m. each day.

The Past Noble Grands Service Club of Victoria Rebekah Lodge met on Thursday evening, November 19th at the home of Miss Elsie Lyons, Medford, Mass. The meeting was presided over by the President, Mrs. Mabel Larson. The Mystery was won by Mrs. Jessie Ripley. Delicious refreshments were enjoyed by all. Thanks Elsie for a nice evening!

The next meeting will be December 17th at the home of Mrs. Robert Smith, 11 Rowe Hill road, Stoneham.

QUEENSMEN WIN AGAIN

On Sunday, November 29th, the Eastern Massachusetts Junior Drum Corps Association held its final event of the season, the annual Color Guard Competition, at the East Newton St. Armory, Boston. A capacity crowd witnessed the colorful show, with nine units competing for top honors.

The famous Girls Color Guard of the Immaculate Conception parish again won first place and were proclaimed Class A champions. This fine group of nine young ladies, under the command of Color Captain Lorraine DiZio, performed in true "West Point" style. Their military precision and execution of the drill and intricate maneuvers won them a fine ovation from the crowds in the stands. They are undefeated in this Class A group since 1950 and have many trophies and medals for their splendid accomplishments.

The girls are a part of the championship drum and bugle corps and with the all star girls drill team, are one of the units in parish youth activity under the direction of the Immaculate's popular pastor, Rev. Fr. H. K. A. Driscoll.

CEDRIC SEAGER HONORED

Cedric Seager of Yale street was the recipient last week, at the hands of Governor Harold S. Stassen, of a citation and Certificate of Honor in recognition of his efficiency and effectiveness as an Executive of the Foreign Operations Administration and for display of initiative and resourcefulness of an exceptional nature.

By a happy coincidence, announcement of the award was made while Mr. Seager's father-in-law, Rev. William S. Packer, was in Washington to spend Thanksgiving with the Seager family. Mr. Packer was therefore invited by Governor Stassen to witness the presentation of the award, which was made the occasion of a small ceremony in the Executive Office Building adjoining the White House.

Mr. Seager, who is Assistant Director of the Near East, South Asia and Africa Region of the Foreign Operations Administration, left this week for Istanbul, Turkey, where, together with Governor Stassen and ranking officials of FOA, he will meet with overseas Mission Chiefs to discuss problems of U. S. technical and economic assistance programs in underdeveloped areas.

En route to Istanbul Mr. Seager is making a three day stopover in London, England.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Huckins of Philadelphia ("Chuck" in Astrid) were in Winchester over the holiday week-end, attending the Winchester-Woburn game and stopping with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Knowlton of Maxwell road. The ducks at Plum Island and the fish at Walden and Pouch's Pond really had a rough time of it during their visit.

Cushing alumni, parents and friends in the greater Boston area have been invited to attend and the program is open to all residents of Winchester. Miss Lois Cann, for many years in charge of the speech work at Cushing Academy, will read the dramatic sketches interspersed between the choral numbers. A selection of numbers on the organ by Mr. Pierce will open the program at four p. m. SCHOOL ATTENDANCE POLICY

The policy of the Winchester School Committee with regard to school attendance during inclement weather was stated last year in a notice sent to the parents of all school children. In order to acquaint townspeople with this policy the following statement is reprinted.

To All Patrons:

In order to prevent any misunderstandings, and to assure our patrons of our desire to do the best thing for individual pupils and the school system as a whole, the School Committee desires to state publicly its policy concerning school attendance.

1. The School Committee is interested in the safety and health of the children as well as in their regular, well-planned instruction.
2. The schools will be kept open every day possible. In case of unusually severe weather or travel conditions, the Superintendent may, at his discretion, close the schools.
3. There are many competent observers who believe that the safety of our children is greater when they are in school than when they are not. However, the schools may be open on days when the parent feels it inadvisable to send the child for reasons of health or safety. On such days, the parent should decide what he thinks is for the best interest of the child.
4. Sometimes, the weather mayimprove to such an extent soon after the opening of school that the pupil can reach school safely and without danger to his health. Although he may be tardy, the parent should send him with a note to school explaining the tardiness.
5. When a large percentage of pupils is absent, the teachers will not take up any new work. In any case, every effort will be made to help pupils make up the work that has been missed.

6. Whenever absent from school for any reason, the pupil must present a note from the parent on his return to school explaining such absence.

No School Signals: 2-2 repeated four times.

At 7:20 a. m. — No school for any of the pupils in any of the public schools in town.

At 12:40 p. m. — No afternoon session for the Elementary schools.
No school announcements will also be broadcast over the following radio stations between 7:00 and 7:30 a. m.: WEEL, WBZ, WNAC, WCOP, WLAW, and WHDH.By:
Winchester School Committee

BLOOD DONOR DAY

The Red Cross Bloodmobile comes to the First Congregational Church on Monday, December 14, for its quarterly visit.

Blood is still needed for the army and navy hospitals overseas as well as at home. To this date nothing has been discovered to take the place of whole blood.

A thorough examination is given to each prospective donor, and no one may give who is not "fit". The age limits are 18-59 years.

Winchester's quota is a minimum of 150 pints. Remember the day, December 14, and call Winchester 6-2300 for an appointment.

ELKS THANKSGIVING

As has been their regular custom for years, the Winchester Lodge of Elks distributed a number of turkey dinners about town in homes where they were greatly appreciated.

They are now planning to make others happy on Christmas.

MARSHALL — WATSON

White chrysanthemums and ivy decorated the Ripley Chapel of the First Congregational Church on Saturday afternoon, November 28, when Miss Cynthia Watson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Braden Watson of 8 Salisbury street became the bride of Mr. John Adams Marshall, USCG, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank William Marshall of 215 Forest street. The Reverend Dwight L. Cart officiated at the four o'clock ceremony and a reception followed in the Howard J. Chidley Hall.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of ivory satin fashioned with a Chantilly lace bertha with a queen Anne collar, long pointed sleeves, and lace appliques on the skirt. A fingertip illusion veil was caught to a coronet of matching lace and pearls, and she carried an old-fashioned bouquet of white gardenias and shattered carnations.

Miss Nancy Ann Griffiths of Winchester and Mrs. David Pape of Baltimore, Md., were maid and matron of honor. They wore waltz-length gowns of peacock-blue shantung and carried old-fashioned bouquets of pale yellow carnations and garnet roses which matched their headpieces.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Watson wore a gown of cameo-beige crepe with a golden-brown hat and bronze cypridium orchids. Mrs. Marshall, mother of the bridegroom, wore a fuchsia crepe gown with matching accessories and a purple orchid.

Mr. Dana Dart of Stonington, Conn., was best man for Mr. Marshall, and the ushers were Mr. Victor Griffiths and Mr. Robert Clark, both of Winchester.

The bride is a graduate of Smith College, class of 1951. The bridegroom attended Fisher School for Men and is at present completing three-years service with the United States Coast Guard. After a wedding trip to Quebec, Mr. and Mrs. Marshall will make their home in Winchester.

FAULKNER — ORR

At an afternoon ceremony on Saturday afternoon, November 28, in a setting of white chrysanthemums and greens in Gordon Chapel of the Old South Church, Copsey Square, Boston, Miss Esther Orr, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Walker Orr, of Norfolk and South Harpswell, Maine, formerly of Winchester, became the bride of Mr. John Robert Faulkner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert I. Faulkner of Houlton, Maine. The Rev. Dr. Frederick M. Meek, pastor of the church, performed the ceremony.

A dinner was held in the Silver Room of the Hotel Kenmore for the wedding party.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a fitted ivory satin gown, with long pointed sleeves and chapel train. Her fingertip-length veil was caught to a Juliet cap with seed pearls and she carried a cascade bouquet of white chrysanthemums with ivy and stephanotis.

As matron of honor, Mrs. John Dumas Riley, wore a forest green gown with fitted bodice and net over taffeta skirt. As maid of honor, Miss Jeanne Wilde wore an amethyst taffeta gown with net over-skirt. The two attendants carried twin cascade bouquets of pale yellow chrysanthemums and ivy, and wore matching tiaras.

Mr. James Gallow of Houlton, Maine, was best man and the ushers were Mr. Harold Mercer, White Plains, N. Y., Mr. Phoenias Putnam Barnes, Syracuse, N. Y., Mr. Frank Dunn and Mr. Gordon Cumming of Houlton, Maine.

The bride graduated from Dean Junior College and the bridegroom is a graduate of Colby College where he was a member of the Delta Kappa Epsilon fraternity. Mr. Faulkner is employed with the Firemen's Fund Insurance Company in Boston. After a wedding trip, he and his bride will make their home in Brookline.

MISSION UNION GUILD

On Tuesday, December eighth, at two o'clock, the Mission Union Guild of the First Congregational Church will hold its annual Christmas Service in Ripley Chapel, for all women of the church. From Dr. Dwight L. Cart there will be a message, Mrs. Robert P. Blake will present "The Juggler of Notre Dame" and a few other readings, and Christmas music will be sung by a group of women who are members of the senior choir.

Preceding this service, Mission Union members and their friends will gather at ten o'clock to participate in Mrs. Ray V. Hayward's group that will begin its sewing for missions. Also, at ten o'clock, coffee will be served to all those who come for a last opportunity to buy articles remaining from the most successful bazaar of November fourth.

Following this sale, Mrs. Edward R. Grosvenor and Mrs. Walter W. Winship (as co-chairmen) will serve a luncheon at one o'clock in Chidley Hall. Altogether, a most interesting program has been planned, and it is one that should renew within us the Christmas spirit.

MISS MORIAN HONORED

Present and past members of the Winchester Unitarian Choir gathered last Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Mary Ranton Witham in honor of the approaching marriage of Miss Grace Norian to Dr. Barker Bakanjian, who is an Associate Professor of Physics at the University of Minnesota. Miss Norian and Dr. Bakanjian were presented with a handsome sterling silver luncheon set, an original fashioned by Macleod, silversmith of this town, as a token of the group's affectionate best wishes.

Sharing the organizational duties with Mrs. Witham were Mrs. Robert Brotherton, Mrs. Bouldin G. Burbank, Mrs. Ronald King, Mrs. Theodore von Rosenzweig, Mr. Lindsay Caldwell, and Mr. Sherman Russell.

Among those present were Miss Norian's four sisters and her mother, Mrs. Merin J. Norian of Robinson circle. The wedding is to take place December 27.

ASST. POSTMASTER RESIGNED

MARTIN OVER 40 YEARS IN SERVICE

Edward J. Martin, assistant postmaster of the Winchester Post Office, resigned at the conclusion of work last Saturday night, his resignation to take effect December 1. The step was prompted by the fact that in recent years Mr. Martin has not been in robust health.

He entered the service May 22, 1913, when he was appointed a substitute clerk by the then postmaster, J. Winslow Richardson. He was appointed a regular clerk in the money order section December 17, 1917, and was promoted to superintendent of mails by the then postmaster, Vincent C. Ambrose, February 1, 1942. He was appointed assistant postmaster by Postmaster Thomas J. Gilgan September 1, 1949.

Mr. Martin served under seven postmasters, from J. Winslow Richardson to the present incumbent, including James H. Roache, Patrick E. Fitzgerald, John F. O'Connor, George H. Lochman and Vincent C. Ambrose. He also served under Assistant Postmaster Ernest W. Hatch during the time Mr. Hatch was acting postmaster. At the time of his resignation he had served forty years and six months, and was widely known to patrons of the local office, by whom he was held in high esteem, his courtesy, pleasant manner and efficiency making him popular with all.

Mr. Martin lives with his wife at 33 Sheridan Circle, just over the line from his birthplace on Border street in Woburn. He has lived in Winchester since 1930 and was graduated from Winchester High School in 1911. Before entering the postal service he was employed at the old Ames store.

His many friends wish for Mr. Martin many years in which to enjoy the fruits of a well earned leisure.

Mrs. Curtis W. Nash of Lawson road is a patient at the Winchester Hospital. She complained of illness while on a visit to St. Louis with her husband and was removed to the hospital when her condition showed no improvement after her return to her home.

W. H. S. BASKETBALL

The Winchester High School basketball squad commenced practice this week in preparation for a rugged court campaign this winter. Coach Ted Bartlett has only two lettersmen available as he strives to build a fourth consecutive Middlesex League champion. The two veterans are Co-Captains Joe DiIorio and Dave Pratt, with DiIorio being a starter over the last half of the season a year ago and Pratt a valuable substitute.

The Indians do not have the tremendous height that they have enjoyed over the past three successful seasons but hope to compensate for it with greater speed and aggressiveness. No starting team has been put together as yet but the quintet seen most frequently working together consists of DiIorio and Charlie Stevens at forward, Jim Wright at center, and Buddy McKinley and Lou Farrell at guard. Leaders of the football squad, reported late and are slowly rounding into condition to make strong bids for varsity positions are Paul O'Brien, and Joe Bellino. Other members of the football squad show considerable promise are Bill Ross, Pete Gove, Nils Nelson, and Frank Dattilo. Coach Bartlett is very high on the work of two sophomores, John Lynch and Bert Keane, and feels that they are excellent prospects.

Because of their lack of height this season the Indians are stressing greater speed and mobility and snare ball handling to make that fine shot at the basket a sure one. No longer can they depend upon getting many baskets on rebounds but must concentrate on working the ball to get a better shot at the hoop. Their offense has been adapted to meet this change and they should be an interesting team to watch in action as they set up their plays for a clear break to the basket. The word is out to watch Lexington and Wakefield in the Middlesex League but this year but do not sell the Bartlett team short.

Winchester opens its home schedule a week from tonight when they entertain Arlington High School at the high school gym. This is a rugged opener for the Sachems as Arlington is a Class A quintet that has enjoyed great success over the past two years winning the Suburban League championship and going to the Tech Tournament each year. It will be a stern test for the locals and one that will provide an excellent barometer of their success this coming winter.

The funeral was held Tuesday morning from the M. R. Laurin Funeral Home in Lowell at 8 o'clock. A solemn high mass of requiem was celebrated at the Notre Dame De Lourdes Church, Lowell, at 9:00 and interment took place in Calvary Cemetery, East Woburn.

"THE FORTUNE TELLER"

Weeks of rehearsal come to an end tonight, when music and dramatic students at the high school present their production of Victor Herbert's "The Fortune Teller" in the high school auditorium. Another performance is scheduled for Saturday evening. The principals, chorus, and dancers, who make up the cast of 90, have worked long and faithfully under the direction of Miss Eleanor Anifantis and Mr. Thomas Morse; and it is their fond hope that the show will surpass the excellent production of "H. M. S. Pinafore", which a high school group presented four years ago. "The Fortune Teller", as revised by Edward Bradley and Don Wilson, contains a wealth of wit and humor, but it is the tuneful music and heartwarming lyrics of Victor Herbert that have made this opera memorable to generations of theatergoers.

News of the production has aroused considerable interest among other schools, since this is the first time that a high school cast has attempted "The Fortune Teller." Already, two groups, from the Watertown and Melrose high schools, are planning to attend one of the performances. A preview of the show, presented at an assembly yesterday morning at the high school, found much favor among the student body.

Though they make no appearance on the stage, the efforts of the many students who are working on the various committees are greatly appreciated. Charlotte Nutter and Elizabeth Hood are invaluable as the prompters; and Ann Nahigian, Nancy Vaughan, and Betsey Lathrop have been helpful as stage assistants. The corps of ushers, under the direction of Mr. Frank Weaver, includes the following: Dennis Doucette, John Jacobellis, John Merritt, Darrell Harvey, Tim Hennessey, Peter Jones, Tom Allen, James Allen, Robert Bingham, Bob Willing, Andrew Robertson, Peter Gamage, John Bushell, Don Palladino, Craig Muncaster, Malcolm Johnston, Roger Heard, and William Sullivan.

SCHOOL DEPT. AT CONVENTION OF SPEECH ASSOCIATION

Thomas Morse, instructor in speech at the Winchester High School, led the panel discussion of the topic, "Cooperative Efforts in Teaching Speech," and assisting him on the panel were Superintendent of Schools Harry V. Gilson and Director of Guidance Norton Demsey. The convention, which attracted a wide audience of school and college teachers, offered a variety of discussion of topics suited to the diverse interests of the participants. Among the meetings scheduled were the following: Speech in the Elementary Schools, Speech Therapy, Public Speaking, Radio, Drama, Educational Television, Interpretation, Discussion, and Speech in Teacher Training Institutions. Mr. Morse is a member of the Committee on Advancement of Speech Education for the New England Speech Association.

LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS

The fact that a member may tailor her membership to fit the demands on her time was stressed at the new member meeting of the League of Women Voters of Winchester which was held Monday morning, November 30, at the home of Mrs. Sheldon Root, 27 Mt. Pleasant street.

Mrs. William Davies, President, opened the meeting by describing the types of membership available to anyone interested in joining the League. She pointed out that those women whose time is limited and who are unable to attend meetings but still want to have access to the non-partisan information presented in the League publications are most welcome as supporting members. There are also semi-active and active memberships available to all.

Mrs. Thomas Hennessey, membership chairman assured members that they would receive all the bulletins of the League, national, state and local.

Mrs. Howard Aiken, vice-president, explained the method of formulating program, stressing its completely democratic nature. Each member of all leagues has the opportunity now to suggest subject matter to be considered at the biennial National convention. From subjects of greatest nation-wide interest the program for the coming two years study and work will be adopted.

Mrs. William Spaulding, finance chairman, said she hoped that the Winchester League would be able to send two delegates to the National Convention in April at Denver, Colorado.

Ernest G. Geannaris, of 9 Mt. Pleasant street, an employee of Woburn Floor Covering Company, 494 Main street, is taking a two weeks' course in linoleum installation at the Armstrong Cork Company's Laying School for Linoleum Mechanics at Lancaster, Pa.

WINTER SPORTS SPREE ON MOUNT PERO SLOPES

On December 30, several Winchester boys and girls will enjoy the special snow train to enjoy their fifth season at the Mount Pero Winter Sports Camp, Plymouth, N. H.

The camp's personal weather prophet has again promised plenty of fluffy crystal white snow: the whole ski slope has been brushed out, widened and lengthened and an exceptional staff will be on hand to give ski instructions, supervise skating and tobogganing parties and numerous other sports.

Two highlights of the winter holiday that are looked forward to are the sleigh ride and an outdoor cook out. Many interesting events are planned for the evenings including a full length movie and cartoons as well as educational ski films. In front of a crackling fire in the Lodge's huge fieldstone fireplace the campers will tell stories, pop corn and play games.

Mount Pero is under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. Roland A. Nault, 233 Washington street. They are assisted by Ted Trott of Tufts College, Ann Hooper of Smith College, Bette Nelson of Bowe-Tufts College, Eric Terzachi and Conrad Hubert of Plymouth, N. H.

FOOTBALL TROPHY WINNERS

Winners of the Woburn game trophies donated to the best back and lineman on the Winchester team by McCormack's Apothecary and Hevey's Pharmacy were big "Mike" Murphy, fullback, and "Danny" Mantini, tackle.

Woburn winners of the new Foley Memorial Trophies were Joe Castiglione, fullback and Tucker Guthro, guard.

WINCHESTER, 39; WOBURN, 13 SPIRITED TANNERS MADE GAME OF FIRST HALF

Winchester beat its traditional rival Woburn, 39 to 13, on Thanksgiving Day at Manchester Field before a huge crowd that must have reached 8,000 and that many believe was considerably larger. The six thousand seats in the enlarged grandstand were jammed and a crowd surged to the very edge of the gridiron in both end zones with the bankings behind the Woburn stands and at the junior high school being black with people. Bright sunshine after the heavy storm of Wednesday got the crowd out for the classic, and the field was in surprisingly good shape considering the heavy rains of Monday and Wednesday.

The big crowd saw a good ball game for the first half, underdog Woburn offering spirited opposition to heavily favored Winchester and actually controlling play most of the time before half time except for the Indians' two early game scoring drives.

Perhaps Winchester got those two touchdowns too easily and let down. At all events the Indians lacked fire as the game wore along and never did approach the form they showed at Wakefield.

Winchester made 15 first downs to 11 for Woburn, rushing for 344 yards to 136 for the Tanners. Winchester completed four of six passes for 104 yards, having one intercepted; while Woburn threw 11 passes, completing five for 50 yards. Winchester fumbled twice and Woburn four times, but the Tanners recovered three times while Winchester lost the ball each time. Winchester lost 45 yards to the officials while the Orange did not draw a penalty. Castiglione averaged 37½ yards in two kicks while Bellino booted his only punt 43 yards in the air.

Rotondi kicked off for Winchester.

ter and Castiglione was dropped on the Woburn 29. The Orange couldn't go, and Castiglione kicked to Bellino who got back 20 yards to the Winchester 49.

On the very first play the Indians fumbled and Romano recovered for Woburn. The Tanners then raked up the game's initial first down, Tanceredi setting it up with a five yard off tackle jaunt and Castiglione plunging the last two yards to the Winchester 30.

With the Woburn stands in an uproar and the Winchester fans wondering whether this was to be another Woburn day, the Tanners tried a reverse and Allen was dropped for no gain by Pratt who came up fast to make the tackle. Then a backfield mixup in assignments resulted in a Tanager fumble which the bulky Mr. Cullen pounced upon at the Winchester 31.

Then Winchester started. Bellino picked up 3 and Murphy bucked to the 40. Bellino made first down at the Woburn 45 and Haggerty added a yard on a reverse. Bellino took a pitchout and aided by a nice block by Murphy scampered to a first down at Tanager 21.

Haggerty was stopped by Brown with only a yard, but Murphy really barreled through to a first down at the five. The left side of the Woburn line dropped Bellino back on the eight as an Orange cheer went up, but big Mike Murphy bulled his way to the one and then on a veer-back left drove over for the first touchdown of the game. Rotondi, with a record of nine straight conversions from placement, missed the extra point.

Castiglione ran the ensuing kickoff all the way to his 42 yard line, and then personally carried and passed Woburn to the Winchester 25, his five yard heave to Rosa making first down at the Winchester 31.

Castiglione bucked to the 25 as the first quarter ended and then standing up, Pratt arched a pretty soft pass to Bellino for the extra point.

Woburn was far from discouraged and Castiglione brought the Orange rooters to their feet as he carried the kickoff out to the Winchester 44, getting past every one but Bellino, whose pretty last ditch tackle saved a probable touchdown.

Two passes fell incomplete before Castiglione barged off tackle for eight, and then made a first down at the Indians' 34.

Brenden Allen on a reverse got past the Winchester right flank and streaked to the Winchester ten where another fine tackle by Bellino postponed the touchdown.

The Tanners were really fired up at this point. Tanceredi whirled off off tackle going into the end zone standing up. Pratt arched a pretty soft pass to Bellino for the extra point.

Woburn was far from discouraged and Castiglione brought the Orange rooters to their feet as he carried the kickoff out to the Winchester 44, getting past every one but Bellino, whose pretty last ditch tackle saved a probable touchdown.

Two passes fell incomplete before Castiglione barged off tackle for eight, and then made a first down at the Indians' 34.

Brenden Allen on a reverse got past the Winchester right flank and streaked to the Winchester ten where another fine tackle by Bellino postponed the touchdown.

The Tanners were really fired up at this point. Tanceredi whirled off tackle for four and Castiglione bucked to the three. On the next play Castiglione slanted over, but his attempt for the extra point from placement was wide.

Neither team got anywhere in the remaining minutes of the half, Romano's interception of a Winchester pass stopping the Indians while the Indians' defense proved too stout for the battling Tanners.

Woburn might have knotted the count in the opening moments of a long pass thrown by Tanceredi, had the receiver been able to reach the ball. He had gotten by Winchester's defenders and into the clear but Tanceredi's heave was just a bit too long to be covered.

Haggerty ran the second half kickoff out to the Winchester 39 and Murphy and Haggerty made it first down on the Orange side of midfield. Dan Mantini saved the scoring march when he recovered a deep reverse fumble back at the Winchester 44, and Bellino started things again with a slash to the Woburn 41.

Murphy busted through for a first down at the 36 and Haggerty reversed for another at the 24. Bellino swept to the 15 and O'Brien on an end around reached the 12.

Murphy bulled through to the 6, and then, with fourth and four, what looked like a quarterback sweep right developed into a pretty pass by Pratt into the end zone where O'Brien gathered in the leather for the touchdown. Rotondi failed to kick in the extra point.

For the remainder of the quarter neither team was able to go consistently, but shortly after the teams changed goals the Indians stopped the Tanners at their 32. Bellino made a first down but the Indians were called for offside and the ball went back to their 27.

Murphy broke through to the Winchester 46, and after Bellino was stopped for a yard loss, bulled through again to the Tanager's 47. Dattilo was hurt on the play and had to be replaced by Nils Nelson.

Murphy again cracked the sacking Tanager line for a first down at the Woburn 30 where the often fickle goddess of luck smiled her sweetest on the Indians.

On first down Pratt faded and arched a long touchdown pass down field to the sprinting Bellino. Joe got into position to grab the leather, but another Joe, Woburn's Castiglione, got to first and for a split second it looked like he would intercept cleanly.

He did get his hands on the pigskin, but he couldn't hold it, and as he whirled away from Bellino the ball squirted from his arms into Bellino's eager paws at the Woburn two. The Winchester back merely had to turn and hop into the end zone to add six points to the Winchester total as deep gloom descended over the Orange stands.

Coach Knowlton was a bit slow getting in a replacement before the try for the extra point and Captain Riordan had to kick from five yards further back because of the infraction. His kick was no good.

Winchester kicked short and while the Tanager stood around watching Bill Jesdale, reverse guard, recovered the free ball for the Indians at the Woburn 37. On first down Lindsey went off tackle to the left in a fine burst of speed, whirled through the Tanager defenders all the way into the end zone for the prettiest running play of the game.

This time Big Johnny Riordan split the uprights with a perfect conversion and Winchester led, 32-6. Captain Romano grabbed the kickoff and scooted through every one on the Winchester team into the clear, being finally brought down on a nice tackle by Lindsey at the mid-field stripe with a clear field ahead.

Coach Knowlton had a lineup of second stringers and All Americas on the field and Woburn showed its appreciation by going all the way. Passes from Castiglione to Brown made first downs at the Winchester 34 and 20 and Castiglione bucked to the 13.

Tanceredi went off tackle and drove to the 2, where Castiglione recovered a fumble for a yard loss. Castiglione was stopped just short of the goal line, but on the next try bucked over, subsequently kicking the goal with a perfect placement to make the score 32-13.

Woburn tried a short kick, but Winchester recovered at the Tanager's 49. Derow picked up two, but Winchester was called for backs in motion and the ball went back to the Winchester 49.

Rimbach made three yards to the Woburn 48 and then occurred the last and one of the prettiest plays of the game.

Bill Ross, reserve quarterback, faded and shot off a perfect pass down field to the right. Nils Nelson, reserve end, made a nice catch at the Woburn 35, and making good use of a couple of down-field blockers dodged and ran into the end zone for the final score.

Ross made the extra point good by lobbing a soft pass into the end zone to "Brother John" Murphy. The summary:

Come In and Order One...Today!

Of course, any day is a wonderful day for stepping up to Cadillac.

When the magic moment arrives in a man's life when he feels entitled to the "car of cars," he should make the move without hesitation—regardless of year, or season, or any other consideration.

But we do feel, in all honesty, that the motorist who finds himself in that happy circumstance this fall is particularly fortunate.

For Cadillac has never offered so many wonderful things, in such abundant measure, as it does today.

It is supremely beautiful—with grace and dignity and majesty that set it instantly apart from the rest of the world's motor cars.

Its performance is simply breath-taking—even when measured against Cadillac's own extraordinary standards. And the car is luxurious and distinctive and pride-inspiring far beyond its illustrious predecessors.

In addition to all this, the current Cadillac creation is unbelievably practical to own and economical to operate. The lowest-priced Cadillac, for instance, now costs less than twenty-two different models of other makes of motor cars manufactured in America.

And you can ride out a normal, full day's journey on a single tankful of gasoline.

As if this were not sufficient to set it apart, a Cadillac car—according to an authoritative study of used car prices—may be expected to return a greater percentage of its owner's original investment at the time of resale than any other motor car in the land!

So—if you are considering a Cadillac for yourself and your family—come in and order one today!

It's the right thing to do—and it's the right time to do it.

We happened to be in police headquarters recently when a number of motorists arrived there with tickets for traffic violations, chiefly overtime parking. With but a single exception those who appeared seemed to feel that the officer should not have tagged their cars and offering a sort of excuse for having violated the hour or two hour parking limit. The exception was a popular local merchant, who admitted he had overparked and that he had been presuming too much on police good nature. Of all those to whom we listened he alone seemed to realize why parking laws and officers who will enforce them are necessary.

SMOKE-SCREEN TORIES

Editor of the Star:

The smoke-screen Tories, vainglorious cowards, say they are afraid — afraid they will incriminate themselves if they reveal their past. By their very refusal to cooperate with the patriots, who are striving to perpetuate the liberty our forefathers bequeathed to us, they incriminate themselves — they are incriminated already. They love themselves more than their country.

Max Muller, eminent philologist, wrote: "He who withholds the truth from men from motives of expediency, is either a coward or a criminal or both." "No man is worth his salt who is not ready at all times to risk his body, to risk his well-being, to risk his life, in a great cause," said Theodore Roosevelt; and Daniel Webster wrote: "No man can suffer too much in the defense of the liberties of his country."

The smoke-screens, if they had lived in '76, would have joined the American Tories, who called George Washington, Thomas Jefferson, Benjamin Franklin and their brave followers, traitors. If the British had triumphed at Yorktown and captured the leaders of the patriots, the brave Americans would have suffered the fate of the gallant Nathan Hale, American Revolutionary hero, who was captured September 21 and hanged the following morning. His last words are said to have been: "I only regret that I have but one life to lose for my country." Captain Hale was a graduate of Yale University that honored itself in honoring him by the erection on its campus of a memorial.

Samuel P. Sears, former president of the Massachusetts Bar Association, is quoted in the Christian Science Monitor of November 28 as saying: "One Iron Curtain in this confused world of ours is enough." "Men who invoke the Fifth Amendment in congressional probes into Communist activities are either guilty or not fit to be around. Nobody has the right to invoke the Fifth Amendment for personal convenience or to hamper congressional investigation."

England did not love us in '76, she has never loved us and doesn't today. But, what is the matter with Canada? She has refused to cooperate wholeheartedly with us in our struggle against the poison of infiltration of Communism. Igor Gouzenko was a member of the Soviet embassy in Ottawa. In 1945 he fled from there, taking with him Soviet documents that "helped convict eleven spies, including a Canadian M. P. and a British scientist and gave leads on some 400 other suspected Red operatives in the West." When our Government heard of this, the State Department asked Canada to let its investigators talk to Gouzenko, who said he was willing to talk, and "could give advice which would have good chances of bringing exposure of present Soviet spy rings in the U. S." The Canadian External Affairs Chief, Lester Pearson, refused our Government's request, stating that Gouzenko had told Canada all he knew and that was all there was to it. We were well come to a copy of it. Gouzenko, LEUTENANT COLONEL WILLIAM A. SOMERBY, JR.

Assumes command of Boston U. S. Army and U. S. Air Force recruiting and induction main station.

WELCOME TO THE NEW COMMAND

Editor of the Star:

The Military Manpower Committee takes great pleasure in introducing to the people of Winchester the officers now in charge of the Army Air Force Recruiting and in extending to them a hearty welcome to this area. Inasmuch as these are the officers handling the enlistment and induction of our young men a thumbnail sketch should be of interest.

Lt. Colonel William A. Somerby, Jr., USAF, is now Commanding Officer. He attended grammar and high school in Newton and is a graduate of Bryant and Stratton. His mother, Mrs. Blanche H. Somerby, lives in Duxbury, Mass. "The Colonel" (we don't use this phrase unless we really like and respect a man) has been in the Air Force for 20 years to date. During World War II he served as Commanding Officer of the 11th Combat Cargo Squadron in the China Burma India Theater of Operations. His last assignment was an Air Attache in Hungary where he spent 34 months (being behind the Iron Curtain is hardly a relaxing occupation). Colonel Somerby is a senior pilot and is the holder of two DFC's, three Air Medals, the Bronze Star, Pacific Theater Ribbon with 3 Stars and Burma Star. He resides in Franklin, Mass., with his wife and three daughters.

Captain Samuel R. Violante, USA, born in Woburn, attended public schools in Ansonia, Conn., enlisted in regular Army in 1935; World War II, was in Iceland with the 118 Infantry Regiment and living under an assumed name and under Canadian police protection, told an interviewer there was more to it. More recent reports state that Pearson has changed his mind and that Gouzenko may be interviewed, provided his statements are kept secret.

The Tories of today may find a more congenial atmosphere in Canada as many of their very refusal did following the Revolutionary War. The laxity of the era of the Roosevelt-Truman blight made it easy for the Communists to infiltrate the state departments and munition factories. An easy-going carelessness developed and spread, lawlessness increased, and the seeds of juvenile delinquency were planted, resulting in an alarming increase of juvenile crime.

The people are awakening, rising from their lethargy, and beginning to act. There are more good people than bad in our country; the trouble is, the bad get the headlines. Truth and reform will prevail in an era of better times. "Breathes there the man, with soul so dead, who never to himself hath said; this is my own, my native land."

Daniel C. Dennett, M. D.

THANK YOU!

Editor of the Star:

May we have space in your paper to thank all Winchester people who so generously answered our recent plea for help for the earthquake sufferers of Greece. Their response was speedy and made it possible for our local committee to send substantial help while it was most urgently needed. As chairman of the local committee may I express my own and my committee's deep appreciation.

JUNIOR HIGH FELLOWSHIP

The next meeting of the Junior High Fellowship of the First Congregational Church will be on Sunday, December 6. This meeting will be quite "special" in that the parents and Junior High Church School teachers have been invited.

The group will convene in the Old Vestry at 4:30 to take part in a worship service conducted by Binkie Clark, Janet Monro, Twinkie Mueller and Marion Pratt, with Kirby Baker at the piano. Parents and teachers will then go to Ripley School where Mrs. Norman J. Padelford, Department Superintendent, will introduce the teachers of the various classes and briefly acquaint the parents with the program of lessons their children are studying this year. Following this will be shown a film, "For Every Child". In the meantime the young people will be enjoying a program under the direction of Miss Vickery and a business meeting over which Doug Gowdy will preside.

At 5:30 both groups will meet together for recreation and refreshments. The committee in charge of the refreshments consists of Agnes Bixler, Bunny Browne, Brenda Cowles, John Curtis, Craig Davenport, Doug Gowdy, Sherry McNeill, Lin Morison and Terry Mulford.

TELEPHONE COMPANY MAKES HISTORY

SPANS ATLANTIC WITH CABLE

History was made today when the Long Lines Department of the Telephone and Telegraph Company announced plans to construct the first telephone cable system across the Atlantic Ocean. It will be the longest undersea voice cable in the world and the first laid at depths found in mid-ocean.

The announcement stated that an agreement had been signed, for construction of the cable, by the A. T. & T. Company, the British Post Office, which organization provides telephone service in Great Britain, and the Canadian Overseas Telecommunication Corporation, which furnishes overseas communications for Canada. It will be owned jointly by these three organizations. Simultaneous announcements were made by the appropriate agencies in Great Britain and Canada.

Developmental and research work on such a cable has been going on for 25 years. The project will take three years to complete and will cost $35,000,000.

This cable will mean greater reliability in transatlantic telephone conversations and greatly expanded facilities. It will provide physical telephone connection between the United States and the British Isles to supplement radio circuits now in use and will have three times present circuit capacity.

The submarine telephone cable system will contain a group of telephone circuits between New York and London, and another group between Montreal and London. At the gateway cities the circuits will connect with the telephone systems of the respective countries.

Spanning the Atlantic with a cable system capable of carrying telephone conversations will be the achievement of a goal visualized many years ago. Many technical and economic problems had to be solved before construction could be undertaken. Developments of the last few years in the art of telephony and the growing demand for overseas service have now made it technically and economically feasible to proceed.

The transatlantic portion of the system, with its many vacuum tube repeaters, will be 2,000 nautical miles in length and will be laid in depths up to three miles on the ocean floor between Scotland and Newfoundland. It will then connect with another submarine cable extending 300 miles westward to Nova Scotia. From there, a 350 mile overland microwave relay system will be built to carry the transatlantic circuits to the United States land telephone connections will be made with the Bell System network.

Development of the technical design for the deep sea section of the cable project has been under way in the Bell Telephone Laboratories for several years. Research in British telephone engineers has produced the design for the Newfoundland-Nova Scotia section of the submarine cable. As a result, the project will make use of the experience of both the Bell System and the British Post Office.

The announcement also covered many of the technical problems faced by telephone engineers in providing a transatlantic telephone cable. For example, amplifiers had to be developed which could be laid successfully from a cable ship, and which would operate satisfactorily without attention under the great pressures existing on the Atlantic floor. Such devices were developed several years ago and have undergone successful trial between Key West, Florida, and Havana, Cuba, since 1950. There will be over 100 underwater repeaters on the transatlantic segment of the proposed system. The vacuum tubes used in these amplifiers have been under development for years and have withstood both laboratory and underwater operating tests of the severest kind. The voice currents will travel along coaxial conductors which will be insulated by a solid layer of polyethylene. Power to operate the vacuum tubes on the ocean bed will be fed in from both ends of the cable along the same coaxial conductor. The cable will be protected by a wrapping of copper foil, over which there will be a heavy cover of jute and steel wires.

B. U. CHILDREN'S THEATRE PRESENTS "SLEEPING BEAUTY"

On Saturday afternoon, December 12, at 3:00 p. m. in the new auditorium of the George Washington School, the Boston University Children's Theatre will present "Sleeping Beauty". Grimm's much loved fairy tale.

There is scarcely a child who has not heard the story of the beautiful sleeping princess; and here they will see come to life their old friends, Princess Gloria, Prince Godwin, Chester the Jester, deaf Aunt Agatha, and the evil fairy Fearinda. Raggedy Ann, the lovable mascot of the theatre group will also be present to delight the children.

This production is being sponsored by the George Washington School Mothers' Association.

Mr. Wade L. Grindle, principal of Winchester High School and Elizabeth O'Brien of Marycliff Academy, were Winchester representatives at the meeting of the New England Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools which took place this week in Boston. More than 1,000 educators from all over New England attended this meeting of the oldest of the nation's regional educational associations.

Bell System overseas service opened on January 7, 1927, with a single radiotelephone circuit connecting New York to London. During the first year, service rapidly expanded between the two countries and nearly 2,500 calls were completed. Since then, the service demand to Great Britain has multiplied by more than 30 times. Last year, for example, some 75,000 conversations were completed to Great Britain. The Bell System now furnishes telephone service to 102 foreign countries and annually handles about 1,000,000 overseas messages.

GUILD OF THE INFANT SAVIOUR

The annual reception to new members will follow the regular monthly meeting of the Guild, which will be held in Masonic Hall at 2:00 p. m. December 8th.

Mrs. John Ryan, chairman of the afternoon, has arranged a musical program for this event.

Mrs. Talm Greenwood will pin a corsage on each new member and Mrs. Katherine Doyle will present her to the Guild.

This afternoon is always a high light in the Guild activities as the old members look forward to welcoming new associates.

Tea and refreshments will be served by Mrs. Joseph Burgatti and her committee.

On December 29th, a Children's Party will be conducted in Masonic Hall. This is good news for the small fry.

The police were notified Monday morning shortly after 8:30 by a resident of Prospect street that her infant daughter had swallowed a ring and was turning blue. Sgts. John Dolan and Edward Bowler made haste to the woman's home with Officer Alfred Poole and the police ambulance. A call was also sent in to Dr. Harry Mueller, who removed the ring from the baby's throat.

That human progress rests upon mankind's understanding of the wholly spiritual origin of man and the universe will be brought out in the Lesson-Sermon entitled, "God the Only Cause and Creator," which will be read at the Christian Science services Sunday.

Among the selections from the Bible, King James Version, the following will be read:

"Hast thou not known? hast thou not heard, that the everlasting God, the Lord, the Creator of the ends of the earth, fainteth not, neither is weary? there is no searching of his understanding" (Isaiah 40:28).

This passage from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will also be among those read:

"Spiritual causation is the one question to be considered, for more than all others spiritual causation relates to human progress. It is the key to the understanding of the supremacy of Spirit, and the law which is the basis of Truth's garment" (175:22).

MR. McMILLAN SPEAKS PLAINLY IN "A LETTER FROM GRAMPY"

11 Cottage Avenue, Winchester, Mass., December 1, 1953

Dear Grandchildren: I have just finished talking with someone in Princeton, New Jersey, about "Acoustics". It is fitting that I should seek information there, because the country looks up to it on account of its achievements in research, and because of the great personage who heads its Research Institute. In building churches and music halls and theatres and all sorts of buildings acoustics is one of the important studies and if this "science of sound" be not considered in making the plans all the work may be wasted so far as hearing goes. Errors can be of tremendous harm in the buildings, but out-of-doors errors can be much worse. When changes are made, both inside and outside of buildings, this science has to be depended on to safeguard what is being done. Even raising the levels of existing railroads can be the means of ruining a whole neighborhood and menacing the health of hundreds and hundreds of people, if this "science of sound" is being done in order to find out the effect the raising would have on the volume of sound. I had planned for you a special series of articles about Nature studies, but am obliged to write this one first, because of something happening in Winchester. It involves what I must call "a crime against a whole town and all its people", through ignorance of the science of sound. First I will talk about this crime, and then perhaps about other past happenings about which you already know, and which may enable you to draw conclusions, being about injuries and hardships caused to people through ignorance of the science of sound. I have been thinking of this most important feature in planning, and disregard for the rights of everyone. It is not always a conscious wrongdoing, this disregard, but the effect is the same.

Your Mother may have explained how Winchester came into being. How all New England was covered with ice until storms and floods came and moved the ice out to sea, and revealed what lay beneath. When the first white people settled here they did not understand that if others were already here, of different color and habits and language then the others must be considered and no rights at all. They actually paid money to people if they would only drive them away. Where we live is part of a long and beautiful valley, called the Merrimack Valley, with lakes and rivers and hills, and wonderful birds and animals. The rivers and the streams turned mill-wheels for all sorts of grain

A STORY WITH A MORAL

The Robert P. Wild of Herrick street went over to Concord last Thursday to spend Thanksgiving with Mrs. Wild's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. John Chandler Hill.

After dinner in the interest of good physical hygiene "Bob" took the kiddos for a walk and as they passed a neighboring farm they saw some cattle in a pasture.

The cattle were at some distance and Bob thought it would be a good idea to get them nearer to his little party so that the children could get a better look. To do so he entered the pasture with his son, Russell, in his arms and did his best to get the cattle's attention.

His best was plenty good enough, as things turned out, for two good sized steers not only came right over, but clearly resented the invasion of their domain.

Bob started to leave the pasture at speed, but he didn't miss the reception committee by much, and in the end he had to toss Russell over the fence and made a very rapid leap over the barrier himself.

His landing wasn't just as he planned it, and he suffered several bruised and cracked ribs. Russell wasn't hurt, fortunately, and Bob, at last reports, suffered no permanent ill effects. The moral, according to "Bob", is never to enter a populated pasture unless you really know your steers!

Mr. and Mrs. George B. Field of Maxwell road spent the past week-end in New York and Stamford, Conn., going on to New York to see their daughter, Betty Field, co-starred with Edna Best in "Ladies of the Corridor" at the Longacre Theatre. After the Saturday evening performance the Fields were guests of Miss Field and her husband, Mr. Elmer Rice, at their home in Stamford.

WHEELER — CROWELL

There is Winchester interest in the marriage which took place at the First Parish Meeting House in Concord on Saturday afternoon, November 28, when Miss Barbara Hall Crowell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Gibbs Crowell of Concord, formerly of Winchester, became the bride of Harvey Wheeler. The four o'clock candlelight service was read by the Rev. Edward Perry Daniels in an attractive setting of cymbidium ferns, and a reception followed at the Concord Country Club where the bridal party received before an antique gold screen banked with bittersweet and arbutus.

Given in marriage by her father, Miss Crowell wore a family heirloom wedding gown. Fashioned of silk taffeta, it had pleated taffeta ruffles edging the scalloped hemline, and a full cathedral-length train. Her veil and cap of antique Brussels point lace were held in place by stephanotis and she carried a bouquet of bouvardia and Eucharis lilies.

Mrs. Malcolm Young of Lexington was her sister's matron of honor. Her gown of pale gold faille taffeta had a portrait neckline and long flared skirt and she carried a bouquet of Italian wheat, cinnamon fern and bittersweet tied with a bow and streamers of cinnamon velvet ribbon.

The bridesmaids were Mrs. David Wilcox of New York City; Miss Jane Garvey of Cincinnati, Ohio; Miss Joan Dickey of Pittsburgh, Pa., and Hyannisport; and Miss Margaret Barr of Louisville, Ky. Their gowns and bouquets were like those of the matron of honor. All the attendants wore bandeaux of velvet ribbon in tones of cinnamon, with aigrettes of wheat.

Mrs. Crowell, the bride's mother, wore taupe faille with a hat of taupe and gold leaves and a corsage of green and white cypripedium orchids. Mrs. Wheeler, mother of the bridegroom, was gowned in French blue brocade with a hat to match and an orchid corsage.

Charles D. MacPherson of Acton was best man. The ushers included David Wheeler of Reading, Pa., brother of the bridegroom; Malcolm Young of Lexington, brother-in-law of the bride; Fessenden Morse of Wayland; Gardner Edgerton and Frank Coolidge of Concord; and Charles L. Collins of Lexington.

The bride was graduated from Westover School and attended Bennett Junior College and the Vesper George School of Art. She is a member of the Junior League of Boston. The bridegroom prepared at Belmont Hill School and attended Trinity College, which he left to become a lieutenant in the U. S. Naval Air Force during World War II. After a wedding trip to the South, they will make their home in Concord.

Rev. William S. Packer of Yale street spent Thanksgiving in Washington with his daughter, Mrs. Cedric Seager (Gertrude Packer). He flew down and back, and according to his own account, did not like the experience.

THE MYSTIC GLEE CLUB SEPTET

NEW MYSTIC LEAGUE

Since the popular Mystic Four was forced to disband several years ago due to the migration of Skip White and Al Swett to other locations, there has been a demand for another group within the club to do the type of close harmony which had proved so popular.

Not until this year, however, has it been possible to find the right combination of voices to carry on in the style of that excellent quartet.

Originally organized as the Mystic Glee Club Octette, the group will operate temporarily as a septet, since Len Lord, one of its basses, is presently on a business trip to the West Coast.

The Glee Club members, having had a pre-view of the Septet, are certain that it will prove to be one of the highlights of the 14th Annual Winter Concert to be held in the Winchester High School Auditorium on Saturday evening, December 12.

In addition to Tom Worthen and Bill Hopkins of the Mystic Four, the new group includes Ken Wright and George Stothoff, first tenors, Jack Gilbert, second tenor, Fred Rozelle, baritone and Dick Jackson, bass.

Rear Admiral Julian Dubois Wilson, USN, ret., and Mrs. Wilson of Hyannis and Washington, D. C., announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Julianna Dubois Wilson, to William Foss Thompson, son of Mrs. William Laban Thompson of Cabot street, and the late Mr. Thompson.

Mr. Thompson, a lieutenant in the Naval Reserve, was graduated from the Maine Maritime Academy and from Harvard University. He is now attending the Harvard Graduate School of Business Administration.

Fourteen centuries of masterpieces from the sixth to the nineteenth centuries are on display. BOOK WEEK AT PARKHURST SCHOOL

American Book Week was observed by the pupils at the Parkhurst School on November 19, when the children in Mrs. Ruby Wiggert's third grade presented their Book Week assembly program. A poem calling all who heard to join in the fun of reading books opened the program; then followed several Mother Goose rhymes and songs.

To prove that reading can be fun and instructive at the same time, three of Aesop's fables were read. The audience enjoyed the stories and learned three lessons: first, that sometimes a good head is better than a strong body; second, that one good turn deserves another; and third, that it is one thing to talk about a plan and another to make the plan work.

Following the fables, the class presented a short play entitled "The Golden Pears." The program closed with a song about Book Week. The youngsters hope that in presenting this program they aroused in some of their schoolmates the desire to do more reading.

A REMINDER

Winchester townspeople are reminded that on Sunday, December 13, at 4 o'clock in the Winchester Unitarian Church the augmented Winchester Unitarian Choir will present a Vespers program featuring "The Messiah" Handel's great Christmas Oratorio, and his Coronation anthem, "Zadok the Priest."

Twenty-five or more Children's Haven boys and girls, their teachers; Mr. and Mrs. William Hodges; Mr. and Mrs. William Murray from the Haven; Dr. and Mrs. Dwight L. Carl, Rev. and Mrs. Lawrence Small, and Rev. Almeda Vickery will be guests of the Guild that evening. Mrs. Elizabeth McWha is in charge of the supper. Mrs. F. Milne Blanchard is chairman of Gifts; Mrs. Margaret Withington, tables; Mrs. Will Skerry, general arrangements.

The supper is provided for members and guests, and reservations must be made before Sunday at Winchester 6-2709-R or Winchester 6-1212-M.

RIORDAN ON HERALD TEAM

Big John Riordan, Winchester High School's football captain and hard-hitting center on the Indians' eleven for the past two seasons, was selected by the Boston Herald last week-end as center on the paper's All Scholastic Team for 1953.

Riordan, a Marines reservist, after showing a lot of promise as a pivot man in 1952, blossomed into real stardom this past season, passing very effectively, blocking well on offense and playing a slashing defensive game backing up the line. His jolting tackles and diagnosis of plays meant much to the Indians, particularly at early season when the green Indians were finding themselves.

At 6 ft. 3 in. and 195 pounds Johnny is a great college prospect. He has been a great captain in fact Coach Knowlton rates him as a fine leader as he has had in his entire coaching experience. This is high praise for back a few years there was a pretty fair sort of captain at Winchester in the person of one William Irvine West.

COURT LEAVES FILENE'S

FORMER WINCHESTER BOY TO ESTABLISH OWN BUSINESS

Lee W. Court, display manager of Filene's, has announced his resignation effective February 1, to establish his own business in Boston. The announcement is of interest here since Mr. Court lived in Winchester as a boy, and while here displayed the talent that has carried him so far in the field of art and commercial design. One of his early paintings, that of the big fire years ago at the First Baptist Church in Woburn, is hanging in the recreation room of the Central Fire Station.

Mr. Court has been with Filene's for 28 years, holding the positions of store planning designer, assistant operating superintendent and for the past ten years, display manager.

Before opening his office Mr. Court will make a short business trip to South America. On his return he will establish his own consulting service in store planning, store fixturing, store display, sales and fashion promotion on a national scale.

H. D. Hodgkinson, general manager of Filene's has announced that Mr. Court will be retained as a consultant.

THE LAYMEN OF FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

On Wednesday evening of this week, some fifty laymen gathered at the Church for the purpose of canvassing the opportunities and responsibilities the Church affords its laymen. The meeting was characterized by enthusiasm and a deep concern as to how the laymen can more effectively serve the Church and advance Christ's Kingdom.

This was the second such meeting held at First Baptist Church in the last month and it appears that the laymen are determined to make their influence felt in an effective way. We all thank Miss Alfred McLaughlin for the fine entertainment and also the Committee who set up the program.

Jason Handy, eight year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Gardner Handy of 16 Park avenue is a patient at the Winchester Hospital, with a broken arm.

EDGAR HEADS NEW B. & M. DEPARTMENT

Creation of a separate passenger service department of the Boston and Maine Railroad, to be headed by Vice-President Robert M. Edgar of 2 Oxford street, was announced this week by President T. G. Sughrie for the purpose of intensive review of passenger services and reduction of the annual deficit from passenger operations.

In making the announcement President Sughrie stated that the new head of the Passenger Department will have complete authority to set up an organization capable of handling traffic, sales and operations.

"There must be a way to substantially reduce, if not completely eliminate the annual deficit from passenger operations which has approximated $12,000,000 a year since the war," Mr. Sughrie said. "We believe," he continued, "that way is to improve our service in those areas where it is needed and used, or where a potential for increased use exists, just as much as it is necessary to curtail or eliminate services operated at losses in areas where current use is slight and no potential for growth exists."

Vice-President Edgar, who was assigned to head up the railroad's new passenger service, is a native of a Watertown and a graduate of Dartmouth College with the class of 1928. He entered the service of the Boston and Maine soon after his graduation from college and worked his way up the railroad ladder through the Traffic Department in Massachusetts, Vermont, Maine, and New Hampshire prior to his appointment as assistant to the vice-president in charge of traffic for the Boston and Maine and Maine Central Railroads. He was appointed assistant to the president of the Boston and Maine in 1946 and was elected a vice-president in 1952. He is a director of the Mystic Terminal Company, The Boston Garden-Arena Corporation, the Boston Professional Hockey Association, and the New England Council.

Mr. and Mrs. David B. Thoms, Jr., of Maxwell road, with their daughter, Betsy and sons, Billy and Charles, spent the Thanksgiving week-end in Torrington, Conn., with Mr. Thoms' parents, Mr. and Mrs. David B. Thoms.

WINCHESTER TOASTMISTRESS CLUB

Winchester Toastmistress Club will meet on the evening of December 8, at the home of Mrs. Beulah Thompson of 45 College avenue, Medford. This meeting marks the close of another successful year for Winchester Toastmistress Club.

In keeping with the season as well as the ideals and aims of Toastmistress a Christmas program has been planned.

The speakers of the evening will be Miss Edna Brownell of Belmont, whose speech will concern Charles Dickens and one of the best loved of all Christmas Tales—"A Christmas Carol".

Mrs. Virginia Miller of Medford will tell the story of "The Other Wise Man".

Miss Hilda Hope of Winchester will reassure the members "There is a Santa Claus" and Mrs. Ina Ferguson of Medford will speak about that mystical and magical "Toyland".

The timer for the evening will be Miss Mae McDonough of Dorchester. Toastmistress for the evening will be Mrs. Florence Thirston of Medford. Miss Orrie Grant of Winchester and Mrs. Alice Coldwell of Reading will act as Evaluators.

V. F. W. AUXILIARY

The V. F. W. Auxiliary, 3719, regular meeting will be held Monday evening, December 7th at Post's Home. There will be a Christmas party and a buffet supper will be served with the exchanging of gifts.

Last night, Thursday, December 3, the auxiliary put on at Bedford Hospital a dancing party for 175 veterans.

WYMAN SCHOOL ASSEMBLY

"The First Thanksgiving" was the title of an impressive assembly presented by the pupils of Miss Betty Batchelder's fourth grade on November 22. The play opened with a group of children of today talking about the brave Pilgrims of long ago.

As they talked, the scene changed to the Plymouth of 1621. Pupils dressed in the costumes of the Pilgrim fathers or wearing the garb of their Indian friends enacted the well known stories of that first year when the little settlement was struggling for existence. At last the efforts of the colonists were successful, and Governor Bradford gave the order for a great feast of thanksgiving.

To the appreciative audience of parents and friends it seemed that the children had caught the real spirit of that first Thanksgiving, when the Pilgrims came to give thanks for all the good things of their new life — for a free land where people might worship as they wished, for men's right to speak as they wished and to govern themselves, for food enough and true friends. As they gathered for the feast, the announcer asked everyone to look about him and be thankful for the blessings of today, and then the children joined in the Hymn of Thanksgiving.

Members of the cast were as follows:

Announcer: Walter Scott. Children of 1953: Thomas Bateman, John Clark, Roger Newton, Stephen Powers, James Holdam, John Giger, Robert Donlon, Garrett Graves, Gail Towner, David Taylor.

Pilgrims: Josiah Bacon, Ann

Carleton, Marjory Beal, Edmond Harrington, Gordon Trevett, James von Rosenvinge, Margaret Matson, Bette Lou Brown, Mary Jackson, Jane Hood, Juliette Moran, Irene Loftus, Louise Herron.

Friendly Indians: Ronald Camara, Malcolm Bennett.

President Raymond Merrill of the Cooperative Bank, and Mrs. Merrill have returned to Winchester from Arlington and are living at 30 Symmes road. The Merrills were for many years residents of the Rangely section of Winchester before moving to Arlington.

FIRST CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH MEN'S CLUB

The Men's Club December meeting held this past Tuesday evening at Chidley Hall proved to be both interesting and highly educational.
Dr. John S. Badeau, President of the Near East Foundation, New York City, spoke on the topic
"Watch the Middle East—World Danger Zone."

With the ease that comes with experience and the conviction of his knowledge Dr. Badeau presented a clear and simple picture of the Middle East and the forces at work there in a manner that all could understand. Few people could possibly comprehend this situation from the current news reports and nowhere has it been presented in more concise form.

Dr. Badeau pointed out that the small interest the United States had in the Middle East became a real concern in 1947 with the emergence of the Truman Doctrine. The stand taken in support of Turkey and Greece against possible Russian aggression made the United States major influence in this whole area.

There have been tensions in this area for thousands of years but in recent years these tensions have come to a head. The reasons can be summed up in three Arab words or phrases which may be translated to (1) association (2) order and
(3) food.

The association of the Arab world with the Western World has been increased because of the new Western interests in that area. The many associations of East and West because of political and commercial interests has influenced the Arab. There is a tendency to take up Western ideas of nationalism, self government and individual freedom of determination.

These very ideas of sovereignty and independence are behind the conflicts with the British in the Suez.
The Israel-Arab conflict is centered in large measure now on how the Western World stands behind the U. N. resolutions in demanding Israel should comply. The Arab World had learned Western ideas by association but will they be treated by the Western World in the way they feel the West would want to be treated?

The "new order" in the Middle East is shown by a search for new ideas of government. This is difficult because of the high degree of illiteracy which makes true democratic government impractical. Old

EXHIBIT OF MOBILES OUTSTANDING

The fascinating whirl of light and shadow produced by mobiles and spotlights greeted members of the Winchester Art Association on Tuesday evening for a gala entrance into the holiday spirit. The exhibition, which was brought here by the efforts of Mrs. Samuel B.
Kirkwood from the Margaret Brown Gallery, Boston, and the Addison Gallery of Andover, is one of the most interesting ever held at the library, and its opening aroused unusual enthusiasm, especially among the men in the audience.

In addition to the intricate and delicately balanced leaf and natural forms kept swinging by well-placed fans, there were stables, which are sculptural forms similar in plan to the mobiles except that they do not move through space. These stables are made of clear or colored plastics or of metals or of combinations of these, and though interesting, in general they are less exciting than the mobiles with their airy grace or dignified rhythm to emphasize the beauty of form and color.

Pressure from the West and startling was a mobile called "The Miscreant"; it is a most engaging sculptural representation of a bounding puppy with remarkable grace of form and action.

Accompanying the exhibition was a movie showing Alexander Calder at work in his studio making the mobiles and suggesting by various fates of photography and sound the sources for the movements and shapes involved in mobile sculpture and the kind of artistic synthesis of the experiences in life which produce this form of art through Mr.
Calder's manipulations.

The Association considers this exhibition outstanding in every way and congratulates Mrs. Kirkwood not only upon having brought it here but also upon the artistic success of the labor in hanging it.

The hostess for the evening was Mrs. Milton L. Brown who was assisted by Mrs. E. P. Walker, Mrs.
C. F. A. Siedhof, Mrs. Kenneth Hall and Mrs. A. B. Bailey.

The entertainment committee of the Winchester Country Club is sponsoring one of the popular mixed progressive bridge parties on Wednesday evening, December 9, with play starting promptly at 8 o'clock. Partners will play together all evening, and there are many fine prizes for the high scorers.

Just A Thought For Christmas

Whose Birthday Is It?

HEVEY'S PHARMACY

DANGEROUS DECEMBER

Records at the Massachusetts Registry of Motor Vehicles show that December is the most dangerous month on our highways. During the past five Decembers, more than 25,000 persons have been injured, many permanently disabled, while 332 were killed.

Because motorists and pedestrians have been co-operating with official accident prevention programs state-wide, the record of December highway killings has been reduced from 83 in 1950 to 56 in 1952.

If every motorist and pedestrian will continue his full co-operation by displaying greater courtesy, caution and consideration for others and will try to promote the spirit of "Peace On Earth" while on the highway, we can prevent death and injury through the prevention of traffic mishaps and extend our traditional greeting of "Good Will To All Men" in Dangerous December.

Registrar King, Chairman of the Massachusetts Highway Safety Committee, urges every highway user to make a special effort to save lives this month.

the doll that cries real tears

Your youngster will have hours of fun playing with Tiny Tears, like Miss Frances does at Ding Dong School. Tiny Tears is the nearest thing to a live baby. Big wet tears roll down her fat, chubby cheeks as she cries lustily to be changed, fed, bathed and pampered. She also sleeps, drinks her bottle, wets her diapers, takes a bath; so many of the things real live babies do. Tiny Tears will give your little girl the thrill of being "make believe" grown-up mother. YOUR youngster will love Miss Frances' television favorite Tiny Tears.

MORE ORANGE PEELS

Castiglione was the bulwark of the Tanners' offense and he did some nice bucking through the big Winchester line. He also passed and kicked well, did the kicking off and kicked the points after, an all around guy.

Coach Paul Dorrington was most unhappy when his boys just stood around and let Winchester's Bill Jesdale recover that short kickoff in the second half. The boys apparently forgot about a kickoff being a free ball, and when you see some of the things the college players, and even the pros, do on occasion, lapses by school boys aren't to be wondered at.

This particular lapse was costly however, for Al Lindsey scored from 37 yards out on the next play. Those in the stands who have been wanting to see the speedy "Al" really get out there and run had their wish on the holiday, and was he happy! You should have seen his grin as he crossed that last white line!

It really was a shame that Castiglione had to be the goat of that bobbled interception that gave Winchester its fourth touchdown. "Joe" never did have possession of the ball, but in commiserating with him you shouldn't overlook Bellino's speed that got him in position, and his quick thinking and reflexes that enabled him to grab the ball before it hit the ground and score from the two.

While every one on the Winchester side of the field got a big boost out of that final play touchdown pass from Bill Ross to Nils Nelson, Coach Knowlton probably got the biggest kick of all from the kids' feet. Bill's father, "Herb", was a regular end on Knowlton's 1927 team and Hennie and Nils' father, Herb Nelson, a tackle, also played together, though not that year.

Talking of crowds, did you notice the press box? At one time there were sixteen people in a place designed to handle six to eight persons. A board of the platform actually did give way during the half time period, but fortunately no one went down with it. Another year some different arrangements will have to be made.

Jerry Nason, big boss of the Boston Globe sports pages covered the game personally as he usually does on Thanksgiving, and both Jimmy Haggerty, editor of the Woburn Daily Times, and John Gaffney of the Times staff were in the press box. Both died a thousand deaths during that pass interception fumble that gave Winchester a touchdown.

We didn't happen to see either "Ziggy" Beatty or "Mack" Callahan of Woburn at the game, but we will bet they were among those present. We will also wager that "Mack" was looking for them after the game and couldn't find them!

R. Vincent Hayward, Winchester's faculty manager, a bit on the careworn side the day before the holiday, was all smiles at the field and took a strategic position near the principal entrance gates to hear the drop of the dubloons as the crowd entered the field.

"MESSIAH" SUNDAY

The Christmas Choral Vespers of "The Messiah" and "Zadok the Priest" by the augmented Winchester Unitarian Choir will take place at the Winchester Unitarian Church at 4:00 o'clock on Sunday, December 13. Singing with the regular members of the Choir will be the Mary Witham Singers and several guests, and the program is under the direction of Mary Ranton Witham, assisted by Mrs. Theodore von Rosenzweig. The organist will be Weston L. Brannen.

The program will begin with an organ prelude, Chorale and Chorale Prelude on "Puer Natus in Bethlehem" by Buxtehude, followed by a Rhythmic Candle Processional by the members of the Motion Choir. Then the augmented Choir will sing "Zadok the Priest". This is the first of four Coronation Anthems composed by Handel in 1728 for the Coronation of George II, and it is the most famous of the four. Those who watched the Coronation of Elizabeth II, last June, or subsequently saw the film "A Queen Is Crowned", will recognize "Zadok the Priest" as the principal musical background for the ceremonies within Westminster Abbey itself, and particularly for that part of the service known as the Anointing. About "The Messiah", at this season of the year, little needs to be said. This is the Christmas season, this is the Christmas Oratorio, and the section of it to be presented Sunday is the Christmas section, or Part I, and, of course, the Hallelujah Chorus. The soloists will be Dolores Baldyga, Soprano; Muriel Thorley, Contralto; John Morabito, Tenor; and George Fortune, Bass.

Mrs. Fulton Brown of Arlington street, Mrs. John Lohmeyer of Manchester road, and Mrs. George Marks of Foxcroft road, are Winchester artists showing paintings in the exhibition by members of the Boston YWCA Workshops opening December 13 and continuing through the holidays at YW headquarters, 140 Clarendon street, Boston.

NOTES OF THE THANKSGIVING GAME

What a day for a holiday football game Thanksgiving turned out to be. Prognostications during the entire day before were for rain all day the holiday and it sure looked like the weatherman was going to be right for a change. As a consequence the bright sunshine was doubly welcome, and though it was pretty blameworthy nippy up in the press box, conditions elsewhere were ideal.

Considering the heavy rain all day before the holiday and the downpour of the previous Monday the gridiron on Manchester Field was in great shape, with plenty of solid turf for running and cutting. It was a good thing the game was not at Woburn, for even with the advent of the sun the stadium behind the high school there would have been a mudhole.

Though there wasn't too much doubt about the winner, especially after Winchester's quick touchdown in the third quarter, the game was a good one to watch, and during the first half at least, the out-weighted Tanners made a real contest of it.

Many figured the crowd was the largest ever to attend a Winchester-Woburn game. The augmented stands had a capacity of 6,000 and there surely were two or maybe more thousands at vantage points around the gridiron.

We thought the Woburn High School band was the best the Tanners have shown at these games, and the visiting musicians were well uniformed. They were preceded by a phalanx of white uniformed drum-majorettes who strutted their stuff up and down the field.

It didn't seem natural to have the fine Winchester High School band play the "Star Spangled Banner" from the stands instead of from the middle of the gridiron to start off the game, but the authorities evidently figured it would be better to get the band into their section in good season. This was good judgment, and our National Anthem sounded just as good as ever as Freddie Felmet and his scarlet-coated musicians played it.

We noted "Mack" McKenzie, former Woburn Times reporter, enjoying the game from a chair provided for him by Coach Henry Knowlton near the Winchester bench. "Mack" has seen a lot of Winchester-Woburn games come and go and always get a big kick out of the contests.

The holiday game, while fiercely contested, was very clearly played, with no evidence at all of unnecessary rough stuff. The boys hit hard, but fairly and the followers of both clubs could be proud of their lads.

Winchester surely missed Jim Cusack out of the center of its line. The star guard waited eagerly for news of the game which was relayed to him just as soon as possible and the team gave Jim the game ball, autographed by all the players and coaches, a fine gesture which was much appreciated by Jim and his parents.

"Reg", "Jake" (home on leave) and Jean Wentworth took some fine colored movies of the game and Tuesday evening of this week Coach Knowlton took them to the Cusack home to let Jim see just what he missed on the holiday.

There were no bad injuries Thanksgiving. Some of the boys got bumped pretty hard, especially those who got in the way of big "Mike" Murphy when he was under a full head of steam. Those too who were tackled by Captain John Riordan of Winchester knew full well they had been hit.

Add to other fine safeties Winchester has had in the past, the name of Joe Bellino. This great sophomore backfield prospect made a couple of last-ditch tackles on the holiday that saved probably Woburn touchdowns, once hand fighting his way through two blockers to make the kill.

The judges who picked the best Winchester back and lineman chose "Mike" Murphy and Danny Mantini. Not taking a thing from either boy, it still must have been hard to pick them over Bellino and Riordan. And to our mind "Dave" Pratt, senior quarter-back, made his last game in a Winchester uniform his best.

Those who saw Dave Rotondi attempt the placement kicks for point-after-touchdowns for the first time Thanksgiving should remember that the kid was definitely off form. He had a record of nine straight conversions previous to the holiday.

Winchester wasn't too happy about the officials' call on the first touchdown, which Mike Murphy actually made twice. "Mike" was easily over on his belt from eight yards out, carrying a couple of Woburn boys on his back, but for some reason the official calling the play put the ball back on the one and made him try again. This time there was no question, Murphy shoving half the line and two-backers-up into the end zone with him. It don't pay to get Mike riled, ask Wakefield!

MORE ORANGE PEELS

They say the wolves are after Coach Paul Dorrington at Woburn, but those who really know their football feel that the former Arlington and Holy Cross center has done very well indeed with the available material and other problems inherent at Woburn. His teams have played hard, interesting and above all, clean football against Winchester and he is well thought of here.

Those girl tumbler of Winchester High put on a great exhibition between the halves and it is too bad that so many people in the stands could not see what was really a fine show. The crowd was permitted to move freely about the gridiron during the between-the-halves period and quickly formed half-circles around the tumblers, effectively blotting them from the view of the lower seats of the stands.

It looked a bit ludicrous to see the Woburn team sitting or kneeling on the wet turf while their benches were filled with visiting firemen. We suppose they were all VIPs but we still think the boys rated the benches ahead of most of the occupants.

For the benefit of those who may have wondered what Brad Bentley of Winchester and Camp Wyanoke was doing with that youngster on his shoulders between the halves, he was trying to get the boy up high enough to spot his lost parents in the crowd. The kiddo was missing dad and mom and a bit tearful when Brad and Edna took over, and the view from Brad's elevation did the trick and affected a mutually happy reunion.

TALKED WITH SON IN JAPAN

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph E. Carlisle of 10 Reservoir street had a thrilling experience early last Sunday morning when they received a telephone call from their son, Lt. Allen M. Carlisle, USA, in Tokyo, Japan. Lt. Carlisle, who is with Photographic Interpretation Intelligence, is presently on a rest and recreation leave in Japan. He put his call home through exactly six months from the day he landed at Inchon in Korea, where he has been on active duty.

His parents were called by an operator in Los Angeles, Cal., Saturday morning and told that their son would call them after midnight Sunday morning. Needless to state the Carlises were ready and waiting, and they report that their son's voice came through perfectly. They got the call at 12:45 Sunday morning and their son informed them that he called them in Japan at 2:45 in the afternoon.

GRID PROSPECTS FOR "JOCKO" GOOD

Edward "Jocko" Serika is one of the outstanding prospects in the Southeastern Conference, says Coach Murray Warmath of Mississippi State College, where the Winchester youth is a student. "Jocko", who is planning a coaching career, is enrolled in the School of Physical Education.

Mid-semester grades, recently tendered, show that he is a good student. He is a non-commissioned officer in the Marine Corps Officer Candidate's Program and upon graduation will be commissioned a second lieutenant in the Marine Reserve.

Early in the season "Jocko" was transferred from the freshman to the varsity training squad, where he started three freshman games. In the Louisiana State University game he made the most spectacular play of the day, a 58 yard kickoff return, and was a star player throughout the game.

"We expect great things from this natural football player, and Mississippi is already banking on his baseball ability," Coach Warmath commented. "Jocko" is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Serika of Middlesex street. At Winchester High he played the outfield and caught on the baseball team and was one of the best running backs in the history of Winchester football.

DARTMOUTH WOMEN'S CLUB

The December meeting of the Dartmouth Women's Club will be held Thursday, December 17, at 2:00 p. m. at the Isabelle Stewart Gardner Museum, Fenway Court, Boston.

MRS. BEATRICE M. DABNEY

Mrs. Beatrice M. Dabney, widow of John P. Dabney, 2nd, and a former well-known resident of Winchester, died Saturday, December 5, at the New England Sanitarium and Hospital following a brief illness. Though her health of late had not been good she had been out as usual on the day of her death.

Mrs. Dabney was the daughter of Dr. Adolphus B. and Imogene (Mosher) Gunter. She was born in Charlestown January 28, 1885, and was educated at Girls Latin School in Boston and Abbot Academy in Andover, from which she graduated in 1904.

She was married June 26, 1905, and spent the first years of her married life in Seattle, Wash., coming to Winchester in 1921. Until Mr. Dabney's death January 1, 1949, she and her family lived on Manchester road. She was a member of the Unitarian Church, the Women's Alliance of that church, the Winchester Women's Republican Club and a former member of the Portnightly Women's Club.

After her husband's death Mrs. Dabney went to make her home with her daughter, Mrs. John H. Jordan, at 259 Summer avenue, Reading. Besides Mrs. Jordan, she leaves a son, Francis L. Dabney of Omaha, Neb.; six grandchildren; two sisters, Mrs. Edythe Derby of Winchester and Mrs. J. A. Garfield Jeannotte of Freeport, Maine; also a brother, Channing Gunter of Lowell.

Cremation took place Monday afternoon at Mt. Auburn Cemetery. Private memorial services were held at the late residence on Tuesday afternoon.

89th BIRTHDAY

Mr. George H. Hamilton, long a widely known resident of Winchester, observed his 89th birthday Wednesday at the Home for Aged People. He received a shower of cards and other messages of congratulation, and also a visit from his daughter, Mrs. Martha Tibbetts, who came down from her home in Concord, N. H., accompanied by her daughter and two grandsons.

Mr. Hamilton went out to dinner with Mrs. Tibbetts and her family, and during the afternoon had another visitor, Capt. Robert S. Hamilton, USAF, newly home from an 18-month tour of duty in France and Morocco. A birthday cake at supper and other visitors during the evening rounded out a pleasant day for Mr. Hamilton, who is out every day and in good health despite his advanced age.

MISS BURACKER ENGAGED

Rear Admiral William H. Buracker, USN (ret.) and Mrs. Buracker of Stratford road, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Dorothy Ladd Buracker, to Thomas Tongue, 2nd, son of Mr. Benjamin S. Tongue of Baltimore, Md., and the late Katharine MacRae Tongue.

Miss Buracker was graduated from Mt. Holyoke College in 1953 and is doing graduate work at Radcliffe. Mr. Tongue, who served with the Marine Corps for two years, is a graduate of Washington and Lee University.

WINCHESTER BOYS AT DIX

Three Winchester boys, Robert L. Elliott, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Elliott of 136 Pond street, Ernest W. Clark, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest W. Clark of 8 Westley street; and Peter A. Redding, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. Redding of 28 Ledyard road, have arrived at Port Dix in New Jersey for eight weeks of basic training with the 9th Infantry Division.

Redding and Elliott have been assigned to Co. M of the 39th Infantry Regiment and Clark, to Battery A, 84th Field Artillery Battalion.

TO PLAY IN BOSTON

SUE HIGHT HAS LEADING PART IN GUYS AND DOLLS

Winchester friends of Sue Hight, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Hight of Ledyard road, are looking forward to the Boston opening of "Guys and Dolls," the Broadway musical hit, in which she has one of the leading parts.

"Guys and Dolls" opens Christmas Day at the Schubert after a long run on Broadway. Miss Hight, who left Bette Davis' show, "Two's Company," to assume the role of the Salvation Army Doll in "Guys and Dolls" last March has achieved a real success in big time show business since she played in "Gentlemen Prefer Blondes" commencing in August of 1950.

She had been in New York for two and one-half years previous to the studying voice, dancing and dramatics after graduating from Winchester High, Colby Junior College and the Popular School of the New England Conservatory of Music.

After "Gentlemen Prefer Blondes" Sue played 16 weeks in the Don Ameche Show on TV before joining the cast of "South Pacific." Then followed an engagement at the Papermill Playhouse in New Jersey where she played Bianca in "Kiss Me Kate" and Julie in the immortal "Show Boat."

A lot of water has gone over the dam since Sue was attracting attention in high school vaudeville and Winter Club shows in Winchester. She is definitely the girl who has made good on Broadway in the toughest competition in show business.

Sue will be practically playing at home when her show opens in Boston on the holiday and undoubtedly many of her friends and former classmates, as well as those who remember her dad as a lousy banjoist and mellow bass in the old Phi Delta Quartet of bygone days will grasp the opportunity to see and hear her.

FROM THE REGISTRAR!

With the largest registration of motor vehicles this year in the history of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, and with all signs pointing to an increased registration for 1954, we urge motorists to go to their nearest branch offices and get their 1954 certificates of registration and windshield stickers, — and number plates, if required, — early in the counter, in reference to mailing their applications to the main office.

We cannot guarantee delivery of certificates or plates before January first on applications received in the mail after December fourth.

The Registry has provided more than 20 branch offices scattered throughout the state from Hyannis to North Adams to give this over the counter service, and we are asking motorists to take advantage of it.

PHANEUF — MILLIGAN

Of Winchester interest is the marriage which took place at St. Peter's Church in Dorchester on Saturday afternoon, November 28, when Miss Ruth Anne Milligan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick J. Milligan of Dorchester, became the bride of Richard Henderson Phaneuf, son of Colonel and Mrs. Victor S. Phaneuf of Oneida road. The ceremony which took place at 3:30 o'clock, was followed by a reception at the Hotel Touraine in Boston.

Given in marriage by her father, Miss Milligan wore a gown of Chantilly lace over white satin, trimmed with seed pearls and having long pointed sleeves. Her fingertip-length veil of illusion was caught to a cap of pearls and she carried a white prayer-book with matching orchids and Stephanotis.

Miss Annabelle Grobenaek of Elizabeth, N. J., was her cousin's maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were Miss Stephanie Priddy of Jamaica Plain and Miss Lorraine Murphy of Dorchester. Miss Audrey Barouche of New York City, cousin of the bride, was junior bridesmaid.

The honor maid wore a dress of cerulean blue silk shantung. Her velvet jacket and headress matched her gown and she carried an old fashioned bouquet.

The bridesmaids also carried old fashioned bouquets and wore silk shantung dresses in rose-mauve with mulberry red velvet jackets and headresses.

The junior bridesmaid wore a light blue net frock and carried an old fashioned bouquet.

Mrs. Milligan, mother of the bride, was gowned in Dior blue lace and wore a matching hat and corsage of white orchids. The groom's mother, Mrs. Phaneuf, also wore white orchids with her French blue velvet gown and matching hat.

Albert Henderson Coffey of Concord was best man for his cousin, and ushering were Charles Phaneuf of Waban, cousin of the bridegroom; and Robert Plunkett of Winchester. Mark Henderson of Plymouth, cousin of the bridegroom, was junior usher.

Mr. Phaneuf and his bride are spending their honeymoon in the Laurentian Mountains in Canada.

TRYING FOR TAXPAYERS' RELIEF

"We are attempting to give the taxpayers some relief," assured Senator Robert P. Campbell, member of the Ways and Means Committee of the State Legislature and guest at the meeting of the League of Women Voters of Winchester held Wednesday, December 9, at the home of Mrs. Henry A. Dellicker, 15 Grove street.

Representative Harrison G. Chadwick was also a guest at the League meeting and discussed bills which he will introduce at the next session of the State Legislature, including a bill to remove the state teachers colleges from the jurisdiction of the department of education and make them a part of the University of Massachusetts.

Both legislators agreed that they appreciated letters from their constituents and visits to the State House any time after March.

WINCHESTER IN NEW PLANNING DISTRICT

A bill to set up a metropolitan planning district composed of Woburn and Winchester and forty-four other cities and towns in the Greater Boston Area was filed in the State Legislature last week. The bill was drawn up by the Regional Planning Committee of the Greater Boston Area Council under the leadership of John Harkness, an architect from Lexington, John T. Howard, at M.I.T. professor of planning from West Roxbury, and Charles Haas, a professor of law at Harvard Law School who is from Cambridge.

The proposed bill would set up a division of metropolitan planning within the Metropolitan Districts Commission to devise a master plan for the physical development of the district and provide planning services, upon request, for the member cities and towns. A metropolitan planning council would be established with a representative from each member city and town as well as five appointees of the Governor and a representative of the metropolitan agencies already in existence, such as the Metropolitan Transit Authority and the Mystic River Bridge Authority. This council would review the reports and proposals prepared by the division and recommend programs of action, all relating to the physical development of the Greater Boston Area.

Jerome Lyle Rappaport, executive director of the GBAC, declared upon announcing the filing of the bill that it was "increasingly apparent that there is a desperate need for a planning agency which can integrate the efforts and encourage the cooperation of all the cities and towns in the Greater Boston Area, all of which are essential members of one economic, transportation, and social community. There is today no master plan of development that governing officials can look to as a guide to judge the beneficial effect of immediate capital improvements, he continued.

Thus we have, Rappaport explained, an arterial highway held up in mid air while engineers try to work out a compromise as to the best way it should leave Boston. This same kind of compromise produced a four-lane rather than a six-lane embankment road, which, already, one year after its opening, is overcrowded at rush hours.

We will not solve the major economic, transportation and recreation problems of the metropolitan Boston communities, Rappaport said, without continuing professional advice and continuing cooperation and planning in their mutual interests by all the cities and towns in the Greater Boston area. This bill could begin a significant new era in Greater Boston's history, he concluded.

The cost of a metropolitan planning division within the M.D.C. would be borne fifty per cent by the Commonwealth and fifty per cent by the member cities and towns, assessed one-half based on population and one-half based on property valuation. The Research Committee of the Council estimated that expenditures in the first year would not exceed $30,000.

OLDEST POLICY

A history of the insurance business would have to include an account of bottomry, a form of marine insurance believed to have been developed by the ancient Phoenicians. The information service of Employers Mutuals of Wausau, Wis., explains that bottomry was a system in which a shipowner obtained a loan on a ship and cargo. If the voyage was completed, the borrower repaid the loan at a high interest rate, but if the ship was lost, he paid nothing.

Last week I thought I had the pleasure of witnessing a remarkable piece of bowling, which I did, but you can't trust this new young blood we have this year. Young Joe Riga who was not to be undone bowled a beautiful string with remarkable accuracy to the tune of 152. Another job well done by a member of the S. O. I. It's wonderful to see Mr. Riga and his sons bowling, they set a fine family example.

As you know our teams bear names of fine Universities and Georgetown is one of our finest. The bowlers who do honor to this name whose standing should be in a better position than they are consists of Tony Saraco, last year's champion who just can't seem to get started. Al DiMinico who can't understand why he's not doing better. Richard Giacalone who expects to improve now that his brother "The Jeep" has taken him in hand. Fred LaTorella could do much better if he would take the barrels out of his pockets. Joe Dilorio one of the most conscientious bowlers on the team. Richard DiTesso, Sr., a newcomer but gives his all.

Whispers and comments heard around the alley. Is it true that there are 50 Italians and one high class Turk in the bowling roster? It is believed by many that he is the power behind the screen. Sen. McCarthy to investigate this angle. Heard that the humane society having read the item in regards to "Vocci's sucking pig", took it upon themselves to send a vet to check his health. Report! No need to worry. Pig deaf. Heard if Dom Provinzano bends over as far as to how he's going to be minus the tip of his nose. Will Costi Cullio exhale so he can bowl. Ever since his brother-in-law Castiglione received the Woburn High School trophy in the Winchester-Woburn annual classic we can't get him out of the clouds. Since the town heard that M. D. Saraco can't bend he has received much literature on bending exercises. "Wedding Bells Bob" can only be seen by appointment on bowling nights from 7-9 or 9-11 p. m.

Best dressed married bowler Nick Molea.
Best dressed single bowler Sam Tibauda.

The "Turkish Raffle" was won by a wonderful family man who has had many weary years. We have been friends for many years and one of the things he told me was that at night when his wonderful brood sits down to eat he counts noses to see if they are all present. One night he counted two noses too many.

He thought he had amnesia for a spell but when his senses began functioning properly he discovered that two of his greyhounds had their noses up to be counted. This wonderful family man who has been admired and envied by many and the winner of the raffle is "Greep" Gene Rotundi.

Watch this column about a new contest to start next week.

RIORDAN "ALL TEAM" RESERVE

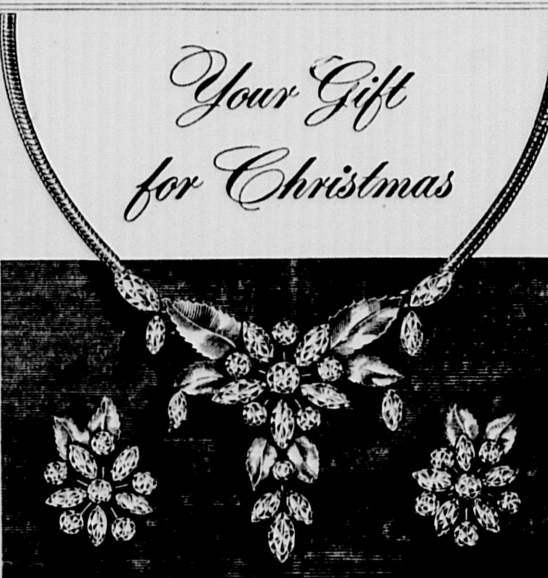

Big John Riordan, captain and star center on this year's Winchester High School football team, was chosen reserve center on the Boston Globe's All-Scholastic Team announced last week end. It was the second "All" team big John has made this year, he having previously been chosen first-string center on the Boston Herald's honorary eleven.

Winchester had two boys on the Globe's honorary Class B eleven. Riordan being chosen as center and Joe Bellino, great sophomore left halfback, being picked for one of the backs.

Bellino and Dave Pratt, Winchester's senior quarterback, received honorable mention for first team "All" honors by the Globe. The pickers evidently didn't see joltin' Mike Murphy on one of his better days when they were taking notes for those "mentions."

TWO PATENTS FOR FOLKERS

Kern E. Folkers of 79 Yale street was the recipient of two United States patents on December 1, 1953. The first of these patents, which is entitled "Process For Improving The Resistance To Shrinking And Felted Of Fabrics", pertains to the treatment of fabrics containing wool or other animal yarns. In particular, there is provided a process by which the resistance of these fabrics to felting and shrinking may be increased in a manner that avoids the limitations of methods heretofore employed. These prior shortcomings included a tendency to a harsh feel and yellowing in color of the fabric. They also involved the use of high curing temperatures for relatively long periods of time, the need for special equipment, and the use of comparatively large quantities of treating solutions which have insufficient stability for commercial mill operations.

In other words, with Mr. Folkers' procedure, the fabric is impregnated with a special colloidal solution of formaldehyde and melamine, following which it is passed through a mangle, dried, and then heated at a temperature of from about 200 to 325 degrees Fahrenheit for a period of from about five to fifteen minutes to render the added material insoluble in the fabric. In his patent specifications, Mr. Folkers cites numerous examples which show the effectiveness of his practice.

Mr. Folkers' second invention deals with methods of finishing textile fabrics containing cellulose yarns or filaments. These fabrics may be made of cotton or of synthetic threads such as rayon; and, in accordance with Mr. Folkers' system, they are treated with small amounts of a potentially resinous substance which provides them with a crisp and permanently stiffened finish, improved dimensional stability and good tensile strength.

Both of these patents have been assigned to Monsanto Chemical Company.

RECENTLY CAPPED HOSPITAL AIDES

Dowling, Mrs. Mary Sullivan, Woburn; Mrs. Virginia Nelson, Mrs. Mildred Denehey, Tewksbury; Miss Leona M. LaGasse, Mrs. Mary J. Mullee, Instructor. (Front row): Mrs. Lorraine M. O'Brien, Woburn; Mrs. Barbara A. Gillespie, Woburn; Mrs. Kathryn A. Malatesta, Tewksbury; Mrs. Mary J. McElholm, Mrs. Helen Sullivan, Woburn.

HOSPITAL AIDES GRADUATE

In the attractive new dining room at the Winchester Hospital, thirteen Hospital Aides were graduated with significant capping ceremony, Monday, November thirtieth, at three o'clock. Miss Laura B. Rogers, R. N., the Director of Nursing, and Mrs. Mary Mullee, the Instructor, both congratulated the graduates on their good records through the strenuous six weeks of training in the class room and on the Hospital Floors.

Miss Rogers introduced Mr. Harlan L. Paine, Jr., the administrator, who added his best wishes to these students of "high calibre who had pleased everyone and done a successful and competent job". He said that the Hospital is depending on them to continue in the responsible work that they are doing.

Miss Rogers also introduced the chairman of the Nursing Committee, Miss Ruby Willis, who brought the greetings of the Board of Trustees.

The class then presented Miss Rogers and Mrs. Mullee with charming corsages and invited them to be their guests for dinner that night. Coffee was served by the members of the Nursing Committee, Mrs. Harold French, Mrs. Theodore Brown and Miss Willis. This occasion brought to a close the second such group training. It proved again the wisdom of the Hospital in providing worthwhile occupation for public spirited and women. It also proved the wisdom of providing an addition to the nursing team that relieves pressure on the graduate nurse and enables the Hospital to give the patients all the care and service that their comfort requires. The non-graduate nurse, always remembering her limitations, has become a very important part of the present day Hospital.

As proper in a regional Hospital, this class — not one of whom withdrew during the training period — represent five towns in this area. Their names are listed below.

CHRISTMAS PREPARATION

The pastor and members of the Crawford Memorial Methodist Church are in the midst of plans for the special Christmas services. Perhaps the most important change will be the two services to be held on Christmas Sunday. The first service will be at 9:30 a. m. and the second service at the usual hour, 10:45. The services will be very similar with the exception of abbreviations.

The Christmas Eve service will be at 11 p. m. This has come to be one of the high light services of the year as evidenced by the enthusiasm and attendance. It has become a wonderful experience to see several hundred people in a double circle around the church, on the platform and around the altar at the midnight hour, with lighted candles, welcoming in the first moment of Christmas morn to the words and tune of "Silent Night, Holy Night." Both the Junior and Senior Choirs will assist and the pastor will bring the meditation. Members and friends of the community are most cordially invited to share in this high point of the Christmas season.

Parents, children, teachers and officers of the Sunday School will meet Santa next Friday, at the Christmas party for the children. C. Raymond Chase, the Sunday School Superintendent will be in charge and a special program is being prepared.

Ex-Selectman Morris B. Kerr of the Winchester Arms has been a patient at the Phillips House for the past ten days. He is reported as getting along nicely.

SUPPLIES IN BLOOD CENTERS VERY LOW

A critical situation has developed in the Boston area in the last few weeks. The supplies of blood in the blood centers and in the hospitals in the greater Boston area are very low and in some cases completely empty.

Our own Winchester hospital was in need of blood one day last week and when the call was put in to the center in Boston, there was none to send out here until the late afternoon when the Bloodmobile would come in from one of the communities. The need at our hospital was for four pints. The blood center was able to supply only two pints.

This incident certainly shows the dire need for the public to rise to this crisis. Operations are being delayed in all the hospitals until the blood necessary can be obtained. Sometimes this creates a critical situation, and at best it is inconvenient for the patient, doctor, and hospital involved.

In addition to this great need in civilian hospitals, blood is still urgently needed and being sent to military hospitals here and over seas.

So call the Red Cross office today (Winchester 6-2300) and make your appointment with the Red Cross Bloodmobile when it is in Winchester, Monday, December 14. Let's show ourselves and the metropolitan area that the residents of Winchester not only appreciate the great need for blood but are willing to do something about it.

Roll up your sleeve and come to the First Congregational Church on Monday.

GURNEY PROMOTED

Kenneth Gurney, former Winchester boy, was recently promoted to the rank of colonel in the United States Air Force Reserve.

Colonel Gurney, who lives in Arlington with his wife, the former "Kiki" Sullivan of Winchester, their daughter, Judith, and son, Kenneth, Jr., graduated from Winchester High School and Springfield College.

He served in the Air Force during World War II, coming out of the war as a major. He is now associated with the Middlesex County National Bank.

On Sunday the 13th, and again on Sunday the 20th, of this month the Winchester Unitarian Choir will present a program of Christmas Carols in the Chancel before the regular Sunday morning services.

"THE FORTUNE TELLER"

PRESENTED BY H. S. CAST

Victor Herbert's melodies came to the stage of the high school auditorium last Friday and Saturday evenings as a high school cast presented "The Fortune Teller" to capacity audiences. Weeks of rehearsing by members of the combined Glee Clubs and Curtain and Cue under the direction of Miss Eleanor Anfantis and Mr. Thomas Morse were amply rewarded by performances which many in the enthusiastic audiences would have termed brilliant for young amateurs.

In the opinion of some, the singing of the choruses was the outstanding feature of the opera; to others, the acting and singing of principals was the most satisfying. All enjoyed the dancing of the ballet groups. Another noteworthy feature was the manner in which the large cast handled itself in the limited area of the high school stage. Miss Anfantis, Mr. Morse, and their assistants deserve high praise for the over-all excellence of the show, and it is to be hoped that four years will not pass again before another will be presented.

The story of "The Fortune Teller," revolving about the disappearance of a winning lottery ticket and the attempts of the commandant of the secret police of Livonia to retrieve it, is entirely inconsequential, as is that of most operettas. It does, however, serve to bring together some grand singing and dancing combinations—the Grand Opera Chorus and Ballet, the gypsy band, and the Livonian Hussars. The setting for the show is the terrace of Count Berezowski's chateau, whither the Count has invited members of the Grand Opera Ballet in an effort to secure his lost lottery ticket. As the Count, John Swazey remained faithful to the musical comedy conception of a commissar of the secret police as a pompous, blustering luffoon. Seth Weston more than once stopped the show with his superb characterization of Fresco, the dandified yet resourceful ballet master.

Among the singing principals Louise Orgettas, as Musette the gypsy girl, brought unusual power and maturity of voice to her songs, especially "Romany Life." "In This World of Fashion," her duet with Chris Adams, was also notable. As the stalwart Captain Ladislaus, Chris was convincing in a demanding role. His songs with the Hussar chorus added a stirring military touch, while his duet, "Only in the Play," with Barbara Hickey (Madame Pompon) was a droll bit, well-liked by the audience.

Connie Snelling, Fresco's "kitten," beloved by Ladislaus yet sought by Count Berezowski, brought a pleasing voice and vivacious manner to her role. Her song, "Always Do As People Say You Should," was delightful. Musette's gypsy lover, was well-played by Brad Johnson, whose best moments came as he sang the beautiful "Gypsy Love Song." Roland Gailitis, as Musette's rough and mercenary father, seemed especially good. The other principals, Nancy Fletcher, Barbara Eaton, Nancy Samarc, Renner Johnston, Jon McCarthy, Stanley Mullen, and Quentin Robert, handled their smaller roles very creditably.

Adding to the color and movement of the opera were the dances by the ballet and gypsy group. Barbara Hottle's original dances, as well as her solo number, were well-conceived and executed. The music of "The Fortune Teller" deserves fine playing and that it received from the small ensemble composed of Mr. Theodore Janner, violin; Gretchen Luitwieler, drums; and Stephen Dunn, trumpet; who added their effects to the duo piano team. Mr. Walter Russell was at one piano, while Jack Willis and Judith Fowler shared the other.

Assisting Miss Anfantis and Mr. Morse in the production were two practice teachers from Sargent, Miss Claire Loughlin and Miss Constance Porter. Miss LaVerne Baker, a student at the Boston Conservatory, helped with the dance rehearsals. Costumes were under the charge of Miss Mildred Barnes, Miss Marian Bernhoff, and Miss Florence Wolk. Miss Louise Cone supervised the ticket sale. Mr. Frank Weaver was in charge of the ushers, and Mr. Raymond Hayward was business manager.

The indispensable stage crew was composed of Ted Mansfield, stage manager; and Roger Hauck, Dann Lewis, and Gardner Smith. Handling the make-up, a gargantuan task with a cast this size, was Paula Planchet, who was assisted by Sheila Gallivan, Carol Brown, Sandra Chapman, and Jane Adams.

H. S. SPORTS ASSEMBLY

Members of the fall sports teams received their awards at the athletic assembly on December 4, when the girls field hockey and boys' cross country teams shared honors with the football men. Presiding at the assembly was A. A. president Dennis Doucette, and the principal speakers were coaches Mildred Barnes, Thomas Morse, Ed Burns, and Henry Knowlton. As the first speaker, Coach Morse described vividly the rigors of cross country, and he praised his team for its courage and persistence. He especially noted the outstanding record of Lou Farrell. At the conclusion of his remarks, captain John Becker announced that next year's team will have as co-captains, Dick Borggaard and Lou Farrell.

At the conclusion of his remarks, captain John Becker announced that next year's team will have as co-captains, Dick Borggaard and Lou Farrell.

In his remarks to the assembly, Coach Knowlton took the occasion to publicly thank all of the people who have helped the team, including coaches, trainers, managers, band members, cheerleaders, and others—who helped to make the past season so successful. He praised the junior varsity for its stalwart role as opposition for the varsity. Of the "big boys" he said that never in his years of coaching has he worked with a more willing, cooperative team. Big John Riordan followed with an announcement that Mike Murphy will be next season's captain; that the choice was mighty popular could be seen from the applause of the student body.

HOME FROM HOSPITAL

Gordon Foskitt, son of Mr. and Mrs. George R. Foskitt of 49 Forest street, has returned home from the Winchester Hospital where he was for four weeks undergoing treatment for severe injuries sustained when he caught his left thumb and forefinger in a paper-roller at his place of employment. Three grafting operations were necessary together with the amputation of his thumb at the first joint.

Gordon wishes through the Star to thank his many friends for their gifts and other remembrances, and above all, for their encouragement which meant so much to him while he was in the hospital.

MISSING SAFE FOUND

The safe stolen from the Station Cleaners last August was found Sunday morning in the Bedford woods by boys hunting there.

They notified the Bedford Police who phoned the local authorities, Officer John Murray and the proprietor of the Station Cleaners, Robert Shohet going to Bedford to examine the safe.

The safe had been blown open and damaged beyond repair. Mr. Shohet recovered some of the personal papers that had been in the safe when it was stolen. Others were apparently destroyed when the safe was blown open. There was no money in the safe when it was recovered.

K of C CHRISTMAS PARTY

Sunday, December 20th, is the date of the Winchester Knights of Columbus annual Christmas Party for children of members and their guests. There will be movies for the youngsters, with candy and ice cream, and of course, Santa Claus himself, with his message of cheer for all the boys and girls.

Advocate John Dolan is chairman of arrangements with a large committee to assist him in insuring that all the young people have one of the grandest times they have ever had. It would not be a Christmas Party without Carols, so of course this feature will be much in evidence. Members are asked to remind their children that they are invited to the party.

At the recent Council meeting Chairman John Mulrennan of the House Committee made his report which was a fine, concise statement eliciting favorable comment from the membership present. A message was read from Brother Tom Parsons thanking the Council for their remembrance of him during his illness. The Council hopes that Tom will be completely well real soon.

Officers and Members joined to Dedham last Sunday evening to pay their own and the Council's respects to the Dad of Chancelor Vin Ehard who passed away Friday, December 4th. Included were Grand Knight John Nowell, who also attended the funeral, P. G. K. Harry Boyle; D. G. K. Jim Mawn; Recording Secretary Harry Bennett; Eddie Quill; Financial Secretary Francis Fisher; Warden Tom Gramzow.

The Knights are very proud that their organization has sponsored the microfilming of more than 40,000 documents in the Vatican Library. This will make available to scholars for the first time, priceless writings on art, religion, medicine, science and philosophy.

IN COLLEGE PLAY

Harold E. Quigley of 30 Westley street, has a supporting role in the annual production of the Drew Foresters, undergraduate dramatics group at Drew University. The play, Shakespeare's "Henry VIII," is being given Wednesday, Friday and Saturday nights this week. A graduate of Winchester High School, Quigley is a sophomore in the College of Liberal Arts at Drew.

HOLIDAYS COMING

SEATS RESERVED FOR ALL HOME HOOP GAMES

At a recent meeting of the high school athletic authorities, plans were completed for handling the home-game ticket problem, which during the past three or four years has increased steadily because of the growing popularity of the game and the excellent record of the home team. Everyone likes to watch a winner, and Winchester has fielded a winning basketball team.

With a very limited seating capacity in the school gymnasium, only a portion of those who would like to attend night games can be accommodated. Last season an experiment with adult season tickets was fairly successful. This season all seats in the gymnasium will be reserved seats of all home night games. In addition, season tickets for home games may be purchased in advance, assuring the holder of having the same seat for each game and saving him from coming early to get his seat. Standing-room admissions will be limited to thirty per game, and will be put on sale on the night of the game only after all seats have been sold. About twenty-five per cent of the total number of seats will be offered to the visiting school in advance of the game. Any such tickets turned back will be on sale the night of the game at the door.

Reserved seats for single games and season tickets for all home games may be ordered now by phone or by mail or through students at the high school. Phone: Winchester 6-0141. Address mail orders to Norton Demsey, Winchester High School.

The total number of reserved seats for adults is seventy-six seats. Those who wish to take advantage of this plan should get their orders in as soon as possible. The home schedule of night games is as follows:

Dec. 11—Arlington, Friday evening
Dec. 23—Wellesley, Wednesday evening
Dec. 30—Melrose, Wednesday evening
Jan. 15—Belmont, Friday evening
Jan. 29—Reading, Friday evening
Feb. 19—Stoneham, Friday evening
Mar. 5—Woburn, Friday evening

Each night there will be both a varsity game and a second-team game. Second-team games start at seven-thirty p.m.

DON'T place Christmas candles near the tree, curtains, wreaths or other decorations. de4-3t

THE WINN LIBRARY

A notable gift from Arthur L. Winn, Gordon alumnus of the class of 1893 and Trustee since 1937, makes possible the erection on the new Princemere campus of the Winn Library, the first of four new major buildings authorized by the Trustees of Gordon College at the annual meeting of the Board. Mr. Winn's gift is the largest of his benefactions to Gordon. Being vitally interested in many Christian and Christian education projects, he has contributed generously to Gordon.

Until his retirement from business he was one of the owners of the J. H. Winn Sons Company of Winchester, Mass. His genuine sincerity, quiet humility and splendid business capabilities have made him a valued member of the Board of Trustees. He is also a highly esteemed member of the First Baptist Church in Winchester.

The Winn Library, which will have a capacity of 100,000 volumes, will be the College Library building. The other buildings to be erected at this time are the administration building and two major dormitory units. Six of the buildings now on the 1,000 acre campus are presently being used by Gordon Divinity School. The four new buildings will enable the College also to be located on the new campus.

Mr. Winn's generous and sacrificial gift is the first of a considerable number of large gifts that will be needed to complete the development program foreseen by the Gordon Relocation Fund.

The new campus development program is an attempt on the part of the Trustees of Gordon to meet the increased demand upon us to supply evangelical Christian ministers for churches in New England and across the nation and trained Christian leaders in business and the professions.

T. Leonard Lewis, President.

Ed. Note: Mr. Lewis is president of Gordon College.

THE FORTNIGHTLY

LITERATURE COMMITTEE

Under the direction of Mrs. Blanche S. Barnard, chairman, members and guests of the Literature Committee met Monday afternoon, December 7, in the Public Library.

Miss Eva M. Sherman read an excellent paper on "Taylor Caldwell," starting with a biographical sketch of the author's life, then giving a brief review of her books, having read eleven of them. All are character novels with historical backgrounds, much detail being given and a great deal of interest shown in industry and politics. However, hatred seems to dominate these books as well as abnormal characters. And so, although not all pleasant reading, Miss Caldwell is a good story teller and it seems, is trying to impress and warn the public of the pitfalls in national politics and industry as well as in their private lives.

Mrs. Frank Evans opened the meeting with a delightful review of "Uncle Victory" by Louise Hall Tharp, which is a biography of Horace Mann, a constant crusader for free education and the development of educational institutions, who spent the greater part of his life in New England.

FASHION SHOW AT HIGH SCHOOL

On Friday, December 18, at 3 o'clock, parents of high school girls will receive some ideas for their Christmas shopping in the form of clothes shown at a fashion show presented by the W. H. S. Girls Intramural Council at the high school auditorium. A Christmas theme will prevail throughout the show which will feature sport, school, and evening clothes.

The clothes have been lent by Peck & Peck's House of Fashion and Filene's. Some very special formal wear have been lent by Mrs. Kidder of Arlington.

The following girls will be the models:

Gretchen Long
Betsey Sargent
Vanessa Ahlfors
Marcy Kirwan
Judie Higgins
Anne Whitton
Ann Wakefield
Matty Branneman
Del Mitchell
Emily Allen
Liz Hood
Ellen Money

The heavy responsibility of chairing the show is being aptly managed by Carol Damon. Helping her on various committees are Bobbi Vennardi, publicity; Peggy McNally and Sylvia Barnaby, script; and Linda Branneman, stage crew. Sheila Gallivan will act as commentator.

All parents are cordially invited to attend.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH CHRISTMAS SERVICES

Realizing the importance of acquainting the Parents of the Church School pupils with the religious training of their children, the entire Church School Staff has devoted this week to calling in the homes.

The children and young people of First Baptist will be an important part of the Christmas Services. On Sunday, December 13, the entire School will assemble at nine-thirty o'clock and present White Gifts for the King. These gifts will be sent to Heath Christian Center to bring happiness to less fortunate children. Christmas Sunday, December 20, the theme of the Morning Worship Service will be: "What Can I Give Him?" The Junior Choir will participate, as well as a Youth Speech Choir.

A Buffet Supper and evening of Fellowship commence at five-thirty o'clock, Sunday, December 20. All members and friends of First Baptist are cordially invited to attend and all are urged to bring their entire family. No tickets will be sold for the Supper but a silver offering will be taken to defray expenses.

ALOA MALIA CLUB CHRISTMAS PARTY

The annual Christmas party for members and friends of the Aloa Malia Club will be held on Sunday afternoon, December 13th, at Emmanuel College, The Fenway, at two o'clock.

Mrs. G. Warren Benninghof, president, has appointed Miss Marion Noonan, 21 Sheridan Circle, to assist the chairman, Mrs. John Doyle, of Atlantic.

"Admission" to the party will be a gift-wrapped toy, game or wearing apparel for children at St. Anne's Orphanage, Methuen, Mass. A buffet tea will be served in the newly-decorated cafeteria of the College.

"Toys for Playtoys" will be the subject of a talk by Mrs. Priscilla Dunn at the next meeting of the Jr. Mrs. Guild, Tuesday, December 15, at 7:45 p.m. in the Ladies' Parlor of the First Congregational Church.

Mrs. Dunn is Toy Consultant for the world famous toy store, F. A. O. Schwarz, discoverers of the beloved "Teddy Bear".

Following the talk, there will be a question period along with a display of representative age-group toys and new playthings for the 1953-54 season.

The speaker is also a well known newspaperwoman and radio commentator, with wide experience in working with children.

JR. MRS. GUILD

SACHETTES UNDEFEATED

For the second year in a row, the girls' field hockey team came through the season undefeated, with 5 wins and 2 ties to their credit.

The forward line was sparked by left-inner and Captain, Alison Horsey, who scored 9 of the 15 goals made all season. Helping along the cause, and always there when needed, were Wings Jan Graves and Marilyn Dyer. Inners Dianne McNeil and Betty Ann Haggerty, and Center Sue Donnell were indispensable to the team.

The defense was equally strong defending the goal, as the forwards were attacking it, as shown by the fact that in 7 games only 4 goals were scored against them. Half-backs Judie Higgins, Marty Halloran and Sally Cunningham were in a big way responsible for the scoring, as well as the defensive success, by keeping the ball fed to the forward line at all times. Defending the goal was left to the two fullbacks, Sheila Gallivan and Peg McNally, and Goalies Nancy Gail Handford and Nancy Morse, all of whom did a good job of it.

At the annual award assembly the varsity was awarded their charms, silver hockey sticks, and next year's varsity captain was announced. Dottie Pratt, left fullback of the J.V.'s this year, will be the captain of next year's girls' field hockey team.

Every once in a while the Board of Assessors gets into a spot because of laws which they have no hand in framing but which they are required to enforce. Our Board has been warned by the Department of Corporations and Taxation that they must assess a personal property tax on non-residents of the town, and that it may be that non-residents should also pay tuition for their children who attend the Winchester schools. Non-residents are persons who live in Winchester, but for one reason or another, have their legal address and pay their poll taxes elsewhere, perhaps in another state. Residents of Winchester now enjoy a $5,000 exemption for personal property, which means that very few pay a personal property tax in town.

Every so often the Star has to publish its policy with regard to communications sent to the paper. They must be signed by the writer and have his address if we are to publish them, though the name and address need not be printed if the writer for any reason does not wish them to appear with the letter. It is our personal opinion that unsigned letters carry little weight, but at the same time we can understand a reluctance to make one's identity known in some instances. This week we received two communications, one concerning the grade crossing and the other picking an all time Winchester High School football team. Neither communication was signed, so neither is being published. In the case of the honorary team we especially regret our inability to print it, for it is provocative and would undoubtedly have aroused comment from football fans, both favorable and unfavorable. So, correspondents, sign your letters if you want them used. We must know where a letter is coming from before we will print it in our columns.

THIS IS THE SITUATION

Editor of the Star:
Two weeks ago an advertisement appeared in The Star for a Movie Review Series, presented by the Mothers' Association of Winchester, to benefit the Winchester Scholarship Foundation.

Many tickets are sold to the wonderfully civic-minded people of Winchester, and I should like to explain just what the situation is this time.

This benefit is the project of the Ways and Means Committee of the "Central Board"; and it is customary to turn over the entire net proceeds to the Scholarship Foundation, reserving only $100 for next year's committee to work with.

The "Central Board" is the governing board of the Mothers' Association, in the individual school chapters of which are automatically enrolled all mothers of children in the elementary, junior and senior high schools, whether or not they pay dues. Officers of the Association, committee chairmen, and presidents, past presidents and secretaries of all chapters are members of the "Central Board", which is directly responsible for the coordinated money raising event for the Winchester Scholarship Foundation, originated by the Mothers' Association, and to which all chapters also contribute individually.

Celena Bradlee, Chairman

THANKS FROM RED FEATHER

1 Salisbury street
Winchester, Mass.
December 7, 1953

Editor of the Star:
May I have the opportunity through your paper to express my appreciation to the workers in the 1954 Winchester Red Feather Campaign?

Seven hundred Winchester people joined efforts to solicit contributions from all the homes, stores, and businesses in town for the support of the over 300 Red Feather agencies of Greater Boston, including Winchester's own six agencies. The $56,200 raised to date, though short of our goal of $59,800, compares favorably with last year's excellent record of $56,600. Every faithful worker may take pride in his unselfish part in a worthwhile cause.

Arthur W. Pratt,
Winchester Community Chairman
P.S. Let me also thank the Star for their patient and careful publishing of pictures and publicity material submitted from time to time during the campaign.

ANOTHER IDEA FOR CHRISTMAS

Editor of the Star:
May I enjoy a brief space in your valued paper to convey to shoppers, young and old, converging on the center of Winchester during these busy days to traverse the shopping area, a fervent Christmas plea for clean streets, highways, and alleys?

Sometime ago, the Park Department gave priority on the list of each day's jobs to the cleaning of the area of the center. Shall we appreciate their efforts and lend a helpful hand with a joyous Christmas spirit, and continue it beyond the immediate confines of the shopping district into our very homes by refraining from scattering small bits of trash along the sidewalks and larger ones on the highways?

Christmas around our community Christmas tree, I hope a clean and beautiful Common will greet you on Christmas Eve. A Merry Christmas to all and thank you.

SELF-GOVERNING PUERTO RICO SPURRED BY NEW INDUSTRIES

Autonomy and industry are marching forward together in Puerto Rico.

Now in its second year of United States Commonwealth status, the crowded Caribbean island has raised employment 25 per cent in the last decade. National income has doubled, and per capita income is up 10 per cent. More than 150 newly established plants turn out textiles, toys, lenses, shoes, Christmas-tree ornaments and many other products.

Job Shortage
With a population density matching that of New Jersey, Puerto Rico has long been plagued with unemployment, says the National Geographic Society. Lack of arable land and natural resources has further handicapped its economy. The island produces only half its food requirements.

Puerto Rico is the eastern anchor of the Greater Antilles chain of West Indies islands. Its 2,250,000 inhabitants are squeezed into 3,435 square miles. Among American states and territories, only Rhode Island has more persons per square mile.

The island's precious soil is intensively cultivated from the shores to the summits of its 4,000-foot-high mountains. Sugarcane is the major crop, sugar production averaging about one million tons annually. Before new businesses came in from the mainland, four major industries—sugar processing, needlework, tobacco, and rum

ENTERTAINING IDEAS

GEOGRAPHIC ODDITIES AND BRIEFS

The United States bought its first military aircraft in 1909, six years after the Wright Brothers made the first airplane flight, says the National Geographic Society. In 1911 Congress made the first aviation appropriation: $125,000.

Columbus Discovery
Puerto Rico means "rich port". It is the only land under the American flag on which Columbus set foot. Landing there on November 19, 1493, during his second voyage, he claimed it for Spain.

San Juan, the capital, is the oldest city in the new world under the Stars and Stripes. It was established in 1510, a half century before St. Augustine, Florida. With a 1950 population of 224,767, it is second only to Havana among Caribbean cities.

The average depth of the ocean below sea level is 12,450 feet, says the National Geographic Society.

WHOSE BIRTHDAY!

Windows filled with gifts appealing, Wreaths and lights along the way, Weeks of busy preparation For another Christmas Day.

Laurel wreaths and trees and holly, Crowded stores all filled with toys, Candy, turkeys, Santa's coming To bring joy to girls and boys.

To so many—this is Christmas! Cards and gifts and carols gay, Santa Claus and celebrations, Lost to them is Christmas Day.

Little wonder! tiny youngster—Should to mother, turn and say: "Why do we make Merry Christmas? Is it Santa Claus' Birthday?"

Would you share a Blessed Christmas, Find the Peace He sought to bring? Read anew the Gospel story, Kneel to hear the angels sing.

Go beyond the Church's doorway, Draw apart from noisy street And before the Babe in manger, Here recall the message sweet.

As we learned the Christmas story, Kneeling there, with mother near, And the Crib took life before us As its meaning she made clear.

Angels singing, star in heaven, Sings and manger, Infant Child, Sheep, and lowly shepherds kneeling, Joseph and dear Mary mild.

Decorate your homes and windows, Spread good cheer with carols gay Send your cards and gifts, be merry, Christmas still—is Christ's Birthday!

Heed the Church bells loud "Adeste" As it summons all to pray, Kneel before the Mangered Infant, Honor Christ—on His Birthday.

U. S. INSURED 200 YEARS

Insurance as it is known today probably began with the formation of Lloyds of London, according to the Employers Mutuals of Wausau, information service. In America the first insurance company was organized in 1752 and was known as The Philadelphia Contributionship for the Insurance of Homes from Loss by Fire.

SEEKS RECLASSIFICATION OF YOUNG DRIVERS

Representative Henry E. Keenan of Arlington has filed legislation for the coming session of the Legislature calling for further reclassification of drivers under twenty-five years of age. It will be recalled that the Representative spoke before the Insurance Commissioner earlier in the year when the Automobile insurance rates were up for a public hearing and at that time spoke out against the blanket classification of all drivers under the proposed rates for 1954.

His proposed legislation calls for at least six reclassifications; namely, those in that age group who are owners and drivers and married and have family responsibilities; those who use their cars in going to and from their place of employment; those who have a car simply for family use. Also credit for those who attended qualified auto driving schools and obtained licenses under competent instruction and have been accident free since the time of receiving their licenses.

Further reclassification will undoubtedly be proposed at the time of the hearing on legislation based on further statistics being compiled by the Representative from state records and records being obtained from other states.

John Winthrop, Jr., promoter of the company which built the Saugus ironworks in the 1640's, was elected governor of the Colony of Connecticut in 1657.

LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS

The work of the special commission appointed by Governor Herter to report on the state teachers colleges was discussed by Mrs. Louis Fletcher, a member of the commission, at a general meeting of the League of Women Voters of Winchester held Wednesday, December 2, at the home of Mrs. Roswell G. Boutwell, 23 Sheffield road.

The aim of the commission was to examine the facilities available in the state teachers colleges and to determine how best to meet the need for teachers in the coming years, according to Mrs. Fletcher. It is estimated that Massachusetts will have fifty eight per cent more children in the public schools in 1959, which will necessitate from fourteen to twenty-two per cent more teachers, said Mrs. Fletcher. She also pointed out that the state department of education needs 4,000 new teachers each year, while in 1952 there were 791 teachers graduated from the state teachers colleges. The report of the special commission, which will be published shortly, suggests the need for more comprehensive study, and recommends one of the properly equipped, out-of-state groups to do the work.

Mrs. Leonard C. Meade, chairman of the education committee of the Winchester League, introduced Mrs. Fletcher, and expressed the League's particular interest in the subject due to the participation of Mrs. Howard Aiken, and Mrs. William Spaulding, both Winchester League members, in a previous study of state teachers colleges conducted by the League of Women Voters of Massachusetts.

DARTMOUTH MEETING

The local Dartmouth Club, in cooperation with the Dartmouth Alumni Council, will stage a meeting of alumni and prospective students now attending secondary schools, at the Bellevue Golf Club, Porter street, Melrose, at three in the afternoon following Christmas, December 27, Sunday.

Frances M. Austin, president of the club, announces that the principal speaker for the meeting is the secretary of the enrollment committee of the council, Edward T. Chamberlain, Jr., a graduate of 1936. Mr. Chamberlain is no stranger to local members, having spoken to an enthusiastic audience several years ago.

Two feature motion pictures will be presented to supplement the speaking program, "My First Two Weeks at Dartmouth," and "Dartmouth Athletics." Mr. Austin also announces the appointment of Edward Halligan of Reading as Treasurer, following the resignation of Alan Foster of Wakefield.

Questions on enrollment matters for this locality may be presented to George B. Redding, 10 Cranston road.

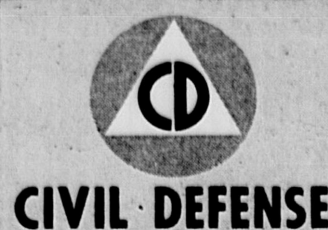

SOCIAL SERVICE GUILD

On Tuesday, December 15, at 2 o'clock, the Social Service Guild of the First Congregational Church will hold its annual Christmas service in the Ladies' Parlor. Mrs. Clarence R. Wickerson, Director of the Guild, will conduct the business meeting, and Mrs. Richard Ashenden will lead the worship service.

This meeting should be of particular interest as Mr. Richard P. Smart, Superintendent of New England's Own Boys' Town in Tilton, New Hampshire, will be the speaker. He will describe the work of the Golden Rule Farm and its efforts to enable the young boys there to become better men and citizens.

There will be a showing of Christmas gifts for Hale House made by the Social Service Sewing Group, and a display of the Christmas bags filled by the City Missionary Society.

Ten will be served after the meeting to which all women of the church and their friends are cordially invited.

HOSPITAL SERVES WIDE COMMUNITY

The wide community served by Winchester Hospital is indicated by statistics in the Hospital's annual report for the year ended September 30, 1953, showing that of 4,094 patients admitted, 2,897, or nearly three-fourths, were from towns other than Winchester. The total of towns represented ran to a total of 121.

President Gilbert H. Hood, Jr., of the Hospital's board of directors reports a net operating loss for the year of $61,779.71. This resulted largely from the inability of the Hospital to operate to full capacity during the entire year because of extensive remodeling work making many beds unavailable for regular use.

Mr. Hood states that funds in the hands of the Hospital's trustees increased by $63,428.61 during the fiscal year, bringing the total to $342,285.67. Explaining that the endowment funds have been set up on a basis of shares similar to an open-end trust, he pointed out that this permits the trustees to operate the total endowment funds as one account and thus spread the risk and profits equitably among all the funds.

New gifts received during the year included the following: $50,000 from Jere A. Downs, $5,974 from Elizabeth Downs Wadsworth, $1,000 each from Howard Torrey and Charles F. Dutch. In addition, the Hospital benefited by gifts in service and equipment.

"As always," the report states, "many organizations and individuals made numerous gifts of service and equipment during the year. All that these loyal friends gave helped greatly to make a better Hospital. In our gratitude for their highly valued assistance we regret that space in this Report — limited for economy — does not permit listing their names."

The report describes the Open House of last spring as "an enthusiastic community effort in the best tradition of suburban America."

With further reference to the Open House, the Report goes on to say, "The doctors, nurses, office workers, technicians, aides, dietary staff, along with the housekeeping and maintenance staff were the actors — not to mention the many patients who volunteered to be part of the exhibit. They were aided by the Boy Scouts, En Ka, the friends of Winchester Hospital, the Girl Scouts, the Red Cross, the Winton Club, the Winchester Hospital Alumnae Association and many others, including the police and firemen of Stoneham, Reading and Winchester."

CONFERENCES IN CAMBRIDGE

Miss Marjorie Dexter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Dexter, was home from Colby Junior College last week end to attend the three-day field of the Church conferences held at Harvard University.

Students from more than fifty colleges attended, including both men's and women's colleges. Miss Dexter had as her house guests Miss Marilyn Hines of Scarsdale, New York, Miss Gertrude Bass of Springfield, and Miss Louise Moser of Glenview, Illinois.

LINCOLN SCHOOL NEWS

Red Cross

Miss Winifred Richardson, Junior Red Cross advisor at the Lincoln School, reported last week that pupils at the school had participated in several Thanksgiving projects for the Veterans Hospital at Bedford. Among the items sent to the hospital were the following:

36 pine cone turkey favors
44 place cards
22 candle favors
35 Thanksgiving Day cards
25 tray covers
57 nut cups

Library Visits

Pupils in Mrs. Walsh's class recently enjoyed a visit to the Winchester Public Library. They were greeted by the children's librarian, Miss Russell, who gave an interesting account of some of the wonderful new books that are available in the children's library. At the conclusion of her talk, she complimented the class on its attentiveness. Then she led them upstairs to visit the beautiful Jere Downs music room. Miss Russell was much interested to hear about the "apple tree" which the class made for its room at school. Every time a pupil makes a book report another apple is added to the tree. During Children's Book Week several other classes from the Lincoln School also visited the library.

PARKHURST SCHOOL NOTES

The regular meeting of the Junior Red Cross chapter at the Parkhurst School was held on November 24, with the third, fourth, fifth and sixth grades in attendance. President Joan Withers opened the meeting by calling everyone to order. Following the salute to the flag and a song by the entire group, Walter Hall, the secretary, read the minutes of the last meeting. Treasurer Ty Peabody reported that the Red Cross drive was a huge success, with the sum of $48.94 being collected. He then introduced the representatives for each home room. To conclude the assembly program, members of the fifth grade presented several Thanksgiving songs.

WINCHESTER AT BASKETBALL NIGHT

Winchester was well represented in the crowd of approximately 1,000 that comfortably filled the beautiful, new Lexington High School gym last Friday night for the Fourth Annual Middlesex League Basketball Night. This annual affair, dedicated to the advancement of good sportsmanship in the Middlesex League, served as the background for the dedication ceremonies of the new Lexington High School gymnasium.

After the singing of the "Star Spangled Banner" and the Salute to the Flag, by the audience, brief talks were given by Principal Manfred L. Warren, Mrs. Ruth Morey, Chairman of the School Committee, Haskell Reed, Chairman of the Board of Selectmen, and Charles Norris, Chairman of the Building Committee. This was followed by the dedication game, an exhibition contest, between Winchester High, defending league champions, and Lexington High. This exhibition contest of two six-minute periods was won by Lexington High by a score of 15-13 as Winchester used a completely different quintet in each period.

Principal Wade L. Grindle accepted the championship trophy from President Harold W. Poole of the Middlesex League, emblematic of Winchester High's third consecutive league title. In a gracious speech of acceptance and of congratulation to Lexington for their new school, Mr. Grindle called upon the capable and popular Coach Ted Bartlett as the man primarily responsible for the Winchester success in basketball. The Middlesex League Good Sportsmanship Trophy for the season of 1952-53 was then awarded by the League President to Winchester and Wakefield as co-winners of this coveted honor for the past season.

The most spectacular event of the evening was the four-shooting contest won by Dave Pratt of Winchester, the first Winchester player to win this contest in the four-year history of this annual event. The eight schools sent their best foul shooter into this contest as Pratt shot 15 out of 15 and Turloff of Stoneham dropped 14 out of 15 to win the qualifying round. There was considerable pressure as the two boys lined up at opposite ends of the main court for the final round but Pratt sank 13 out of 15 to win the title. Stoneham rival who wilted a bit under the pressure. It was a great exhibition of foul shooting by Pratt who had made good on 28 out of 30 under highly competitive conditions.

The final event of the evening was the all-star game between the Reds, coached by Ted Bartlett of Winchester, and the Whites, coached by Mel Wenner of Belmont. Players from Stoneham, Melrose, Wakefield, and Belmont made up the Reds while Lexington, Concord, Reading, and Winchester contributed players to the Whites. Wenner's Whites nosed out Bartlett's Reds 34-31 with a spirited second half rally but your observer feels that Coach Bartlett was not too unhappy as Winchester stars Joe DiIorio, Buddy McKinley, and Dave Pratt played a large part in the Whites' victory. All in all, it was a memorable evening to local supporters who saw a lot of basketball and many well deserved honors come to Winchester High School and its representatives.

MURPHY NEW GRID LEADER

FARRELL — BORGGAARD CC CAPTAINS. MISS PRATT HEADS HOCKEY

At last Friday's award assembly at high school big Mike Murphy, jolting fullback on this year's rugged football team, was announced as captain of the 1954 eleven. At the same time Lou Farrell and Dick Borggaard were announced as cross country co-captains for next fall and Dottie Pratt, as field hockey captain. Mike Callahan was announced as permanent captain of the freshman football team.

Murphy's election to the football captaincy will be popular with all followers of Winchester football, for big Mike has been an important cog in the offense and defense of this year's club. As a matter of fact it would be difficult to determine whether his bull-like rushes or murderous tackles have meant the most to the team.

This is Murphy's first year as a regular though he saw quite a bit of service last year, due to the illness which plagued the regular fullback, Jimmy Griffin, all season. This fall Murphy clinched the fullback slot in practice, started the disastrous Concord game and continued in the position all fall, improving gradually. He commenced to look good against Winthrop, found himself in the Melrose game, when he softened up the entire Melrose backfield with his rack-up tackles, and he blossomed into stardom against Wakefield.

With the usual improvement to be expected next year, big Mike ought to be had news for the Indians' opponents.

Both Lou Farrell and Dick Borggaard have meant much to the Indian harriers, the former as a brilliant race-winning front runner and Borggaard as a steady plodder who could be depended upon to finish in the first ten.

Farrell has broken the local course record and won the State Class D individual championship on November 3, finishing second in the Pilgrim Divisional meet and third in the Massachusetts Cross Country League championship race at Tufts.

Dottie Pratt, sister of Dave Pratt, quarterback on the football team for the past two seasons, has played steadily at left fullback on this year's field hockey team. She is a junior and her election, a popular one. Mike Callahan played halfback on the yearling eleven which does not elect its captain until after the season closes.

HIGH SCHOOL HOOPSTERS PLAY OPENER

The 1953 edition of the Winchester High School basketball team will be unveiled tonight at the high school gym as the Indians entertain a strong Arlington High quintet. This is the strongest opening game opponent the Red and Black has tackled years and indicates the growing stature of the Indians in the basketball world. Arlington has been the Suburban League champion for the past two years and, as such, has competed in Class A of the Tech Tournament. Faced with such formidable opposition in its opener, the Indians will know at the close of activities tonight what kind of a season they can anticipate this winter.

With only co-captains Joe DiIorio and Dave Pratt, both forwards, available as a nucleus, Coach Ted Bartlett has a huge rebuilding job on his hands as he attempts to mold a fourth consecutive Middlesex League champion. Along with these two veterans, only Jim Wright has clinched a starting berth as pivot for this quintet. The two guard positions are wide open, waiting for any of four candidates to assert themselves and thus nail down these vital positions. Batting for the guard berths are seniors Buddy McKinley and Paul O'Brien, junior Lou Farrell, and sophomore Joe Bellino. Big John Lynch has worked himself into the contention for a varsity position and it is expected that these eight performers will make up the varsity squad.

Others who have shown considerable promise and will continue to press the first eight on the varsity squad are Charlie Stevens, Bill Ross, Peter Gove, and Bert Kneeland. Surviving the pre-season cuts and making up the junior varsity team are Niles Nelson, Warren Goodnow, Bob Smith, Frank Dattilo, Mark Apsey, Renny Johnston, Rich Rimbach, and George Stratton. Bob Willing and Bill Hosmer have been named as co-managers of this year's team.

It seems hard to believe that the basketball season is at hand but the boys are ready and anxious to test their strength against such admittedly strong opposition. The Indians held a full-game scrimmage at Watertown on Wednesday afternoon and the word from the Arsenal Town was that the locals are a typically Bartlett-coached quintet with plenty of aggressiveness and all ways hustling. The junior varsity game will get underway at 7:30 tonight and another season will make its initial entry on the record books.

CURLING STARTS

Three evening sessions at the Country Club, Brookline, have started the curlers off in grand style. The pleasing park (to the old curlers) is the many new faces and the enthusiasm shown.

All of this is, of course, in preparation for the new Winchester rink, which everyone can now see going up between the tennis courts and the club house. Last Tuesday evening the new "freshman" curlers included Everett Knox, Bill Croston, Harry O'Brien, Gene Pacetti, Ray Holdsworth, Jack Page, Warner Clifford, Everett Stone and Charlie Vanner. Additional new curlers attending this past Tuesday will be reported next week. The "demand" to go over to try out the game is so good that it seems assured there will be plenty on hand to help the 40-odd "old" curlers open up the new rink in grand style.

Howard Eteson, a veteran of the trip to Scotland two winters ago and a great trip-goer to all the U. S. and Canadian bonspiels, is the curling chairman this year. He is both a fine and most enthusiastic curler, so no better selection could be made to lead off for the new rink.

Irving Jennings is chairman of the building committee, with Joe Dolben secretary. The other members are John Joy, Larry Burke and Ed Garrity.

A policy and planning committee has been formed this year to lead the way in trying to make things interesting to the new, enlarged curling group and to see that the new curlers, especially, have a good time. This committee includes such old curlers as Howard Eteson, chairman, John Joy, Geoff Neiley, Frank Lane, Dan Morse, Fritz Craven, Charley Wagborne, Shorty Carr and any of the "originals" who have a good idea and want to be heard.

An hour's practice, between 7 and 8 p. m., and then a short game is the general schedule at Brookline until our own rink is ready. Anyone interested in curling and so far not contacted should get in touch with any of the above policy committee.

UNITED WORLD FEDERALISTS

The Winchester Chapter of U. W. F., held a meeting December 7, at the home of Mrs. Cutler B. Downer to hear a report given by Miss Alice A. Main on the Copenhagen Congress, where a joint session of the World Movement for World Federal Government and the World Association of Parliamentarians met to consider U. N. Charter revision.

Delegates from 27 countries attended the week-long conference where among many recommendations the following were noteworthy.

1. In place of the present General Assembly a World Legislature shall be established to consist of two chambers—one called the Council of States the other called the Council of Peoples.

2. The Charter shall provide for complete simultaneous universal and enforceable disarmament.

3. The Charter shall provide for a U. N. Inspectorate charged with the supervision of the disarmament plan and for a U. N. Police to enforce provisions of the Charter.

Rev. Donald Harrington has written, "It has been a moving and thrilling experience over the last six years to see this great world federalist effort grow from a small and diffuse collection of rather impractical idealists, and dreamers into organizations which include not only many members of the world's parliaments but ministers and officers of governments some of whom undoubtedly will be official delegates to the U. N. Charter review conference if it is held in 1955."

The winter program of the U. W. F. in Winchester will center on a study of the review and revision of the U. N. Charter.

M.S.P.C.A. OFFERS HINTS FOR CHRISTMAS GIFT PETS

Dr. Eric H. Hansen, President of the Massachusetts Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, 150 Longwood avenue, Boston, yesterday urged everyone to exercise due caution, before giving animal pets for Christmas gifts.

"Make sure, first of all," stated the Society official, "that the animal will have a good home and will receive the best of care. There should be one person in the household who is willing to take full responsibility for the animal's welfare so that he will have proper food and sleeping quarters. It is a child, well and good, but nothing should be left to chance, for a youngster may promise faithfully to care for his new pet, and then turn to something else, thereby neglecting the animal. For this reason, an older person in the home should personally supervise the creature's care."

Dr. Hansen concluded with the statement that in giving a pet for Christmas, the donor should bear in mind that the recipient may not be familiar with the diet and habits of animals and, therefore, full instructions for its care and treatment should accompany the gift pet. In this connection, the Society has offered to cooperate by furnishing free literature on the care and feeding of animals, which may be obtained by writing to Society headquarters.

GIRL SCOUT NEWS

SERVICE PROJECTS

All Winchester Girl Scout troops are engaged this month in community service projects. Some troops have already sent Christmas packages to servicemen who will be on the high seas at the holiday season through the Winchester Chapter, American Red Cross. Others are collecting toys, games and clothing for distribution at Christmas. Leaders are reminded that all gifts for this project must be in to the Scout Office by December 18, unwrapped in a carton marked with the age and sex of the child.

Holiday Skating Parties
The Program Committee is making plans for two skating parties to be held in the morning of December 29. The Brownie Scouts will roller skate at the Bal-A-Roue in Medford with their leaders arranging transportation. The Intermediate and Senior Scouts will ice skate at the North Shore Sports Center in Lynn, and their leaders are reminded that reservations should be telephoned in to the Scout Office, so that bus transportation can be arranged.

Troop Registrations
There are still a few troops due to register. The council registrar, Miss Constance Lane would like to have every troop registered by December 15. Bring or send registration forms to the Scout Office.

Mrs. Cart Spoke
Mrs. Dwight L. Cart, in speaking to the Girl Scout Association Meeting at the Cabin, said two outstanding qualities show always in the attitude of adults working in Scouting: a spirit of fun, and also a definite sense of responsibility.

Mentioning the importance of youth movements throughout the world, and emphasizing how the Nazis and the Soviets use their youth for accomplishment of their ideological and propaganda aims, Mrs. Cart stressed the great value to democracy of our Girl Scout work and teaching.

The National Organization puts emphasis on two aspects of the work: 1. development of the spiritual side of Scouting, and 2. teaching of citizenship by giving real and practical aid on service projects within the community.

She spoke of the versatility of leaders, their capability and development of new skills, training a whole new generation to approach new things in a venturesome way; the gradual breaking down of prejudices and building of new understanding as Girl Scouting includes all races, creeds and colors, teaching us that there is only one race, "the human race"; and that citizenship means responsibility, or learning to be concerned with civic projects, and to give of yourself, to put back into the community at least part of the benefits you receive from it.

Mrs. Cart, wife of the pastor of the First Congregational Church, was first Vice-President of the Seattle Girl Scout Association before coming to Winchester. Having one son, she became a troop leader "for two weeks, but I kept those girls for five years." That's what happens when you see the potentialities of working with young folks, so, at the risk of being optimistic, (and the world can surely do with a few), aren't we glad to be Girl Scouts!

FROM THE POSTMASTER

"No one," says Postmaster Thomas J. Gilgun "is as busy these days as the average postal employee, unless it's the average housewife. I doubt if either will have time to think twice about anything before Christmas rolls around."

It's true, Mrs. Homemaker. So true that it will pay you many times over to follow the Postmaster's advice on how to mail your Christmas cards and gifts correctly—the first time!

For example, the Post Office has little interest in how pretty your gift packages are wrapped. But it is definitely concerned about how well each parcel is wrapped.

Postmaster Gilgun warns that, "The Christmas mail will be heavier than ever this year. If your gifts are fragile, mark them 'Handle With Care.' We'll do our best to protect them."

He also suggests you select a mailing carton of corrugated fiberboard. Use a heavy wrapping paper and strong cord tied over and under several times. Christmas seals and "Do Not Open Until Christmas" stickers should be placed on back of the parcel, so the address remains easy to read.

The package itself may not be sealed, unless the return address and this inscription appear: "Contents, Merchandise—May be opened for postal inspection."

Both the sender's address and that of the recipient should be written inside of the mailing card.

ton, for emergency use. Limits on size and weight this year vary according to destination. Ask about them when you visit the Post Office to buy stamps.

Right now is the best time to buy your stamps. The crowds are small, especially before 10 a. m. or between 1:30 and 3:30 p. m.

As for Christmas cards, the Postmaster strongly recommends that everyone, "Forget the two's and use the three's. With a three-cent stamp Christmas cards are sorted and delivered first, and they will be forwarded or returned if necessary."

"That eliminates any worry about whether your Christmas cards were a stray, provided they did carry a return address. Also you can write a personal message on them, when only a signature is authorized at the third-class rate."

Delivery of your Christmas cards can be speeded up, too. Just put them in two separate bundles, and attach the special labels marked "All For Local Delivery" and "All For Out-Of-Town Delivery." These tags can be picked up at the Post Office, and you'll find other helpful mailing instructions printed on back.

If you begin now, there's plenty of time for delivery by Christmas Eve. Christmas cards going to other states should be posted before December 15, those with local addresses at least a week before Christmas.

Parcel post requires more time. So mail your out-of-state gifts by December 5, and the local ones by December 10. After these dates are past, better use air mail service for both gift packages and Christmas cards.

WATSON HOME
Pfc. Charles E. Watson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Watson of Salisbury street, who is presently home on 36-days leave, spent 15 months in Korea and had not been home for 17 months when he arrived in town recently.

His three-year enlistment is up next September, but accumulated leave will probably get him out of the service before then. At the expiration of his present leave he reports to Fort Devens January 5 for reassignment in this country.

Charlie, former Massachusetts State interscholastic tennis singles champion and Maine State singles title while a senior at Bowdoin, was a member of the doubles team that won the tennis championship of the 8th Army while in Korea.

The tourney was played during three weeks right after the truce was signed, and marked the first time Watson had played tennis in two years.

Charlie was attached to the 3rd Signal Company of the 3rd Infantry Division while in Korea and for several months previous to the truce was driving a jeep from a Signal Corps message center.

POST OFFICE OPEN SATURDAY AFTERNOON
Postmaster Thomas J. Gilgun announces that on next Saturday, December 12, 1953, the local post office will be open for business all day. The stamp and parcel post windows will be open at 7 a. m. and will remain open until 6 p. m.

The following Saturday, December 19, 1953, the post office again will open at 7 a. m. and will stay open until all patrons are taken care of.

FROM THE POSTMASTER
It isn't that Postmaster Thomas J. Gilgun can't wait like the rest of us for jolly old Santa. But he'd be the happiest man in town if tomorrow were December 25.

Instead, there's still 13 days before Christmas, and nobody knows how many tons of Christmas cards and gift packages are yet to come. "Our main problem right now," the Postmaster noted today, "is that too many people are waiting to mail everything at once. We know what's coming. But we don't know when."

Put yourself in the Postmaster's place. You've just hired a group of temporary postal workers. You're expecting packages. Big packages, little packages. Neatly wrapped and poorly-wrapped packages. Some insured, some registered.

There will be Christmas cards by the thousands. Yes, and the final count may total millions. From past experience, you know that the job gets bigger and bigger each year. What would you do?

Postmaster Gilgun has worked out his own answer. He asks the public to cooperate, by following a few time-saving suggestions:

"Wrap and mail your gifts two or three at a time. Don't let them pile up on you now, or at the Post Office later. Begin with those to be addressed to distant states."

This year all parcel post going out-of-state should be mailed by December 5, for local delivery by December 10. After these dates are past, better use air mail service according to destination. Ask about them when you visit the Post Office to buy stamps.

In some zones, for example, parcel post may not exceed 72 inches in length and girth combined and 40 pounds in weight. While in others the combined length and girth may be 100 inches and the weight up to 70 pounds.

"The important thing to remember about Christmas cards," says Postmaster Gilgun, "is to send them by first-class mail, and place your return address on the envelope."

With a three-cent stamp, your Christmas cards will be forwarded if the addressee has moved, and a new address is on file, or returned if the addressee cannot be located.

Christmas cards mailed first-class also may carry written messages, a popular Yuletide custom.

What's more, Christmas card envelopes smaller than 2 1/4" by 4" or larger than 9" by 12" must carry three-cent stamps. For their special treatment, Christmas cards addressed to other states should be posted by December 15. Those addressed for delivery within the state by at least a week before Christmas.

"Delivery of Christmas cards can be simplified for us and speeded up for you," the Postmaster concluded. "Just tie them in two separate bundles, with the addresses facing one way."

"Then attach the special labels that indicate 'All For Local Delivery' and 'All For Out-Of-Town Delivery.' These helpful tags can be picked up at the Post Office merely for the asking, and will be available throughout the holiday season."

BAD ACCIDENT ON CAMBRIDGE STREET
Another bad accident took place on Cambridge street Sunday morning shortly before 1:30 when a Studebaker coupe, owned and driven by Richard Crowther of 87 Revere street, Boston, a student at M. I. T., while headed south, veered to the left of the road opposite the Boat Club and struck a big tree head on.

Police Headquarters was notified and Officers William Haggerty and Henry Dempsey went to the scene followed by Officer John M. Hough with the Department ambulance and apparatus from the Fire Department.

Crowther was accompanied by his wife, Nancy, and both were pinned in the car, the motor having been driven back toward the front seat of the machine and badly cutting the legs of Mrs. Crowther.

The police had to pry open the door to free the occupants, both of whom were badly injured. Officer Haggerty applied tourniquets to Mrs. Crowther's legs, effectively staunching the flow of blood and she and her husband were rushed to the hospital in the ambulance.

Drs. Alexander P. Aitken, William F. Hickey and Charles E. Rooney were awaiting the injured at the hospital and found Mrs. Crowther, besides her severely cut legs, scalp lacerations and head injuries and probable fractured ribs. Her husband sustained bad lacerations of the chin and head injuries.

Though both young people, reported to have been returning from a honeymoon, were seriously injured, the physicians believed they would recover and also that they will be able to save Mrs. Crowther's legs.

Y. P. F.
The Church of the Epiphany's Y. P. F. will be host to all the youth groups of Winchester at 7:00 p. m. on Sunday, December 13th. A movie and refreshments are on the agenda. Everyone is cordially invited.

On Sunday, December 20th, there will be a carol singing for the members of the Y. P. F. at 7:30 p. m. Everyone will meet at the church and leave from there.

CAR RAMMED FENCE AT STATION

When doing your Christmas shopping patronize our advertisers

In one of those accidents that just couldn't happen, but did, Albert S. Snow of 55 Yale street escaped injury at 4:40 last Thursday afternoon when his automobile started up from the easterly platform to the westerly platform of the station, crashing through the steel and iron fence between the outward and inbound tracks of the railroad on the way.

According to the police, Mrs. Snow was driving the Snow Olds sedan just before the accident and left it parked facing Winchester Station at the end of Waterfield road adjacent to the space reserved for taxicabs. The motor was left running when she parked the car and Mr. Snow was seated on the passenger's side of the front seat.

Just what happened next isn't clear. The police think Mr. Snow, in shifting his position, may have struck the lever controlling the hydraulic shift of the machine, knocking it into low speed forward, while at the same time accidentally stepping on the throttle.

At all events the car started forward suddenly and crossing the easterly sidewalk, crashed through the fence between the tracks and up onto the broad platform in front of the station. There the machine made a U-turn to the right and broke through the fence again, showing a nine foot section of the five-foot barrier before it as it drove across the outbound tracks.

Bouncing up onto the easterly sidewalk, the car finally came to a stop against the timbers supporting the first platform of the overhead footbridge at the station, the rear-end of the machine remaining on the outbound tracks.

Sgt. Edward F. Bowler of the police attempted to move the car, but the hydraulic had become jammed in low speed, and it was necessary to free it before the car could be reversed and driven, partly on the station sidewalk and partly on the outbound roadbed of the railroad, north to the grade crossing at the center where it was towed to Master Motors Garage.

Meanwhile the railroad tower man was stopping all trains, while Section Foreman Charles Barnes stopped an outbound train with a flare and supervised the removal of the broken fence from the tracks. Miraculously, Mr. Snow apparently was not injured in what was one of the most unusual accidents to occur in Winchester for a long time.

LANDS TO SOUTH NEW MAP SHOWS

Neighbor lands south of the border — Mexico and the Central American countries — are covered in the latest National Geographic Society map supplement, now being distributed to 2,150,000 Society member families in their National Geographic Magazine for March.

Printed in ten colors, the supplement unfolds to 37 by 27 1/4 inches and is on a scale of 1:3,500,000, or 55.24 miles to the inch.

Ten Years of Air Photos. Ten years of intensive air photography, along with a distillation of all the cartographic knowledge acquired since the days of the Conquistadores, lie behind this new map, richer by nearly 3,000 place names than any of the same area previously published by the National Geographic Society.

During and since World War II, all of Central America and almost half of Mexico were photographed from the air by United States agencies in an ambitious mapping project undertaken in cooperation with other American republics.

The Society's map reflects the results obtained by this project, carefully checked against a wealth of sources that included the outstanding map collection assembled by the International Geographic Union for its Seventeenth Congress in Washington last August.

Technically, it is a product of some of the world's leading cartographers, aided by unique Society equipment and the most accurate of modern lithographic presses. Drawn on the Albers Conical Equal-Area Projection, it shows all areas in their true proportion.

Map In Two Sections. In order to get the entire region onto the sheet in the scale chosen, Chief Cartographer James M. Darlow planned the map in two sections. The main section, showing Mexico, ends to the south and east midway across Honduras. An inset on the same scale carries the reader on down to Panama's border with Colombia. The chart extends far enough north into the United States to give proper perspective.

Much of interest and importance has transpired in Mexico and the wasp waist of the Western Hemisphere since war days. The Inter-American Highway, part of the projected great Pan American Highway the length of the Americas, has been almost completed. It shows on the new map.

In the desolate Revilla Gigedo Islands about 250 miles south of the tip of Lower California, volcanoes have built new mountains, and Mexico has awarded exploitation rights for what may be one of the world's largest sulphur deposits.

The Panama Canal, shown in an inset on a scale of 1:184 miles to the inch, has set all-time high records for carrying shipping. Mexico has created a new twentieth state in Lower California, and started developing in the Papaloapan River Valley its own parallel to the American Tennessee Valley project.

In Sigbee Deep, far out in the Gulf of Mexico, has been found a depression 3,538 feet deep, a new record for the area. Chihuahua's Canyon of Copper — Barranco de Cobre — has been described by explorers as deeper than the Grand Canyon of the Colorado.

GEOGRAPHIC ODDITIES AND BRIEFS

Common belief that snakes travel by moving their ribs has been exploded by X-ray moving pictures showing snakes to be stationary in the body under all methods of snake locomotion.

Volcanic steam harnessed in plants at Larderello, Italy, furnishes almost one-tenth of the nation's total electric power, says the National Geographic Society.

A GOOSE SILLY! NOT SO, THE FARMER SAYS

How silly is a goose? Not silly at all, say farmers and sportsmen, who should know.

At least two farmers, living at widely separated places in the United States, have ganders they claim tend sheep, says the National Geographic Society. In each case, the big bird leads the flock to water, then returns it to pasture.

The talents of geese as sentries are well known. Excited gabbling of Rome's sacred geese from their home in the Temple of Juno atop Capitoline Hill roused the Eternal City's defenders in time to rout the barbarian Gauls who invaded Italy in 390 B. C.

Used In Kenya

"Watchdog" geese were sent last summer from Suffolk, England, to Nairobi, capital of British Kenya in East Africa. They were bought by a settler to give the alarm in case of Mau Mau attack.

Across the world in Malaya, the British high command early in 1953 announced that geese sentries were being stationed in pens around villages threatened by Communist guerrilla raiders.

Like their domesticated brothers, the free, high-flying wild geese that go honking down the sky at season's turn rate high in intelligence. Canada geese, snow geese, blue geese, brants all carefully inspect the ground for possible danger before landing, and while feeding, post sentinels.

Most American barnyard geese are descendants of the European and Asiatic graylag. The best for watchdog duty is the big and powerful Chinese goose, suspicious of strangers and possessed of a voice rivaling a Parisian taxicab horn in penetrating resonance.

Because they are finicky and selective about their food, geese are excellent at weeding crops. Hundreds of thousands of them tend cotton fields, nurseries and blueberry and strawberry patches from Texas to New Jersey.

Their employers claim they eat crab grass, Bermuda grass and even saw-edged Johnson grass without ever touching the cotton plants, berries or young trees. For lawns, however, they are not recommended.

Moose Bellino	99.8
John Mongano	99.2
J. Riga	99.0

I wish to repeat again and hope that no offense is taken from this column for it is not the intention of this writer to humiliate anyone.
A few words about the boys from

New Haven (Yale) founded originally in Saybrook, Conn., in 1501, whose 252 years of high teaching standards, deserve a better standing in the bowling tournament.

The team consists of the following men. Richie Riga, Jr., whose remarkable record speaks for itself. Henry Sibirio who could use a lot of practice to equal last year's record. Al Tibaud who carries his share of the burdens.

"St. Bernard Eyes" George Voci, if he could get the pig out of his mind he could do much better. D.
Pantalea, a new bowler who needs seasoning. Ben Gilotti, if he could miss the rubber enough times he could be a darn good bowler. Wispers and comments heard around the alley.

"Wedding Bells Bob" to limit himself to ten appointments and twenty-five hand shakes on Wednesday nights. Make your appointments early. Have you seen any improvements in M. D. Saracco who has been exercising most diligently? Heard Costi is going to exhale.
Dom Provinzano to lift his nose up four inches. Is there a prouder father than "Creepy" Gene? Does "Winchester Star" Larry know who writes this column? Ollie Sibirio set up pins like a professional in an emergency which arose this week.
Heard he kept a running conversation with the pins to keep himself in trim. The best dressed man Nick Molea is the proud father of a baby girl. Congratulations and good luck.

The "G. L." Randy's Raffle was won by the proud father of Joe and Richie Riga, Mr. Richard Riga, Sr.

As I informed you last week a new contest was to be announced.
It is being sponsored by our good and honorable president of the
A. C. A. Sir M. Frongillo, well known philanthropist for personal financial gain only. Because of his inability to participate in the waist reducing exercises and loss of revenue induced by his incapacitation he has ventured into a new field which calls upon his mental ingeniousness he so possesses. He has associated himself with one of the foremost established makers of toupes here in the East. He has been given the entire town of Winchester as an open field in his new endeavor. His first thought was to hold a contest among the bowlers.
Tension will be at a high pitch during this contest. Contestant rules are as follows:

1. Must be a member of good standing in the S. O. I.
2. Must be a bowler of the S. O. I.
3. Hair count must not exceed 7335.
4. To protect the six contestants in the semi-finals, a microscopic test will be made to determine if any shaving was done to the cranium.
5. In case of tie duplicate awards will be given.
6. The decision of his honor
Mingy will be final.

Prizes: "A blond curly toupe."

Next week will be posted the semi-finalists.

NEW CALENDAR FROM NATIONAL BANK

The Winchester National Bank sent out this week its new Engagement Calendar for 1954.

Similar in design to its predecessor it is again beautifully illustrated with pencil sketches by the well known Winchester artist and designer, Ernest Dudley Chase. In addition to sketches of private homes about town there is included one of Mr. Chase's illustrated maps of Winchester and a charming study of what the artist calls "Middle Mystic Lake" that portion of "big Mystic" north of the causeway and dam at the Medford Boat Club.
These National Bank calendars form a valuable pictorial record of the town as it is today and are carefully preserved by many who look forward to them each year.

OUR GIFT TO OUR NEIGHBORS

Contributions received during the first two weeks of the Annual Christmas Seal Sale from letters mailed out to residents of the Middlesex Health Association area total $40,513.23. "This report includes forty-four of our forty-five cities and towns," according to Mrs. John Cochrane, Chairman of the Seal Sale Committee.

"Our Christmas Seal return envelope is one of the most important pieces of mail we receive for our Christmas Seal contribution is our gift to our neighbors, to the whole community."

Mrs. Harlow Russell, chairman of the Winchester Tuberculosis Committee, states that, "When you pay for Christmas Seals, you are buying specific service for the prevention and control of tuberculosis in this community. However, we cannot keep one home in this town safe unless we drive tuberculosis out of the whole county."

Contributions may be sent to Mrs. Franklin J. Lane, 4 Drexel Avenue, Treasurer of the Winchester Tuberculosis Committee. Checks may be made payable to Winchester Tuberculosis Committee.

A durable, precision built desk model portable adding machine, lightens work, fast and accurate. $14.95 on sale at Wilson the Stationer, Star Bldg., 3 Church street.

LEGION TURKEY TOURNAMENT

The annual Turkey Tournament, held by Winchester Post No. 97, A. L. will take place on Saturday, December 19, at the Post home, 34 Vine street, beginning at 7:00 p. m. This charitable event helps the Post to carry on its obligations, including the important aid to our Disabled Veterans in hospitals and assistance to our Comrades in need. Also, the income finances the Christmas Party, and contributes to the Scholarship Fund, Welfare Fund and Boy Scouts.

A gala dancing party, free of charge, with orchestra music and entertainment will top the evening. There will be card parties, pool, billiards, and TV for all to enjoy. The Dugout will be open from 7 p. m. to closing time, and don't forget the chance you have to win the Door Prize of a fine turkey dinner if you attend.

DAD AND DAUGHTER NIGHT

Mr. Ralph Boynton of 27 Canterbury road, was a guest of honor at the traditional "Dad and Daughter Night" program held on Tuesday, December 8, by students of Fisher Junior College in Boston where his daughter, Miss Barbara Boynton, is preparing for a career as a legal secretary.

The Winchester resident was among the several hundred fathers who enjoyed an old-time musical revue staged by the students and also attended "open house" in the college's administration building at 118 Beacon street. The evening festivities closed with refreshments and an informal reception in the office of President Sanford L. Fisher of the college.

The Old Farmer's Almanac for 1954 is now on sale at the Star Office, 3 Church street.

BIRTHDAY GREETINGS

ELGIN SUMNER NICKERSON, BUSINESS EXECUTIVE
BORN: DECEMBER 18, 1894
AT WINCHESTER, MASS.

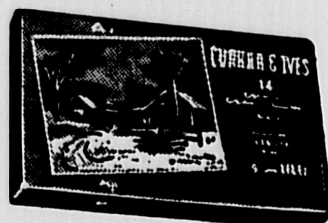

Elgin Sumner Nickerson's life is a striking example of a successful career confined to one industrial organization. The son of John Eames and Emma Florella (Stone) Nickerson, he attended Yale University, receiving the degree of Bachelor of Philosophy in 1915. With the exception of a period of the First World War, during which he served as first lieutenant, U. S. Army, and of a few months in 1915 when he was employed by the Lake Torpedo Boat Company of Bridgeport, Connecticut, Mr. Nickerson's activities have been confined to E. I. duPont de Nemours and Company. During the years, he advanced through various positions of increasing importance in the engineering, purchasing, manufacturing, development, financial control and sales divisions of the company; and since 1945, he has been general manager of the fabrics and finishes department, with headquarters in Wilmington, Delaware. A clever picture of Mr. Nickerson's standing in his field may perhaps be obtained by noting that he was chairman of the coated fabrics industry advisory committee of the Office of Price Administration from 1941 to 1945. In addition, he has been a member of the paint industry advisory committee of the National Production Authority since 1951 and is a member of the executive committee of the National Paint, Varnish and Lacquer Association. Mention should also be made of the fact that he has been active in the affairs of the Rotary Club.

Married to Margaret S. Pattison in 1919 and the father of two children, Mr. Nickerson makes his home in Westover Hills, Delaware.

Old Farmer's Almanac for 1954 now on sale at the Star Office, 3 Church street.

APPRECIATED MESSAGE

The Winchester Homefronters received last Friday by amateur radio a message from Serviceman Ted Ginsberg of 6 Euclid avenue, now stationed in the Azores.

The message read, "Thanking you for your kind holiday thoughtfulness. Season's Greetings! Ted Ginsberg."

It was sent to the Winchester Library, from which it was relayed to the Homefronters' executive chairman, Mrs. William C. Cusack, who immediately sent a response.

Parents Note!

If you would like to send a personal message to your overseas serviceman through this wonderful medium, contact Mrs. William C. Cusack, Winchester 6-1706, or Mrs. Frank Carroll, Winchester 6-1031.

Bob Richmond of Winchester and Ralph Barry of Dedham are the Homefronters' short-wave artists. They sent three messages last Saturday, seven Sunday night and will send approximately six messages daily until Christmas.

Mrs. Elizabeth C. McDonald of Hill street has been drawn for service on the Federal Grand Jury and will report to the United States Marshal at the Postoffice Building in Boston on December 21.

WARD HEART FUND HEAD

Mr. James Ward of 17 North Gateway, was named Chairman of the 1954 Heart Fund Campaign in February for Winchester. It was announced this week by Sidney R. Rabb, Greater Boston Chairman. He will also serve as Heart Sunday Chairman.

Mr. Ward has named Mr. Vincent Ambrose of the Winchester Trust Company as Treasurer of his committee.

MYSTIC GLEE CLUB

The Mystic Glee Club of Winchester, now in their 14th season, gave their annual winter concert on Saturday evening, December 12th, in the Winchester High School auditorium. Margaret Moreland, young Boston pianist, was the guest artist for the event.

The group of about forty men sang with genuine enthusiasm and understanding. The program was well varied to include both light and serious numbers. It opened with the impressive W. B. Olds arrangement of "A Mighty Fortress Is Our God", and continued with the haunting Gretchaninoff "Cherubic Hymn". Outstanding in the group was "Here Is Thy Footstool" by Paul Creston. The rendition was greatly enhanced by the very clear enunciation of the singers. The entire program was good proof that with careful attention to dictation, general groups can project a text. It is a joy to understand words easily.

The first group of selections concluded with the familiar Russian Kyrie, "Hospodi Pomilui L'vovskiy", arranged by Max T. Krone. Although the program included several favorite but often done compositions, they were sung with a pleasant freshness of approach and did not become banal.

Miss Moreland, the attractive and exquisitely gowned young pianist, charming in manner and poised, geared her presentation to virtuosity with compositions of Chopin and Liszt. She acquitted herself well and is to be commended for her sincere approach which happily lacks unnecessary display at the keyboard. Miss Moreland played the ever popular "Fantasie Impromptu" of Chopin with facility and ease but was perhaps at her best in the more lyric Nocturne in D Flat, op. 27, No. 2, and the powerful Liszt "Saint Francis Walking On The Waves". The petite pianist has amazing strength and shows to best advantage in the more sonorous passages. The lightest work lacks clarity. Miss Moreland is on the faculty of Boston University, the Long School of Music, and the South End Music Centre. She has appeared as a soloist with the Boston Pops and the Boston City Symphony Orchestra.

Also featured on the program were the Mystic Two By Fours, an octet from the Glee Club itself. Singing with fine balance and finesse, the eight men brought both popular ballads and "old timers" to life. They are exciting to hear and fun to watch. Their variations range from "Blue Indigo", "In The Evening By The Moonlight", to "The Passport Photographer". Here again, enunciation was above the usual.

On the fun side of listening were "Cindy", the Arthur Hall arrangement of the "Old Kentucky Mountain" song; "Shadrack", composed by Robert MacGimsey and arranged by Orrie Lee; and the Clokey conglomeration of familiar tunes, "The Musical Tru". In these are contagious enthusiasm of director Allen C. Lannom spread to singers and audience alike.

Although it is always good to hear old and favorite compositions well done, real appreciation must be expressed to the Glee Club for their fine rendition of the things with more musical import. The enchanting beauty of the simple Appalachian Folk Song, "Black Is The Color Of My True Love's Hair", arranged by Stuart Churchill, and the loveliness of the several Christmas songs in the last group were particularly noticeable. Especially fine was the Richard Kountz "Rise Up Early". With this were sung "Lo, How A Rose E'er Blooming" of Praetorius, "Twas In The Moon Of Winter Time", arranged by Daltry, and the unusual Clarence Dickenson arrangement of "Angels O'er The Fields".

The good work of accompanist Frederic Davis was outstanding in the interesting composition of Frederick Loewe, "They Call The Wind Maria". Here also was apparent the imaginative ingenuity and powerful control of dynamics of director Lannom, under whose conducting the Glee Club has become an exceptionally fine singing unit. They are the present holders of the cup presented annually in the competition sponsored by the New England Federation of Men's Glee Clubs. Lannom is an Associate Professor in the College of Music of Boston University where he directs the Choral Art Society and the Chapel Choir. He is also the director-conductor of the Lexington Civic Chorus.

The Saturday concert, done entirely by memory, presented music of serious intent as well as music for pure entertainment, both in fine taste. The usual large audience was responsive and both guest artist and men's groups obliged graciously with demanded encores.

MIDDLESEX CROSS COUNTRY LEAGUE ANNUAL BANQUET

The annual banquet of the Middlesex Cross Country League was held last Thursday at the Belmont High School, with over 200 boys, their coaches, and guests in attendance. Winchester High School was represented by 16 members of this year's team. This annual affair is an enthusiastic gathering of students interested in cross country and is conducted by the Middlesex Cross Country League as a special event for its 14 member schools.

Presiding at the meeting was league president, Thomas A. Morse, Winchester High School coach. As the principal speaker he introduced Mr. Josy Barthel, 1500 meter Olympic champion from Luxembourg. Mr. Barthel's inspirational address won the group's attention for the entire time. Following his speech, he conducted a question period for another half hour.

After Mr. Barthel's address, the prizes for the year were presented, with the following Winchester runners receiving awards:

M.C.C. Medal to John Becker and Louis Farrell.
Ribbon awards to varsity runners John Becker and Robert Becker.

Junior varsity ribbons to Robert Smith, Paul Franson, Jon McCarthy, Bert Kneeland, Robert Dauphinais, George Stratton, and Charles Govostes.

The police were notified that Sunday morning about 3:15 a green convertible Ford of the hot-rod type, driven by a young man, went off the road onto the Larose property at 17 Ardley place, doing considerable damage there. The operator drove off without making himself known.

WINCHESTER AT DEDHAM

Fresh from a very satisfying opening-game victory over Arlington High, the Indians travel to Dedham tonight for their second game of the season. Dedham is a member of the Bay State League and this is their second year on the Winchester schedule. The locals defeated them in Winchester last year but little is known of the strength of this year's quintet. Dedham authorities state that there is sufficient seating capacity to handle the Winchester fans who plan to attend.

Next Wednesday night the Red and Black will be at home again as they entertain a visiting Wellesley High quintet. Wellesley is also a member of the strong Bay State League and gave last year's champions a hard battle before dropping an 8-point decision. This should be a popular home game for many alumni who want to attend to see this year's edition of the Red and Black.

This year's team gained a lot of supporters as the result of their game, uphill battle to victory over Arlington High. As one fan said after last Friday's game, "Nobody is going to outscore or outshout that bunch of boys." Coach Bartlett was still undecided about the starting lineup for tonight's and next Wednesday's contests but it is a cinch that sophomores Joe Bellino and John Lynch will see plenty of action as a result of excellent performances last week.

NEW PATROLMAN

The Board of Selectmen has appointed Frank P. Tranchita of 63 Harvard street a permanent member of the police department to take effect January 1, 1954. Officer Tranchita was born in Winchester, is married and served two years in the Navy. Before entering the Navy he was a foreman at the J. O. Whitten Co. plant. He has been a special officer since 1951 and passed the civil service examination for appointment as a permanent officer.

CHRISTMAS AT THE METHODIST CHURCH

There will be two services this Sunday at the Crawford Memorial Methodist Church. The first service will be held at 9:30 a. m. and the second service will be held at 10:45 a. m. They will be similar with the exception of one or two abbreviations in the earlier service. The young people will sponsor a carol-sing, visiting many of the shut-ins on Sunday evening. Members of the church and others who enjoy this traditional program are invited to join with the young people.

Christmas Eve at 11 p. m. a Candle Lighting service will be held with the pastor, Rev. John Snook, Jr., bringing the meditation. Several hundred people await with great anticipation to take part in this beautiful service, welcoming the first moment of Christmas morning and celebrating the anniversary of the birth of Christ, in the sanctuary. The public is welcome to this highlight fellowship. Remembering the needs of others, members and friends are asked to bring some little gift along with the children of the Sunday School for a "White Gift" altar decoration. These gifts will be given to the children who share in the Morgan Memorial program.

The Star acknowledges with thanks the gift of a large decorative calendar from Insurance Agent John Mercurio. The illustration is a marine and most attractive.

THE FORTNIGHTLY

The Christmas meeting of the Fortnightly was held last Monday afternoon in the First Baptist Church with the president, Mrs. Sidney A. Burr, in the chair. The ministers' wives of the churches of Winchester were the Club's guests.

The Fortnightly Choral Group, with Mrs. Kenneth Hiseo as director and Mrs. Frank McCullough at the piano, was one of the delightful highlights of the afternoon as they sang the following group of familiar Christmas carols:

Lo, How a Rose E'er Blooming Silent Night
The First Noel
Come All Ye Faithful
O, Holy Night

Mrs. Joseph G. Bond, the Club's music chairman, and Mrs. J. H. McManus sang a duet part during the last number.
Mrs. Hazel George Erb, with her subject as "Dame Boston" and "Christmas Customs on Beacon Hill," took the members and guests on a historical tour of Boston starting with the sixteen hundreds and through the years to the present day. Mentioning many famous people who had lived there and contributed much to the world as well as to the customs and history of the city of Boston.

During the afternoon an exhibition of Madonnas, arranged by Mrs. Lester P. Leathers on behalf of the Club's art committee, was a pleasure to behold. These art figurines and pictures were loaned by the following members and friends:

Mrs. Edward McDevitt—a very old painting of Raphael's della Madonna Granduca
Mrs. Michael Hintlian—a hand-carved wooden Madonna, an Italian plaque, and Hummel figures
Mrs. John Rote—religious Hummels

Mrs. Anna Mason — Madonna prints
Mrs. Sumner Goodwin—a creche
Mrs. Edward Grosvenor—a Madonna figure
Mrs. Lester Leathers—Madonnas and arrangements of religious Hummels

Two large electric candles, which added much to the beauty of the table display, were loaned by Mrs. John Rutherford.

The "Penny Art Fund" collection was taken at this meeting.

WINCHESTER COMMUNITY CONCERT

On Thursday evening, December 10, at the Winchester High School Auditorium, the Community Concert Association opened its season with the return engagement of the famous De Paur Infantry Chorus which has been enthusiastically acclaimed by previous Winchester audiences. Anyone who has heard this excellent group of thirty-five voices under the superb leadership of their conductor, Mr. Leonard De Paur, will no doubt agree that it is one of the finest choruses ever to appear on this continent.

The program was divided into five parts:

I
Songs by Contemporary Composers
These are the Times Herbert Haufrecht
Nightingales Howard Swanson
The Tiger's Ghost Otto Luening
Dance for Two Veterans Norman Lockwood

II
Folk Songs from Latin America
La Llorona (Mexican Haupango) arr. de Paur
Rio que Passa Llorando arr. de Paur (Colombian Bambuco) arr. de Paur
Straple Gassuano (Mexican Cancion) arr. de Paur
Money is King (Trinidad Calypso) Pattermole Paur

The outstanding feature of this second group was the unusually clever simulated guitar vocal accompaniment. Against this background the excellent soloists showed up to even better advantage.

III
Songs from World War II
"I've got Sixpence" arr. de Paur
Lill Marlene arr. de Paur
Chinese Soldier's Elegy Chiang Ting-Hsien
Rodger Young
Most of these World War II songs are familiar but they were given new meaning by the effective interpretation of the chorus. The spirited, marching rhythms and delicate shadings made these songs a new experience. In contrast to the martial quality of the other three, the Chinese Soldier's Elegy was done in unison with simple poignancy and perfect synchronization.

IV
Negro Work Songs and Spirituals
John Henry (A Legend) arr. de Paur
Tol' My Cap'n arr. de Paur
Soon Ah Will Be Done Dawson
Nobody Knows De Trouble I See arr. de Paur
Witness arr. de Paur

In the opinion of some this and the Spanish group seemed to be the most popular. Here the chorus sang with unique abandon, sincerity and deep feeling. Much credit is due to the tenor soloist for his beautiful interpretation of "Nobody Knows De Trouble I See" from a simple melody to a deeply moving musical experience.

Good taste was shown in the arrangement of the program because after the opening reminder of our troubled times, the program ends with an affirmation of faith. Four religious denominations are represented. Each selection was rendered in a manner appropriate to its respective faith.

Enthusiastic applause brought forth two encores:

Ave Verum by Mozart and a calypso, The Ugly Woman.

This program revealed the broad scope of the chorus' ability and their most unbelievable technical excellence. Their many soloists have unusually fine diction and interpretation. At all times the control of the conductor was evident and his skill as an arranger is one of the greatest assets the group could have.

Few groups can equal them in tone blending and shading; few groups have their rare combination of technical skill and aesthetic feeling. This concert was a most stimulating beginning of this year's Winchester Community Concert Series.

CAR CRASHED INTO POLE

Catherine D. Turner of 485 Washington street, escaped injury, but the Frazer sedan she was driving north on Washington street was badly damaged about the front end when it collided with an Edison Light Company pole on the west side of Washington street about 30 feet south of the intersection of Cross street.

Mrs. Turner told the police she dozed at the wheel and lost control of her car. The light pole was moved about six inches at the base and the lighting equipment damaged.

The automobile had to be towed away and the Edison emergency crew notified of the damage to the system.

THE MARY WITHAM SINGERS IN BOSTON

In Boston Thursday afternoon, December 10, the Mary Witham Singers entertained for the Women's Republican Club with a Christmas program of carols and readings, presenting artistically the inspiration of the season. The carols, both familiar and unusual ones, were delightful, the Singers being notable for their sympathetic response to Mrs. Witham's effective directing, supported by Miss Grace Norian at the piano. Mrs. Robert P. Blake's readings were impressive, as always, and added greatly to the interest of the afternoon.

For their spring programs the Singers do not begin rehearsals until February.

Sixty-nine members of the Women's Society for Christian Service of the Crawford Memorial Church gathered in the gaily-decorated social hall for a Christmas party on Thursday evening, December 10.

Following a delicious dinner, the president, Mrs. Gerald Smithson, called the meeting to order. Mrs. Lewis Curtis led the devotions. Miss Mary L. Hodge reported the results of the Christmas Fair, December 4, and her report was received with enthusiasm. Miss Jacqueline Snook and Miss Sandra A. Curtis sang duets of Christmas carols, accompanied by the choir director, Mr. Arnold Johnstad. Mrs. Fenton H. Norris introduced the speaker, Mrs. D. T. Erb, who gave a delightful talk on Christmas customs from other lands.

Mrs. Richard Smith acted as Santa, distributing gifts to those present. Informal singing of Christmas carols ended a very happy evening.

EXTRA MAIL TRAINS

Extra trains will start operating this week on the Boston and Maine Railroad to carry the tons of Christmas mail and express destined for points in central and northern New England.

Every effort is being made by the railroad to keep an even flow of mail on all outbound and inbound trains and avoid any pile-ups or jams which cause delays.

The Boston and Maine officials estimate the road's part in the mail delivery this year as well over 1,000 mail cars loaded with letters and packages. If these loaded mail cars were put in one single train it would make a mail train over 10 miles long.

The Post Office Department at Washington, D. C., has estimated that approximately six billion letters and packages will be moved by the nation's railroads during the pre-Christmas rush.

Extra mail trains now scheduled on the Boston and Maine will run between Boston and Greenfield, Boston and Haverhill, and Springfield, Mass., and White River Jet, Vermont. Operating officials of the road will keep in constant touch with the mail movements over the entire system and mail will be kept moving to the delivery points day and night.

VISITED U. N. BUILDING

Miss Louise Kugler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Kugler of 26 Winslow road, was one of the 16 students from Mount Holyoke College to visit the United Nations Building in New York yesterday on an all-day trip.

In the morning there was a general tour of the United Nations Building. Miss Kugler also attended briefing sessions by Mr. Nessim Shalom on the current policy problem of the Technical Assistance Board, and by Mr. Hans Singer on financing economic development. Then there was luncheon with five members of the U. N. Secretariat, including Miss Sud of India and Mr. Amid of Pakistan.

In the afternoon Mr. William Avirett of the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace conducted the group on a tour of the organization's new building situated on First avenue and 46th street. There Miss Anne Winslow, editor, spoke at a special seminar on political problems in economic development. The group then returned to the U. N. Building and visited meetings of social and economic committees.

Miss Kugler is a member of the junior class at Mount Holyoke College.

SUPT. GILSON ADDRESSED HIGH SCHOOL ASSEMBLY

Superintendent of Schools Harry V. Gilson was the principal speaker at the high school assembly last Friday morning. In his introductory remarks, Principal Wade L. Grindle reviewed Dr. Gilson's distinguished educational career, as Commissioner of Education for Maine, deputy commissioner in New York, and regional director for the Federal Office of Education.

Responding to Mr. Grindle, Dr. Gilson expressed his pleasure at being able to meet with the students of the high school for the first time, and he said that before too long he hoped to become better acquainted with individual pupils. The Superintendent noted that as a native of New England he was glad to be back in home territory after several years spent in the Midwest. Regardless of the attractions of other sections of the country," he said, "no real New Englander is ever quite at home anywhere else."

In a more serious vein, Dr. Gilson recalled some of his experiences as an educator concerned with the training of youth during the depression. These young people, all of them unemployed and most of them from homes suffering great deprivation, were called "the lost generation" by some observers. The "calamity howlers" asked what the country was coming to if it had to depend upon these aimless, hopeless youngsters. Nevertheless, neither Communism nor any other foreignism made a dent on the majority of these youth. And, when Pearl Harbor came, these same young people, more than any others, gave their all to defend the American way of life. Their devotion and sacrifice, said Dr. Gilson, may well be emulated by today's youth, as it takes up the task which is every generation's, that of preserving and improving democracy.

Prior to the Superintendent's speech, Mr. Grindle announced the winner of the D. A. R. Good Citizenship Award which this year goes to Sheila Seamon. Sheila was called to the stage to receive congratulations for her well-earned honor.

ANNUAL MEETING FRIENDS OF WINCHESTER BANDS AND ORCHESTRAS

A lively and well-attended meeting of the Friends of the Winchester Bands and Orchestras was held in the junior high school on the evening of December 14th. Mr. and Mrs. Albert D. Swazey were elected honorary members of the board in recognition of their devoted service.

Both Wade L. Grindle, principal of the Winchester High School, and Mr. Fred Felmet, music director, thanked the group for their continued support of and interest in the musical development of the Winchester bands and orchestras. During the next year it is hoped that opportunities will be found for the W. H. S. orchestra to become as well known in our community as the band. The group discussed various ways in which recognition of this fine group might be effected.

At the same time Mr. Felmet was praised for the fine showing which his W. H. S. band has made this past year.

The retiring president, Mr. Don Kroell, was thanked for his accomplishments of the past two years.

The following board of directors was elected:

President—Mr. Herbert T. Wads.

Vice Pres.—Fenton Norris

Treasurer—Mr. Oleott Hooper

Advisors—Mr. and Mrs. Albert Swazey

Chairman of the Spring Concert—Mrs. Harlow Russell

NICHOLS FAMILY HOME ON LEAVE

Robert L. Nichols and his family are now home on leave in Winchester until about February 1, 1954. He has served for more than two years as a public affairs (information) officer in the U. S. overseas information program in the Philippines, at Manila and Davao.

Mr. Nichols attended Winchester High School and Swarthmore College, and earned an A.B. from Tufts and an M.A. from the Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy. He is married to the former Virginia Straghan of Winchester, and they have two children, Robert Gibbs and Nancy Lee.

Mr. Nichols parents are Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm S. Nichols of 39A Wildwood street, and his wife's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Straghan of 12 Woodside road.

TV STAR LIVING HERE

Last Sunday's Boston Globe had a feature story by Edward L. Jamieson on Frank Fontaine, 33-year-old TV, radio and movie comedian. The story had special interest in Winchester because of the fact that the Fontaines recently moved to town and are living at 408 Highland avenue, across the street from the old Henry place, later the home of Mr. Albert K. Comins.

Mr. and Mrs. Fontaine have nine children, ranging in ages from Frank, Jr., 15, down to baby Eugene, only a few weeks old. They recently came from a seven-room home in Medford to their present 11-room house on Highland avenue. Frank, himself, has refused many an enticing professional offer, entailing long periods away from home, to be with his family as much as possible.

Since he got his start on the Ed Sullivan Show in 1948 Mr. Fontaine has twice taken his family to Hollywood and has returned each time because his wife missed her family and friends around Boston.

He will stay in Winchester until New Year's, doing one-night guest appearances in New York and flying home. In January he will appear at the Copa Cabana in Miami for three weeks, then come home for a three-weeks appearance and while there hop to do a quick movie and a guest spot on the Jack Benny show.

Some 18 boards were stolen from a new house under construction for John Wilson on Hutchinson road. The builder, Gordon Benson, 85 Ferrin street, Charleston, notified the police.

METCALF UNION DANCE SATURDAY

Metcalfe Union, the high school fellowship at the Unitarian Church, will hold a colorful Christmas dance Saturday evening, in Metcalfe Hall from 8 to 11:30.

The dance is called Hollydaze Whirl, and a large committee has been working to make it a successful and enjoyable affair. Members of Metcalfe Union will meet Saturday morning to decorate the hall in a gay, holly motif.

Ed Strack's well-known orchestra will play for the evening. Many high school friends of Metcalfe Union members will attend.

The dance committee is: Darrell Harvey, chairman; Barbara Bittel; Richard Clark; Linda Witham; Ted Freeman; Roger Symmes.

Ben Cullen, custodian at the Wadleigh School, returned to his duties last week-end after a week on the sick list.

EPIPHANY TANDEM CLUB

The Tandem Club, Church of the Epiphany, met at 7:00 December 9th in the Parish Hall for their regular monthly meeting.

An overflow crowd enjoyed a wonderful dinner prepared by Mr. and Mrs. John Page and committee. Succulent steaming hot fish chowder was a feature of the meal, topped off with apple pie, cheese and coffee. Mr. Irwin A. Williamson, well-known deep-sea diver and photographer, narrated an excellent color film depicting his work under the oceans. For those who like their adventure rugged, Mr. Williamson certainly has a story backed up by films—life and death struggle between octopus and human, electric eels slithering about and man-eating sharks skulking here and there provided maximum excitement for all.

Mr. Williamson developed the first underwater camera and has made many underwater sequences for Hollywood films. He holds the world's official record for a deep-sea dive. Mr. Williamson has improved diving equipment and invented many safety devices over the years. He is also a writer, and one of his several books was condensed in the Reader's Digest.

Tandem Club members are reminded to look for the next edition of The Duet for information concerning future club activities and coming meeting.

To the Winchester Star and all, the Tandem Club wishes a Merry Christmas and a Joyous New Year.

Mr. and Mrs. John F. Sexton had a group of Rangely friends for dinner Monday evening to meet their new neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. Warren F. Barnes of Rangely road and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Childerhose of Rangely ridge.

SCHOOL BONDS SOLD

LARGEST ISSUE IN TOWN'S HISTORY TO SYNDICATE

Town Treasurer E. Abbot Bradlee awarded town school bonds in the amount of $1,790,000 to the low bidder, R. W. Pressprich & Co., of New York and Boston, representing a syndicate of Boston financiers, at the opening of the bids Tuesday at the First National Bank in Boston, which authenticated the bonds.

The town voted the bond issue at a special town meeting last fall to pay for the enlarging and remodeling of the junior high school to house the senior high school. Town Treasurer Bradlee subsequently, with the approval of the Selectmen, advertised for bids, and 27 were received.

At the First National Bank on Tuesday Mr. Bradlee opened the bids in the presence of bank officials and a number of town officials, including Selectmen William C. Cusack and Lewis L. Wadsworth, Jr., Donald Heath, collector of taxes; and James Costello, town accountant.

The low bidder, R. W. Pressprich & Co., represented a syndicate comprising its own firm and Coffin & Burr, Inc., Stone & Webster Securities Corp., George P. Fogg and F. Brittain Kennedy & Co., all of Boston.

JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL CHRISTMAS ASSEMBLY

The junior high school orchestra, boys' and girls' glee clubs, and members of a dramatic group combined their talents to present a gay Christmas assembly last Friday morning at the high school auditorium. Borrowing from the world of commercial television, the youngsters had prepared a make-believe television program.

The master of ceremonies, Larry Longworth, handled his role in good Ed Sullivan style and kept the long program running smoothly. After his introduction by Kathleen Doherty, the announcer, Larry presented the junior high orchestra under the direction of Mr. Theodore Janner. This year's group is composed of 50 members, 30 of whom are in the string section. The several selections, well played by the orchestra, showed the results of much practice and training.

The following pupils performed in the quartets or trios:

Detsy Burton
April Godwin
Sarah Fish
Richard Niles
Carl Masi
John J. Dolan
David Littleton
Beverly Bonnell
Janet Donovan
Jane Overacker
Ann Neville
Debbie Jope
Judy Murray

Following the orchestral selections, Stephen Enright, in his role of president of "Christmas Spirit, Inc.," was introduced to say a few words. Christmas in many lands was the subject of the next group of entertainers. Linda Baker sang a French carol, while Ledger Mitchell described Christmas in Italy. Other countries represented were the following:

Sweden, by David Van Ummer-sen
Germany, by Paul Sullivan
England, by Mary Welden
Holland, by Brenda Cowles
Spain, by Judy Cussen

Much enjoyed by the audience of students and parents were the numbers sung by boys' and girls' glee clubs under the direction of Miss Eleanor Amfantis. The program presented by the boys' glee club included:

1. "We Three Kings of Orient Are" — soloists, Edward Morse, William Toppi, and Donald Seaver
2. "Silent Night" — soloist, Sam Orth
3. "God Rest Ye Merry Gentlemen" — soloists, David Harkins, Charles O'Connor, Dominic Serratore, Jonathan Handy.

Especially noteworthy was the solo work of Sam Orth.

Another fine part of the assembly was the reading by Vivian Loutanau of "The First Christmas Story." Vivian also wrote the script for the entire TV program.

The program ended with the singing of three songs by the girls' glee club:

1. "Santa Claus is Coming to Town"
2. "White Christmas" — duet by Barbara and Eleanor Graustuck
3. "Rudolph the Red-Nosed Reindeer."

Others taking part in the assembly were Jean Elliott, who assisted the "sponsors" and the members of the stage crew, David Purrington, Jack Ghirardini, and Charles Bond. Miss Charlotte LeClaire, of the junior high school faculty, was the program coordinator.

An estimated 35,000 persons contracted polio in 1952. This was well below the 1952 record of 67,000 cases, but it was still the sixth straight year of high polio incidence. Four out of five needed March of Dimes help.

The death rate from polio is dropping steadily, thanks to progress made possible by March of Dimes-supported research. From 1938 through 1942 eleven out of every 100 persons who contracted polio died of the disease. At last report, the death rate was down to six per 100.

"CHRISTMAS EVERYWHERE" AT LINCOLN SCHOOL

"Christmas Everywhere" was the title of the delightful program presented by the pupils of the Lincoln School in the school auditorium on the evening of December 17. Much study and work had gone into the preparation of this assembly, and the results were both entertaining and educational to the enthusiastic audience. Even the most crude of parents must have learned something he hadn't known before about the celebration of Christmas in other lands.

All the youngsters in Grades one through six shared in the following program:

The First Christmas — Grade 3, Mrs. Janet McGrath.

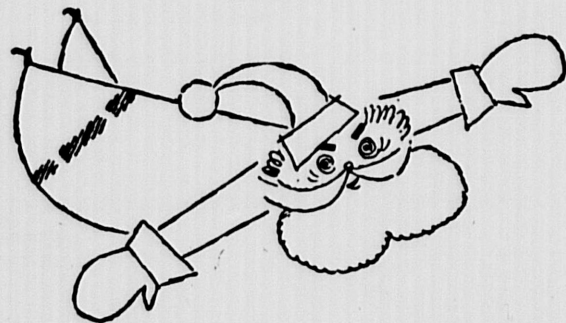

Christmas in Switzerland — Grade 1, Mrs. Mary Sullivan.

May this Christmas Season bring Joy and Happiness to You and Yours.

CLEANSING

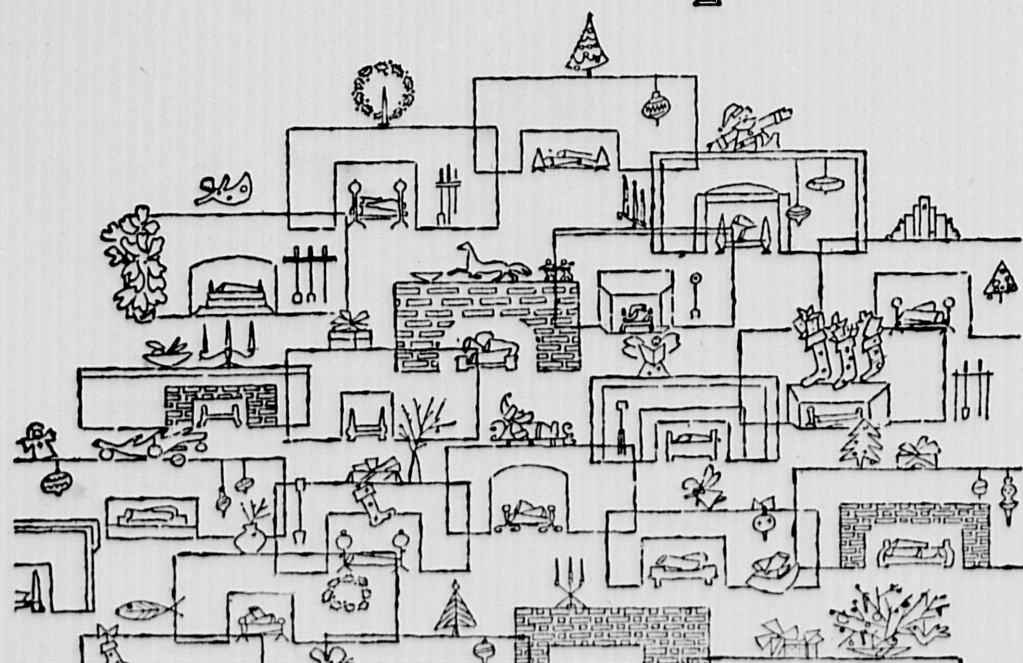

Yes, Santa, the Greater Boston area has grown since you were here last. New homes, new industries, new thousands of new fireplaces. Santa!

The men and women of Boston Edison are particularly conscious of these great developments. We are proud that abundant, dependable and economical electric service is always ready with its vital contribution to a growing community.

There have been many changes — for the better. But you'll know, too, Santa, that some things do not change here. The spirit of Christmas. The good will among men at this season. The thought in every heart: "Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year To All".

HIGH SCHOOL HOME GAME WEDNESDAY

The Winchester High hoopers will open their Middlesex League schedule at home next Wednesday night, December 30, when they entertain Melrose High. With three preliminary games providing valuable and much-needed experience, the Indians are confident of successfully opening their quest for a fourth straight league championship against the Red Raiders.

With a new coach in Joe Austin, the coach who successfully rejuvenated Melrose High football last fall, the visitors are expected to be stronger on the court this winter. In fact, the entire league seems to possess the greatest all-around strength of recent years as indicated by the success of the league teams in their preliminary games. Lexington is the pre-season favorite to cap the title but Reading, Belmont, Stoneham, Wakefield, and Concord are all playing winning ball against strong opposition.

Judging from the first three games Coach Bartlett has decided upon a seven-man varsity but not on a starting five as he has used different combinations in the contests. Co-captains Joe Dilorio and Dave Pratt, Jim Wright, Buddy McKinley, Lou Farrell, Joe Bellino, and John Lynch make up the varsity team with Charlie Stevens, Pete Gove, and Bill Ross in reserve. The team has been making steady progress and hopes to break out with an improved scoring punch against Melrose, Wednesday night.

The preliminary game between the two second teams will get underway at 7:30 p. m.

HOME FOR CHRISTMAS VACATION

Waldo L. Hart, II, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Hart, 3 Feldside close, a student at Vermont Academy, Saxtons River, Vt., has returned to his home for the Christmas recess.

Waldo is a member of the Vermont Academy Glee Club which presented the traditional Christmas Candelight Service on the Sunday before the recess.

He also recently received a Junior Varsity letter in football at the annual fall sports banquet held at the school.

HOME FROM SOUTHERN ARIZONA

Home for the Holidays from the Southern Arizona School for Boys in Tucson comes Prescott Taylor, Jr., 20 Stowell road, Winchester.

"Pete," who is flying home this weekend December 19-20, is an honor student at the western prep school and secretary of the Kiwa Club, the boys' social and recreation center.

He will return to Tucson January 4.

WASHINGTON SCHOOL PAGEANT

A capacity audience attended the presentation of an all-school Christmas pageant at the George Washington School on the evening of December 16. "Christmas in Many Lands" was the theme selected for the performance in which all classes, with the exception of the kindergarten, participated. In all, 255 children helped to portray Christmas customs in our own land, England, Holland, Norway, Italy, and Germany.

The narrators for the various episodes included: Thomas Purdie, Ronalee Fairfield, Parker Gray, Patricia Tofuri, Janet Cussen, Paul Francis, Ann Abbott, Nanette Marshall, Andy Sjöholm, Sherwood Kelley, Gerald Bucharme, Judie Towle, James Bravacos, Suzanne Foster, Robert Korwath, and Carol Gilbert.

The program by episodes:

1. The Night Before Christmas in U. S. A. — Grade 1.
2. Sinterklaas and Black Pete in Holland — Grade 2.
3. The Yule Log in England — Grade 3.
4. The Cratchetts' Christmas Dinner — Grade 5.
5. The Legend of La Bafana — Grade 3-4 Combination.
6. The Norwegian Legend of The Little Spruce — dramatized by Grade 4.
7. The Origin of the Christmas Carol — "Silent Night" Grade 6.

A vested choir gave a musical background throughout the performance. Drama, pantomime, choric speaking, singing, and dancing were the media used in portraying the story of Christmas. All of the scenery was made by children in Grades 3 through 6.

HAD MAJOR ROLE IN EMERSON PRODUCTION

Miss Adele Jonah, sophomore at Emerson College, had the honor of being chosen with four others of her class to present the program for the Sophomore Convocation, given at the Emerson theatre, on Friday, December 11th. Miss Jonah gave her presentation a portion from the well known play, "One Sunday Afternoon" which was enthusiastically received by the audience.

She also played an active part in the show "Deadline '54" given that week by the staff of the college paper "The Berkeley Beacon", and on Friday night, December 18th, had an important role in the Sophomore production "Happy Birthday".

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hazen Jonah of Edgell road.

GRADUATED FROM AIR FORCE CANDIDATE SCHOOL

Raymond B. Tourtellot, husband of Emily H. Tourtellot of 21 Governor's avenue was graduated from Air Force Officer Candidate School at Lackland Air Base, San Antonio, Texas, on December 11 and commissioned a second lieutenant in the Air Force Reserve.

Tourtellot attended Tufts College in Medford, Massachusetts for 3½ years before he joined the Air Force in 1952. He was stationed at Lake Charles AFB, Louisiana before his appointment to OCS last June. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl T. Tourtellot also live in Winchester.

Approximately 237,000 children in 21 communities received gamma globulin inoculations against polio paralysis in 1953. This year, the March of Dimes hopes to provide enough funds to inoculate at least 2,000,000 with GG.

CHRISTMAS AT NOONAN SCHOOL CHRISTMAS ASSEMBLY

A group of animated Christmas cards made up the attractive program which the pupils of the Noonan School presented for the enjoyment of their parents and friends on the evening of December 17. All the grades participated in the program which was divided into two parts, the first portraying the gay and youthful side of Christmas, and the second expressing the more serious and religious aspect of the season. Original dances and script gave evidence of much hard work by the pupils.

The Program

"Greetings" — Mrs. Mead's Grade I "Santa's Helpers" — Mrs. Gundersen's Kindergarten

"Christmas Packages" — Miss McAuley's Kindergarten

"The Night Before Christmas" — Mrs. Hancock's Grade I

The kindergartners in Mrs. Carol Gundersen's celebrated Christmas by entertaining their mothers at a party on December 18. Included in the program were poems, rhythm dance numbers, games, and Christmas songs which the children had learned.

On December 21, Miss Mary McAuley's kindergartners shared their fun with their mothers at a similar party.

WINCHESTER K OF C NEWS

CHRISTMAS PARTY FOR KIDDIES HELD

On Sunday afternoon at 2:00 p. m. at Noonan School, Winchester Council No. 210 Knights of Columbus held their annual Christmas Party for children. The party was exceptionally fine and the kiddies enjoyed themselves to the hilt. It was certainly gratifying to the committee to see the youngsters so happy, and it can be truthfully said that the children behaved in a fine manner.

First on the agenda was movies with Tom Drapau in charge of this function. Shriill cries of delight rent the air during the showing of the Punch and Judy film followed by the cat and mouse cartoon entitled "South Pole or Bust".

A Night Before Christmas Santa film and a hilarious school room cartoon with Mary's lamb seeking admittance despite teacher's no. Upon entering the School Hall the kiddies were presented with Christmas cards to munch on during the films then Jim Cullen took over for carol singing and it must be said that only Jim could be heard in this department since he has the "voice". Every announcement of Jim's was heard and the program went smoothly. We doubt if anyone else could have been heard over the merriment of the children.

Norm Harrold accompanied on the piano and did a fine job. Soloists from among the kiddies were John McDonough and a duet by Marion Nolan and Patsy Abbott. Silent Night, Rudolph, Jingle Bells and all the reds were sung by the entire assembly. Even Santa Claus, favored with his rendition of the "First Noel". Ed Boucher arranged for Santa's coming. The final number was the appropriate "America". Then the children fortified with ice cream lined up orderly to receive a present from Santa and the party came to a close for another year. The committee follows:

Honorary Chairman, John Nowell, G. K.; Chairman John Dolan, Advocate; Refreshments, James Mawn, D. G. K. and Tom Grambow; Warden; Publicity Vin Erhard, Chancellor; Movies, Tom Drapau; Presents, Frank Nowell and John Lane; Song Director, Jim Cullen; General Committee, Charles Craven, Charles Haggerty, Chet Thibault, Al Pullo, Al Barnard, Harry Bennett, Bill Cantwell, John Erhard, Bart Conlon, Anthony Kennedy, Phil Savage, Leo Manoli, Dan O'Donnell, Sam Kinton, Charlie Doherty, Bill O'Leary, Jim Wharf, Sam Vangel, Ed Boucher, Fred Murphy, Paul Malloy.

WINCHESTER WINS

The Winchester High basketball team added their second straight triumph of the season by defeating Dedham High at Dedham last Friday night by a score of 50-27. The final score was not really indicative of the game itself as it was a hard fought contest until the middle of the third quarter before the Indians pulled away to a decisive victory. The Dedham zone defense bothered the locals as they were not working the ball well and were not shooting with their normal degree of accuracy.

Winchester opened the game as though they were going to make an easy contest of it, racing away to a 14-7 lead at the end of the first quarter. Dedham fought back in the second quarter to play the locals on even terms so that Winchester held the same seven-point margin, 25-18, at the half. The first three minutes of the third period saw Dedham close the gap to 27-24 but from that point the Indians took complete charge of the game as they outscored Dedham 25-3 over the last 13 minutes of play.

Jim Wright, Dave Pratt, and Joe Dilorio sparked the Winchester surge in the last part of the game to emerge as top scorers for the Indians. John Lynch and Dave Pratt led in the vital rebounding department for Winchester while Jim Wright played a strong floor game while pacing the scorers with 13 points. Coach Bartlett felt that while their shooting was a bit off, his charges played smoother ball and the charts showed that the Indians made 14 less errors than in their opener last week.

After a slow start the Winchester Seconds had an easy game in running up a 41-13 score over the Dedham Seconds in the preliminary game. Pete Gove was the only local to hit for double figures with 14 points while Bob Smith and Bert Kneeland looked good for Winchester.

The summary:

S. O. I. BOWLING LEAGUE

This eleventh week of bowling finds the top team flourishing again and cannot seem to get themselves co-ordinated.

Team Standings:
Bates	34-10
Holy Cross	28-16
Boston College	24-20
Notre Dame	21-23
St. Mary's	20-23
Yale	20-24
Alabama	18-26
California	18-26
Georgetown	17-27
Hi-Single:
Joe Kiga	152
Hi-Triple:
R. Bucci	376
Top five bowlers:
Richie Bucci	101.8
Moose Belino	99.9
J. Magano	99.2
R. Kiga, Jr.	98.9
E. Tofuri	98.7

It is wonderful to see that the enthusiasm and clamor is going strong among the young as well as the old. This week I would like to make a few comments about St. Mary's team. This team includes a great number of has been top bowlers whose age has really caught up to them. We have Nick Molea whose latest addition has taken its toll. The boy of the team Mr. Youth himself "Curly Locks" Chick, need I say more. Sir honorable Mr. Frontillo, he's not the power behind this team. "Firebug" Butsie Mistrretta who always has bells ringing in his ears. "Gas pump" Joe Tofuri, needs a little more weight to hold the ball. Eddie Figione should have no excuses at all.

Whispers and comments heard around the alley: The originator of the new fashion for men, four inches above the ankle, was set many years ago by our good friend Mingy, or hadn't you noticed how proud he is of his ankles. It's a good thing that "Wedding Bells" Bob is not loose more than Wednesday nights, he sure runs a pretty down. Does Vocci go to bed with his brown fedora? Is it true that the boy bowler "Curly Locks" Chick is low man on this team this week. A question this must be answered in "Snags O'Toole" does S. O. I. stand for Sons of Italy or Sons of Ireland.

An urge for poetry:

Chance

In the world came a man
Who in his country's need Became a wiry captain
Who was always in the lead

He loved a game of chance
In battle or in poker
And often did he prance
Specially when he won a porker

Vocci will be the Chef
When big and fat he will get
For the little devil he preside
He'll never be Vocci's pet.

What an uproar the toupee contest has started. Everyone's trying to get in on the act. His honor Mingy has been swamped for entry blanks. Believe it or not even "Creepie" Gene wanted a blank. After hours of eliminations his honor raised the amount of semi-finals to eight instead of six. The following are the lucky semi-finalists: Ben Gilotti, Ralph Tauro, M. D. Sarraza, John Bertolucci, Dom Provinzano, "Goidy Locks" Randy, "Curly Locks" Chick and Peter Provinzano. May the best man win.

Our Wednesday night must raffle was won by Phil Maraca.
May I extend to you at this time a very Merry Christmas and the best to you all.

FRESHMEN HOOPSTERS SHOW PROMISE

One of the largest turnouts of candidates for the Freshman basketball team has been cut down to a working squad of 13 by coaches Knowlton and Bartlett. Those surviving the cuts and making up the first team are Dave Bergquist, Ken Brown, John Chapin, Ed Fitzgerald, Jim Fitzgerald, John Hooper, Dennis Keane, Bill Mason, Bob Purington, Quentin Roberts, Ronald Roberts, John Russo, and Roger Symmes. Selected as managers for the team are special services, Christmas trees and decorations and the traditional feasts on Christmas and New Year's Day.

Practising daily in preparation for a rugged 12-game schedule, this year's group shows considerable promise. In addition to displaying considerable ability, they are one of the largest teams to represent the Freshmen in recent years. They were undefeated a year ago as a Junior High team and may very well post a similar enviable record this season. Coach Bartlett has gone on record as saying that there are more good players in this group than of any Freshman group in the past five years.

Although no starting five has been chosen as yet, the quintet seen most often working together consists of Roger Symmes and Dave Bergquist at forward, John Chapin at center, and the Roberts' twins, Quentin and Ronald, at the guard berths. This quintet packs good height and aggressiveness in the front court with speed and play-making ability in the back court. Big Jim Fitzgerald, Bill Mason, and "Doc" Russo are others who look particularly good and may well earn a starting berth for the opening game with the Woburn Freshmen on January 5. Already Coach Ted Bartlett has made these boys tabbed for future varsity greatness with only the necessary desire and hard work on the part of the boys needed to develop into another championship Winchester High quintet.

The 1954 polio vaccine trials will be the largest scientifically controlled tests in medical history.

THE EDITOR AND PUBLISHER OF THE STAR, WITH ALL THE MEMBERS OF THE STAFF, EXTEND TO OUR READERS, ADVERTISERS AND FRIENDS THE VERY BEST OF HOLIDAY GREETINGS.

It is good to see Winchester maintaining its prominence in the ranks of Blair Hawley No. 1 in New England tennis singles and doubles. Winchester had one of the first tennis courts to be laid out in the last of the Old Prince estate on Wedge Pond years ago and since that time has contributed its fair share to the game. Tennis as we know it now in Winchester is the product of Rev. William S. Packer, whose love for and devotion to the game resulted in the rather unusual facilities for tennis which the town enjoys. "Bill" Packer gave much to Winchester tennis, particularly to girls tennis here. His own daughter, Louise, "Sue" Cutter, "Syl" Hatch, Helen Carroll and Polly Kimball, to name only a few, were girls who made their mark in tennis in Massachusetts. Now Mr. Hawley is turning his attention to interesting the town's boys, among others, in tennis as a competitive sport, just as Little League baseball is awakening interest among younger boys in what has always been considered our national game. Tennis is not only a great sport, but a game capable of testing competitors to the limit. The Bill Packers and Blair Hawleys, to say nothing of the Dottie Hills, deserve the backing of all sports lovers in their efforts to sell our young people the game.

This could have been as sad a Christmas in five Winchester homes as it will be in the home of the Woburn young man who was killed Tuesday afternoon when his taxicab collided with a train on the Hill street crossing in the North End. Some of all of the five Winchester boys who were riding in the automobile that got out of control and struck three trees on Border road Tuesday night could easily have shared the taxi driver's fate. We are all happy that they did not and can join in hoping that other accidents involving our young people turn out no worse. The operation of automobiles, especially at night, is becoming more and more dangerous as traffic hazards grow with the greatly increased numbers of cars on the road. Parents of youngsters entrusted with automobiles will do well to continually emphasize their dangerous potential.

Members of the Mystic Glee Club made their annual Christmas time visit to the family at the Home for the Aged Wednesday evening, singing for the family and staff of the home. Refreshments were served by the staff and members of the Board and a social hour was enjoyed.

KNOWLEDGE AND WISDOM NOT ONE

Editor of the Star:
According to an A. P. dispatch, dated New York, December 16, a world famous scientist advised "a former employee of sensitive government installation," not to say whether he had been a communist, or not, cooperate with the investigating committee, or "any other committee of a similar nature, on the basis of the Fifth Amendment."

In the libraries of the brains of the men who have made this country great, the volumes on the shelves of knowledge have been counterbalanced by those on the shelves of wisdom, that have resulted from an early and life-long contact with a stern and practical world. Memory reveals the long-forgotten events recorded there, and thus knowledge, tempered by wisdom, makes an individual of poise.

"Knowledge and wisdom, far from being one, have oftentimes no connection." Men surfeited with knowledge may be mentally unbalanced from lack of wisdom and are sometimes called odd or peculiar.

In these turbulent times, when alien enemies, seeking to destroy our government, have easily infiltrated the land from coast to coast because of the inept, complacent Truman administration: "It is for us to be dedicated to that cause for which our forefathers gave the last full measure of devotion" liberty and freedom. No patriot, no American has reason to be ashamed of his past. He will not refuse to answer the questions of the loyalty committee that is faithfully trying to detect and eliminate the enemies who are striving to destroy the American concept of a righteous government.

"Who shall reconstruct the fabric of demolished government?" if the communists succeed? "Who shall frame together the skillful architecture which unites national sovereignty with State rights, individual security, and public prosperity?" Let us resolve that "the brave men, living and dead, who struggled to give us liberty shall not have died in vain."

Thus, in closing, the writer has quoted from Daniel Webster and Abraham Lincoln.

Daniel C. Dennett, M. D.

THANK YOU, BLAIR!

Editor of the Star:
At this Christmas season, I feel that it is particularly appropriate to recognize, among our many blessings, the grand work of the Winchester Star and the importance of its service to the community. Not only have you strengthened our community ties by a broad yet intimate coverage of the news, but your timely support has been the keynote of success for many worthwhile civic drives and charitable ventures.

It is hard to put in words, for example, the wonderful part you played in furthering our New England Junior Tennis Development program in 1953. You deserve our appreciation and thanks, first of all, for sponsoring a drive for racquets which were needed to help worthy youngsters get a real start. You were directly instrumental in our collecting over eighty racquets right here in Winchester! Through timely reporting, you heralded the formation of the New England Junior Tennis League, and helped Winchester form the first team to be entered in the League. From such a beginning has grown an organization which will open the 1954 season with over sixty teams playing in all sections of New England, and which will serve over 1,200 youngsters eager to learn and eager to play.

I hope that you will include these thoughts in your Christmas edition, as at least a partial recognition of our gratitude for all you have done. I am sure that your readers will join me in wishing to the staff of the Winchester Star a merry Christmas and a happy and prosperous New Year.

HAPPY NEW YEAR TO OUR MEN IN THE ARMED FORCES

Editor of the Star:
The Military Manpower Committee wishes to extend a safe and happy New Year to all our local young men in uniform. The writer wishes to thank them for their Christmas cards and letters, it was so nice to hear from them and to see them as they came home on leave.

I know you fellows will realize it is impossible for me to reach you all, except through The Star, when I tell you some 1,200 men have entered the Armed Forces after consultation with me — they come from all over our State and from many other states. Then there are all the Career men, inasmuch as they do not get The Star, I must reach them individually which is some job.

I wish the people of Winchester might see all our local men in uniform in one group. What a fine example of Young America they are. They are doing so well and everybody would be just as proud of them as I am. Overseas they will be great examples of ambassadors of goodwill and the American way of life.

The Medford Recruiting Station joins us in wishing you success in your various fields and the very best for 1954.
Cordially yours,
Mrs. K. B. Toye, Chairman
Military Manpower Committee

WRECKAGE OF CAR IN WHICH WINCHESTER BOYS WERE INJURED WINCHESTER YOUTHS INJURED IN AUTO CRASH

Five Winchester youths were injured, three quite badly, when the automobile in which they were riding on South Border road skidded and hit three trees near the camp of the anti aircraft unit in the Fells. Police say Harry Thomas of 9 Manchester road was driving the car and had as passengers Leo Garvey of 4 Hillside avenue, his brother, John, Richard Garrett of 14 Mt. Pleasant street, and Peter McLaughlin of 33 Maxwell road.

Leo Garvey and Garrett were thrown from the car into underbrush along the side of the road, the others being pinned in the machine. Metropolitan District Police extricated the boys from the car, prying off the doors to reach them.

Leo Garvey and Garrett were taken to the Malden Hospital. Garvey sustained a broken right arm and possible fracture of the right leg. His right shoe was ripped from his foot in the accident and he also sustained cuts about the hands and abrasions. Garrett sustained a broken leg and 36 stitches were necessary to close cuts in his head.

Dear Patron:
Your attention is called to a policy established by the School Committee on daily school sessions:

1. Inasmuch as the only reason for the Single Session Day is to protect the pupil from traffic hazard caused by snow accumulation, the present schedule of school hours will remain until severe weather sets in.

2. When in the judgment of the Superintendent such hazard does exist, he will give written notice to the parents that a Single Session schedule will be put into effect. Such a schedule will be:

8:30 a. m. — Schools Open
2:00 p. m. — Schools Close
A lunch hour of thirty minutes will be allowed all pupils.

It is suggested that for safety reasons, the pupils remain at school during the lunch period. However, any pupil who can go home and return within the thirty minute time limit will be permitted to do so.

Parents shall write the school as to their decision on whether they wish their child to remain, or go home. No Change In This Decision Shall Be Made After This Policy Goes Into Effect. A child cannot remain one day and go home another.

The Single Session schedule will continue until terminated by vote of the School Committee.

During the present schedule, the Elementary Schools will, as usual, be closed at noon in the event of extreme weather. No School Signals for afternoon session for elementary schools will be at 12:05 p. m. rather than 12:40 p. m.

Your sincere co-operation will be appreciated.

A NEW YEAR'S THOUGHT

The New Year is as good a time as any — perhaps the best — to begin again this business of life; to try to make amends; to give promises; to hope and to work for the better things in life. We mean things like a good and wholesome community. It can be done, you know. Three hundred Red Feather agencies in Metropolitan Boston show you the way daily.

How do they do it? They take one unhappy or deprived person and add a simple pleasure, sometimes free, like sunshine and fresh air; sometimes costly, like precious penicillin or priceless talent.

Red Feather agencies then mix in a little time, a lot of hard work, as much money as can be spared, and all the love and kindness at their disposal. Result: one New Year's cocktail that beats them all because it means a new year of happiness and hope for someone.

You help, you know, every time you think about your neighbor and care about him, every time you dig down deep to give a little something to Red Feather. Making a community good and wholesome is not easy nor is it cheap. But, because it is done and is being done daily, you can laugh at the skeptics who scoff and shrug away their responsibilities to one another.

Edgar Guest said it nicely: There are thousands to tell you it cannot be done.

There are thousands to prophesy failure; There are thousands to point out to you one by one, The dangers that wait to assail you.

But just buckle in with a bit of grin, Just take off your coat and go to it; Just start in to sing as you tackle the thing.

That "cannot be done," and you'll do it. This is the belief held by our Red Feather agencies which are striving constantly to make this the healthiest, safest, and happiest community in all the world.

A word to Wives

It is easier to balance your budget when you use checks to pay household bills. Your check-book stubs show at a glance how much you've spent and how . . . how much you have left; and your cancelled checks are automatic receipts for payments. Come in and open your checking account this week.

The practical value of daily obedience to the teachings of Christ Jesus will be emphasized at Christian Science services Sunday.
Among the selections to be read from the Bible, in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Christian Science," will be the following:
"But continue thou in the things which thou hast learned, and hast been assured, knowing of whom thou hast learned them: And that from a child thou hast known the holy scriptures, which are able to make thee wise unto salvation, through faith which is in Christ Jesus" (II Timothy 3:14-15).

The following correlative citation will be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy:
"The substance of all devotion is the reflection and demonstration of divine Love, healing sickness and destroying sin. Our Master said: 'If ye love me, keep my commandments'" (241:19).

The Golden Text is from Isaiah:
"Break forth into joy, sing, and together, ye waste places of Jerusalem: for the Lord hath comforted his people, he hath redeemed Jerusalem. The Lord hath made bare his holy arm in the eyes of all the nations" (52:9, 10).

Curfew Still Rings
As a tradition, many English towns and villages still sound the curfew bell each evening at 8 or 9 o'clock. Even in London the custom is observed on the old bell at Lincoln Inn, Chester, Lichfield and Totnes not only toll the curfew hour but add the day of the month.

The Puritans brought the curfew to the American colonies. Eventually the custom spread south and west and took the form of municipal ordinances prohibiting young people from appearing on the streets after certain hours.

Break forth into joy, sing, and together, ye waste places of Jerusalem: for the Lord hath comforted his people, he hath redeemed Jerusalem. The Lord hath made bare his holy arm in the eyes of all the nations" (52:9, 10).

CURFEW LAWS FOR WAYWARD YOUTH GO BACK TO MEDIEVAL PRACTICE

Curfew is still a live issue. As problems of juvenile delinquency mount, civic authorities from coast to coast are dusting off long unenforced regulations and considering new ones.

A Washington, D. C., commissioner has suggested a law that would keep children under 12 off the capital streets at night. Under and old curfew ordinance, a Los Angeles judge fined the parents of eight boys who had ambushed and attacked a small group of adults.

Curfew restrictions go back at least to medieval times, says the National Geographic Society. The word itself is from the French "couvre-feu" (cover fire), an expression introduced into England with the Norman invasion. But the practice was already old when William the Conqueror came.

Anglo-Saxon towns in the reign of Alfred the Great rang a nightly bell, warning inhabitants to close their doors and cover their fires.

Curfew was a life-and-death matter in the Middle Ages, when most houses were built of wood, and a live ember could start a conflagration that would destroy a city.

It also served as a protection against the footpads and robbers who swarmed the highways and the dark, unpolluted streets. The tolling of the bell, or in some cases the blowing of a horn, at 7 or 8 o'clock, announced that all honest men should be at home, and that anyone wandering abroad was liable to severe punishment.

Through the centuries, curfew has been a potent curb upon plotters against the government. The Nazi occupation forces of World War II used it widely, stepping up the penalties as defeat neared and local acts of sabotage increased.

The famous 19th-century poem, "Curfew Must Not Ring Tonight," told a romantic story set in England under Cromwell's iron rule. Its gentle heroine saved her Royalist lover, doomed to die at curfew time, by clinging to the tongue of the bell, thus muffling it.

NATHANIEL-TUFTS ROADS AREA CHRISTMAS BLOCK PARTY

A good crowd numbering several hundred attended the third annual Christmas block party conducted by the residents of the Tufts and Nathaniel roads area, sometimes referred to as "Freeman's Acres," last Sunday, December 20.

As usual, the party started with carol singing, with Joe Rafferty of 32 Tufts road once again the master of ceremonies.

Not only were all the folks of the neighborhood and their guests out to await the arrival of Santa, every dog in the area was there, running about frantically, no doubt frustrated by the picket fence surrounding the Christmas tree.

And a pretty tree it was, sitting on the McIntosh lot at the junction of the two streets, its little lights beaming merrily in the dusk of the waning day.

At four thirty the crowd had begun to assemble. Several of the children started the proceedings by singing carols and gradually the grownups chimed in. Of course, all this was preliminary to the main event, the arrival of Santa Claus.

There was much conjecture on the part of both grownups and children as to the means of transportation Santa would employ. His original plan had been to arrive by horse-drawn sleigh, but of course the absence of snow made that impossible. No one doubted for a moment, however, that Santa would find a way.

Santa had the time of his arrival at five o'clock. As the hour approached the same feeling of anticipation that is experienced by young and old alike at the prospect of seeing the jovial gentleman from the North, was felt anew. Finally when it seemed that Santa just never would get there, at the top of Tufts road two red linker lights pierced the darkness and down the street rushed an automobile, with sirens screaming. Fire Chief Callahan had once again come to the rescue with transportation for good old Santa.

As the familiar red suit of the jolly old gentleman could be discerned, a shout went up that made the welkins ring. It is certain that Santa never received a warmer welcome.

The children watched, round-eyed with wonder as Santa stepped down from the fire chief's car. On his back he carried the biggest sack imaginable. With a cheery wave of his hand he approached his throne at the foot of the Christmas tree, greeting to all, and he immediately proceeded with the dispensing of his gifts for the children, aided by Helpers Lloyd McIntosh and Joe Rafferty.

There was the usual varied reactions from the children when confronted by Santa Claus. Some appeared elated, others a bit frightened, and still others assumed an air of bravado. However, a short time later there was not one who was not impressed by beaming, round St. Nick, who had grown to amazing proportions since his last visit a year ago, Ernest Howard, a friend of the Willetts, played the role very well indeed.

As usual it was the grownups who displayed the greatest interest in the proceedings as a group. Although some of the children were greatly excited by the presence of Santa Claus, a few of the other children, especially the very small ones, let their interests wander.

One little girl, held by a harness, like molasses tried to spread out in all directions at once. A few of the others refused to look at all, hiding their faces or turning their heads away each time the parent holding one would turn him around to see Santa.

However, there is no doubt of the success of the party. All during the preceding week the children had been at fever pitch waiting for Santa Claus to appear in their area. And it is certain their waiting was amply rewarded!

Among the children at the party were:

There were several other children at the party whose names are not listed. It was not possible to catch the names of all the children as they were called out when the gifts were being presented.

Among the better-known residents of the town could be seen Dr. Charles A. Rooney, a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Richard O'Brien of 28 Tufts road, taking pictures of the goings-on with a flash camera, and Michael Foley, the auctioneer, visiting his daughter, "Bibs", and her husband, Frank Willette, of 24 Nathaniel road.

The party as usual was a group effort, in which virtually the whole neighborhood participated. No one but felt amply compensated for his efforts. As one visitor from another part of Winchester stated, the town could well do with a few more such neighborhood affairs.

During the singing of the carols by the girls' glee club, a beautiful tableau appeared at the front of the stage. In the group were Betty Rowlingson, Richard Rimbach, Ann Cunningham, Don Folkers, Jon McCarthy and Judy Snelling.

"Christmas Spirit" tells the story of how a city girl, somewhat resentful over being transplanted to a small town, discovers the real meaning of the Christmas spirit. It was directed by Gail Stratton, Marilyn Dyer, and Nancy Corey. Members of the stage crew included Ted Mansfield, Dann Lewis, and Gardner Smith; make-up was handled by Sandra Chapman, Jane Adams, and Carol Brown; stage assistants were Sue Donnell, Barbara Eaton, and Seth Weston; and Isabel Money was in charge of properties.

The co-directors of the program were Miss Eleanor Anifantis and Mr. Thomas Morse.

TB CASES DISCOVERED

Five hundred and sixty-two active and inactive cases of tuberculosis and 226 cases suspicious of tuberculosis were discovered during the past five years when a total of 149,014 chest X-rays were taken through the efforts of the Middlesex Health Association, the county Christmas Seal Agency. These findings were disclosed by Mr. David Moxon, Executive Director of the Association. Many of the persons found to have active TB were hospitalized and have completed or are now undergoing treatment. Pointed out in the statement was the fact that the number of active cases within the area would have multiplied several times if these cases had not been found and treated. Many of these chest X-rays were sponsored cooperatively with the Massachusetts Department of Public Health and local boards of health while other chest X-rays were financed entirely through Christmas Seals funds.

The chest X-rays were taken through comprehensive surveys in communities and industries, through periodic screening clinics and through special programs for admissions to general hospitals. Mr. Moxon also indicated that the Association's casefinding program during the coming year will be directed to reach older age groups since greater numbers of tuberculosis cases are being found here. To reach these groups greater emphasis will be placed on industrial X-ray programs, general hospital admission X-ray programs and permanent type X-ray facilities.

"This represents a moderately expanded program and a more expansive one. We sincerely hope that everyone will contribute generously to the Christmas Seal Sale which is now in progress so that the casefinding programs and other phases of the Association's program can be accelerated to meet the current needs in the fight against TB," Mr. Moxon concluded.

S. O. I. CHRISTMAS PARTY

Winchester Lodge, Sons of Italy, held its Christmas party Sunday afternoon in the Lincoln School Hall, playing host to more than 350 happy youngsters.

Appropriate motion pictures opened the program, after which Frank "Hokie" Procopio, who acted as master of ceremonies, introduced the lodge president, Dominic Procopio, who thanked the committee in charge of arrangements for their efforts in providing such a fine party. President Procopio then introduced the committee chairman George Voci, who expressed the committee's thanks to the school committee, to Superintendent of Schools Harry Gilson and Janitor Peter Benson for their cooperation in making the party at the school possible.

Chairman Voci then introduced the members of his committee, Dominic Procopio, Frank Procopio, William Fiore, Carmine Frongillo, Richard Penta, Peter Lomero and Anthony Vespucci, all of whom took a bow to enthusiastic applause.

Chairman Voci got a big laugh and more applause when he thanked Mrs. William Fiore and his own wife for wrapping more than 350 Christmas packages for the party, adding the committee's thanks to the mothers who had hurried to get their youngsters in time to get their youngsters to the party.

The master of ceremonies then distributed books of Christmas carols, donated by John Mercurio and everyone joined in singing Christmas carols with Mrs. Mercurio at the piano. As an especial feature two carols by themselves, getting enthusiastic applause. All present thoroughly enjoyed the Christmas hymn played as accordion solo by nine-year-old Peter Lomero, Jr.

At this point in the program Santa Claus suddenly appeared at the party, having arrived unnoticed by way of a rear entrance. When the delighted children got over their surprise at Kris Kringle's arrival, the jolly Santa distributed candy and gifts to all the youngsters, after which ice cream and cookies were served.

J. H. WINN, INC. CHRISTMAS PARTY

J. H. Winn Inc., held its annual Christmas Party at Winchester Town Hall Saturday evening, December 19th. At 6:00 p. m. the employees and their guests sat down to a delicious roast ham dinner.

Following the dinner Rev. Arthur L. Winn, former partner and son of the founder, Mr. J. H. Winn, gave an interesting history of the founding and growth of the company from 1868 to the present time. Mr. Winn had pictures taken at the turn of the century showing the original watch hand factory in the Highlands, built at the edge of the now abandoned mill pond which was then used for water power to power the shop machinery.

Mr. William Parsons, a guest of President E. B. Dade, gave a few observations of the value of an industry such as Winns to the community as a whole, not only as far as the payment of taxes directly to the town but also in the employment of many of the towns citizens, some having worked continuously for the firm for over forty years.

On the occasion of the eighty-fifth anniversary of the founding of the firm honored Miss M. A. G. Haggerty, who has worked continuously for the firm for forty-five years, and Mr. George Morse, who has worked continuously for the firm for forty years, the total years worked by these two equaling the number of years the firm has been operating.

Mr. E. B. Dade, President of J. H. Winn Inc., reported on several items of interest to the employees, including the Health and Accident Program, Profit Sharing Program, individual savings of employees through Bonds and Christmas Club and reviewed company operations in a general way.

This portion of the program was followed by a minstrel show put on by the employees. Between fifty and sixty employees participated in the show under the leadership of Leonard Clark. The songs, tambourine overture, specialty acts, the appearance of Miss J. H. Winn of 1953, and jokes were enjoyed by all.

Following the show the hall was cleared for dancing. Duke Herlund's "Friendly Music" until midnight.

TEACHERS CLUB PRESENTED CHRISTMAS PARTY

The Wyman School kindergarten was an attractive setting for the annual Christmas party presented by the Winchester Teachers Club for members of the school department on the afternoon of December 14. A happy combination of delicious refreshments, beautiful carols, and the opportunity of exchanging the season's greetings made the occasion most pleasant.

Assisting at the refreshment table as pourers were Mrs. Wade L. Grindle, Mrs. Raymond J. Dickman, Mrs. William A. Kugler, and Mrs. Philip J. Woodward. An informal musical group composed of Leonor Rich, Fred Felmet, Ted Janner and Mrs. Janner did its best to encourage the singing of carols and added much to the pleasure of everyone present.

The committee which arranged the party was composed of the following:

Miss Margaret Millican, chairman

Mrs. Mary Butler

Miss Mary Cullen

Miss Ann Dolan

Mrs. Janet Greeno

Miss Mabel Lowry

Mrs. Aline Poirier

The National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis used $6,000,000 for polio prevention in 1953, primarily in mass field inoculations of Gamma Globulin. In 1954, the Foundation will spend $26,500,000 for polio prevention because of the increased expense of extensive field trials with a new vaccine.

Den 11 Pack 3 Notes

Winchester Club Scouts of Pack 3 participated in one of the most impressive Yuletide programs in the season Wednesday night, December 16.

In the first of what is expected to be an annual affair, the group met at the Depot and marched by torch in a candle-lit parade to the Common.

Lights on the big Christmas tree were put out as parents and cubs circled around and sang carols by candlelight under the direction of Robert Carlson.

To the tune of "The Twelve Days of Christmas" they then pranced to Chichester Hall in the First Congregational Church for their Christmas party.

Each Cub brought along two gifts. Santa Claus — Jim Harrington — distributed one of these gifts to each of the Cubs and the other went to the Winchester Community Relief Committee. Refreshments then were served.

Tom Walsh, the Cubmaster, presented achievement awards to John Sheridan, Garry Callahan and Jim Holdam.

The colorful program, which will long be remembered by the Cubs, their parents and those who attended was handled by a committee of five. They were: Mrs. Charles Newton, Mrs. James Dolben, H. Rudolph Gieger, Mrs. Byron Graves and Richard Bateman.

TENNIS HONORS TO HAWLEY

AWARDED NEW CHASE TROPHY FOR CONTRIBUTION TO THE GAME

E. Blair Hawley of Ledgewood road was signally honored at the recent 25th annual meeting of the New England Lawn Tennis Association when he became the first to be awarded the Chase Memorial Trophy as "the male player and sportsman who, by his character and sportsmanship made an outstanding contribution to tennis in our section."

The award, which is to be annual, has been set up by Mr. and Mrs. Harrison F. Rowbotham of Waban in memory of Mrs. Rowbotham's father, Gardner W. Chase.

Mrs. Hawley's influence on New England tennis has been strong during the past two years and especially so during the time he has headed the New England Junior Tennis Development Committee.

Largely through his efforts the committee has instituted a greatly expanded program of junior tennis activity and has brought the game to many more boys and girls in all parts of New England.

The formation of a New England Junior Tennis League this past season, with Winchester this past team to enroll in this district, extended interest to such an extent that it is expected more than 30 Junior Tennis League teams will be playing competitive tennis in all sections of New England next season.

For much of this progress Mrs. Hawley's enthusiasm and drive have been responsible. As a player, too, he has been prominent on the New England front. New England champion last season, he topped the singles rankings in both singles and doubles, a notable achievement when you consider the time and effort he gave to junior tennis.

He was also named second vice president of the New England Lawn Tennis Association.

Happy as Mr. Hawley undoubtedly is over his personal honors, he is very probably most pleased over the fact that several Winchester names appear in the 1954 N.E. rankings. In the juniors, or "under girls' singles rankings," "Pure" Morton is ranked ninth, while in the juniors doubles, Winchester's Sylvia Crowell and Jeanne McKenzie are ranked sixth.

In girls' singles (15 and under) Penny Nichols is ranked third and Jeanne McKenzie, fourth. Lee Abbott also is ranked eleventh in this bracket. Lee Abbott and Jeanne McKenzie are ranked second in girls' doubles.

No boys are ranked among the top junior boys or younger boys' listings, but several local youngsters added materially to their tennis experience and skill last season so that hopes of crashing the top ten another year are being held out.

Among the town's older players, Mrs. Arthur Hills is ranked ninth in women's singles, and sixth with Mrs. Arley Richards in women's doubles.

Arthur Hills teamed with Robert Joslin to be ranked seventh in men's doubles, and was also elected a delegate-at-large for the New England Lawn Tennis Association.

WINCHESTER HOMEFRONTERS

Through the conscientious efforts of their executive chairman, Mrs. William Cusack, Mrs. Frank Carroll, radio message chairman, and her committee: Mrs. Marion Kelly and Mrs. John Chaffee, eighty-five Christmas messages were sent to Winchester Servicemen who are overseas from their families. Also December birthday greetings were sent by radio.

We are grateful to Bob Richmond of Winchester and Ralph Barry, short-wave artists, who volunteered their services.

METHODIST FAMILY'S MESSAGE

Rather than send the usual Christmas and New Year's greeting in a Christmas card form, Rev. John Snooks, Jr., and his family, of the Crawford Memorial Methodist Church have made it a custom of sending some Christmas challenge, along with the personal greetings, in the form of a mimeographed letter. The written meditation this year reveals the trend of various groups celebrating Christmas. Following is a copy which we have before us.

Personal Greetings to you from "Us Five" Snooks

A Joyous Season to You

While Phyllis, Jacqueline, Jane, Wesley, and I are preparing ourselves for the Christmas festivities, we do want to include in them our sincere wishes for a Christmas season filled with meaning, appreciation, and blessings.

Other than just to wish you the customary "Merry Christmas and Happy New Year" we would also desire to offer a challenge that might stir every mind and heart toward genuine Christmas thought and activity.

Allow us to say that there are three types of Christmas celebrations.

The first group will substitute the latter Christmas, which denotes the algebraic New Year. The day will be a holiday, supplanting the real holy day and Christ will not enter the picture. Christmas becomes Christmas bores and the season's notable achievement will be to pass without a "thank you, Lord."

The second group will come into the "folksy Christmas" class. This is the Christmas of too many people and its spoils with a small "c." There is good fellowship and they respond to it. There are many family gatherings, exchanging of gifts, and much fun. It is all good but we can have such a Christmas and miss its much deeper meaning.

The third group will give reverential regard to the occasion and commemorate the birth of the Christ child with a sense of thankfulness to God for the greatest gift ever given to mankind.

Christ, that gratitude will be expressed by prayer, allegiance, and devotion.

He who would get the best out of Christmas must have spiritual communion with God.

God grant that we may find, or make cause to find ourselves in the third group. Let us not only commemorate our Saviour's birth, but also serve Him as the King of our lives.

Then we can keep Christmas.

May the Christmas season add some new worthwhile joy to your life and may the New Year challenge us all to the best life possible in the service of our King whose power can dispel anxiety, turmoil, and sin and bring peace to men of good will.

Most Sincerely — In Him "Us Five Snooks"

Wesley Jane Jacqueline Phyllis John, Jr.

Note: Suggested reading — Luke I and II

While it is good to witness the semblance of rapture in old and young alike, it is good, wise and beneficial to those who follow the deeper implications of this commemoration.

WINTER SWIMMING

The Winchester Chapter of the American Red Cross is happy to announce that arrangements have been made for a winter swimming schedule through the cooperation of the Curtis Hall Pool of Boston.

The program will be primarily concerned with competitive swimming and will cover instruction in free style, back stroke, conventional breast stroke and the butterfly, together with practice on starts and turns. It is hoped that some diving instruction can also be arranged. This program must necessarily be limited to boys and girls who have passed their intermediate Red Cross swimming tests.

The following schedule has been set up and will be effective after January 1st. It will continue through to June 15th.

Girls' Swimming — Thursdays, 4:30-6:00 p. m.

Boys' Swimming — Saturdays, 2:30-4:00 p. m.

Boys and girls who may be interested in taking part, and who are eligible, are asked to register their names at once with the Red Cross office in the town hall.

Transportation appears to be a slight problem at the present time, and any interested parents who may be available with automobiles on the afternoons designated would be of great help.

HIT-RUN CAR PICKED UP

Sunday morning shortly after 12:30 Robert Kleber of 26 Oxford street notified the police that about twenty minutes previous his automobile, parked in front of 340 Washington street, had been struck by a car, the driver of which failed to stop after the accident.

Robert Aspey of 22 Prince avenue followed the hit-run car through the Center over Church street until the driver stopped near Bacon street. At that time Aspey said he was threatened by the young man, who then got into the car and drove off toward Arlington.

A description of the car, which bore a Texas registration, was put in the police teletype and at 7 o'clock Sunday evening Officer William T. Haggerty spotted and stopped the wanted car on Main street near Filene's.

The car was being driven at that time by the owner, Donald L. Carlson of 117 High street, Malden, attached to the Air Force and stationed at Otis Field, Texas.

He told Officer Haggerty he had loaned the car to two friends, giving their names as William J. Hamilton, 18, of 57 Central street, Woburn, and Robert H. Matthews, 19, of 17 Nashua street, Woburn. Matthews is in the Navy based at Annapolis, Md.

WRECKED WOBURN TAXI AFTER FATAL CRASH WITH TRAIN

FATAL ACCIDENT

WOBURN TAXI HIT BY IN-BOUND TRAIN

Donald E. Mathews, 22, of 17 Nashua street, Woburn, a veteran of two Navy enlistments, was believed to have been instantly killed shortly after 4:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon when the Plymouth taxi he was driving for the Doherty Taxi Cab Company of Woburn, was in collision with an in-bound train at the spot where the tracks of the Woburn loop of the Boston & Maine Railroad cross Hill street.

Hill street is a private way, and a dirt road not in good condition for travel. The railroad crossing is not protected by gates or barriers of any kind, but is posted at both sides with "no trespassing" signs.

According to the police account of the accident young Mathews was driving the taxicab along Hill street toward Main street when the collision occurred. The left front of the engine, No. 3649, struck the right side of the automobile about in the middle, the force of the impact wedging the car against the front of the locomotive. The engine swept along the wreckage of the cab for a distance of about 1,000 feet, finally stopping at the rear of Mottolo's store on upper Main street.

The engineer of the train, Joseph Perry of 124 Rice street, Lowell, told the police he did not see the car approaching the track, his place being on the right side of the cab. The fireman, John H. Kempton of 55 St. James street, Dracut, who was on the left side of the cab, saw the car coming down Hill street from the direction of White street as the train was headed south toward Winchester. He told the police he believed the operator was hurled from the car after the collision, somewhere between Hill street and the Swanton street bridge.

Officers John Murray and John Hogan were the first police sent to the scene after the accident was reported with Officer Mario Buzotta and Firefighter Norman Doucette following immediately in the police ambulance. Other police assisting were Officers William T. Haggerty, Andrew Crawford, Erwin Nurnberger and William Callahan.

After dispatching police to the scene of the accident Chief Charles J. Harold notified the Fire Department, Engine II and Ladder I going to assist with Captain Ray Hanson in charge of a detail, comprising Firefighters Walter Carroll, Daniel Styles and Peter Galuffo. Chief James E. Callahan of the Fire Department also was on the scene. The firefighters had a booster line in readiness if the gasoline from the wrecked taxi became ignited.

Meanwhile the police and firefighters commenced a search along the tracks for the missing operator of the taxi. He was found by Officers Buzotta, Callahan and Nurnberger and Firefighter Doucette lying on the north bound tracks about 75 feet south of the Swanton street bridge. He was terribly injured and was pronounced dead upon his arrival at the Winchester

Hospital by Dr. Charles E. Rooney. Medical examiner John Wilcox of Woburn viewed the body of the young man, who was unmarried and not long out of the armed forces where he had risked death on several occasions. His parents were notified by the Woburn Police, relaying a message from local Headquarters.

While the victim of the accident was being rushed to the hospital another search was instituted for a possible passenger in the taxi at the time of the collision. It was learned, however, that the young man had delivered a fare in the Hill street neighborhood and was on his way back to Woburn alone.

Firefighters attempted to remove the car from the front of the locomotive, but so tightly was it wedged against the engine that the cow-catcher had to be cut away with the Fire Department's acetylene cutting torch, brought to the scene of the accident by Firefighter Michael Connolly. After getting the demolished car off the tracks it was towed into the Beggs & Cobb yard to be removed later.

Several persons living in the neighborhood told the police they saw the taxi driving toward the crossing and tried to warn the operator of the approaching train. They were unable however to attract his attention in time to avoid the tragedy.

GEOGRAPHIC ODDITIES AND BRIEFS

In lumber-scarce Afghanistan, only the ceilings in most houses are made of wood, says the National Geographic Society. Under flat mud roofs, the wooden ceilings do not collapse during rainy seasons and occasional mild earthquakes.

The first kilts worn in Scotland were made from uneven pieces of tartan, two yards wide and four to six yards long. Pleats were folded in by hand, after which the wearer would lie down across the cloth and belt it about his waist.

When wild African elephants drink they take in immense quantities of water because they frequently travel as much as 50 miles before finding another water hole.

Carnotite, the yellow pigment that Indians of the Colorado plateau once used as war paint, has become one of the nation's most important minerals, the National Geographic Society reports. Both uranium and vanadium are extracted from carnotite.
